Then ^qcame up the ^lZiphites to Saul to ^rGibeah, saying, Doth not David hide himself with us in strong holds in the wood, in ^sthe hill of Hachilah, which is ^ton the south of ^lJeshimon? Now therefore, O king, come down according to all the desire of thy soul to come down; and our part shall be to ^tdeliver him into the king's hand. And Saul said, ^uBlessed be ye of the LORD; for ^wye have compassion on me. Go, I pray you, prepare yet, and know and see his place where his ^vhaunt is, and who hath seen him there: for it is told me ^xthat he dealeth very subtilly. See therefore, and take knowledge of all the lurking places where he hideth himself, and come ye again to me ^xwith the certainty, and I will go with you: and it shall come to pass, if he be in the land, that I will search him out throughout all the thousands of Judah. And they arose, and went to ^lZiph before Saul: but David and his men were in the wilderness of ^yMaon, in the plain ^zon ^zthe south of Jeshimon. Saul also and his men went to seek him. And they told David: wherefore he came down ^linto a rock, and abode in the wilderness of Maon. And when Saul heard that, he pursued after David in the wilderness of Maon. And Saul went on this side of the mountain, and David and his men on that side of the mountain: and David made ^ahaste to get away for fear of Saul; for Saul and his men compassed David and his men round about to take them. But there came a messenger unto Saul, saying,

Haste thee, and come; ^bfor the Philistines have [†]invaded the land. Where-²⁸ fore Saul returned from pursuing after David, and went against the Philistines: therefore they called that place [†]Selamhammahlekoth.

And David went up from thence, and dwelt in strong holds at ^cEn-gedi. And it came to pass, ^awhen Saul was returned from [†]following the Philistines, that it was told him, saying, Behold, David ^{is} in the wilderness of En-gedi. Then Saul took three thousand ^bchosen men out of all Israel, and went to seek David and his men upon the rocks of the wild goats. And he came to the ^csheepcotes by the way, where ^{was} a cave; and Saul went in to ^dcover his feet: and ^eDavid and his men remained in the sides of the cave. And the men ^fof David said unto him, [†]Behold the day of which the LORD said unto thee, Behold, I will deliver thine enemy into thine hand, that thou mayest do to him as it shall seem good unto thee. Then David arose, and cut off the [†]skirt of [†]Saul's robe privily. And it came to pass afterward, that [§]David's heart smote him, because he had cut off Saul's skirt. And he said unto his men, ^hThe LORD forbid that I should do this thing unto my master, ⁱthe LORD's anointed, to stretch forth mine hand against him, seeing he ^{is} the anointed of the LORD. So David [†]stayed his servants with ^{these} words, and ^jsuffered them not to rise against Saul. But Saul rose up out of the cave, and went on ^{his} way. David also rose afterward, and went out of the cave, and cried after Saul, saying, My lord the king. And when Saul looked behind him, David stooped ^{with} ^{his} face to the earth, and bowed himself.

And David said to Saul, ^kWherefore hearest thou men's words, saying, Behold, David seeketh thy hurt? Behold, this day thine eyes have seen how that the LORD had delivered thee to day into mine hand in the cave: and ^lsome bade me kill thee: but ^mmine eye spared thee; and I said, I will not put forth mine hand against my lord; for he ^{is} the LORD's anointed. Moreover, my father, see, yea see the skirt of thy robe in my hand: for in that I cut off the skirt of thy robe, and killed thee not, know thou and see that ^{there is} neither evil nor transgression in mine hand, and

I have not sinned against thee; yet thou huntest my soul to take it. ⁿThe LORD judge between me and thee, and the LORD avenge me of thee: but mine hand shall not be upon thee. As saith the proverb of the ancients, Wickedness proceedeth from the wicked: but mine hand shall not be upon thee. After whom is the king of Israel come out? after whom dost thou pursue? ^oafter a dead dog, after ^{pa} a flea. ^qThe LORD therefore be judge, and judge between me and thee, and ^rsee, and ^splead my cause, and [†]deliver me out of thine hand.

And it came to pass, when David had made an end of speaking these words unto Saul, that Saul said, ^tIs this thy voice, my son David? And Saul lift up his voice, and wept. ^uAnd he said to David, Thou ^{art} ^xmore righteous than I: for thou hast rewarded me good, whereas I have rewarded thee evil. And thou hast shewed ^{this} day how that thou hast dealt well with me: forasmuch as when the LORD had [†]delivered me into thine hand, thou killedst me not. For if a man find his enemy, will he let him go well away? wherefore the LORD reward thee good for that thou hast done unto me this day. And now behold, ^yI know well that thou shalt surely be king, and ^{that} the kingdom of Israel shall be established in thine hand. ^zSwear now therefore unto me by the LORD, ^athat thou wilt not cut off my seed after me, and that thou wilt not destroy my name out of my father's house. And David sware unto Saul. And Saul went home; but David and his men gat them up unto ^bthe hold.

And ^aSamuel died; and all the Israelites were gathered together, and ^blamented him, and buried him ^cin his house at ^dRamah. And David arose, and went down to ^ethe wilderness of Paran. And ^{there was} a man in ^fMaon, whose ^gpossessions ^{were} in ^hCarmel; and the man ^{was} very great, and he had three thousand sheep, and a thousand goats: and he was shearing his sheep in Carmel. Now the name of the man ^{was} Nabal; and the name of his wife Abigail: and ^{she was} a woman of good understanding, and of a beautiful countenance: but the man ^{was} churlish and evil ⁱⁿ his doings; and he ^{was} ^hof the house of Caleb. David heard in the wilderness that Nabal did ¹hear his sheep. And David ²sent out ten young men, and David ³said unto the young men, Get you up to Carmel, and go to Nabal, and ⁴greet him in my name: and thus shall ye say ⁵to him that liveth in prosperity, ⁶*Peace be both to thee, and peace be to thine house, and peace be unto all that thou hast.* And now I have heard that thou ⁷hast shearers: now thy shepherds which were with us, we ⁸hurt them not, neither was there ought ⁹missing unto them, all the while they were in Carmel. Ask thy young men, and they will shew ¹⁰thee. Wherefore let the young men ¹¹find favour in thine eyes: for we come in ¹²a good day: give, I pray thee, ¹³whatsoever cometh to thine hand unto thy servants, and to thy son David. And when David's young men came, ¹⁴they spake to Nabal according to all those words in the name of David, and ¹⁵ceased. And Nabal answered David's ¹⁶servants, and said, ¹⁷Who is David? and who is the son of Jesse? there be many servants now a days ¹⁸that break away every man from his master. ¹⁹Shall I ²⁰then take my bread, and my water, and my ²¹flesh that I have killed for my shearers, and give ²²it unto men, whom I know not whence they ²³be? So David's young men turned their way, and went again, and came and told him all those sayings. And David said unto ²⁴his men, Gird you on every man his sword. And they girded on every man his sword: and David also girded on his sword: and there went up after David about ²⁵four hundred men; and ²⁶two hundred ²⁷abode by the stuff.

But one of the young men told Abigail, Nabal's wife, saying, Behold, David sent messengers out of the wilderness to ¹salute our master; and he ²trailed on them. But the men ³were very good unto us, and we were not ⁴hurt, neither missed we any thing, as long as we were conversant with them, when we were in the fields: they were ⁵a wall unto us both by night and day, all the while we were with them keeping the sheep. Now therefore know and consider what thou wilt do; for ⁶evil is determined against our master, and against all his household: for he ⁷is such ⁸a son of Belial, that ⁹a man cannot speak to him. Then Abigail made ¹⁰haste, and ¹¹took two hundred loaves, and two bottles of wine, and five sheep ready dressed, and five measures of parched ¹corn, and an hundred ²clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of ³figs, and laid ⁴them on asses. And she said unto her servants, ⁵Go on before me; behold, I come after you. But she told not her husband Nabal. And it was ⁶so, as she rode on the ass, that she came down by the covert of the hill, and behold, David and his men came down against her; and she met ⁷them. Now David had said, Surely in vain have I kept all that this ⁸fellow hath in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that ⁹pertained unto him: and he hath ¹⁰requited me evil for good. ¹¹So and more also do God unto the enemies of David, if I leave of all that ¹²pertain to him by the morning light ¹³any ¹⁴that ¹⁵pisseth against the wall. And when Abigail saw David, she hasted, and ¹⁶lighted off the ass, and ¹⁷fell before David on her face, and bowed ¹⁸herself to the ground, and fell at his feet, and said, ¹⁹Upon me, my lord, ²⁰upon me let this iniquity ²¹be: and let thine handmaid, I pray thee, speak in thine ²²audience, and hear the words of thine ²³handmaid. Let not my lord, I pray thee, ²⁴regard this ²⁵man of Belial, even Nabal: for as his name ²⁶is, so ²⁷is he: ²⁸Nabal is his name, and folly ²⁹is with him: but I thine handmaid saw not the young men of my lord, whom thou didst ³⁰send. Now therefore, my lord, ³¹as the LORD liveth, and ³²as thy soul liveth, seeing the LORD hath ³³withholden thee from coming to ³⁴shed blood, and ³⁵from ³⁶avenging thyself with thine own hand, now ³⁷let thine enemies, and they that seek evil to my lord, be as Nabal. ³⁸And now this ³⁹blessing which thine handmaid hath brought unto my lord, let it even be given unto the young men that ⁴⁰follow my lord. I pray thee, forgive the trespass of thine handmaid: for the LORD will certainly make my lord ⁴¹a sure house; because my lord ⁴²fighteth the battles of the LORD, and evil hath not been found in thee ⁴³all thy days. ⁴⁴Yet a man is risen to pursue thee, and to seek thy soul: but the soul of my lord shall be bound in the bundle of life with the LORD thy God; and the souls of thine enemies, them shall he ⁴⁵sling out ⁴⁶as out of the middle of a sling. ⁴⁷And it shall come to pass, when the LORD shall have done to my lord according to all the good that he hath spoken concerning thee, and shall have appointed thee ruler over Israel; that this shall be [†]no grief unto thee, nor offence of heart unto my lord, either that thou hast shed blood causeless, or that my lord hath avenged himself: but when the LORD shall have dealt well with my lord, then remember thine handmaid. And David said to Abigail, [¶]Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, which sent thee this day to meet me: and blessed be thy advice, and blessed be thou, which hast [°]kept me this day from coming to shed blood, and from avenging myself with mine own hand. For in very deed, [¶]as the LORD God of Israel liveth, which hath [¶]kept me back from hurting thee, except thou hadst hastened and come to meet me, surely there [†]had not been left unto Nabal by the morning light any that pisseth against the wall. So David received of her hand that which she had brought him, and said unto her, [°]Go up in peace to thine house; see, I have hearkened to thy voice, and have [†]accepted thy person.

And Abigail came to Nabal; and behold, [¶]he held a feast in his house, like the feast of a king; and [¶]Nabal's heart was merry within him, for he was very drunken: wherefore she told him nothing, [¶]less or more, until the morning light. But it came to pass in the morning, when the wine was gone out of Nabal, and his wife had told him these things, that his heart died within him, and he became as a stone. And it came to pass about ten days after, that the LORD smote Nabal, that he died. And when David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, [°]Blessed be the LORD, that hath [¶]pleaded the cause of my reproach from the hand of Nabal, and hath [¶]kept his servant from evil: for the LORD hath [¶]returned the wickedness of Nabal upon his own head. And David sent and communed with Abigail, to take her to him to wife. And when the servants of David were come to Abigail to Carmel, they spake unto her, saying, David sent us unto thee, to take thee to him to wife. And she arose, and bowed herself on her face to the earth, and said, Behold, let [¶]thine handmaid be a servant to wash the feet of the servants of my lord. And Abigail hastened, and rose, and rode upon an ass, with five damsels of hers that went [†]after her;

and she went after the messengers of David, and became his wife. David also took Ahinoam [°]of Jezreel; and [¶]they were also both of them his wives. But Saul had given [¶]Michal his daughter, David's wife, to [¶]Phalti the son of Laish, which was of [¶]Gallim.

And the [¶]Ziphites came unto Saul to Gibeah, saying, Doth not David hide himself in the hill of Hachilah, which is before Jeshimon? Then Saul arose, and went down to [¶]the wilderness of Ziph, having three thousand chosen men of Israel with him, to seek David in the wilderness of Ziph. And Saul pitched [¶]in the hill of Hachilah, which is before Jeshimon, by the way. But David abode in the wilderness, and he saw that Saul came after him into the wilderness.

David therefore sent out spies, and understood that Saul was come [¶]in very deed. And David arose, and came to the place where Saul had pitched: and David beheld the place where Saul lay, and [¶]Abner the son of Ner, the captain of his host: and Saul lay in the [¶]trench, and the people pitched round about him.

Then answered David and said to Ahimelech [¶]the Hittite, and to [¶]Abishai [¶]the son of Zeruiah, brother to Joab, saying, Who will [¶]go down with me to Saul to the camp? And Abishai said, I will go down with thee. So David and Abishai came to the people by night: and behold, Saul lay sleeping within the trench, and his spear stuck in the ground [¶]at his bolster: but Abner and the people lay round about him. Then said Abishai to David, [¶]God hath [¶]delivered thine enemy into thine hand this day: now therefore let me smite him, I pray thee, with the spear even to the earth at once, and I will not smite him the second time. And David said to Abishai, Destroy him not: for who can stretch forth his hand against [¶]the LORD's anointed, and be guiltless?

David said furthermore, [¶]As the LORD liveth, [¶]the LORD shall smite him; or [¶]his day shall come to die; or he shall descend [¶]into battle, and perish. The LORD forbid that I should stretch forth mine hand against [¶]the LORD's anointed: but, I pray thee, take thou now the spear that is at his bolster, and the cruse of water, and let us go. And David said, It is my voice, my lord, O king. And he said, ^t Wherefore doth my lord ¹⁸ thus pursue after his servant? for what have I done? or what evil is in mine hand? Now therefore, I pray thee, let ¹⁹ my lord the king hear the words of his servant. If the LORD have ^u stirred thee up against me, let him ^t accept an offering: but if they be the children of men, cursed be they before the LORD; for ^w they have driven me out this day from ^t abiding in ^x the inheritance of the LORD, saying, Go, serve other gods. Now ²⁰ therefore, let not my blood fall to the earth before the face of the LORD: for the king of Israel is come out to seek ^y a flea, as when one doth hunt a ^z partridge in the mountains. Then said ²¹ Saul, ^a I have sinned: return, my son David: for I will no more do thee harm, because my soul ^b was precious in thine eyes this day: behold, ^c I have played the fool, and have erred exceedingly. And David answered and said, ²² Behold, the king's spear; and let one of the young men come over and fetch it. ^d So Ps. 7. 8. ^d The LORD render to every man his righteousness and his faithfulness: for the LORD delivered thee into my hand to day, but I would not stretch forth mine hand against the LORD's anointed. And behold, as thy life was much set by this day in mine eyes, so let my life be much set by in the eyes of the LORD, and let him deliver me out of all 25 tribulation. Then Saul said to David, ^e Blessed be thou, my son David: thou shalt both do great things, and also shalt still ^f prevail. So David went on his way, and Saul returned to his place.

And David said in his heart, I shall now ¹ perish one day by the hand of Saul: there is nothing better for me than that I should speedily escape into the land of the Philistines; and Saul shall despair of me, to seek me any more in any coast of Israel: so shall I escape ² out of his hand. And David arose, and he passed over with ^a the six hundred men that were with him ^b unto Achish, the son of Maach, king of ³ Gath. And David dwelt with Achish at Gath, he and his men, every man with his household, even David ^d with his two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the Carmelitess, Nabal's wife. ⁴ And it was told Saul that David was fled to Gath: and he sought no more ⁵ again for him. And David said unto Achish, If ^e I have now found grace in thine eyes, let them give me a place in some town in the country, that I may dwell there: for why should thy servant ⁶ dwell in ^f the royal city with thee? Then Achish gave him ^g Ziklag that day: wherefore Ziklag pertaineth unto the kings of ⁷ Judah unto this day. And ^t the time that David dwelt in the country of the Philistines was ¹ a full year and four months.

⁸ And David and ^b his men went up, and invaded ⁱ the Geshurites, and the ^j Gezrites, and the ^k Amalekites: for those nations were of old the inhabitants of the land ^k as thou goest to Shur, even unto ⁹ the land of Egypt. And David smote the land, and left neither man nor woman alive, and took away the sheep, and the oxen, and the asses, and ¹ the camels, and the apparel, and returned, ¹⁰ and came to Achish. And Achish said, ¹ Whither have ye made a road to day? And David said, Against the south of Judah, and against the south of ^m the Jerahmeelites, and against the south of ¹¹ the Kenites. And David ^e saved neither man nor woman alive, to bring tidings to Gath, saying, Lest they should tell on us, saying, So did David, and so will be his manner all the while he dwelleth in the ¹² country of the Philistines. And Achish believed David, saying, He hath made his people Israel ^t utterly to abhor him; therefore he shall be my servant for ever.

And ^a it came to pass in those days, that the Philistines gathered their armies together for warfare, to fight with Israel. And Achish said unto David, Know thou assuredly, that thou shalt go out with me to battle, thou and thy men. And David said to Achish, Surely thou shalt know what thy servant can do. And Achish said to David, Therefore will I make thee keeper of mine head for ever.

^b ch. 25. 1. Now ^bSamuel was dead, and all Israel had lamented him, and buried him in ^cRamah, even in his own city. And Saul had put away ^dthose that had familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of the land. And the Philistines gathered themselves together, and came and pitched in ^eShunem: and Saul gathered all Israel together, and they pitched in ^fGilboa. And when Saul saw the host of the Philistines, he was afraid, and his heart greatly trembled. And when Saul inquired of the LORD, ^gthe LORD answered him not, neither by ^hdreams, nor by ⁱUrim, nor by prophets. Then said Saul unto his servants, Seek me a woman ^jthat hath a familiar spirit, that I may go to her, and inquire of her. And his servants said to him, Behold, there is a woman ^jthat hath a familiar spirit at ^kEn-dor. And Saul ^ldisguised himself, and put on other raiment, and he went, and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night: and he said, I pray thee, ^mdivine unto me by the familiar spirit, and bring me him up, whom I shall name unto thee. And the woman said unto him, Behold, thou knowest what Saul hath done, how he hath ⁿcut off those that have familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of the land: wherefore then layest thou a snare for my life, to cause me to die? And Saul sware to her by the LORD, saying, ^oAs the LORD liveth, there shall no ^ppunishment happen to thee for this thing. Then said the woman, Whom shall I bring up unto thee? And he said, Bring me up Samuel. And when the woman saw Samuel, she cried with a loud voice: and the woman spake to Saul, saying, Why hast thou deceived me? for thou art Saul. And the king said unto her, Be not afraid: for what sawest thou? And the woman said unto Saul, I saw ^qgods ascending out of the earth. And he said unto her, ^rWhat form is he of? And she said, An old man cometh up; and he is covered with ^amantle. And Saul perceived that it was Samuel, and he stooped with his face to the ground, and bowed himself.

¹⁵ And Samuel said to Saul, Why hast thou disquieted me, to bring me up? And Saul answered, I am sore distressed; for the Philistines make war against me, and ^sGod is departed from me, and ^tanswereth me no more, neither ^uby prophets, nor by dreams: therefore I have called thee, that thou mayest make known unto me what I shall do. Then said Samuel, ^vWherefore then dost thou ask of me, seeing the LORD is departed from thee, and is become thine enemy? ¹⁷ And the LORD hath done ^wto him, ^xas he spake by ^yme: for ^zthe LORD hath rent the kingdom out of thine hand, and given it to thy neighbour, even to ¹⁸David: ^{aa}because thou obeyedst not the voice of the LORD, nor executedst his fierce wrath upon Amalek, therefore hath the LORD done this thing unto ¹⁹thee this day. Moreover the LORD will also deliver Israel with thee into the hand of the Philistines: and to morrow shalt thou and ^{ab}thy sons be with me: the LORD also shall deliver the host of Israel into the hand of the Philistines.

²⁰ Then Saul ^{ac}fell straightway all along on the earth, and was sore afraid, because of the words of Samuel: and there was no strength in him; for he had eaten no bread all the day, nor all the night. ²¹ And the woman came unto Saul, and saw that he was sore troubled, and said unto him, Behold, thine handmaid hath obeyed thy voice, and ^{ad}I have put my life in my hand, and have hearkened unto thy words which thou spakest unto me. Now therefore, I pray thee, hearken thou also unto the voice of thine handmaid, and let me set a morsel of bread before thee; and eat, that thou mayest have strength, when thou goest ²³on thy way. But he refused, and said, I will not eat. But his servants, together with the woman, compelled him; and he hearkened unto their voice. So he arose from the earth, and sat upon ²⁴*the* bed. And the woman had ^{ae}a fat calf in the house; and she hasted, and killed it, and took ^{af}flour, and kneaded it, and did bake unleavened bread thereof: ²⁵and she brought it before Saul, and before his servants; and they did eat. the Israelites pitched by ^a a fountain which is in ^d Jezreel. And ^e the lords ² of the Philistines passed on by hundreds, and by thousands: but David and his men passed on in the rereward ^f with Achish. Then said the princes of the ³ Philistines, What do these Hebrews here? And Achish said unto the princes of the Philistines, Is not this David, the servant of Saul the king of Israel, which hath been with me ^g these days, or these years, and ^h I have found no fault in him since he ⁱ fell unto me unto this day? And the princes of the Philistines were ⁴ wroth with him; and the princes of the Philistines said unto him, Make this fellow return, that he may go again to his place, which ^j thou hast appointed him, and let him not go down with us to battle, lest ^k in the battle he be an adversary to us: for wherewith should he reconcile himself unto his master? should it not be with the heads of these men? Is not this David, of whom they sang ⁵ one to another in dances, saying, ^l Saul slew his thousands, and David his ten thousands? Then Achish called David, ⁶ and said unto him, Surely, ^m as the LORD liveth, thou hast been upright, and ⁿ thy going out and thy coming in with me in the host is good in my sight: for ^o I have not found evil in thee since the day of thy coming unto me unto this day: nevertheless ^p the lords favour thee not. Wherefore now return, and ^q go ⁷ in peace, that thou ^r displease not ^e the lords of the Philistines. And David said ⁸ unto Achish, But what have I done? and what hast thou found in thy servant so long as I have been ^s with thee unto this day, that I may not go fight against the enemies of my lord the king? And ⁹ Achish answered and said to David, I know that thou art good in my sight, ^t as an angel of God: notwithstanding ^u the princes of the Philistines have said, He shall not go up with us to the battle. Wherefore now rise up early in the morning ^v with thy master's servants that are come with thee: and as soon as ye be up early in the morning, and have light, depart. So David and his men ¹¹ rose up early to depart in the morning, to return into the land of the Philistines. And the Philistines went up to ^w Jezreel.

XXX.

And it came to pass, when David and his men were come to ^a Ziklag on the third day, that the ^b Amalekites had invaded the south, and Ziklag, and smit-

² ten Ziklag, and burnt it with fire; and had taken the women captives, that were therein: they slew not any, either great or small, but carried them away, ³ and went on their way. So David and his men came to the city, and behold, it ⁴ was burnt with fire; and their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, were taken captives. Then David and the people that were with him lift up their voice and wept, until they had no more ⁵ power to weep. And David's ^c two wives were taken captives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite. And David was greatly distressed; ^d for the people spake of stoning him, because the soul of all the people was ^e grieved, every man for his sons and for his daughters: but ^f David encouraged himself in the LORD his God. ⁷ And David said to ^g Abiathar the priest, Ahimelech's son, I pray thee, bring me hither the ephod. And Abiathar brought ⁸ thither the ephod to David. And ^h David inquired at the LORD, saying, Shall I pursue after this ⁱ troop? shall I overtake them? And he answered him, Pursue: for thou shalt surely overtake them, ⁹ and without fail recover all. So David went, he and ^j the six hundred men that were with him, and came to the ^k brook Besor, where those that were left behind ¹⁰ stayed. But David pursued, he and four hundred men: for two hundred abode behind, which were so faint that they could not go over the ^l brook Besor. ¹¹ And they found an Egyptian in the field, and brought him to David, and gave him bread, and he did eat; and ¹² they made him drink water; and they gave him a piece of ^m a cake of figs, and two clusters of raisins: and when he had eaten, ⁿ his spirit came again to him: for he had eaten no bread, nor drunk ^o any water, three days and three nights. And David said unto him, To whom belongest thou? and whence art thou? And he said, I am a young man of Egypt, servant to an Amalekite; and my master left me, because three days ago I fell ¹⁴ sick. We made an invasion upon the south of ^p the Cherethites, and upon ^q the coast which belongeth to Judah, and upon the south of ^r Caleb; and we burnt ¹⁵ Ziklag with fire. master, and I will bring thee down to this company. And when he had brought ¹⁶ him down, behold they were spread abroad upon all the earth, eating and drinking, and dancing, because of all the great spoil that they had taken out of the land of the Philistines, and out of the land of Judah. And David smote them ¹⁷ from the twilight even unto the evening of ¹⁸ the next day: and there escaped not a man of them, save four hundred young men, which rode upon ¹⁹ camels, and fled. And David ²⁰ recovered all that the Amalekites had carried away: and David rescued his two wives. And there was ²¹ nothing lacking to them, neither small nor great, neither sons nor daughters, neither spoil, nor any thing that they had taken to them: David recovered all. And David took all the flocks and the herds, which they drave before those other cattle, and said, ²² This is David's spoil.

And David came to the ²³ two hundred men, which were so faint that they could not follow David, whom they had made also to abide at the ²⁴ brook Besor: and they went forth to meet David, and to meet the people that were with him: and when David came near to the people, he ²⁵ saluted them. Then answered all the wicked men and ²⁶ men of Belial, of ²⁷ those that went with David, and said, Because they went not with us, we will not give them ought of the spoil that we have recovered, save to every man his wife and his children, that they may lead them away, and depart. Then said ²⁸ David, Ye shall not do so, my brethren, with that which the LORD hath given us, who hath preserved us, and delivered the company that came against us into our hand. For who will hearken unto you in ²⁹ this matter? but ³⁰ as his part is that goeth down to the battle, so shall his part be ³¹ that tarrieth by the stuff: they shall part alike. And it was so from that day ³² forward, that he made it a statute and an ordinance for Israel unto this day.

And when David came to Ziklag, he ³³ sent of the spoil unto the elders of Judah, even to his friends, saying, Behold ³⁴ I present for you of the spoil of the enemies of the LORD; to them which were ³⁵ in ³⁶ Beth-el, and to them which were in ³⁷ south Ramoth, and to them which were in ³⁸ Jattir, and to them which were in ³⁹ Aroer, and to them which were in ⁴⁰ Siphmoth, and to them which were in ⁴¹ Esh-temoa, and to them which were in Ra-⁴²

chal, and to them which were in the cities of ⁴³ the Jerahmeelites, and to them which were in the cities of ⁴⁴ the Kenites, and to them which were in ⁴⁵ Hormah, and to them which were in Chor-fashan, and to them which were in Athach, and to them which were in ⁴⁶ Hebron, and to all the places where David himself and his men were wont to haunt.

Now ⁴⁷ the Philistines fought against Israel: and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell down ⁴⁸ slain in mount ⁴⁹ Gilboa. And the Philistines followed hard upon Saul and upon his sons; and the Philistines slew ⁵⁰ Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Malchishua, Saul's sons. And ⁵¹ the battle went sore against Saul, and the ⁵² archers ⁵³ hit him; and he ⁵⁴ was sore wounded of the archers. ⁵⁵ Then said Saul unto his armourbearer, Draw thy sword, and thrust me through therewith; lest ⁵⁶ these uncircumcised come and thrust me through, and ⁵⁷ abuse me. But his armourbearer would not; ⁵⁸ for he was sore afraid: therefore Saul took a ⁵⁹ sword, and ⁶⁰ fell upon it. And when his armourbearer saw that Saul was dead, he fell likewise upon his sword, and died ⁶¹ with him. So Saul died, and his three sons, and his armourbearer, and all ⁶² his men, that same day together.

And when the men of Israel that ⁶³ were on the other side of ⁶⁴ the valley, and they that were on the other side Jordan, saw that the men of Israel fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook the cities, and fled; and the Philistines came and dwelt in them. And it came to pass on the morrow, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his three sons ⁶⁵ fallen in mount Gilboa. And ⁶⁶ they cut off his head, and stripped off his armour, and sent into the land of the Philistines round about, to ⁶⁷ publish it in the house of their idols, and among the ⁶⁸ people. And they put ⁶⁹ his armour in the house of ⁷⁰ Ashtaroth: and ⁷¹ they fastened his body to the wall of ⁷² Beth-shan. And when the inhabitants of ⁷³ Jabesh-gilead heard ⁷⁴ of that which the Philistines had done to Saul, ⁷⁵ all the valiant men arose, and went all night, and took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons from the wall of Beth-shan, and came to Jabesh, and ⁷⁶ burnt them there. And they took their bones, and ⁷⁷ buried them under ⁷⁸ a tree at Jabesh, and ⁷⁹ fasted ⁸⁰ seven days.

THE SECOND BOOK OF SAMUEL,

OTHERWISE CALLED,

THE SECOND BOOK OF THE KINGS.

I. NOW it came to pass after the death of Saul, when David was returned from ^athe slaughter of the Amalekites, and David had abode two days in Ziklag; it came even to pass on the third day, that behold, ^ba man came out of the camp from Saul ^cwith his clothes rent, and ^dearth upon his head: and so it was, when he came to David, that he fell to the earth, and did obeisance. And David said unto him, ^eFrom whence comest thou? And he said unto him, Out of the camp of Israel am I escaped. And David said unto him, ^fHow went the matter? I pray thee, tell me. And he answered, That the people are fled from the battle, and many of the people also are fallen and dead; and Saul and Jonathan his son are dead also. And David said unto the young man that told him, How knowest thou that Saul and Jonathan his son be dead? And the young man that told him said, As I happened by chance upon mount Gilboa, behold, ^gSaul leaned upon his spear; and lo, the chariots and horsemen followed hard after him. him: and they mourned, and wept, and fasted until even, for Saul, and for Jonathan his son, and for the people of the LORD, and for the house of Israel; because they were fallen by the sword. And David said unto the young man that told him, Whence art thou? And he answered, I am the son of a stranger, an Amalekite. And David said unto him, How wast thou not afraid to stretch forth thine hand to destroy the LORD's anointed? And David called one of the young men, and said, Go near, and fall upon him. And he smote him that he died. And David said unto him, Thy blood be upon thy head; for thy mouth hath testified against thee, saying, I have slain the LORD's anointed. And David lamented with this lamentation over Saul and over Jonathan his son: (also he bade them teach the children of Judah the use of the bow: behold, it is written in the book of Jasher.) The beauty of Israel is slain upon thy high places: How are the mighty fallen! Tell it not in Gath, Publish it not in the streets of Askelon; Lest the daughters of the Philistines rejoice, Lest the daughters of the uncircumcised triumph. Ye mountains of Gilboa, let there be no dew, Neither let there be rain upon you, nor fields of offerings: For there the shield of the mighty is vilely cast away, The shield of Saul, as though he had not been anointed with oil. Joab also and Abishai pursued ²⁴ after Abner: and the sun went down when they were come to the hill of Ammah, that lieth before Giah by the way of the wilderness of Gibeon. And ²⁵ the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together after Abner, and became one troop, and stood on the top of a hill. Then Abner called to Joab, and ²⁶ said, Shall the sword devour for ever? knowest thou not that it will be bitterness in the latter end? how long shall it be then, ere thou bid the people return from following their brethren? And Joab said, As God liveth, unless ²⁷ 'thou hadst spoken, surely then 'in the morning the people had 'gone up every one from following his brother. So ²⁸ Joab blew a trumpet, and all the people stood still, and pursued after Israel no more, neither fought they any more. And Abner and his men walked ²⁹ all that night through the plain, and passed over Jordan, and went through all 'Bi-³⁰ thron, and they came to 'Mahanaim. And Joab returned from following Ab-³¹ ner: and when he had gathered all the people together, there lacked of David's servants nineteen men and Asahel. But the servants of David had smitten of Benjamin, and of Abner's men, so that ³² three hundred and threescore men died. And they took up Asahel, and buried ³³ him in the sepulchre of his father, which was in Beth-lehem. And ³⁴ Joab and his men went all night, and they came to Hebron at break of day.

III.

Now there was long war between the house of Saul and the house of David: but David waxed stronger and stronger, and the house of Saul waxed weaker and weaker. And ² unto David were sons born in Hebron: and his firstborn was Amnon, ³ of Ahinoam the Jezreelitess; and his second, ⁴ Chileab, of Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite; and the third, Absalom the son of Maacah the daughter of Talmai king ⁵ of Geshur; and the fourth, ⁶ Adonijah the son of Haggith; and the fifth, Shephatiah the son of Abital; and the sixth, ⁷ Ithream, by Eglah David's wife. These were born to David in Hebron.

And it came to pass, while there was ⁸ war between the house of Saul and the house of David, that Abner made him-⁹ self strong for the house of Saul. And Saul had a concubine, whose name was ¹⁰ Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah: and Ish-bosheth said to Abner, Wherefore hast thou ¹¹ 'gone in unto my father's concubine? Then was Abner very wroth for the words of Ish-bosheth, and said, Am ¹² I as a dog's head, which against Judah do shew kindness this day unto the house of Saul thy father, to his brethren, and to his friends, and have not delivered thee into the hand of David, that thou chargest me to day with a fault con-¹³ cerning this woman? ¹⁴ So do God to Abner, and more also, except, ¹⁵ 'as the LORD hath sworn to David, even so I ¹⁶ do to him; to translate the kingdom from the house of Saul, and to set up the throne of David over Israel and over Judah, ¹⁷ 'from Dan even to Beer-sheba. And he could not answer Ab-¹⁸ ner a word again, because he feared him.

¹⁹ And Abner sent messengers to David on his behalf, saying, Whose is the land? saying also, Make thy league with me, and behold, my hand shall be with thee, ²⁰ to bring about all Israel unto thee. And he said, Well; I will make a league with thee: but one thing I require of thee, ²¹ 'that is, 'Thou shalt not see my face, except thou first bring ²² 'Michal Saul's daughter, when thou comest to see my ²³ face. And David sent messengers to Ish-bosheth Saul's son, saying, Deliver ²⁴ me my wife Michal, which I espoused to me ²⁵ 'for an hundred foreskins of the Philistines. And Ish-bosheth sent, and took her from her husband, even from ²⁶ 'Phaltiel the son of Laish. And her husband went with her ²⁷ 'along weeping behind her to 'Bahurim. Then said Abner unto him, Go, return. And he ²⁸ returned. And Abner had communication with the elders of Israel, saying, Ye sought for David ²⁹ 'in times past to be king over you: now then do it: ³⁰ 'for the LORD hath spoken of David, saying, By the hand of my servant David I will save my people Israel out of the hand of the Philistines, and out of the hand ³¹ of all their enemies. And Abner also spake in the ears of Benjamin: and Abner went also to speak in the ears of David in Hebron all that seemed good to Israel, and that seemed good to the ³² whole house of Benjamin. So Abner came to David to Hebron, and twenty men with him. And David made Abner and the men that were with him a feast. And Abner said unto David, ¹ I will arise and go, and will gather all Israel unto my lord the king, ² that they may make a league with thee, and that thou mayest ³ reign over all that thine heart desireth. And David sent Abner away; and he went in peace.

And behold, the servants of David ²² and Joab came from pursuing a troop, and brought in a great spoil with them: but Abner was not with David in Hebron; for he had sent him away, and he was gone in peace. When Joab and all the host that was with him were come, they told Joab, saying, Abner the son of Ner came to the king, and he hath sent him away, and he is gone in peace. Then Joab came to the king, ²⁴ and said, What hast thou done? behold, Abner came unto thee; why is it that thou hast ²⁵ sent him away, and he is quite gone? Thou knowest Abner the son of Ner, that he came to deceive thee, and to know ²⁶ thy going out and thy coming in, and to know all that thou doest. And when Joab was come out from David, he sent messengers after Abner, which brought him again from the well of Sirah: but David knew ²⁷ it not. And when Abner was returned to Hebron, Joab ²⁸ took him aside in the gate to speak with him ²⁹ quietly, and smote him there ³⁰ under the fifth rib, that he died, for the blood of Asahel his brother.

And afterward when David heard ²⁸ it, he said, I and my kingdom are guiltless before the LORD for ever from the ²⁹ blood of Abner the son of Ner: ³⁰ let it rest on the head of Joab, and on all his father's house; and let there not ³¹ fail from the house of Joab one ³² that hath an issue, or ³³ that is a leper, or that leaneth on ³⁴ a staff, or that falleth on the sword, or that lacketh bread. So Joab and Abishai his brother slew Abner, because he had slain their brother ³⁵ Asahel at Gibeon in the battle.

And David said to Joab, and to all ³⁶ the people that were with him, ³⁷ Rent your clothes, and ³⁸ gird you with sackcloth, and mourn before Abner. And king David himself followed the ³⁹ bier. And they buried Abner in Hebron: and the king ⁴⁰ lift up his voice, and wept at the grave of Abner; and all the people wept. And the king ⁴¹ lamented over Abner, and said,

Died Abner as a ⁴² fool dieth?

Thy hands were not bound,
Nor thy feet put into fetters:
As a man falleth before ⁴³ wicked men,
So fellest thou.

And all the people wept again over him. And when all the people came to cause David to eat meat while it was yet day, David sware, saying, ⁴⁴ So do God to me, and more also, if I taste bread, or ought else, ⁴⁵ till the sun be down. And all the people took notice of it, and it ⁴⁶ pleased them: as whatsoever the king did, ⁴⁷ pleased all the people.

For all the people and all Israel understood that day that it was not of the king to slay Abner the son of Ner.

And the king said unto his servants,

Know ye not that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Israel?

And I am this day ⁴⁸ weak, though anointed king; and these men ⁴⁹ the sons of

Zeruiah ⁵⁰ be too hard for me: ⁵¹ the LORD shall reward the doer of evil according to his wickedness.

And when Saul's son heard that Abner was dead in Hebron, ⁵² his hands were feeble, and all the Israelites were troubled. And Saul's son had two men that were captains of bands: the name of the one ⁵³ was Baanah, and the name of the ⁵⁴ other Rechab, the sons of Rim-mon a Beerothite, of the children of Benjamin: (for ⁵⁵ Beeroth also was reckoned to Benjamin: and the Beerothites

⁵⁶ fled to ⁵⁷ Gittaim, and were sojourners

there until this day.) And ⁵⁸ Jonathan,

Saul's son, had a son that was lame of his feet, and was five years old when the tidings came of Saul and Jonathan out of Jezreel, and his nurse took him up, and fled: and it came to pass, as she made haste to flee, that he fell, and became lame. And his name was ⁵⁹ Mephilosheth. And the sons of Rimmon

the Beerothite, Rechab and Baanah, went, and came about the heat of the day to the house of Ish-bosheth, who lay on a bed at noon. And they came thither into the midst of the house, as though they would have fetched wheat;

and they smote him ⁶⁰ under the fifth rib: and Rechab and Baanah his brother escaped. For when they came into the house, he lay on his bed in his bedchamber, and they smote him, and slew him, and beheaded him, and took his head, and gat them away through ⁶¹ the head of Ish-bosheth unto David to Hebron, and said to the king, Behold the head of Ish-bosheth the son of Saul thine enemy, ⁱwhich sought thy life; and the LORD hath avenged my lord the king this day of Saul, and of his seed. And David answered Rechab and Baanah his brother, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, and said unto them, ^jAs the LORD liveth, ^kwho hath redeemed my soul out of all adversity, ^lwhen one told me, saying, Behold, Saul is dead, ^mthinking to have brought good tidings, I took hold of him, and slew him in Ziklag, ⁿwho thought that I would have given him a reward for his tidings: how much more, when wicked men have slain a righteous person in his own house upon his bed? shall I not therefore now ^orequire his blood of your hand, and take you away from the earth? And David commanded his ^pyoung men, and they slew them, and cut off their hands and their feet, and hanged ^qthem up over the pool in Hebron. But they took the head of Ish-bosheth, and buried ^rit in the ^ssepulchre of Abner in Hebron.

V. Then ^acame all the tribes of Israel to David unto Hebron, and spake, saying, Behold, ^bwe are thy bone and thy flesh. Also in time past, when Saul was king over us, ^cthou wast he that leddest out and broughtest in Israel: and the LORD said to thee, ^dThou shalt feed my people Israel, and thou shalt be a captain over Israel. So all the elders of Israel came to the king to ^eHebron; ^fand king David made a league with them in Hebron ^gbefore the LORD: and they anointed David king over Israel. David ^hwas thirty years old when he began to reign, ⁱand he reigned forty years. In Hebron he reigned over Judah ^jseven years and six months: and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty and three years over all Israel and Judah.

And the king and his men went ^kto Jerusalem unto ^lthe Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land: which spake unto David, saying, Except thou take away the blind and the lame, thou shalt not come in hither: ^mthinking, David cannot come in hither. Nevertheless David took the strong hold of Zion: ⁿthe same is the city of David. And David said on that day, Whosoever getteth up to ^othe gutter, and smiteth the Jebusites, and the lame and the blind, ^pthat are hated of David's soul, ^qhe shall be chief and captain. ^rWherefore they said, The blind and the lame shall not come into the house. So David dwelt in the fort, and called it the city of David. And David built round about from ^sMillo and inward. And David ^twent on, and grew great, and the LORD God of hosts ^uwas with him. ^vAnd ^wHiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar trees, and carpenters, and ^xmasons: and they built David a house. And David perceived that the LORD had established him king over Israel, and that ^yhe had exalted his kingdom for his people Israel's sake.

13 And ^zDavid took ^{aa}him ^{ab}mo concubines and wives out of Jerusalem, after he was come from Hebron: and there were yet sons and daughters born to David. And these ^{ac}be the names of those that were born unto him in Jerusalem; ^{ad}Shammua, and Shobab, and Nathan, and Solomon, Ibhar also, and ^{ae}Elishua, and Nepheg, and Japhia, and Elishama, and ^{af}Eliada, and Eliphalet. 17 But when the Philistines heard that they had anointed David king over Israel, all the Philistines came up to seek David; and David heard ^{ag}of it. ^{ah}and went down to the hold. The Philistines also came and ^{ai}spread themselves in ^{aj}the valley of Rephaim. And David ^{ak}inquired of the LORD, saying, Shall I go up to the Philistines? wilt thou deliver them into mine hand? And the LORD said unto David, Go up: for I will doubtless deliver the Philistines into thine hand. And David came to ^{al}Baal-perazim, and David smote them there, and said, The LORD hath broken forth upon mine enemies before me, as the breach of waters. Therefore he called the name of that place ^{am}Baal-perazim. And there they left their images, and David and his men ^{an}burnt them. 22 And the Philistines came up yet again, and ^{ao}spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim. And when ^{ap}David inquired of the LORD, he said, Thou shalt not go up; ^{aq}but fetch a compass behind them, and come upon them over against ^{ar}the mulberry trees. And let it be, when thou ^{as}hearest the sound of a going in the tops of the mulberry trees, ^{at}that then thou shalt bestir thyself: for then ^{au}shall the LORD go out before thee, to smite the host of the Philistines. And David did so, as the LORD had commanded him; and smote the Philistines from Geba until thou come to Gazer.

Again, David gathered together all the chosen men of Israel, thirty thousand. And David arose, and went with all the people that were with him from Baale of Judah, to bring up from thence the ark of God, whose name is called by the name of the LORD of hosts that dwelleth between the cherubims.
And they set the ark of God upon a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab that was in Gibeah:
and Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, drove the new cart. And they brought it out of the house of Abinadab which was at Gibeah, accompanying the ark of God: and Ahio went before the ark. And David and all the house of Israel played before the LORD on all manner of instruments made of fir wood, even on harps, and on psalteries, and on timbrels, and on cornets, and on cymbals. And when they came to Nachon's threshingfloor, Uzzah put forth his hand to the ark of God, and took hold of it; for the oxen shook it.
And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzzah; and God smote him there for his error; and there he died by the ark of God. And David was displeased, because the LORD had made a breach upon Uzzah: and he called the name of the place Perez-uzzah to this day. And David was afraid of the LORD that day, and said, How shall the ark of the LORD come to me? So David did not remove the ark of the LORD unto him into the city of David:
but David carried it aside into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite. And the ark of the LORD continued in the house of Obed-edom the Gittite three months:
and the LORD blessed Obed-edom, and all his household.
And it was told king David, saying,
The LORD hath blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that pertaineth unto him, because of the ark of God. So David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom into the city of David with gladness. And it was so, that when they that bare the ark of the LORD had gone six paces, he sacrificed oxen and fatlings. And David danced before the LORD with all his might; and David was girded with a linen ephod. So David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the LORD with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet. And as the ark of the LORD came into the city of David, Michal Saul's daughter looked through a window, and saw king David leaping and dancing before the LORD; and she despised him in her heart. And they brought in the ark of the LORD, and set it in his place, in the midst of the tabernacle that David had pitched for it: and David offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD. And as soon as David had made an end of offering burnt offerings and peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD of hosts. And he dealt among all the people, even among the whole multitude of Israel, as well to the women as men, to every one a cake of bread, and a good piece of flesh, and a flagon of wine. So all the people departed every one to his house. Then David returned to bless his household.

And Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David, and said, How glorious was the king of Israel to day, who uncovered himself to day in the eyes of the handmaids of his servants, as one of the vain fellows shamelessly uncovereth himself! And David said unto Michal, It was before the LORD, which chose me before thy father, and before all his house, to appoint me ruler over the people of the LORD, over Israel: therefore will I play before the LORD. And I will yet be more vile than thus, and will be base in mine own sight: and of the maidservants which thou hast spoken of, of them shall I be had in honour. Therefore Michal the daughter of Saul had no child unto the day of her death.

And it came to pass, when the king sat in his house, and the LORD had given him rest round about from all his enemies; that the king said unto Nathan the prophet, See now, I dwell in a house of cedar, but the ark of God dwelleth within curtains. And Nathan said to the king, Go, do all that is in thine heart; for the LORD is with thee.
And it came to pass that night, that the word of the LORD came unto Nathan, saying, Go and tell my servant
David, Thus saith the LORD, Shalt thou build me a house for me to dwell in?
Whereas I have not dwelt in any house since the time that I brought up the children of Israel out of Egypt, even to this day, but have walked in ^ha tent and in a tabernacle. In all the places ⁷ wherein I have ⁱwalked with all the children of Israel spake I a word with ^lany of the tribes of Israel, whom I commanded ^kto feed my people Israel, saying, Why build ye not me a house of cedar? Now therefore so shalt thou say ⁸ unto my servant David, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, ^lI took thee from ^mthe sheepcote, ^lfrom following the sheep, to be ruler over my people, over Israel: and ⁿI was with thee whithersoever thou ⁹wentest, and have cut off all thine enemies ^lout of thy sight, and have made thee ^oa great name, like unto the name of the great men that are in the earth. Moreover I will appoint a place for my ¹⁰people Israel, and will ^pplant them, that they may dwell in a place of their own, and ^qmove no more; neither shall the children of wickedness afflict them any more, as beforetime, and as ^rsince the ¹¹time that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel, and have ^scaused thee to rest from all thine enemies. Also the LORD telleth thee ^tthat he will make thee a house. And ^uwhen thy days be ¹²fulfilled, and thou ^xshalt sleep with thy fathers, ^yI will set up thy seed after thee, which shall proceed out of thy bowels, and I will establish his kingdom. ^zHe shall build a house for my name, ¹³and I will ^astablish the throne of his kingdom for ever. ^bI will be his fa- ¹⁴ther, and he shall be my son. If he ^ccommit iniquity, I will chasten him with the rod of men, and with the stripes of the children of men: but my ¹⁵mercy shall not depart away from him, ^das I took it from Saul, whom I put away before thee. And thine house ¹⁶and thy kingdom shall be established for ever before thee: ^ethy throne shall be established for ever. According to all ¹⁷these words, and according to all this ^fvision, so did Nathan speak unto David. Then went king David in, and sat be- ¹⁸fore the LORD, and he said, ^gWho am I, O Lord God? and what is my house, that thou hast brought me hitherto? And this was yet a small thing in thy ¹⁹sight, O Lord God; but thou hast spoken also of thy servant's house for a great while to come. ^hAnd is this the ²⁰manner of man, O Lord God? And what ⁱcan David say more unto thee? for thou, Lord God, ^jknowest thy servant. For ²¹ thy word's sake, and according to thine own heart, hast thou done all these great things, to make thy servant know ²²*them*. Wherefore ^jthou art great, O LORD God: for ^kthere is none like thee, neither is there any God beside thee, according to all that we have heard with ²³our ears. And ^lwhat one nation in the earth is like thy people, even like Israel, whom God went to redeem for a people to himself, and to make him a name, and to do for you ^mgreat things and terrible, for thy land, before ⁿthy people, which thou redeemedst to thee from Egypt, from the nations and their gods? ²⁴For thou hast ^oconfirmed to thyself thy people Israel to be a people unto thee for ever; and thou, LORD, art become ²⁵their God. And now, O LORD God, the word that thou hast spoken concerning thy servant, and concerning his house, ^pestablish it for ever, and do as thou ²⁶hast said. And let thy name be magnified for ever, saying, The LORD of hosts is the God over Israel: and let the house of thy servant David be established before thee. For thou, O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, hast ^qrevealed to thy servant, saying, I will build thee a house: therefore hath thy servant found in his heart to pray this prayer unto thee. ²⁸And now, O Lord God, thou art that God, and ^rthy words be true, and thou hast promised this goodness unto thy ²⁹servant: therefore now ^llet it please thee to bless the house of thy servant, that it may continue for ever before thee: for thou, O Lord God, hast spoken it: and with thy blessing let the house of thy servant be blessed ^rfor ever.

And ^aafter this it came to pass, that David smote the Philistines, and subdued them: and David took ^bMethgammah out of the hand of the Philistines. And ^bhe smote Moab, and measured them with a line, casting them down to the ground; even with two lines measured he to put to death, and with one full line to keep alive. And so the Moabites ^cbecame David's servants, and ³^dbrought gifts. David smote also ^bHadadezer, the son of Rehob, king of ^eZobah, as he went ^fto recover his border ⁴at the river Euphrates. And David took ^lfrom him a thousand ^hchariots, and seven hundred horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen: and David ^ghoughed all the

And David gat ^thim a name when he returned from ^usmiting of the Syrians in ^vthe valley of salt, ^wbeing eighteen thousand men. And he put ^xgarrisons in Edom; throughout all Edom put he ^ygarrisons, and ^zall they of Edom became David's servants. ^{aa} And the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went.

And David reigned over all Israel; and David ^{ab}executed judgment and justice unto all his people. ^{ac} And ^{ad}Joab the son of Zeruiah ^{ae}was over the host; and ^{af}Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud ^{ag}was ^{ah}recorder; and ^{ai}Zadok the son of Ahitub, and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, ^{aj}were the priests; and Seraiah ^{ak}was the ^{al}scribe; and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada ^{am}was ^{an}over both the ^{ao}Cherethites and the ^{ap}Pelethites; and David's sons were ^{aq}chief rulers.

And David said, Is there yet any that is left of the house of Saul, that I may ^ashew him kindness for Jonathan's sake? And there was of the house of Saul a servant whose name was ^bZiba. And when they had called him unto David, the king said unto him, Art thou Ziba? And he said, ^cThy servant is he. And the king said, Is there not yet any of the house of Saul, that I may shew ^dthe kindness of God unto him? And Ziba said unto the king, Jonathan hath yet a son, ^ewhich is ^flame on his feet. And the king said unto him, Where is he? And Ziba said unto the king, Behold, he is in the house of Machir, the son of Ammiel, in ^gLo-debar. Then king David sent, and fet him out of the house of Machir, the son of Ammiel, from ^hLo-debar. Now when ⁱMephibosheth, the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, was come unto David, he fell on his face, and did reverence. And David said, Mephibosheth. And he answered, Behold thy servant. And David said unto him, Fear not: ^jfor I will surely shew thee kindness for Jonathan thy father's sake, and will restore thee all the land of Saul thy father; and thou shalt eat bread at my table continually. And he bowed himself, and said, What is thy servant, that thou shouldest look upon such ^ka dead dog ^las I am? Then the king called to Ziba, Saul's servant, and said unto him, I have given unto thy master's son all that pertained to Saul and to all his house. Thou therefore, and thy sons, and thy servants, shall till the land for him, and thou shalt bring in the fruits, that thy master's son may have food to eat: but Mephibosheth thy master's son ^mshall eat bread alway at my table. Now Ziba had ⁿfifteen sons and twenty servants. Then said Ziba unto the king, According to all that my lord the king hath commanded his servant, so shall thy servant do. As for Mephibosheth, ^osaid the king, he shall eat at my table, as one of the king's sons. And Mephibosheth had a young son, ^pwhose name was Micha. And all that dwelt in the house of Ziba were servants unto Mephibosheth. So Mephibosheth dwelt in Jerusalem: for he did eat continually at the king's table; and was lame on both his feet.

^qAnd it came to pass after this, that the king of the ^rchildren of Ammon died, and Hanun his son reigned in his stead. Then said David, ^sI will shew kindness unto Hanun the son of Nahash, as his father shewed kindness unto me. And David sent to comfort him by the hand of his servants for his father. And David's servants came into the land of the children of Ammon. And the princes of the children of Ammon said unto Hanun their lord, 'Think-est thou that David doth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters unto thee? hath not David rather sent his servants unto thee, to search the city, and to spy it out, and to overthrow it? Wherefore Hanun took David's servants, and shaved off the one half of their beards, and cut off their garments in the middle, even to their buttocks, and sent them away. When they told it unto David, he sent to meet them, because the men were greatly ashamed: and the king said, 'Tarry at Jericho until your beards be grown, and then return. And when the children of Ammon saw that they stank before David, the children of Ammon sent and hired the Syrians of the Beth-rehob, and the Syrians of Zoba, twenty thousand footmen, and of king Maacah a thousand men, and of Ish-tob twelve thousand men. And when David heard of it, he sent Joab, and all the host of the mighty men. And the children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array at the entering in of the gate: and the Syrians of Zoba, and of Rehob, and Ish-tob, and Maacah, were by themselves in the field. When Joab saw that the front of the battle was against him before and behind, he chose of all the choice men of Israel, and put them in array against the Syrians: and the rest of the people he delivered into the hand of Abishai his brother, that he might put them in array against the children of Ammon. And he said, If the Syrians be too strong for me, then thou shalt help me: but if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, then I will come and help thee. Be of good courage, and let us play the men for our people, and for the cities of our God: and the LORD do that which seemeth him good. And Joab drew nigh, and the people that were with him, unto the battle against the Syrians: and they fled before him. And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, then fled they also before Abishai, and entered into the city. So Joab returned from the children of Ammon, and came to Jerusalem. And when the Syrians saw that they were smitten before Israel, they gathered themselves together. And Hadarezer sent, and brought out the Syrians that were beyond the river: and they came to Helam; and Shobach the captain of the host of Hadarezer went before them. And when it was told David, he gathered all Israel together, and passed over Jordan, and came to Helam. And the Syrians set themselves in array against David, and fought with him. And the Syrians fled before Israel; and David slew the men of seven hundred chariots of the Syrians, and forty thousand horsemen, and smote Shobach the captain of their host, who died there. And when all the kings that were servants to Hadarezer saw that they were smitten before Israel, they made peace with Israel, and served them. So the Syrians feared to help the children of Ammon any more. And it came to pass, after the year was expired, at the time when kings go forth to battle, that David sent Joab, and his servants with him, and all Israel; and they destroyed the children of Ammon, and besieged Rabbah. But David tarried still at Jerusalem. And it came to pass in an evening tide, that David arose from off his bed, and walked upon the roof of the king's house: and from the roof he saw a woman washing herself; and the woman was very beautiful to look upon. And David sent and inquired after the woman. And one said, Is not this Bath-sheba, the daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the Hittite? And David sent messengers, and took her; and she came in unto him, and he lay with her; for she was purified from her uncleanness: and she returned unto her house. And the woman conceived, and sent and told David, and said, I am with child. And David sent to Joab, saying, Send me Uriah the Hittite. And Joab sent Uriah to David. And when Uriah was come unto him, David demanded of him how Joab did, and how the people did, and how the war prospered. And David said to Uriah, Go down to thy house, and wash thy feet. And Uriah departed out of the king's house, and there followed him a mess of meat from the king. But Uriah slept at the door of the king's house with all the servants of his lord, and went not down to his house. And when they had told David, saying, Uriah went not down unto his house, David said unto Uriah, Camest thou not from thy journey? why then didst thou not go down unto thine house? And Uriah said unto David, ^jThe ark, ¹¹ and Israel, and Judah, abide in tents; and my lord Joab, and ^kthe servants of my lord, are encamped in the open fields; shall I then go into mine house, to eat and to drink, and to lie with my wife? as thou livest, and ^l*as* thy soul liveth, I will not do this thing. And ¹² David said to Uriah, Tarry here to day also, and to morrow I will let thee depart. So Uriah abode in Jerusalem that day, and the morrow. And when ¹³ David had called him, he did eat and drink before him; and he made him ^mdrunk: and at even he went out to lie on his bed with the servants of his lord, but went not down to his house. And it came to pass in the morning, that David wrote a letter to Joab, and sent it by the hand of Uriah. And he wrote in the letter, saying, Set ¹⁵ ye Uriah in the forefront of the [†]hottest battle, and retire ye [†]from him, that he may [†]be smitten, and die. And it came ¹⁶ to pass, when Joab observed the city, that he assigned Uriah unto a place where he knew that valiant men were. And the men of the city went out, ¹⁷ and fought with Joab: and there fell some of the people of the servants of David; and Uriah the Hittite died also. Then Joab sent and told David all the ¹⁸ things concerning the war; and charged ¹⁹ the messenger, saying, When thou hast made an end of telling the matters of the war unto the king, and if so be ²⁰ that the king's wrath arise, and he say unto thee, Wherefore approached ye so nigh unto the city when ye did fight? knew ye not that they would shoot from the wall? Who smote ^oAbime- ²¹lech the son of [†]Jerubbaal? did not a woman cast a piece of a millstone upon him from the wall, that he died in Thebez? why went ye nigh the wall? then say thou, Thy servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also. So the messenger ²² went, and came and shewed David all that Joab had sent him for. And the ²³ messenger said unto David, Surely the men prevailed against us, and came out unto us into the field, and we were upon them even unto the entering of the gate. And the shooters shot from ²⁴ off the wall upon thy servants; and some of the king's servants be dead, and thy servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.

²⁵ Then David said unto the messenger, Thus shalt thou say unto Joab, Let not this thing [†]displease thee, for the sword devoureth [†]one as well as another: make thy battle more strong against the city, and overthrow it: and encourage ²⁶ thou him. And when the wife of Uriah heard that Uriah her husband was dead, ²⁷ she mourned for her husband. And when the mourning was past, David sent and fet her to his house, and she [†]became his wife, and bare him a son. But the thing that David had done [†]displeased the LORD.

And the LORD sent ^aNathan unto David. And he came unto him, and said unto him, ^bThere were two men in one city; the one rich, and the other ²poor. The rich [†]man had exceeding ³many flocks and herds; but the poor [†]man had nothing, save one little ewe lamb, which he had bought and nourished up: and it grew up together with him, and with his children; it did eat of his own [†]meat, and drank of his own cup, and lay in his bosom, and was unto ⁴him as a daughter. And there came a traveller unto the rich man, and he spared to take of his own flock and of his own herd, to dress for the wayfaring man that was come unto him; but took the poor man's lamb, and dressed it for ⁵the man that was come to him. And David's anger was greatly kindled against the man; and he said to Nathan, ^cAs the LORD liveth, the man that hath ⁶done this thing [†]shall surely die: and he shall restore the lamb ^dfourfold, because he did this thing, and because he ⁷had no pity. And Nathan said to David, Thou art the man. Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, I ^eanointed thee king over Israel, and I delivered thee ⁸out of the hand of Saul; and I gave thee thy master's house, and [†]thy master's wives into thy bosom, and gave thee the house of Israel and of Judah; and if that had been too little, I would moreover have given unto thee such and ⁹such things. Wherefore hast thou ^gdespised the commandment of the LORD, to do evil in his sight? [†]thou hast killed Uriah the Hittite with the sword, and hast taken his wife to be thy wife, and hast slain him with the sword of the ¹⁰children of Ammon. Now therefore the sword shall never depart from thine house, ¹because thou hast despised me, and hast taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be thy wife. Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will raise up evil against thee out of thine own house, and I will ^ktake thy wives before thine eyes, and give them unto thy neighbour, and he shall lie with thy wives in the sight of this sun. For thou didst it secretly: ¹²but I will do this thing before all Israel, and before the sun. ¹And David said ¹³unto Nathan, ^mI have sinned against the LORD. And Nathan said unto David, The LORD also hath ⁿput away thy sin; thou shalt not die. Howbeit, because ¹⁴by this deed thou hast given great occasion to the enemies of the LORD ^oto blaspheme, the child also that is born unto thee shall surely die.

And Nathan departed unto his house. ¹⁵And the LORD strake the child that Uriah's wife bare unto David, and it was very sick. David therefore besought God for the ¹⁶child; and David [†]fasted, and went in, and play all night upon the earth. And the ¹⁷elders of his house arose, and went to him, to raise him up from the earth: but he would not, neither did he eat bread with them. And it came to pass on the ¹⁸seventh day, that the child died. And the servants of David feared to tell him that the child was dead: for they said, Behold, while the child was yet alive, we spake unto him, and he would not hearken unto our voice: how will he then [†]vex himself, if we tell him that the child is dead? But when David saw ¹⁹that his servants whispered, David perceived that the child was dead: therefore David said unto his servants, Is the child dead? And they said, He is dead. Then David arose from the earth, and ²⁰^qwashed, and anointed himself, and changed his apparel, and came into the house of the LORD, and ^rworshipped: then he came to his own house; and when he required, they set bread before him, and he did eat. Then said his ser- ²¹vants unto him, What thing is this that thou hast done? thou didst fast and weep for the child, while it was alive; but when the child was dead, thou didst rise and eat bread. And he said, While the child ²²*was* yet alive, I fasted and wept: ^sfor I said, Who can tell whether GOD will be gracious to me, that the child may live? But now he is dead, wherefore should I ²³fast? can I bring him back again? I shall go to him, but [†]he shall not return to me. ²⁴And David comforted Bathsheba his wife, and went in unto her, and lay with her: and ^ushe bare a son, and ^xhe called his name Solomon: and the LORD loved ²⁵him. And he sent by the hand of Nathan the prophet; and he called his name [†]Jedidiah, because of the LORD.

²⁶And ^yJoab fought against ^zRabbah of the children of Ammon, and took the ²⁷royal city. And Joab sent messengers to David, and said, I have fought against Rabbah, and have taken the city of waters. Now therefore gather the rest of the people together, and encamp against the city, and [†]it be called after my name.

³¹And he brought forth the people that were therein, and ^bput them under ^csaws, and under harrows of iron, and under axes of iron, and made them pass through ^dthe brickkiln: and thus did he unto all the cities of the children of Ammon. So David and all the people returned unto Jerusalem.

And it came to pass after this, ^athat Absalom the son of David had a fair sister, whose name was ^bTamar; and Amnon the son of David loved her. ²And Amnon was so vexed, that he fell sick for his sister Tamar; for she was a virgin; and [†]Amnon thought it hard for ³him to do any thing to her. But Amnon had a friend, whose name was Jonadab, the son of ^cShimeah David's brother: and Jonadab was a very subtil man. And he said unto him, Why art thou, being the king's son, [†]lean [†]from day to day? wilt thou not tell me? And Amnon said unto him, I love Tamar, ⁵my brother Absalom's sister. And Jonadab said unto him, Lay thee down on thy bed, and make thyself sick: and when thy father cometh to see thee, say unto him, I pray thee, let my sister Tamar come, and give me meat, and dress the meat in my sight, that I may ⁶see it, and eat it at her hand. So Amnon lay down, and made himself sick: and when the king was come to see him, Amnon said unto the king, I pray thee,

And it came to pass after two full years, that Absalom had ^w sheepshearers in Baal-hazor, which is beside Ephraim: and Absalom invited all the king's sons. And Absalom came to the king, and said, Behold now, thy servant hath sheep-shearers; let the king, I beseech thee, and his servants go with thy servant. And the king said to Absalom, Nay, my son, let us not all now go, lest we be chargeable unto thee. And he ^x pressed him: howbeit he would not go, but blessed him. Then said Absalom, If not, I pray thee, let my brother Amnon go with us. And the king said unto him, Why should he go with thee? But Absalom pressed him, that he let Amnon and all the king's sons go with him. Now Absalom had commanded his servants, saying, Mark ye now when Amnon's heart is ^y merry with wine, and when I say unto you, Smite Amnon; then kill him, fear not: ^z have not I commanded you? be courageous, and be ^{aa} valiant. And the servants of Absalom did unto Amnon as Absalom had commanded. Then all the king's sons arose, and every man ^{ab} gat him up upon his mule, and fled. And ^{ae} Jonadab, the son of Shimeah David's brother, answered and said, Let not my lord suppose that they have slain all the young men the king's sons; for Amnon only is dead: for by the ^{af} appointment of Absalom this hath been ^{ag} determined from the day that he forced his sister Tamar. Now therefore ^{ah} let not my lord the king take the thing to his heart, to think that all the king's sons are dead: for Amnon only is dead. ^{ai} But Absalom fled. And the young man that kept the watch lift up his eyes, and looked, and behold, there came much people by the way of the hill side behind him. And Jonadab said unto the king, Behold, the king's sons come: ^{aj} as thy servant said, so it is.

And it came to pass, as soon as he had ³⁶ made an end of speaking, that behold, the king's sons came, and lift up their voice and wept: and the king also and all his servants wept ¹ very sore. But Absalom fled, and went to ² Talmi, the son of ¹ Ammihud, king of Geshur. And David mourned for his son every day. So Absalom fled, and went to ^a Geshur, and was there three years. And the soul of ³⁹ king David ¹ longed to go forth unto Absalom: for he was ^b comforted concerning Amnon, seeing he was dead.

Now Joab the son of Zeruiah perceived that the king's heart ^a was toward Absalom. And Joab sent to ^b Tekoah, ² and fetcht thence a wise woman, and said unto her, I pray thee, feign thyself to be a mourner, and put on now mourning apparel, and ^c anoint not thyself with oil, but be as a woman that ^d had a long time mourned for the dead: and come to the king, and speak on ³ this manner unto him. So Joab ^d put the words in her mouth. And when the woman of Tekoah spake to the king, she ^e fell on her face to the ground, and did obeisance, and said, ^f Help, O king. ² Heb. to come.

And it came to pass after this, that Absalom ¹¹prepared him chariots and horses, and fifty men to run before him. And Absalom rose up early, and stood beside the way of the gate: and it was so, that when any man that had a controversy ¹²'came to the king for judgment, then Absalom called unto him, and said, Of what city art thou? And he said, Thy servant is of one of the tribes of Israel. And Absalom said unto him, See, thy matters are good and right; but ¹³'there is no man deputed of the king to hear thee. Absalom said moreover, ¹⁴'Oh that I were made judge in the land, that every man which hath any suit or cause might come unto me, and I would do him justice. And it was so, that when any man came nigh to him to do him obeisance, he put forth his hand, and took him, and kissed him. And on this manner did Absalom to all Israel that came to the king for judgment: so Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel. And it came to pass ¹⁵'after forty years, that Absalom said unto the king, I pray thee, let me go and pay my vow, which I have vowed unto the LORD, in Hebron. For thy servant ¹⁶'vowed a vow while I abode at Geshur in Syria, saying, If the LORD shall bring me again indeed to Jerusalem, then I will serve the LORD. And the king said unto him, ¹⁷'Go in peace. So he arose, and went to Hebron. But Absalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, As soon as ye hear the sound of the trumpet, then ye shall say, Absalom reigneth in Hebron. And with Absalom went two hundred men out of Jerusalem, that were ¹⁸'called; and they went in their simplicity, and they knew not any thing. And Absalom sent for ¹⁹'Ahithophel the Gilonite, ²⁰'David's counsellor, from his city, even from ²¹'Giloh, while he offered sacrifices. And the conspiracy was strong; for the people ²²'increased continually with Absalom.

And there came a messenger to David, saying, ²³'The hearts of the men of Israel are after Absalom. And David said unto all his servants that were with him at Jerusalem, Arise, and let us ²⁴'flee; for we shall not ²⁵'else escape from Absalom: make speed to depart, lest he overtake us suddenly, and ²⁶'bring evil upon us, and smite the city with the edge of the sword. And the king's servants said unto the king, Behold, thy servants are ready to do whatsoever my lord the king shall ²⁷'appoint. And the king went forth, and all his household ²⁸'after him. And the king left ²⁹'ten women, which were concubines, to keep the house. And the king went forth, and all the people after him, and tarried in a place that was far off. And all his servants passed on beside him; and all ³⁰'the Cherethites, and all ³¹'the Pelethites, and all the Gittites, six hundred men which came after him from

on his left. And thus said Shimei when he cursed, Come out, come out, thou bloody man, and thou man of Belial: the LORD hath returned upon thee all the blood of the house of Saul, in whose stead thou hast reigned; and the LORD hath delivered the kingdom into the hand of Absalom thy son: and, behold, thou art taken to thy mischief, because thou art a bloody man. Then said Abishai the son of Zeruiah unto the king, Why should this dead dog curse my lord the king? let me go over, I pray thee, and take off his head. And the king said, What have I to do with you, ye sons of Zeruiah? so let him curse, because the LORD hath said unto him, Curse David. Who shall then say, Wherefore hast thou done so? And David said to Abishai, and to all his servants, Behold, my son, which came forth of my bowels, seeketh my life: how much more now may this Benjamite do it? let him alone, and let him curse; for the LORD hath bidden him. It may be that the LORD will look on mine affliction, and that the LORD will requite me good for his cursing this day. And as David and his men went by the way, Shimei went along on the hill's side over against him, and cursed as he went, and threw stones at him, and cast dust. And the king, and all the people that were with him, came weary, and refreshed themselves there.

And Absalom, and all the people the men of Israel, came to Jerusalem, and Ahithophel with him. And it came to pass, when Hushai the Archite, David's friend, was come unto Absalom, that Hushai said unto Absalom, God save the king, God save the king. And Absalom said to Hushai, Is this thy kindness to thy friend? why wentest thou not with thy friend? And Hushai said unto Absalom, Nay; but whom the LORD, and this people, and all the men of Israel, choose, his will I be, and with him will I abide. And again, whom should I serve? should I not serve in the presence of his son? as I have served in thy father's presence, so will I be in thy presence.

Then said Absalom to Ahithophel, Give counsel among you what we shall do. And Ahithophel said unto Absalom, Go in unto thy father's concubines, which he hath left to keep the house; and all Israel shall hear that thou art abhorred of thy father: then shall the hands of all that are with thee be strong. So they spread Absalom a tent upon the top of the house; and Absalom went in unto his father's concubines in the sight of all Israel. And the counsel of Ahithophel, which he counselled in those days, was as if a man had inquired at the oracle of God: so was all the counsel of Ahithophel both with David and with Absalom.

Moreover Ahithophel said unto Absalom, Let me now choose out twelve thousand men, and I will arise and pursue after David this night: and I will come upon him while he is weary and weak handed, and will make him afraid: and all the people that are with him shall flee; and I will smite the king only: and I will bring back all the people unto thee: the man whom thou seekest is as if all returned: so all the people shall be in peace. And the saying pleased Absalom well, and all the elders of Israel. Then said Absalom, Call now Hushai the Archite also, and let us hear likewise what he saith.

And when Hushai was come to Absalom, Absalom spake unto him, saying, Ahithophel hath spoken after this manner: shall we do after his saying? if not; speak thou. And Hushai said unto Absalom, The counsel that Ahithophel hath given is not good at this time. For, (said Hushai,) thou knowest thy father and his men, that they be mighty men, and they be chafed in their minds, as a bear robbed of her whelps in the field: and thy father is a man of war, and will not lodge with the people. Behold, he is hid now in some pit, or in some other place: and it will come to pass, when some of them be overthrown at the first, that whosoever heareth it will say, There is a slaughter among the people that follow Absalom. And he also that is valiant, whose heart is as the heart of a lion, shall utterly melt: for all Israel knoweth that thy father is a mighty man, and they which be with him are valiant men.

Therefore I counsel that all Israel be generally gathered unto thee, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, as the sand that is by the sea for multitude; and that thou go to battle in thine own person. So shall we come upon him in some place where he shall be found, and we will light upon him as the dew falleth on the ground: and of him and of all the men that are with him there shall not be left so much as one. Moreover, if he be gotten into a city, then shall all Israel bring ropes to that city, and we will draw it into the river, until there be not one small stone found there. And Absalom and all the men of Israel said, The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better than the counsel of Ahithophel. For the LORD had appointed to defeat the good counsel of Ahithophel, to the intent that the LORD might bring evil upon Absalom.

Then said Hushai unto Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, Thus and thus did Ahithophel counsel Absalom and the elders of Israel; and thus and thus have I counselled. Now therefore send quickly, and tell David, saying, Lodge not this night in the plains of the wilderness, but speedily pass over; lest the king be swallowed up, and all the people that are with him. Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz stayed by En-rogel; for they might not be seen to come into the city: and a wench went and told them; and they went and told king David. Nevertheless a lad saw them, and told Absalom: but they went both of them away quickly, and came to a man's house in Bahurim, which had a well in his court; whither they went down. And the woman took and spread a covering over the well's mouth, and spread ground corn thereon; and the thing was not known. And when Absalom's servants came to the woman to the house, they said, Where is Ahimaaz and Jonathan? And the woman said unto them, They be gone over the brook of water. And when they had sought and could not find them, they returned to Jerusalem. And it came to pass, after they were departed, that they came up out of the well, and went and told king David, and said unto David,

Arise, and pass quickly over the water: for thus hath Ahithophel counselled against you. Then David arose, and all the people that were with him, and they passed over Jordan: by the morning light there lacked not one of them that was not gone over Jordan.

And when Ahithophel saw that his counsel was not followed, he saddled his ass, and arose, and gat him home to his house, to his city, and put his household in order, and hanged himself, and died, and was buried in the sepulchre of his father. Then David came to Mahanaim. And Absalom passed over Jordan, he and all the men of Israel with him. And Absalom made Amasa captain of the host instead of Joab: which Amasa was a man's son, whose name was Ithra an Israelite, that went in to Abigail the daughter of Nahash, sister to Zeruiah Joab's mother. So Israel and Absalom pitched in the land of Gilead. And it came to pass, when David was come to Mahanaim, that Shobi the son of Nahash of Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and Machir the son of Ammiel of Lo-debar, and Barzillai the Gileadite of Rogelim, brought beds, and basons, and earthen vessels, and wheat, and barley, and flour, and parched corn, and beans, and lentiles, and parched pulse, and honey, and butter, and sheep, and cheese of kine, for David, and for the people that were with him, to eat: for they said, The people is hungry, and weary, and thirsty, in the wilderness.

And David numbered the people that were with him, and set captains of thousands and captains of hundreds over them. And David sent forth a third part of the people under the hand of Joab, and a third part under the hand of Abishai the son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, and a third part under the hand of Ittai the Gittite. And the king said unto the people, I will surely go forth with you myself also. But the people answered, Thou shalt not go forth: for if we flee away, they will not care for us; neither if half of us die, will they care for us: but now thou art worth ten thousand of us: therefore now it is better that thou succour us out of the city. And the king said unto them, What seemeth you best I will do. And the king stood by the gate side, and all the people came out by hundreds and by thousands. And the king commanded Joab and Abishai and Ittai, saying, Deal gently for my sake with the young man, even with Absalom. And all the people heard when the king gave all the captains charge concerning Absalom. So the people went out into the field against Israel: and the battle was in the wood of Ephraim; where the people of Israel were slain before the servants of David, and there was there a great slaughter that day of twenty thousand men. For the battle was there scattered over the face of all the country: and the wood [†]devoured more people that day than the sword devoured. And Absalom met the servants of David. And Absalom rode upon a mule, and the mule went under the thick boughs of a great oak, and his head caught hold of the oak, and he was taken up between the heaven and the earth; and the mule that was under him went away. And a certain man saw it, and told Joab, and said, Behold, I saw Absalom hanged in an oak. And Joab said unto the man that told him, And behold, thou sawest him, and why didst thou not smite him there to the ground? and I would have given thee ten [†]shekels of silver, and a [‡]girdle. And the man said unto Joab, Though I should receive a thousand [†]shekels of silver in mine hand, yet would I not put forth mine hand against the king's son: [‡]for in our hearing the king charged thee and Abishai and Ittai, saying, [†]Beware that none touch the young man Absalom. Otherwise I should have wrought falsehood against mine own life: for there is no matter hid from the king, and thou thyself wouldest have set thyself against me. Then said Joab, I may not tarry thus [†]with thee. And he took three darts in his hand, and thrust them through the heart of Absalom, while he was yet alive in the midst of the oak. And ten young men that bare Joab's armour compassed about and smote Absalom, and slew him. And Joab blew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing after Israel: for Joab held back the people. And they took Absalom, and cast him into a great pit in the wood, and laid [†]a very great heap of stones upon him: and all Israel [†]fled every one to his tent. Now Absalom in his lifetime had taken and reared up for himself [‡]a pillar, which is in [†]the king's dale: for he said, [‡]I have no son to keep my name in remembrance: and he called the pillar after his own name: and it is called unto this day. Absalom's place. Then said [‡]Ahimaaz the son of Zadok, Let me now run, and bear the king tidings, how that the LORD hath [†]avenged him of his enemies. And Joab said unto him, Thou shalt not bear tidings this day, but thou shalt bear tidings another day: but this day thou shalt bear no tidings, because the king's son is dead. Then said Joab to [‡]Cushi, Go tell the king what thou hast seen. And Cushi bowed himself unto Joab, and ran. Then said Ahimaaz the son of Zadok yet again to Joab, But [†]howsoever, let me, I pray thee, also run after Cushi. And Joab said, Wherefore wilt thou run, my son, seeing that thou hast no tidings [†]ready? But howsoever, [‡]said he, let me run. And he said unto him, Run. Then Ahimaaz ran [‡]by the way of [‡]the plain, and over-ran Cushi. And David sat between the two gates: and [†]the watchman went up to the roof over the gate unto the wall, and lift up his eyes, and looked, and behold a man running alone. And the watchman cried, and told the king. And the king said, If he be alone, there is tidings in his mouth. And he came apace, and drew near. And the watchman saw another man running: and the watchman called unto the porter, and said, Behold another man running alone. And the king said, He also bringeth tidings. And the watchman said, [†]Me thinketh the running of the foremost is [‡]like the running of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok. And the king said, [†]He is a good man, and cometh with good tidings. And Ahimaaz called, and said unto the king, [†]All is well. And he fell down to the earth upon his face before the king, and said, Blessed be the LORD thy God, which hath [†]delivered up the men that lift up their hand against my lord the king. And the king said, [†]Is the young man Absalom safe? And Ahimaaz answered, When Joab sent the king's servant, and me thy servant, I saw a great tumult, but I knew not what it was. And the king said unto him, Turn aside, and stand here. And he turned aside, and stood still. And behold, Cushi came; and Cushi said, [†]Tidings, my lord the king: for the [‡]LORD hath avenged thee this day of all them that rose up against thee. And the king said unto Cushi, Is the young man Absalom safe? And Cushi answered, [‡]The enemies of my lord the king, and all that rise against thee to do thee hurt, be as that young man is. And the king was much moved, and went up to [‡]the chamber over the gate, and wept: and as he went, thus he said, [‡]O my son Absalom, my son, my son Absalom: would God I had died for thee, O Absalom, my son, my son.

And it was told Joab, Behold, the king weepeth and mourneth for Absalom. And the ¹victory that day was ²turned into mourning unto all the people: for the people heard say that day ³how the king was grieved for his son. And the people gat them by stealth that day ⁴into the city, as people ⁵being ashamed steal away when they flee in battle. But the king ⁶covered his face, and the king cried ⁷with a loud voice, O my son Absalom, O Absalom, my son, my son. And Joab came ⁸into the house to the king, and said, Thou hast shamed ⁹this day the faces of all thy servants, which ¹⁰this day have saved thy life, and the lives of thy sons and of thy daughters, and the lives of thy wives, and the lives of thy concubines; ¹¹in that thou lovest thine enemies, and hatest thy friends: for thou hast declared ¹²this day, ¹³that thou regardest neither princes nor servants: for ¹⁴this day I perceive, that if Absalom had lived, and all we had died ¹⁵this day, then ¹⁶it had pleased thee well. Now therefore arise, go forth, and speak ¹⁷comfortably unto thy servants: for I swear by the LORD, if thou go not forth, there will not tarry one with thee ¹⁸this night: and that ¹⁹will be worse unto thee than all the evil that befell thee from thy youth until now. Then the king rose, and sat in the gate. And they told unto all the people, saying, Behold, the king doth sit in the gate. And all the people came before the king: for Israel ²⁰had fled every man to his tent.

And all the people were at strife throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, The king saved us out of the hand of our enemies, and he delivered us out of the hand of the Philistines; and now he is fled out of the land for Absalom. And Absalom, whom we anointed over us, is dead in battle. Now therefore why ²¹thou speakest ye not a word of bringing the king back? And king David sent to ²²Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, saying, Speak unto the elders of Judah, saying, Why are ye the last to bring the king back to his house? seeing the speech of all Israel is come to the king, ²³even to his house. Ye are my brethren, ye are ²⁴my bones and my flesh: wherefore then are ye the last to bring back the king? And say ye ²⁵to Amasa, Art thou not of my bone, and of my flesh? ²⁶God do so to me, and more also, if thou be not ²⁷captain of the host before me continually in the room of Joab. And he bowed the heart of all the men of Judah, ²⁸even as the heart of one man; so that they sent ²⁹this word unto the king, Return thou, and all thy servants. So the king returned, and came to Jordan. And Judah came to ³⁰Gilgal, to go to meet the king, to conduct the king over Jordan.

And ³¹Shimei the son of Gera, a Benjaminite, which ³²was of ³³Bahurim, hasted and came down with the men of Judah to meet king David. And ³⁴there were a thousand men of Benjamin with him, and ³⁵Ziba the servant of the house of Saul, and his fifteen sons and his twenty servants with him; and they went over Jordan before the king. And there went over a ferry boat to carry over the king's household, and to do ³⁶what he thought good. And Shimei the son of Gera fell down before the king, as he was come over Jordan; and said unto the king, Let not my lord impute iniquity unto me, neither do thou remember ³⁷that which thy servant ³⁸did per-versely the day that my lord the king went out of Jerusalem, that the king should ³⁹take ⁴⁰it to his heart. For thy servant doth know that I have sinned: therefore, behold, I am come the first ⁴¹this day of all ⁴²the house of Joseph to go down to meet my lord the king. But Abishai the son of Zeruiah answered and said, Shall not Shimei be put to death for this, because he ⁴³cursed the LORD's anointed? And David said, ⁴⁴What have I to do with you, ye sons of Zeruiah, that ye should ⁴⁵this day be adversaries unto me? ⁴⁶shall there any man be put to death ⁴⁷this day in Israel? for do not I know that I ⁴⁸am ⁴⁹this day king over Israel? Therefore ⁵⁰the king said unto Shimei, Thou shalt not die. And the king swore unto him.

And ⁵¹Mephibosheth the son of Saul came down to meet the king, and had neither dressed his feet, nor trimmed his beard, nor washed his clothes, from the day the king departed until the day he came ⁵²again in peace. And ^bBarzillai the Gileadite came down from ^cRogelim, and went over Jordan with the king, to conduct him over Jordan. Now Barzillai was a very aged man, even fourscore years old: and ^ehe had provided the king of sustenance while he lay at Mahanaim; for he was a very great man. And the king said unto Barzillai, Come thou over with me, and I will feed thee with me in Jerusalem. And Barzillai said unto the king, ^fHow long have I to live, that I should go up with the king unto Jerusalem? I am this day fourscore years old: and can I discern between good and evil? can thy servant taste what I eat or what I drink? can I hear any more the voice of singing men and singing women? wherefore then should thy servant be yet ^ga burden unto my lord the king? Thy servant will go a little way over Jordan with the king: and why should the king recompense it me with such a reward? Let thy servant, I pray thee, turn back again, that I may die in mine own city, and be buried by the grave of my father and of my mother. But behold thy servant ^hChimham; let him go over with my lord the king; and do to him what shall seem good unto thee. And the king answered, Chimham shall go over with me, and I will do to him that which shall seem good unto thee: and whatsoever thou shalt ⁱrequire of me, that will I do for thee. And all the people went over Jordan. And when the king was come over, the king ^{kissed}

41 And behold, all the men of Israel came to the king, and said unto the king, Why have our brethren the men of Judah stolen thee away, and ^ghave brought the king, and his household, and all David's men with him, over Jordan? And all the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, Because the king is ^hnear of kin to us: wherefore then be ye angry for this matter? have we eaten at all of the king's cost? or 43 hath he given us any gift? And the men of Israel answered the men of Judah, and said, We have ten parts in the king, and we have also more right in David than ye: why then did ye ^ddespise us, that our advice should not be first had in bringing back our king? And ⁱthe words of the men of Judah were fiercer than the words of the men of Israel.

saalem, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri. When they were at the great stone which is in Gibeon, Amasa went before them. And Joab's garment[†] that he had put on was girded unto him, and upon it a girdle with a sword fastened upon his loins in the sheath thereof; and as he went forth it fell out. And Joab said to Amasa, Art thou in health, my brother? And Joab took Amasa by the beard with the right hand to ^hkiss him. But Amasa took no heed to the sword that was in Joab's hand: so ⁱhe smote him therewith ^kin the fifth rib, and shed out his bowels to the ground, and [†]strake him not again; and he died. So Joab and Abishai his brother pursued after Sheba the son of Bichri. And one of Joab's men stood by him, and said, He that favoureth Joab, and he that is for David, let him go after Joab. And Amasa wallowed in blood in the midst of ^lthe highway. And when the man saw that all the people stood still, he removed Amasa out of the highway into the field, and cast a cloth upon him, when he saw that every one that came by him stood still. When he was removed out of ^lthe highway, all the people went on after Joab, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri.

And he went through all the tribes of Israel unto ^mAbel, and to Beth-ⁿmaachah, and all ^othe Berites: and they were gathered together, and went also after him. And they came and besieged him in ^mAbel of Beth-maachah, and they ^pcast up a bank against the city, and [†]it stood in the trench: and all the people that were with Joab [†]battered the wall, to throw it down. Then cried a wise woman out of the city, Hear, hear; say, I pray you, unto Joab, Come near hither, that I may speak with thee. And when he was come near unto her, the woman said, Art thou Joab? And he answered, I am he. Then she said unto him, Hear the words of thine handmaid. And he answered, I do hear. Then she spake, saying, [†]They were wont to speak in old time, saying, They shall surely ask counsel at ^mAbel: and so they ended the matter. I am one of them that are peaceable and faithful in Israel: thou seekest to destroy a city and a mother in Israel: why wilt thou ^qswallow up ^rthe inheritance of the LORD? And Joab answered and said, Far be it, far be it from me, that I should ^qswallow up or destroy. The matter is not so: but a man ^sof mount Ephraim, Sheba the son of Bichri [†]by name, hath lift up his hand against the king, even against David: deliver him only, and I will depart from the city. And the woman said unto Joab, Behold, his head shall be thrown to thee over the wall. Then the woman went unto all the people ^tin her wisdom. And they cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri, and cast it out to Joab. And he blew a trumpet, and they [†]retired from the city, every man to his tent. And Joab returned to Jerusalem unto the king.

Now ^uJoab was over all the host of Israel: and ^xBenaiah the son of Jehoiada was over ^ythe Cherethites and over the Pelethites: and ^zAdoram was over the tribute: and ^aJehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was [†]recorder: and Sheva was scribe: and ^bZadok and Abiathar were the priests: and ^cIra also ^dthe Jairite was [†]a chief ruler about David.

Then there was a famine in the days of David three years, year after year; and David [†]inquired of the LORD. And the LORD answered, It is for Saul, and for his bloody house, because ^ahe slew the Gibeonites. And the king called the Gibeonites, and said unto them: (now the Gibeonites were not of the children of Israel, but ^bof the remnant of the Amorites; and the children of Israel had sworn unto them: and Saul sought to slay them in his zeal to the children of Israel and Judah.) Wherefore David said unto the Gibeonites, What shall I do for you? and wherewith shall I make the atonement, that ye may bless ^cthe inheritance of the LORD? And the Gibeonites said unto him, [†]We will have no silver nor gold of Saul, nor of his house; neither for us shalt thou kill any man in Israel. And he said, What you shall say, that will I do for you. And they answered the king, The man that consumed us, and that ^ddevised against us that we should be destroyed from remaining in any of the coasts of Israel, ^elet seven men of his sons be delivered unto us, and we will hang them up unto the LORD ^ein Gibeah of Saul, [†]whom the LORD did choose. And the king said, I will give them. But the king spared Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan the son of Saul, because of ^fthe LORD's oath that was between them, between David and Jonathan the son of Saul.

 And after him was ^tShammah the son of Agee the Hararite. And he said, Be it far from me, O LORD, that I should do this: is not this ^{ab}the blood of the men that went in jeopardy of their lives? therefore he would not drink it. than the prophet. And when he was come in before the king, he bowed himself before the king with his face to the ground. And Nathan said, My lord O king, hast thou said, Adonijah shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne? [¶]For he is gone down this day, and hath slain oxen and fat cattle and sheep in abundance, and hath called all the king's sons, and the captains of the host, and Abiathar the priest; and behold, they eat and drink before him, and say, 'God save king Adonijah. But me, even me thy servant, and Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and thy servant Solomon, hath he not called. Is this thing done by my lord the king, and thou hast not shewed it unto thy servant, who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him? Then king David answered and said, Call me Bath-sheba. And she came [†]into the king's presence, and stood before the king. And the king sware, and said, [§]As the LORD liveth, that hath redeemed my soul out of all distress, [¶]even as I sware unto thee by the LORD God of Israel, saying, Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne in my stead; even so will I certainly do this day. Then Bath-sheba bowed with her face to the earth, and did reverence to the king, and said, [¶]Let my lord king David live for ever.

And king David said, [¶]Call me Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada. And they came before the king. The king also said unto them, Take with you ^{*}the servants of your lord, and cause Solomon my son to ride upon [†]mine own mule, and bring him down to [¶]Gihon: and let Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet [‡]anoint him there king over Israel: and [¶]blow ye with the trumpet, and say, God save king Solomon. Then ye shall come up after him, that he may come and sit upon my throne; for he shall be king in my stead: and I have appointed him to be ruler over Israel and over Judah. And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada answered the king, and said, Amen: the LORD God of my lord the king say so too.

[¶]As the LORD hath been with my lord the king, even so be he with Solomon, and [¶]make his throne greater than the throne of my lord king David. So Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the [¶]Cherethites, and the [¶]Pelethites, went down, and caused Solomon to ride upon king David's mule, and brought him to Gihon. And Zadok the priest took a horn of [¶]oil out of the tabernacle, and [¶]anointed Solomon. And they blew the trumpet; and [¶]all the people said, God save king Solomon. And all the people came up after him, and the people piped with [¶]pipes, and rejoiced with great joy, so that the earth rent with the sound of them.

And Adonijah and all the guests that were with him heard it as they had made an end of eating. And when Joab heard the sound of the trumpet, he said, Wherefore is this noise of the city being in an uproar? And while he yet spake, behold, [¶]Jonathan the son of Abiathar the priest came: and Adonijah said unto him, Come in; for [¶]thou art a valiant man, and bringest good tidings. And Jonathan answered and said to Adonijah, Verily our lord king David hath made Solomon king. And moreover the king's servants came to bless our lord king David, saying, God make the name of Solomon better than thy name, and [¶]make his throne greater than thy throne. And the king [¶]bowed himself upon the bed. And also thus said the king, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, which [¶]phath given one to sit on my throne this day, mine eyes even seeing it. And all the guests that were with Adonijah were afraid, and rose up, and went every man his way.

And Adonijah feared because of Solomon, and arose, and went, and [¶]caught hold on the horns of the altar. servant with the sword. And Solomon ⁵² said, If he will shew himself a worthy man, ^rthere shall not a hair of him fall to the earth: but if wickedness shall be found in him, he shall die. So king ⁵³ Solomon sent, and they brought him down from the altar. And he came and bowed himself to king Solomon: and Solomon said unto him, Go to thine house.

II.

Now ^athe days of David drew nigh that he should die; and he charged Solomon his son, saying, ^bI go the way of ²all the earth: ^cbe thou strong therefore, and shew thyself a man; and keep ³the charge of the LORD thy God, to walk in his ways, to keep his statutes, and his commandments, and his judgments, and his testimonies, as it is written in the law of Moses, that thou mayest ^dprosper in all that thou doest, and whithersoever thou turnest thyself: that the LORD may ^econtinue his word which he spake concerning me, saying, ^fIf thy children take heed to their way, to ⁵walk before me in truth with all their heart and with all their soul, ^hthere shall not ⁱfail thee (said he) a man on the throne of Israel. Moreover thou ⁵knowest also what Joab the son of Zeruiah ⁱdid to me, and what he did to the two captains of the hosts of Israel, unto ^kAbner the son of Ner, and unto ¹Amasa the son of Jether, whom he slew, and ^lshed the blood of war in peace, and put the blood of war upon his girdle that was about his loins, and in his shoes that were on his feet. Do ⁶therefore ^maccording to thy wisdom, and let not his hoar head go down to the grave in peace. But shew kindness unto the sons of ⁿBarzillai the Gileadite, and let them be of those that ^oeat at thy table: for so ^pthey came to me when I fled because of Absalom thy brother. And behold, thou hast with ⁸three ^qShimei the son of Gera, a Benjamite of Bahurim, which cursed me with a 'grievous curse in the day when I went to ^rMahanaim: but ^she came down to meet me at Jordan, and ^tI sware to him by the LORD, saying, I will not put thee to death with the sword. Now ⁹therefore ^uhold him not guiltless: for thou art a wise man, and knowest what thou oughtest to do unto him; but his hoar head ^wbring thou down to the grave with blood. So ^xDavid slept with ¹⁰his fathers, and was buried in ^ythe city of David. And the days that David ^zreigned over Israel were forty years: ^z2 Sam. 5: 4, 5. ¹Chr. 29, 26, 27. seven years reigned he in Hebron, and thirty and three years reigned he in Jerusalem.

¹² ^aThen sat Solomon upon the throne of David his father; and his kingdom ²³was established greatly. And Adonijah the son of Haggith came to Bath-sheba the mother of Solomon. And she said, ^bComest thou peaceably? And he said, ¹³Peaceably. He said moreover, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And she ¹⁵said, Say on. And he said, Thou knowest that the kingdom was ^cmine, and that all Israel set their faces on me, that I should reign: howbeit the kingdom is turned about, and is become my brother's: for ^dit was his from the LORD. ¹⁶And now I ask one petition of thee, ⁱdeny me not. And she said unto him, ¹⁷Say on. And he said, Speak, I pray thee, unto Solomon the king, (for he will not say thee nay,) that he give me ¹⁸^eAbishag the ^fShunammite to wife. And Bath-sheba said, Well: I will speak for ¹⁹thee unto the king. Bath-sheba therefore went unto king Solomon, to speak unto him for Adonijah. And the king rose up to meet her, and bowed himself unto her, and sat down on his throne, and caused a seat to be set for the king's mother; ²⁰and she sat on his right hand. Then she said, I desire one small petition of thee; I pray thee, say me not nay. And the king said unto her, Ask on, my mother: for I will not ²¹say thee nay. And she said, Let ^eAbishag the Shunammite be given to Adonijah thy brother to wife. And king Solomon answered and said unto his mother, And why dost thou ask ^eAbishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? ask for him the kingdom also; ^hfor he is mine elder brother; even for him, and for ⁱAbiathar the priest, and for Joab ²³the son of Zeruiah. Then king Solomon sware by the LORD, saying, ^jGod do so to me, and more also, if Adonijah have not spoken this word against ²⁴his own life. Now therefore, ^kas the LORD liveth, which hath established me, and set me on the throne of David my father, and who hath made me a house, ²⁵as he promised, Adonijah shall be put to death this day. And king Solomon sent by the hand of ^mBenaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he fell upon him that he died.

And unto Abiathar the priest said the²⁶ king, Get thee to ⁿAnathoth, unto thine own fields; for thou art ^tworthy of death: but I will not at this time put thee to death, because ^othou barest the ark of the Lord God before David my father, and because ^pthou hast been afflicted in all wherein my father was afflicted. So Solomon thrust out Abiathar from being priest unto the LORD; that ^{he} might ^qfulfil the word of the LORD, which he spake concerning the house of Eli in ^rShiloh.

Then tidings came to Joab: for Joab²⁸ ^shad turned after Adonijah, though ^the turned not after Absalom. And Joab fled ^uunto the tabernacle of the LORD, and ^vcaught hold on the horns of the altar. And it was told king Solomon²⁹ that Joab was fled unto the tabernacle of the LORD; and behold, ^{he} is by the altar. Then Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, Go, fall upon him. And Benaiah came to the tabernacle of the LORD, and said unto him, Thus saith the king, Come forth. And he said, Nay; but I will die here. And Benaiah brought the king word again, saying, Thus said Joab, and thus he answered me. And the king said unto³¹ him, ^wDo as he hath said, and fall upon him, and bury him; ^xthat thou mayest take away the innocent blood, which Joab shed, from me, and from the house of my father. And the LORD ^yshall³² return his blood upon his own head, who fell upon two men more righteous and ^zbetter than he, and slew them with the sword, my father David not knowing ^{thereof}, to wit, ^aAbner the son of Ner, captain of the host of Israel, and ^bAmasa the son of Jether, captain of the host of Judah. Their blood shall³³ therefore return ^cupon the head of Joab, and upon the head of his seed for ever: but upon David, and upon his seed, and upon his house, and upon his throne, shall there be peace for ever from the LORD. So ^dBenaiah the son³⁴ of Jehoiada went up, and fell upon him, and slew him: and he was buried ^ein his own house in the wilderness. And³⁵ the king put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada in his room over the host: and ^fZadok the priest did the king put in the room of ^gAbiathar.

And the king sent and called for³⁶ ^hShimei, and said unto him, Build thee a house in Jerusalem, and dwell there, and go not forth thence any whither.

³⁷For it shall be, ^{that} on the day thou goest out, and passest over ⁱthe brook Kidron, thou shalt know for certain that thou shalt surely die: ^jthy blood shall be upon thine own head. And Shimei said unto the king, The saying ^{is} good: as my lord the king hath said, so will thy servant do. And Shimei³⁸ dwelt in Jerusalem many days. And it came to pass at the end of three years, that two of the servants of Shimei ran away unto ^kAchish son of Maachah king of ^lGath. And they told Shimei, saying, Behold, thy servants ^{be} in Gath.³⁹ And Shimei arose, and saddled his ass, and went to Gath to Achish to seek his servants: and Shimei went, and brought his servants from Gath. And it was told Solomon that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and was⁴⁰ come again. And the king sent and called for Shimei, and said unto him, Did I not make thee to swear by the LORD, and protested unto thee, saying, Know for a certain, on the day thou goest out, and walkest ^{abroad} any whither, that thou shalt surely die? and thou saidst unto me, The word ^{that} I have heard ^{is} good. Why then hast thou not kept the oath of the LORD, and the commandment that I have⁴¹ charged thee with? The king said moreover to Shimei, Thou knowest ^mall the wickedness which thine heart is privy to, that thou didst to David my father: therefore the LORD shall ⁿreturn thy⁴² wickedness upon thine own head; and king Solomon ^{shall} be blessed, and ^othe throne of David shall be established⁴³ before the LORD for ever. So the king commanded ^dBenaiah the son of Jehoiada; which went out, and fell upon him, that he died. And the ^pkingdom was established in the hand of Solomon.

And ^aSolomon made affinity with Pharaoh king of Egypt, and took Pharaoh's daughter, and brought her into the ^bcity of David, until he had made an end of building his ^cown house, and ^dthe house of the LORD, and ^ethe wall⁴⁴ of Jerusalem round about. Only the people sacrificed in high places, because there was no house built unto the name⁴⁵ of the LORD, until those days. And Solomon ^floved the LORD, ^gwalking in the statutes of David his father: only he sacrificed and burnt incense in high⁴⁶ places. And the king went to ^hGibeon to sacrifice there; ⁱfor that was the great ^jhigh place: a ^kthousand burnt offerings did Solomon offer up on that altar.

^lIn Gibeon the LORD appeared to ^mSolomon ⁿin a dream by night: and God said, Ask what I shall give thee. And Solomon said, Thou hast shewed unto thy servant David my father great ^omercy, according as he ^pwalked before thee in truth, and in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart with thee; and thou hast kept for him this great kindness, that thou ^qhast given him a son to sit on his throne, as it is this day. And now, O LORD my God, ^rthou hast made thy servant king instead of David my father: and I am but ^sa little child: I know not how ^tto go out or come in. And thy servant is in the midst of thy people which thou ^uhast chosen, a great people, ^vthat cannot be numbered nor counted for multitude. ^wGive therefore thy servant an ^xunderstanding heart ^yto judge thy people, that I may ^zdiscern between good and bad: for who is able to judge this thy so great a people? And the speech ^{aa}pleased the LORD, that Solomon had asked this thing. And God said unto him, Because thou hast asked this thing, and hast not asked for thyself ^{ab}long life; neither hast asked riches for thyself, nor hast asked the life of thine enemies; but hast asked for thyself understanding ^{ac}to discern judgment; ^{ad}behold, I have done according to thy word: ^{ae}lo, I have given thee a wise and an understanding heart; so that there was none like thee before thee, neither after thee shall any arise like unto thee. And I have also ^{af}given thee that which thou hast not asked, both ^{ag}riches, and honour: so that there ^{ah}shall not be any among the kings like unto thee all thy days. And if thou wilt walk in my ways, to keep my statutes and my commandments, ^{ai}as thy father David did walk, then I will lengthen thy days. And Solomon ^{aj}awoke; and behold, it was a dream. And he came ^{ak}to Jerusalem, and stood before ^{al}the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and offered up burnt offerings, and offered peace offerings, and ^{am}made a feast to all his servants.

Then came there two women, that ^{an}were harlots, unto the king, and ^{ao}stood before him. And the one woman said, ^{ap}O my lord, I and this woman dwell in one house; and I was delivered of

is a child with her in the house. And it came to pass the third day after that I was delivered, that this woman was delivered also; and we ^{aq}were together; there was no stranger with us in the house, save we two in the house. And this woman's child died in the night; because she overlaid it. And she rose at midnight, and took my son from beside me, while thine handmaid slept, and laid it in her bosom, and laid her dead child in my bosom. And when I rose in the morning to give my child suck, behold, it was dead: but when I had considered it in the morning, behold, it was not my son, which I did bear. And the other woman said, Nay; but the living is my son, and the dead is thy son. And this said, No; but the dead is thy son, and the living is my son. Thus they spake before the king. Then said the king, The one saith, This is my son that liveth, and thy son is the dead: and the other saith, Nay; but thy son is the dead, and my son is the living. And the king said, Bring me a sword. And they brought a sword before the king. And the king said, Divide the living child in two, and give half to the one, and half to the other. Then spake the woman whose the living child was unto the king, for her bowels ^{ar}yerned upon her son, and she said, O my lord, give her the living child, and in no wise slay it. But the other said, Let it be neither mine nor thine, ^{as}but divide it. Then the king answered and said, Give her the living child, and in no wise slay it: she is the mother thereof. And all Israel heard of the judgment which the king had judged; and they feared the king: for they saw that the ^{at}wisdom of God was in him, to do judgment.

So king Solomon was king over all Israel. And these ^{au}were the princes which he had; Azariah the son of Zadok ^{av}the priest, Elihoreph and Abiah, the sons of ^{aw}aShisha, ^{ax}scribes; Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud, the ^{ay}recorder. And ^{az}Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the host: and Zadok and ^{ba}Abiathar ^{bb}were the priests: and Azariah the son of Nathan was over ^{bc}the officers: and Zabud the son of Nathan was ^{bd}principal officer, and ^{be}the king's friend: and Ahishar was over the household: and thou shalt [†]appoint: for thou knowest that there is not among us any that can skill to hew timber like unto the ^bSidonians. And it came to pass, when ⁷Hiram heard the words of Solomon, that he rejoiced greatly, and said, ⁱBlessed be the LORD this day, which hath given unto David a wise son over this great people. And Hiram sent to Solo- ⁸mon, saying, I have [†]considered the things which thou sentest to me for: and I will do all thy desire concerning timber of cedar, and concerning timber of ^jfir. My servants shall bring them ⁹down from Lebanon unto the sea: and I will convey them by sea in flotes unto the place that thou shalt [†]appoint me, and will cause them to be discharged there, and thou shalt receive them: and thou shalt accomplish my desire, ^kin giving food for my household. So Hi- ¹⁰ram gave Solomon cedar trees and fir trees according to all his desire. And ¹¹Solomon gave Hiram twenty thousand [†]measures of wheat for food to his household, and [†]twenty [†]measures of pure oil: thus gave Solomon to Hiram ¹²year by year. And the LORD gave So- ¹²lomon wisdom, ^mas he promised him: and there was peace between Hiram and Solomon; and they two made a league together.

^f ch. 5. 14. ^g Adoniram the son of Abda was over the ^h tribute. And Solomon had twelve ⁱ officers over all Israel, which provided victuals for the king and his household: each man his month in a year made provision. And these are their names: ^j The son of Hur, in ^k mount Ephraim: ^l the son of Dekar, in Makaz, and in ^m Shaalbim, and ⁿ Beth-shemesh, and Elon-beth-hanan: ^o the son of Hesed, in Aru-both; to him pertained ^p Sochoh, and all the land of ^q Hephher: ^r the son of Abinadab, in all ^s the region of Dor; which had Taphath the daughter of Solomon to wife: Baana the son of ^t Ahilud; to ^u him pertained ^v Taanach and ^w Megiddo, and all ^x Beth-shean, which is by ^y Zartanah beneath ^z Jezreel, from ^{aa} Beth-shean to ^{ab} Abel-meholah, even unto the place that is beyond ^{ac} Jokneam: ^{ad} the son of Geber, in ^{ae} Ramoth-gilead; to him pertained ^{af} the towns of Jair the son of Manasseh, which are in Gilead; to him also pertained ^{ag} the region of Argob, which is in Bashan, threescore great cities ^{ah} with walls and brasen bars: Ahinadab the son of ^{ai} Iddo had ^{aj} Mahanaim: ^{ak} Ahimaaz was in Naphtali; he also took ^{al} Basmath the daughter of Solomon to wife: Baanah the son of ^{am} Hushai was in Asher and in Aloth: Jehoshaphat the son of Paruah, in Issachar: ^{an} Shimei the son of Elah, in Benjamin: Geber the son of Uri was in the country of Gilead, in ^{ao} the country of Sihon king of the Amorites, and of Og king of Bashan; and he was the only officer which was in the land. Judah and Israel were many, ^{ap} as the sand which is by the sea in multitude, eating and drinking, and making merry. And ^{aq} Solomon reigned over all kingdoms from ^{ar} the river unto the land of the Philistines, and unto the border of Egypt: ^{as} they brought presents, and served Solomon all the days of his life. And ^{at} Solomon's ^{au} provision for one day was thirty ^{av} measures of fine flour, and threescore ^{aw} measures of meal, ten fat oxen, ^{ax} and twenty oxen out of the pastures, and an hundred sheep, beside ^{ay} harts, and ^{az} roebucks, and ^{ba} fallowdeer, and ^{bb} fatted fowl. For he had dominion over ^{bc} all the region on this side the river, from ^{bd} Tiphshah even to ^{be} Azzah, over all the kings on ^{bf} this side the river: and ^{bg} he had peace on all sides round about him. And Judah and Israel dwelt ^{bh} safely, ^{bi} every man under his vine and under ^{bj} his fig tree, ^{bk} from Dan even to Beer-sheba, all the days of Solomon. And Solomon had ^{bl} forty thousand stalls of horses for his chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen. And those ^{bm} officers provided victual for king Solomon, and for all that came unto king Solomon's table, every man ^{bn} in his month: they lacked nothing. Barley also and straw for the horses and ^{bo} dromedaries brought they unto the place where ^{bp} the officers were, every man according to his charge. ^{bq} And ^{br} God gave Solomon wisdom and understanding exceeding much, and largeness of heart, ^{bs} even ^{bt} as the sand that is on the sea shore. And Solomon's wisdom excelled the wisdom of all ^{bu} the children of the east country, ^{bv} and all ^{bw} the wisdom of Egypt. For he was ^{bx} wiser than all men; ^{by} than Ethan the ^{bz} Ezrahite, and ^{ca} Heman, and ^{cb} Chalcol, and Darda, the sons of Mahol: and his fame was in all nations round about. And ^{cc} he spake three thousand proverbs: and his ^{cd} songs were a thousand and five. And he spake of trees, from ^{ce} the cedar tree that is in Lebanon even unto ^{cf} the hyssop that springeth out of the wall: he spake also of beasts, and of fowl, and of creeping things, and ^{cg} of fishes. And there came of all people to hear the wisdom of Solomon, from ^{ch} all kings of the earth, which had heard of his wisdom.

And king Solomon raised a [†]levy out ¹³of all Israel; and the levy was thirty thousand men. And he sent them to ¹⁴Lebanon, ten thousand a month by courses: a month they were in Lebanon, and two months at home: and ⁿAdoniram was over the levy. And Solomon ¹⁵had ^othreescore and ten thousand that bare burdens, and fourscore thousand hewers in the mountains; besides the ¹⁶chief of Solomon's ^pofficers which were over the work, ^othree thousand and three hundred, ^qwhich ruled over the people that wrought in the work. And ¹⁷the king commanded, and they brought great stones, costly stones, and [†]hewed stones, to lay the foundation of the house. And Solomon's builders and ¹⁸Hiram's builders did hew them, and the [†]stonesquarers: so they prepared timber and stones to build the house.

And it came to pass in ^athe four hundred and eightieth year after the children of Israel were come out of the land of Egypt, ^bin the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month Zif, which is ^cthe second month, that he [†]began to build the house of the ²LORD. And ^ethe house which king Solomon built for the LORD, the length thereof was threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof twenty cubits, and the ³height thereof thirty cubits. And the porch before the temple of the house, twenty cubits was the length thereof, according to the breadth of the house; and ten cubits was the breadth thereof ⁴before the house. And for the house he made [†]windows of narrow lights. ⁵And [†]against the wall of the house he built [†]chambers round about, against the walls of the house round about, both of the temple and of [†]the oracle: and he ⁶made [†]chambers round about: the [†]thermost chamber was five cubits broad, and the middle was six cubits broad, and the third was seven cubits broad: for without in the wall of the house he made [†]narrowed rests round about, that [†]the beams should not be fastened in ⁷the walls of the house. And the house, when it was in building, ^hwas built of stone made ready before it was brought thither: so that there was neither hammer nor axe nor any tool of iron heard in the house, while it was in building. ⁸The door for the middle chamber was in the right [†]side of the house: and they went up with winding stairs into the middle chamber, and out of the middle ⁹into the third. [†]So he built the house, and finished it; and covered the house ¹⁰with beams and boards of cedar. And then he built chambers against all the house, five cubits high: and they rested on the house with timber of cedar.

¹¹ And the word of the LORD came to ¹²Solomon, saying, Concerning this house which thou art in building, ^jif thou wilt walk in my statutes, and execute my judgments, and keep all my commandments to walk in them; then will I perform my word with thee, ^kwhich I spake ¹³unto David thy father: and [†]I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will not ^mforsake my people Israel.

for it within, even for the oracle, even for the ⁹most holy place. And the house, ¹⁷ that is, the temple before it, was forty cubits long. And the cedar of the house ¹⁸ within was carved with ¹knops and ¹open flowers: all was cedar; there was no stone seen. And the oracle he prepared ¹⁹ in the house within, to set there the ark of the covenant of the LORD. And the ²⁰ oracle in the forepart was twenty cubits in length, and twenty cubits in breadth, and twenty cubits in the height thereof: and he overlaid it with ¹pure gold; and so covered the altar which was of cedar. So Solomon overlaid the house within ²¹ with pure gold: and he made a partition by the chains of gold before the oracle; and he overlaid it with gold. And the ²² whole house he overlaid with gold, until he had finished all the house: also the whole ²³ altar that was by the oracle he overlaid with gold.

And within the oracle he made ²⁴ two cherubims of ¹olive tree, each ten cubits high. And five cubits was the one wing ²⁵ of the cherub, and five cubits the other wing of the cherub: from the uttermost part of the one wing unto the uttermost part of the other were ten cubits. And ²⁶ the other cherub was ten cubits: both the cherubims were of one measure and one size. The height of the one cherub ²⁷ was ten cubits, and so was it of the other cherub. And he set the cheru- ²⁸ bims within the inner house: and ²⁹ they stretched forth the wings of the cherubims, so that the wing of the one touched the one wall, and the wing of the other cherub touched the other wall; and their wings touched one another in the midst of the house. And he over- ³⁰ laid the cherubims with gold. And he carved all the walls of the house round about with carved figures of cherubims and palm trees and ³¹ open flowers, within and without. And the floor of the ³² house he overlaid with gold, within and without.

And for the entering of the oracle he ³³ made doors of olive tree: the lintel and side posts were ¹a fifth part of the wall. The ³⁴ two doors also were of olive tree; and he carved upon them carvings of cherubims and palm trees and ¹open flowers, and overlaid them with gold, and spread gold upon the cherubims, and upon the palm trees. So also made he ³⁵ for the door of the temple posts of olive tree, ¹a fourth part of the wall. And ³⁶

the two doors were of ¹fir tree: the two leaves of the one door were ²folding, and the two leaves of the other door ³⁵ were folding. And he carved thereon cherubims and palm trees and open flowers: and covered them with gold fitted ³⁶ upon the carved work. And he built the inner court with ³three rows of hewed stone, and a row of cedar beams. ³⁷ ¹In the fourth year was the foundation of the house of the LORD laid, in the month Zif: and in the eleventh year, in the month Bul, which is the eighth month, was the house finished ¹throughout all the parts thereof, and according to all the fashion of it. So was he seven years in building it.

But Solomon was building his own house ¹thirteen years, and he finished ² all his house. He built also ³ the house of the forest of Lebanon; the length thereof was an hundred cubits, and the breadth thereof fifty cubits, and the height thereof thirty cubits, upon four rows of cedar pillars, with cedar beams upon the ⁴ pillars. And it was covered with cedar above upon the ⁵ beams, that lay on forty five pillars, fifteen in a row. And ⁶ there were windows in three rows, and ⁷ light was against light in three ranks. And all the ⁸ doors and posts were square, with the windows: and light was ⁹ against light in three ranks. And he made a porch of pillars; the length thereof was fifty cubits, and the breadth thereof thirty cubits: and the porch was ¹⁰ before them: and the other pillars and the thick beam were ¹¹ before them. Then he made a porch for the throne where he might judge, even the porch of judgment: and it was covered with cedar ¹² from one side of the floor to the other.

And his house where he dwelt had another court within the porch, which was of the like work. Solomon made also a house for Pharaoh's daughter, ¹³ whom he had taken to wife, like unto this porch. ¹⁴ All these were of costly stones, according to the measures of hewed stones, sawed with saws, within and without, even from the foundation unto the coping, and so on the outside toward the ¹⁵ great court. And the foundation was of costly stones, even great stones, stones of ten cubits, and stones of eight cubits. ¹⁶ And above were costly stones, after the measures of hewed stones, and cedars. ¹⁷ And the great court round about was ¹⁸ with three rows of hewed stones, and a

And king Solomon sent and fet ¹³Hiram out of Tyre. He was [†]a widow's ¹⁴son ^fof the tribe of Naphtali, and ^ghis father was a man of Tyre, a worker in brass: and ^hhe was filled with wisdom, and understanding, and cunning to work all works in brass. And he came to king Solomon, and wrought all his work. For he ⁱcast ^jtwo pillars of brass, of ¹⁵eighteen cubits high apiece: and a line of twelve cubits did compass either of them about. And he made two chap- ¹⁶iters of molten brass, to set upon the tops of the pillars: the height of the one chapter was five cubits, and the height of the other chapter was five cubits: and nets of checker work, and ^kwreaths ¹⁷of chain work, for the chapters which were upon the top of the pillars; seven for the one chapter, and seven for the other chapter. And he made the pil- ¹⁸lars, and two rows round about upon the one network, to cover the chapters that were upon the top, with pomegranates: and so did he for the other chapter. (And the chapters that were upon ¹⁹the top of the pillars were of lily work in [†]the porch, four cubits). And the ²⁰chapters upon the two pillars had pomegranates also above, over against the belly which was by the network: and the pomegranates were ^mtwo hundred in rows round about upon the other chapter. And he set up the pillars in the ²¹porch of the temple: and he set up the right pillar, and called the name thereof [†]Jachin: and he set up the left pillar, and called the name thereof [†]Boaz. And ²²upon the top of the pillars was lily work: so was the work of the pillars finished.

And he made ⁿa molten sea, ten cu- ²³bits [†]from the one brim to the other: it was round all about, and his height was five cubits: and a line of thirty cubits did compass it round about. And un- ²⁴der the brim of it round about there were ^oknops compassing it, ten in a cubit, compassing the sea round about: the knops were cast in two rows, when it was cast. And the work of the bases was on this manner: they had borders, and the borders were ²⁹between the ledges: and on the borders that were between the ledges were lions, oxen, and cherubims: and upon the ledges there was a base above: and beneath the lions and oxen were ³⁰certain additions made of thin work. And every base had four brassen wheels, and plates of brass: and the four corners thereof had undersetters: under the laver were undersetters molten, at the side of every ³¹addition. And the mouth of it within the chapter and above was a cubit: but the mouth thereof was round after the work of the base, a cubit and a half: and also upon the mouth of it were gravings with their borders, foursquare, ³²not round. And under the borders were four wheels; and the axletrees of the wheels were [†]joined to the base: and the height of a wheel was a cubit and half a ³³cubit. And the work of the wheels was like the work of a chariot wheel: their axletrees, and their ^snaves, and their felloes, and their spokes, were all molten. And there were four undersetters to the four corners of one base: and the undersetters were of the ³⁴very base itself. And in the top of the base was ³⁵there a round compass of half a cubit high: and on the top of the base the ledges thereof and the borders thereof were of the ³⁶same. For on the plates of the ledges thereof, and on the borders thereof, he graved cherubims, lions, and palm trees, according to the [†]proportion of every ³⁷one, and additions round about. After this manner he made the ten bases: all of them had one casting, one measure, ³⁸and one size. Then [†]made he ten lavers of brass: one laver contained forty baths: and every laver was four cubits: and upon every one of the ten bases one ³⁹laver. And he put five bases on the right [†]side of the house, and five on the left side of the house: and ^uhe set the sea on the right side of the house eastward over against the south.

Then ^aSolomon assembled the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the ^bchief of the fathers of the children of Israel, unto king Solomon in Jerusalem, ^bthat they might bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD ^cout of the city of David, which is Zion. And all the men of Israel assembled themselves unto king Solomon at the ^dfeast in the month Ethanim, which is the seventh month. And all the elders of Israel ^ecame, and ^ethe priests took up the ark.

the shovels, and the basons. So Hiram made an end of doing all the work that he made king Solomon for the house of the LORD: the two pillars, and the two ^xbowls of the chapters that were upon the top of the two pillars; and the two ^ynetworks, to cover the two ^xbowls of the chapters which were upon the top of the pillars; and ^zfour hundred pomegranates for the two ^ynetworks, even two rows of pomegranates for one network, to cover the two ^xbowls of the chapters that were upon the pillars; and the ten bases, and ten lavers on the bases; and ^aone sea, and twelve oxen under the sea; and ^bthe pots, and the shovels, and the basons: and all these vessels, which Hiram made to king Solomon for the house of the LORD, were of [†]bright brass. In the plain of Jordan did the king cast them, [†]in the clay ground between ^cSuccoth and ^dZarthan. And Solomon left all the vessels unweighed, [†]because they were exceeding many: neither was the weight of the brass [†]found out. And Solomon made all the vessels that pertained unto the house of the LORD: ^ethe altar of gold, and [†]the table of gold, whereupon ^gthe shewbread was, and the candlesticks of pure gold, ^hfive on the right side, and five on the left, before the oracle, with ⁱthe flowers, and the ^jlamps, and ^kthe tongs of gold, and ^lthe bowls, and ^lthe snuffers, and ^lthe basons, and ^mthe spoons, and the [†]censers of pure gold; and the hinges of gold, both for the doors of the inner house, ⁿthe most holy place, and for the doors of the house, to wit, of the temple. So was ended all the work that king Solomon made for the house of the LORD. And Solomon brought in the [†]things ^owhich David his father had dedicated; even the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, did he put among the treasures of the house of the LORD.

4 And they brought up the ark of the LORD, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and all the holy vessels that were in the tabernacle, even those did the priests and the Levites bring up. 5 And king Solomon, and all the congregation of Israel, that were assembled unto him, were with him before the ark, ^gsacrificing sheep and oxen, that could not be told nor numbered for multitude. 6 And the priests ^bbrought in the ark of the covenant of the LORD unto ^hhis place, into ⁱthe oracle of the house, to the most holy place, even ^kunder the wings of the cherubims. For the cherubims spread forth their two wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubims covered the ark and the staves thereof ^gabove. And they ^ddrew out the staves, that the [†]ends of the staves were seen out in the [†]holy place before [†]the oracle, and they were not seen without: and [†]there they are unto this day. There was nothing in the ark save ^mthe two tables of stone, which Moses put there at Horeb, [†]when [†]the LORD made ^oa covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of the land of Egypt. And it came to pass, when the priests were come out of the holy place, that the cloud [†]filled the house of the LORD, so that the priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud: for the glory of the LORD had filled the house of the LORD. 12 [†]Then spake Solomon, The LORD said that he would dwell ^rin the thick darkness. [†]I have surely built thee a house to dwell in, a [†]settled place for thee to abide in for ever. And the king turned his face about, and [†]blessed all the congregation of Israel: (and all the congregation of Israel stood:) and he said, ^wBlessed be the LORD God of Israel, ^xwhich spake with his mouth unto David my father, and hath with his hand fulfilled it, saying, Since the day that I brought forth my people Israel out of Egypt, I chose no city out of all the tribes of Israel to build a house, that ^ymy name might be therein; but I chose ^zDavid to be over my people Israel. And ^ait was in the heart of David my father to build a house for the name of the LORD God of Israel. And the LORD said unto David my father, Whereas it was in thine heart to build a house unto my name, thou didst well that it was in thine heart. Nevertheless thou shalt not build the house; but thy son that ^cshall come forth out of thy loins, he shall build the house unto my name. And the LORD hath performed ²⁰ his word that he spake, and I am risen up in the room of David my father, and sit on the throne of Israel, ^das the LORD promised, and have built a house for the name of the LORD God of Israel. And ²¹ I have set there a place for the ark, wherein ^eis the covenant of the LORD, which he made with our fathers, when he brought them out of the land of Egypt.

And Solomon ^fstood before the altar ²² of the LORD in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and ^gspread forth his hands toward heaven: and he said, ²³

^hLORD God of Israel, ⁱthere is no God like thee, in heaven above, or on earth beneath, ^kwho keepest covenant and mercy with thy servants that ^lwalk before thee with all their heart: who hast kept ²⁴ with thy servant David my father that thou promisedst him: thou spakest also with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled ^{it} with thine hand, as ^{it} is this day. Therefore ²⁵ now, LORD God of Israel, keep with thy servant David my father that thou promisedst him, saying, ^mThere shall not fail thee a man in my sight to sit on the throne of Israel; ⁿso that thy children take heed to their way, that they walk before me as thou hast walked before me. ²⁶ And now, O God of Israel, let thy word, I pray thee, be verified, which thou spakest unto thy servant David my father.

But will God indeed dwell on the ²⁷ earth? behold, ^othe heaven and ^pheaven of heavens cannot contain thee; how much less this house that I have builded? Yet have thou respect unto the prayer ²⁸ of thy servant, and to his supplication, O LORD my God, to hearken unto the cry and to the prayer, which thy servant prayeth before thee to day: that ²⁹ thine eyes may be open toward this house night and day, ^{even} toward the place of which thou hast said, ^rMy name shall be there: that ^{thou} mayest hearken unto the prayer which thy servant shall make ^stowards this place. And hearken ³⁰ thou to the supplication of thy servant, and of thy people Israel, when they shall pray ^ttowards this place: and hear thou in heaven ^uthy dwelling place: and when thou hearest, forgive.

If any man trespass against his neigh- ³¹ bour, ^vand ^wan oath be laid upon him to cause him to swear, and the oath come before thine altar in this house: then hear thou ⁱⁿ heaven, and do, and judge thy servants, ^xcondemning the wicked, ³² to bring his way upon his head; and justifying the righteous, to give him according to his righteousness.

³³ ^yWhen thy people Israel be smitten down before the enemy, because they have sinned against thee, and ^zshall turn again to thee, and confess thy name, and pray, and make supplication unto thee

³⁵ ^{ab}When heaven is shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against thee; if they pray towards this place, and confess thy name, and turn from their ³⁶ sin, when thou afflictest them: then hear thou ⁱⁿ heaven, and forgive the sin of thy servants, and of thy people Israel, that thou ^{ac}teach them ^{ad}the good way wherein they should walk, and give rain upon thy land, which thou hast given to thy people for an inheritance.

³⁷ ^{ae}If there be in the land famine, if there be pestilence, blasting, mildew, locust, ^{or} if there be caterpillar; if their enemy besiege them in the land of their ³⁸ cities; whatsoever plague, whatsoever sickness ³⁹there be; what prayer and supplication soever be ^{af}made by any man, ^{or} by all thy people Israel, which shall know every man the plague of his own heart, and ^{ag}spread forth his hands towards this whose heart thou knowest; (for thou, ⁴¹ ^{ai}even thou only, ^{aj}knowest the hearts of all the children of men;) that they may fear thee ⁴²all the days that they live in the land which thou gavest unto our fathers.

If they sin against ⁴⁶ thee, ([†]for there is no man that sinneth not,) and thou be angry with them, and deliver them to the enemy, so that they carry them away captives [†]unto the land of the enemy, far or near; [†]yet if they ⁴⁷ shall [†]bethink themselves in the land whither they were carried captives, and repent, and make supplication unto thee in the land of them that carried them captives, saying, "We have sinned, and [†]have done perversely, we have committed wickedness; and [†]so [†]return unto thee ⁴⁸ with all their heart, and with all their soul, in the land of their enemies, which led them away captive, and pray unto thee [†]toward their land, which thou gavest unto their fathers, the city which thou hast chosen, and the house which I have built for thy name: then hear thou ⁴⁹ their prayer and their supplication in heaven [†]thy dwelling place, and maintain their [†]cause, and forgive thy people that have ⁵⁰ sinned against thee, and all their transgressions wherein they have transgressed against thee, and [†]give them compassion before them who carried them captive, that they may have compassion on them: for [†]they be thy people, and thine inheritance, which thou broughtest forth out of Egypt, [†]from the midst of the furnace of iron: [†]that thine eyes may be ⁵² open unto the supplication of thy servant, and unto the supplication of thy people Israel, to hearken unto them in all that they call for unto thee. For thou didst ⁵³ separate them from among all the people of the earth, to be thine inheritance, [†]as thou spakest by the hand of Moses thy servant, when thou broughtest our fathers out of Egypt, O Lord God.

And it was so, that when Solomon had ⁵⁴ made an end of praying all this prayer and supplication unto the LORD, he arose from before the altar of the LORD, from [†]knéeing on his knees with his hands spread up to heaven. And he stood, ⁵⁵ and [†]blessed all the congregation of Israel with a loud voice, saying, Blessed ⁵⁶ be the LORD, that hath given rest unto his people Israel, according to all that he promised: there hath not [†]failed one word of all his good promise, which he promised by the hand of Moses his servant. The LORD our God be with us, as he was with our fathers: let him not ⁵⁷ leave us, nor [†]forsake us: that he may ⁵⁸ [†]incline our hearts unto him, to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and his statutes, and his judgments, which he commanded our fathers. ⁵⁹ And let these my words, wherewith I have made supplication before the LORD, be nigh unto the LORD our God day and night, that he maintain the [†]cause of his servant, and the cause of his people Israel [†]at all times, as the matter shall require: [†]that all the people of the earth may know that [†]the LORD is God, and ⁶¹ that there is none else. Let your heart therefore be [†]perfect with the LORD our God, to walk in his statutes, and to keep his commandments, as at this day.

⁶² [†]And the king, and all Israel with him, offered sacrifice before the LORD. ⁶³ And Solomon offered a sacrifice of peace offerings, which he offered unto the LORD, two and twenty thousand oxen, and an hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the children of Israel ⁶⁴ dedicated the house of the LORD. The same day did the king hallow the middle of the court that was before the house of the LORD: for there he offered burnt offerings, and meat offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings: because [†]the brasen altar that was before the LORD was too little to receive the burnt offerings, and meat offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings. And at that time Solomon held [†]a feast, and all Israel with him, a great congregation, from [†]the entering in of Hamath unto [†]the river of Egypt, before the LORD our God, [†]seven days and seven days, even fourteen days. [†]On the eighth day he sent the people away: and they [†]blessed the king, and went unto their [†]tents joyful and [†]glad of heart for all the goodness that the LORD had done for David his servant, and for Israel his people.

And [†]it came to pass, when Solomon had finished the building of the house of the LORD, [†]and the king's house, and all Solomon's [†]desire which he was pleased to do, that the LORD appeared to Solomon the second time, [†]as he had [†]appeared unto him at [†]Gibeon. And the LORD said unto him, I have heard thy prayer and thy supplication, that thou hast made before me: I have hallowed this house, which thou hast built,

^f to put my name there for ever; ^g and mine eyes and mine heart shall be there perpetually. And if thou wilt ^h walk before me, ⁱ as David thy father walked, in integrity of heart, and in uprightness, to do according to all that I have commanded thee, and wilt keep my statutes and my judgments: then I will establish the throne of thy kingdom upon Israel for ever, ^k as I promised to David thy father, saying, There shall not fail thee a man upon the throne of Israel. But if you shall at all ^l turn from following me, you or your children, and will not keep my commandments and my statutes which I have set before you, but go and serve other gods, and worship them: ^m then will I cut off Israel out of the land which I have given them; and this house, which I have hallowed ⁿ for my name, will I cast out of my sight; ^o and Israel shall be a proverb and a byword among all people: and at this house, ^p which is high, every one that passeth by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss; and they shall say, ^q Why hath the LORD done thus unto this land, and to this house? And they shall answer, Because they forsook the LORD their God, who brought forth their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and have taken hold upon other gods, and have worshipped them, and served them: therefore hath the LORD brought upon them all this evil.

And ^r it came to pass at the end of ^s twenty years, when Solomon had built the two houses, the house of the LORD, and the king's house, (now Hiram the king of Tyre had furnished Solomon with cedar trees and fir trees, and with gold, according to all his desire,) that then king Solomon gave Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee. And Hiram came out from Tyre to see the cities which Solomon had given him; and they ^t pleased him not. And he said, ^u What cities ^v are these which thou hast given me, my brother? And he called them the land of ^w Cabul unto this day. And Hiram ^x sent to the king sixscore talents of gold.

And this ^y is the reason of ^z the levy which king Solomon raised; for to build the house of the LORD, and his own house, and ¹ Millo, and the wall of Jerusalem, and ² Hazor, and ³ Megiddo, and ⁴ Gezer. For Pharaoh king of Egypt had gone up, and taken Gezer, and burnt it with fire, and slain the ⁵ Canaanites that dwelt in the city, and given it for a present unto his daughter, ^c Solomon's wife.

¹⁷ And Solomon built Gezer, and ^d Beth-horon the nether, and ^e Baalath, and Tadmor in the wilderness, in the land, and all the cities of ^f store that Solomon had, and ^g cities for his ^h chariots, and cities for his horsemen, and ⁱ that which Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion. And all the people that were left of the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, which were not of the children of Israel, their children ^j that were left after them in the land, ^k whom the children of Israel also were not able utterly to destroy, ^l upon those did Solomon levy a tribute of ^m bond-service unto this day. But of the children of Israel did Solomon ⁿ make no bondman: but they were men of war, and his servants, and his princes, and his captains, and rulers of his chariots, and his horsemen. These were the chief of the ^o officers that were over Solomon's work, ^p five hundred and fifty, ^q which bare rule over the people that wrought in the work. ²⁴ But ^r Pharaoh's daughter came up out of the city of David unto ^s her house which Solomon had built for her: then did he ^t build ^u Millo. And ^v three times in a year did Solomon offer burnt offerings and peace offerings upon the altar which he built unto the LORD, and he burnt incense ^w upon the altar that was before the LORD. So he finished the house.

And when the ^a queen of ^b Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon concerning the name of the LORD, she came to prove ^c him with ^d hard questions. And she came to Jerusalem with a very great train, with camels that bare spices, and very much gold, and precious stones: and when she was come to Solomon, she communed with him of all that was in her heart. And Solomon told her all her ^e questions: there was not any thing hid from the king, which he told her not.

And when the queen of Sheba had seen ⁴ all Solomon's wisdom, and the house that he had built, and the meat of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the attendance of his ministers, and their apparel, and his cupbearers, and ⁵ his ascent by which he went up unto the house of the LORD; there was no more spirit in her. And she said to the king, It was a true report that I heard in mine own land of thy acts and of thy wisdom. Howbeit I believed not ⁷ the words, until I came, and mine eyes had seen it: and behold, the half was not told me: thy wisdom and prosperity exceedeth the fame which I heard. Happy are thy men, happy are these ⁸ thy servants, which stand continually before thee, and that hear thy wisdom. Blessed be the LORD thy God, which ⁹ delighted in thee, to set thee on the throne of Israel: because the LORD loved Israel for ever, therefore made he thee king, to do judgment and justice. And ¹⁰ she gave the king an hundred and twenty talents of gold, and of spices very great store, and precious stones: there came no more such abundance of spices as these which the queen of Sheba gave to king Solomon. And the king ¹¹ made of the almug trees pillars for the house of the LORD, and for the king's house, harps also and psalteries for singers: there came no such almug trees, nor were seen unto this day. And king Solomon ¹³ gave unto the queen of Sheba all her desire, whatsoever she asked, besides that which Solomon gave her of his royal bounty. So she turned and went to her own country, she and her servants.

Now the weight of gold that came ¹⁴ to Solomon in one year was six hundred threescore and six talents of gold, besides that he had of the merchantmen, and of the traffick of the spice merchants, and of all the kings of Arabia, and of the governors of the country. And king Solomon made two hundred ¹⁶ targets of beaten gold: six hundred shekels of gold went to one target. And he made three hundred shields of beaten gold; three pound of gold went to one shield: and the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon. Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with the best ¹⁷ gold. The throne had six steps, and the top of the throne was round behind: and there were stays on either side on the place of the seat, and two lions stood beside the stays. And twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other upon the six steps: there was not the like made in any ²¹ kingdom. And all king Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold: none were of silver: it was nothing accounted of in the days of Solomon. For the king had at sea a navy of Tharshish with the navy of Hiram: once in three years came the navy of Tharshish, bringing gold, and silver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks. So king Solomon exceeded all the kings of the earth for riches and ²⁴ for wisdom. And all the earth sought to Solomon, to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart. And they brought every man his present, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and garments, and armour, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year. And Solomon gathered together chariots and horsemen: and he had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, whom he bestowed in the cities for chariots, and with the king ²⁷ at Jerusalem. And the king made silver to be in Jerusalem as stones, and cedars made he to be as the sycamore trees that are in the vale, for abundance. And Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and linen yarn: the king's merchants received the linen yarn at a ²⁹ price. And a chariot came up and went out of Egypt for six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse for an hundred and fifty: and so for all the kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria, did they bring them out by their means.

But king Solomon loved many strange women, together with the daughter of Pharaoh, women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Zidonians, and Hittites; of the nations concerning which the LORD said unto the children of Israel, Ye shall not go in to them, neither shall they come in unto you: for surely they will turn away your heart after their gods: Solomon clave unto these in love. heart. For it came to pass, when Solomon was old, that his wives turned away his heart after other gods: and his heart was not perfect with the LORD his God, as was the heart of David his father. For Solomon went after ^hAsh-toreth the goddess of the Zidonians, and after ⁱMilcom the abomination of the Ammonites. And Solomon did evil in the sight of the LORD, and ^jwent not fully after the LORD, as did David his father. Then did Solomon ^kbuild a high place for ^lChemosh, the abomination of Moab, in ^mthe hill that is before Jerusalem, and for ⁿMolech, the abomination of the children of Ammon. And likewise did he for all his strange wives, which burnt incense and sacrificed unto their gods.

And the LORD was angry with Solomon, because ^ohis heart was turned from the LORD God of Israel, which had appeared unto him ^ptwice, and ^qhad commanded him concerning this thing, that he should not go after other gods: but he kept not that which the LORD commanded. Wherefore the LORD ^rsaid unto Solomon, Forasmuch as this ^sis done of thee, and thou hast not kept my covenant and my statutes, which I have commanded thee, ^tI will surely rend the kingdom from thee, and will give it to thy servant. Notwithstanding in thy days I will not do it for David thy father's sake: but I will rend it out of the hand of thy son. ^uHowbeit I will not rend away all the kingdom; but will give ^vone tribe to thy son for David my servant's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake, ^wwhich I have chosen.

And the LORD stirred up an adversary unto Solomon, Hadad the Edomite: he was of the king's seed in Edom. ^xFor it came to pass, when David was in Edom, and Joab the captain of the host was gone up to bury the slain, after he had smitten every male in Edom; (for six months did Joab remain there with all Israel, until he had cut off every male in Edom:) that Hadad fled, he and certain Edomites of his father's servants with him, to go into Egypt; Hadad being yet a little child. And they arose out of ^yMidian, and came to ^zParan: and they took men with them out of Paran, and they came to Egypt, unto Pharaoh king of Egypt; which gave him a house, and appointed him victuals, and gave him land. And Hadad found great favour in the sight of Pharaoh, so that he gave him to wife the sister of his own wife, the sister of Tahpenes the ^{aa}queen. And the sister of Tahpenes bare him Genubath his son, whom Tahpenes weaned in Pharaoh's house: and Genubath was in Pharaoh's household among the sons of Pharaoh. And when Hadad heard in Egypt that ^{ab}David slept with his fathers, and that Joab the captain of the host was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, ^{ac}Let me depart, that I may go to mine own country. Then Pharaoh said unto him. But what hast thou lacked with me, that behold, thou seekest to go to thine own country? And he answered, ^{ad}Nothing: howbeit let me go in any wise.

And God stirred him up another adversary, Rezon the son of Eliadah, which fled from his lord ^{ae}Hadadezer king of Zobah: and he gathered men unto him, and became captain over a band, when David slew them ^{af}of Zobah: and they went to ^{ag}Damascus, and dwelt therein, and reigned in Damascus. And he was an adversary to Israel all the days of Solomon, beside the mischief that Hadad did: and he abhorred Israel, and reigned over Syria.

And ^{ah}Jeroboam the son of Nebat, an Ephrathite of ^{ai}Zereda, Solomon's servant, whose mother's name was Zeruah, a widow woman, even he ^{aj}lift up his hand against the king. And this was the cause that he ^{ak}lift up his hand against the king: Solomon built ^{al}Millo, and ^{am}repaired the breaches of the city of David his father. And the man Jeroboam was a mighty man of valour: and Solomon seeing the young man that he ^{an}was industrious, he made him ruler over all the ^{ao}charge of the house of Joseph. And it came to pass at that time when Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, that the prophet ^{ap}Ahijah the ^{aq}Shilonite found him in the way; and he had clad himself with a new garment; and they ^{ar}two were alone in the field: and Ahijah caught the new garment that was on him, and ^{as}rent it in twelve pieces: and he said to Jeroboam, Take thee ten pieces: for thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, ^{at}Behold, I will rent the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon, and will give ten tribes to thee: (but he shall have one tribe for my servant David's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake, the city which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel:) because that they

To your tents, O Israel:

Now see to thine own house, David.

So Israel departed unto their tents.

^o ch. 11. 13, 36. But as for ^o the children of Israel which dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them. Then king Rehoboam sent ^p Adoram, who was over the tribute; and all Israel stoned him with stones, that he died. Therefore king Rehoboam ^t made speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem. So ^q Israel ^r rebelled against the house of David unto this day. And it came to pass, when all Israel heard that Jeroboam was come again, that they sent and called him unto the congregation, and made him king over all Israel: there was none that followed the house of David, but the tribe of Judah ^r only.

And when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he assembled all the house of Judah, with the tribe of Benjamin, an hundred and fourscore thousand chosen men, which were warriors, to fight against the house of Israel, to bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam the son of Solomon. But the word of God came unto ^s Shemaiah ^t the man of God, saying, Speak unto Rehoboam, the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and unto all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and to the remnant of the people, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren the children of Israel: return every man to his house; ^u for this thing is from me. They hearkened therefore to the word of the LORD, and returned to depart, according to the word of the LORD.

Then Jeroboam ^x built Shechem ^y in mount Ephraim, and dwelt therein; and went out from thence, and built ^z Peniel. And Jeroboam said in his heart, Now shall the kingdom return to the house of David: if ^a this people go up to do sacrifice in the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, then shall the heart of this people turn again unto their lord, even unto Rehoboam king of Judah, and they shall kill me, and go again to Rehoboam king of Judah. Whereupon the king took counsel, and made ^b two calves of gold, and said unto them, It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem: behold thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt. And he set the one in ^d Beth-el, and the other put he in ^e Dan. ^f And this thing became a sin: for the people went to worship before ^g the one, even unto ^e Dan. And he made ^h a house of high places, and ⁱ made priests of the lowest of the people, which were not of the sons of Levi. And Jeroboam ordained a feast in the eighth month, on the fifteenth day of the month, like unto ^j the feast that is in Judah, and he ^k offered upon the altar (so did he in Beth-el,) ^l sacrificing unto the calves that he had made: and he placed in Beth-el ^k the priests of the high places which he had made. So he ^l offered upon the altar which he had made in Beth-el the fifteenth day of the eighth month, even in the month which he had ^m devised of his own heart; and ordained a feast unto the children of Israel: and he ⁿ offered upon the altar, and burnt incense.

And behold, there ^a came ^b a man of God out of Judah by the word of the LORD unto Beth-el: and Jeroboam stood ² by the altar ^l to burn incense. And he cried against the altar in the word of the LORD, and said, O altar, altar, thus saith the LORD; Behold, a child shall be born unto the house of David, ^c Josiah by name; and upon thee shall he offer the priests of the high places that burn incense upon thee, and men's bones ³ shall be burnt upon thee. And he gave ^d a sign the same day, saying, This is the sign which the LORD hath spoken: Behold, the altar shall be rent, and the ashes that are upon it shall be poured ⁴ out. And it came to pass, when king Jeroboam heard the saying of the man of God, which had cried against the altar in Beth-el, that he put forth his hand from the altar, saying, Lay hold on him. And his hand, which he put forth against him, dried up, so that he ⁵ could not pull it in again to him. The altar also was rent, and the ashes poured out from the altar, according to the sign which the man of God had given ⁶ by the word of the LORD. And the king answered and said unto the man of God, ^e Intreat now the face of the LORD thy God, and ^f pray for me, that my hand may be restored me again. And the man of God besought ^l the LORD, and the king's hand was restored him again, and became as it was before. ⁷ And the king said unto the man of God, Come home with me, and ^g refresh thyself, and ^h I will give thee a reward. ⁸ And the man of God said unto the

So ¹⁰ he went another way, and returned not by the way that he came to Beth-el.

¹ Comp. 2 Kin. 23. 18 with ver. 25. Now there dwelt an old prophet in ¹¹ Beth-el; and his son came and told him all the works that the man of God had done that day in Beth-el: the words which he had spoken unto the king, them they told also to their father. And ¹² their father said unto them, What way went he? For his sons had seen what way the man of God went, which came from Judah. And he said unto his ¹³ sons, Saddle me the ass. So they saddled him the ass: and he rode thereon, and went after the man of God, and ¹⁴ found him sitting under an oak: and he said unto him, Art thou the man of God that camest from Judah? And he said, I am. Then he said unto him, ¹⁵ Come home with me, and eat bread. And he said, ^k I may not return with ¹⁶ thee, nor go in with thee: neither will I eat bread nor drink water with thee in this place: for ¹ it was said to me ¹ by ¹⁷ the word of the LORD, Thou shalt eat no bread nor drink water there, nor turn again to go by the way that thou camest. He said unto him, I am ¹⁸ a prophet also as thou art; and an angel spake unto me by the word of the LORD, saying, Bring him back with thee into thine house, that he may eat bread and drink water. But he lied unto him. So he went back with him, and did eat ¹⁹ bread in his house, and drank water. And it came to pass, as they sat at the ²⁰ table, that the word of the LORD came unto the prophet that brought him back: and he cried unto the man of God that ²¹ came from Judah, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Forasmuch as thou hast disobeyed the mouth of the LORD, and hast not kept the commandment which the LORD thy God commanded thee, but camest back, and hast eaten bread and drunk water in the place, of the which the LORD did say to thee, Eat no bread, and drink no water; thy carcase shall not come unto the sepulchre of thy fathers.

And it came to pass, after he had ²³ eaten bread, and after he had drunk, that he saddled for him the ass, to wit, for the prophet whom he had brought ²⁴ back. And when he was gone, ^m a lion ^m ch. 20. 36. met him by the way, and slew him: and his carcase was cast in the way, and the ass stood by it, the lion also ²⁵ stood by the carcase. And behold, men passed by, and saw the carcase cast in the way, and the lion standing by the carcase: and they came and told it in the city ⁿ where the old prophet dwelt. ⁿ ver. 11. And when the prophet that brought him back from the way heard thereof, he said, It is the man of God, who was disobedient unto the word of the LORD: therefore the LORD hath delivered him unto the lion, which hath [†] torn him, and slain him, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake unto him. ²⁷ And he spake to his sons, saying, Saddle me the ass. And they saddled him. ²⁸ And he went and found his carcase cast in the way, and the ass and the lion standing by the carcase: the lion had not eaten the carcase, nor [†] torn the ass. ²⁹ And the prophet took up the carcase of the man of God, and laid it upon the ass, and brought it back: and the old prophet came to the city, to mourn and to bury him. And he laid his carcase in his own grave; and ^o they mourned over him, saying, Alas, my brother. ³¹ And it came to pass, after he had buried him, that he spake to his sons, saying, When I am dead, then bury me in the sepulchre wherein the man of God is buried; ^p lay my bones beside ^p 2 Kin. 23. 17, 18. his bones: ^q for the saying which he cried by the word of the LORD against the altar in Beth-el, and against all ^r the houses of the high places which are in the cities of ^s Samaria, shall surely come to pass.

³³ After this thing Jeroboam returned not from his evil way, but [†] made again [†] of the lowest of the people priests of the high places: whosoever would, he [†] consecrated him, and he became one of the priests of the high places. ^u And this thing became sin unto the house of Jeroboam, even ^x to cut it off, and to destroy it from off the face of the earth.

At that time Abijah the son of Jeroboam fell sick. And Jeroboam said to his wife, Arise, I pray thee, and disguise thyself, that thou be not known to be the wife of Jeroboam; and get thee to ^a Shiloh: behold, there is ^b Abijah the

And his mother's name was ^dNaamah an Ammonitess. ^eAnd Judah did evil in the sight of the LORD, and they ^fprovoked him to jealousy with their sins which they had committed, above all that their fathers had done. Now the rest ^qof the acts of Nadab, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

^qAnd there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days. In the third year of Asa king of Judah began Baasha the son of Ahijah to reign over all Israel in ^dTirzah, twenty and four years. And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and ^rwalked in the way of Jeroboam and in his sin wherewith he made Israel to sin. Then the word of the LORD came to ^aJehu the son of ^bHanani against Baasha, saying, ^cForasmuch as I exalted thee out of the dust, and made thee prince over my people Israel; and ^dthou hast walked in the way of Jeroboam, and hast made my people Israel to sin, to provoke me to anger with their sins; behold, I will ^etake away the posterity of Baasha, and the posterity of his house; and will make thy house like ^fthe house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat. ^gHim that dieth of Baasha in the city shall the dogs eat; and him that dieth of his in the fields shall the fowls of the air eat. Now the rest of the acts of Baasha, and what he did, and his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? So Baasha slept with his fathers, and was buried in ^hTirzah: and Elah his son reigned in his stead. And also by the hand of the prophet ⁱJehu the son of Hanani came the word of the LORD against Baasha, and against his house, even for all the evil that he did in the sight of the LORD, in provoking him to anger with the work of his hands, in being like the house of Jeroboam; and because ^khe killed him.

In the twenty and sixth year of Asa king of Judah began Elah the son of Baasha to reign over Israel in Tirzah, two years. And his servant ^lZimri, captain of half his chariots, conspired against him, as he was in Tirzah, drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza ^msteward of his house in Tirzah. And Zimri went in and smote him, and killed him, in the twenty and seventh year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned in his stead. And it came to pass, when he began to reign, as soon as he sat on his throne, that he slew all the house of Baasha: he left him ⁿnot one that pisseth against a wall, ^oneither of his kinsfolks, nor of his friends. Thus did Zimri destroy all the house of Baasha, ^paccording to the word of the LORD, which he spake against Baasha ^qby ^rJehu the prophet, for all the sins of Baasha, and the sins of Elah his son, ^sby which they sinned, and ^tby which they made Israel to sin, in provoking the LORD God of Israel to anger with their ^uvanities. Now the rest of the acts of Elah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

In the twenty and seventh year of Asa king of Judah did Zimri reign seven days in Tirzah. And the people were encamped ^aagainst Gibbethon, which ^b*belonged* to the Philistines. And the people that were encamped heard say, Zimri hath conspired, and hath also slain the king: wherefore all Israel made Omri, the captain of the host, king over Israel that day in the camp. And Omri went up from Gibbethon, and all Israel with him, and they besieged Tirzah. And it came to pass, when Zimri saw that the city was taken, that he went into the palace of the king's house, and burnt the king's house over him with fire, and died, for his sins which he sinned in doing evil in the sight of the LORD, in ^cwalking in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin which he did, ^dto make Israel sin. Now the rest of the acts of Zimri, and his ^etreason that he wrought, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

Then were the people of Israel divided into two parts: half of the people followed Tibni the son of Ginath, to make him king; and half followed Omri. But the people that followed Omri prevailed against the people that followed Tibni the son of Ginath: so Tibni died, and Omri reigned. In the thirty and first year of Asa king of Judah began Omri to reign over Israel, ^ttwelve years: six years reigned he in Tirzah. And he ²⁴ bought the hill Samaria of Shemer for two talents of silver, and built on the hill, and called the name of the city which he built, after the name of Shemer, owner of the hill, ^uSamaria. But ²⁵ ^vOmri wrought evil in the eyes of the LORD, and ^wdid worse than all that were before him. For he walked in all the ²⁶ way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and in his sin wherewith he made Israel to sin, to provoke the LORD God of Israel to anger with their ^xvanities. Now the ²⁷ rest of the acts of Omri which he did, and his might that he shewed, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? So Omri slept ²⁸ with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria: and Ahab his son reigned in his stead.

B. C. 918. And in the thirty and eighth year of ²⁹ Asa king of Judah began Ahab the son of Omri to reign over Israel: and Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria twenty and two years. And ³⁰ Ahab the son of Omri did evil in the sight of the LORD ^yabove all that were before him. And it came to pass, ³¹ ^zas if it had been a light thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, that ^{aa}he took to wife Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal king of the ^aZidonians, and went and ^bserved Baal, and worshipped him. And he reared ³² up an altar for Baal in ^cthe house of Baal, which he had built in Samaria. And Ahab made ^da grove; and Ahab ³³ did more to provoke the LORD God of Israel to anger ^ethan all the kings of Israel that were before him.

In his days did Hiel the Bethelite ³⁴ build ^fJericho: he laid the foundation thereof in Abiram his firstborn, and set up the gates thereof in his youngest ³⁵ son Segub, ^gaccording to the word of the LORD, which he spake by Joshua the son of Nun.

shall be, that thou shalt drink of the brook; and I have commanded the ⁵ ravens to feed thee there. So he went and did according unto the word of the LORD: for he went and dwelt by the brook Cherith, that is before Jordan. ⁶ And the ravens brought him bread and flesh in the morning, and bread and flesh in the evening; and he drank of ⁷ the brook. And it came to pass [†]after a while, that the brook dried up, because there had been no rain in the land.

⁸ And the word of the LORD came ⁹ unto him, saying, Arise, get thee to ^cZarephath, which belongeth to Zidon, and dwell there: behold, I have commanded a widow woman there to sustain thee. So he arose and went to ^cZarephath. And when he came to the gate of the city, behold, the widow woman was there ^fgathering of sticks: ¹⁰ and he called to her, and said, Fetch me, I pray thee, a little water in a ¹¹ vessel, that I may drink. And Elijah said unto her, Fear not; go and do as thou hast said: but make me thereof a little cake first, and bring it unto me, and after make ¹⁴ for thee and for thy son. For thus saith the LORD God of Israel, The barrel of meal shall not waste, neither shall the cruse of oil fail, until the day ¹⁵ that the LORD [†]sendeth rain upon the earth. And she went and did according to the saying of Elijah: and she, and he, and her house, did eat ^hmany ¹⁶ days. And the barrel of meal wasted not, neither did the cruse of oil fail, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake ⁱby Elijah.

¹⁷ And it came to pass after these things, that the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, fell sick; and his sickness was so sore, that there was no ¹⁸ breath left in him. And she said unto Elijah, ^hWhat have I to do with thee, O thou ⁱman of God? art thou come unto me to ^jcall my sin to remembrance, and to slay my son? And he said unto her, Give me thy son. And he took him out of her bosom, and carried him up into a ^kloft, where he abode, and laid him upon his own bed. And ^lhe cried unto the LORD, and said, ²⁰O LORD my God, hast thou also brought evil upon the widow with whom I sojourn, by slaying her son? ¹And he ²¹stretched himself upon the child three times, and cried unto the LORD, and said, O LORD my God, I pray thee, let this child's soul come [†]into him again. And the LORD heard the voice of Elijah; ²²and the soul of the child came into him again, and he ^mrevived. And Elijah took ²³the child, and brought him down out of the ^kchamber into the house, and delivered him unto his mother: and Elijah said, See, thy son liveth. And ²⁴the woman said to Elijah, Now ^{by} this ⁿI know that thou ^{art} a ⁱman of God, and ^{that} the word of the LORD in thy mouth ^{is} truth.

And it came to pass ^{after} ^amany days, that the word of the LORD came to Elijah in the third year, saying, Go, shew thyself unto Ahab; and ^bI will send rain upon the earth. And Elijah ²went to shew himself unto Ahab. And ^{there} ^{was} a sore famine in Samaria. And Ahab called [†]Obadiah, which ^{was} ³the governor of ^{his} house. (Now Obadiah feared the LORD greatly: for it was ^{so}, when [†]Jezebel cut off the prophets of the LORD, that Obadiah took an hundred prophets, and hid them ^{by} fifty in a cave, and fed them ^{with} bread and water.) And Ahab said unto ⁵Obadiah, Go into the land, unto all fountains of water, and unto all brooks: peradventure we may find grass to save the horses and mules alive, [†]that we leese not all the beasts. So they divided ⁶the land between them to pass throughout it: Ahab went one way by himself, and Obadiah went another way by himself.

And as Obadiah was in the way, ⁷behold Elijah met him: and he knew him, and fell on his face, and said, ^{Art} thou that my lord Elijah? And he answered him, I ^{am}: go, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah ^{is} ^{here}. And he said, ⁹What have I sinned, that thou wouldest deliver thy servant into the hand of Ahab, to slay me? ^{As} the LORD thy ¹⁰God liveth, there is no nation or kingdom, whither my lord hath not sent to seek thee: and when they said, ^{He} ^{is} not ^{there}; he took an oath of the kingdom and nation, that they found thee ¹¹not. And now thou sayest, Go, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah ^{is} ^{here}. And it shall come to pass, ^{as} ^{soon} as I am gone from thee, that ^{the} spirit of the LORD shall carry thee whither I know not; and ^{so} when I come and tell Ahab, and he cannot find thee, he shall slay me: but ^I thy servant fear the LORD ¹³from my youth. Was it not told my lord what I did when Jezebel slew the prophets of the LORD, how I hid an hundred men of the LORD's prophets by fifty in a cave, and fed them ^{with} bread and water? And now thou sayest, Go, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah ¹⁵^{is} ^{here}: and he shall slay me. And Elijah said, ^dAs the LORD of hosts liveth, before whom I stand, I will surely shew myself unto him to day. ¹⁶So Obadiah went to meet Ahab, and told him: and Ahab went to meet Elijah.

And it came to pass, when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said unto him, ^eArt thou he that ^{troubleth} Israel? ¹⁸And he answered, I have not ^{troubled} Israel; but thou, and thy father's house, ⁱⁿ that ye have forsaken the commandments of the LORD, and ^hthou ¹⁹hast followed Baalim. Now therefore send, ^{and} gather to me all Israel unto mount ⁱCarmel, and the prophets of Baal four hundred and fifty, and the prophets of ^kthe groves four hundred, ²⁰which eat ^{at} [†]Jezebel's table. So Ahab sent unto all the children of Israel, and ^mgathered the prophets together unto ²¹mount ⁱCarmel. And Elijah came unto all the people, and said, How long halt ye between two [†]opinions? ⁿif the LORD ^{be} God, follow him: but if Baal, ^{then} follow him. And the people answered him not a word. Then said Elijah unto the people, ^oI, ^{even} I only, remain a prophet of the LORD; [†]but Baal's prophets ^{are} four hundred and ²³fifty men. Let them therefore give us two bullocks; and let them choose one bullock for themselves, and cut it in pieces, and lay ^{it} on wood, and put no fire ^{under}: and I will dress the other bullock, and lay ^{it} on wood, and put ²⁴no fire ^{under}: and call ye on the name of your gods, and I will call on the name of the LORD: and the God that ^qanswereth by fire, let him be God. And all the people answered and said,

[†] It is well spoken. And Elijah said ²⁵ unto the prophets of Baal, Choose you one bullock for yourselves, and dress it first; for ye are many; and call on the name of your gods, but put no fire under. And they took the bullock ²⁶ which was given them, and they dressed it, and called on the name of Baal from morning even until noon, saying, O Baal, [†]hear us. But there was no voice, nor any that [‡]answered. And they [‡]leapt upon the altar which was made. And it came to pass at noon, ²⁷ that Elijah mocked them, and said, Cry [†]aloud: for he is a god; either [†]he is talking, or he [†]is pursuing, or he is in a journey, or peradventure he sleepeth, and must be awaked. And they cried ²⁸ loud, and [‡]cut themselves after their manner with knives and lancets, till [†]the blood gushed out upon them. And ²⁹ it came to pass, when midday was past, and they prophesied until the time of the [†]offering of [‡]the evening sacrifice, that there was [†]neither voice, nor any to answer, nor any [†]that regarded. And ³⁰ Elijah said unto all the people, Come near unto me. And all the people came near unto him. And he repaired the altar of the LORD that was [‡]broken down. And Elijah took twelve stones, ³¹ according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, unto whom the word of the LORD came, saying, [‡]Israel shall be thy name: and with the stones ³² he built an altar in the name of the LORD: and he made a trench about the altar, as great as would contain two measures of seed. And he [‡]put ³³ the wood in order, and cut the bullock in pieces, and laid him on the wood, and said, Fill four barrels with water, and [‡]pour it on the burnt sacrifice, and on the wood. And he said, Do it ³⁴ the second time. And they did it the second time. And he said, Do it the third time. And they did it the third time. And the water [†]ran round about ³⁵ the altar; and he filled [‡]the trench also with water. And it came to pass at ³⁶ the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, that Elijah the prophet came near, and said, LORD [‡]God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, [†]let it be known this day that thou art God in Israel, and that I am thy servant, and that [†]I have done all these things at thy word. Hear me, O LORD, hear ³⁷ me, that this people may know that thou art the LORD God, and that thou hast turned their heart back again.

³⁸ Then [‡]the fire of the LORD fell, and consumed the burnt sacrifice, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench. And when all the people saw it, they fell on their faces: and they said, [†]The LORD, he is the God; [‡]ver. 24.
⁴¹ And Elijah said unto Ahab, Get thee up, eat and drink; for there is [†]a sound of abundance of rain. So Ahab went up to eat and to drink. And Elijah went up to the top of [†]Carmel; and he [‡]cast himself down upon the earth, and ⁴³ put his face between his knees, and said to his servant, Go up now, look toward the sea. And he went up, and looked, and said, There is nothing. And he said, Go again seven times.
⁴⁴ And it came to pass at the seventh time, that he said, Behold, there ariseth [†]a little cloud out of the sea, like a man's hand. And he said, Go up, say unto Ahab, [†]Prepare [‡]thy chariot, and get thee down, that the rain stop thee ⁴⁵ not. And it came to pass in the mean while, that the heaven was black with clouds and wind, and there was a great rain. And Ahab rode, and went to ⁴⁶ [‡]Jezreel. And [‡]the hand of the LORD was on Elijah; and he [‡]girded up his loins, and ran before Ahab [†]to the entrance of [‡]Jezreel.

And Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, and withal how he had [‡]slain ² all the prophets with the sword. Then Jezebel sent a messenger unto Elijah, saying, [‡]So let the gods do to me, and more also, if I make not thy life as the life of one of them by to-morrow ³ about this time. And when he saw that, he arose, and went for his life, and came to [‡]Beer-sheba, which belongeth to Judah, and left his servant there. ⁴ But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a juniper tree: and he [‡]requested [†]for himself that he might die; and said, It is enough; now, O LORD, take away my life; for I am not better ⁵ than my fathers. And as he lay and slept under a juniper tree, behold then, an angel touched him, and said unto him, Arise and eat. And he looked, ⁶ and behold, there was a cake baken on the coals, and a cruse of water at his ¹head. And he did eat and drink, and laid him down again. And the ⁷ angel of the LORD came again the second time, and touched him, and said, Arise and eat; because the journey is too great for thee. And he ⁸ arose, and did eat and drink, and went in the strength of that meat ^eforty days and forty nights unto ^fHoreb the mount of God.

And he came thither unto a cave, ⁹ and lodged there; and behold, the word of the LORD came to him, and he said unto him, What doest thou here, Elijah? And he said, I have been very ^gjealous ¹⁰ for the LORD God of hosts: for the children of Israel have forsaken thy covenant, ^hthrown down thine altars, and ⁱslain thy prophets with the sword; and ^jI, even I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away. And he said, Go forth, and ¹¹stand ^kupon the mount before the LORD.

And behold, the LORD passed by, and ¹²a great and strong wind rent the mountains, and brake in pieces the rocks before the LORD; but the LORD was not in the wind: and after the wind an earthquake; but the LORD was not in the earthquake: and after the earthquake a fire; but the LORD was not in the fire: and after the fire a ^mstill small voice. And it was so, when Elijah ¹³heard it, that ⁿhe wrapped his face in his mantle, and went out, and stood in the entering in of the cave. ^oAnd behold, there came a voice unto him, and said, What doest thou here, Elijah?

^pAnd he said, I have been very jealous ¹⁴ for the LORD God of hosts: because the children of Israel have forsaken thy covenant, thrown down thine altars, and slain thy prophets with the sword; and I, even I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away. And the LORD said unto him, ¹⁵Go, return on thy way to the wilderness of ^qDamascus: and when thou comest, ^ranoint Hazael to be king over Syria: and ^sJehu the son of Nimshi shalt thou anoint to be king over Israel: and ^tElisha the son of Shaphat of ^uAbel-meholah shalt thou anoint to be prophet in thy room. And it shall ¹⁷come to pass, that him that escapeth the sword of ^vHazael shall ^xJehu slay: and him that escapeth from the sword ¹⁸of Jehu ^yshall Elisha slay. Yet ^zI have left me seven thousand in Israel, all the knees which have not bowed unto Baal, and ^aevery mouth which hath not kissed him.

¹⁹ So he departed thence, and found Elisha the son of Shaphat, who was plowing with twelve yoke of oxen before him, and he with the twelfth: and Elijah passed by him, and cast ^bhis mantle upon him. And he left the oxen, and ran after Elijah, and said, ^cLet me, I pray thee, kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow thee. And he said unto him, ^dGo back again: for ²¹what have I done to thee? And he returned back from him, and took a yoke of oxen, and slew them, and boiled their flesh ^dwith the instruments of the oxen, and gave unto the people, and they did eat. Then he arose, and ^ewent after Elijah, and ^fministered unto him.

And ^aBen-hadad the king of Syria gathered all his host together: and there were thirty and two kings with him, and horses, and chariots: and he went up and besieged ^bSamaria, and warred against it. And he sent messengers to Ahab king of Israel into the city, and said unto him, Thus saith Ben-hadad, ³Thy silver and thy gold is mine; thy wives also and thy children, even the ⁴goodliest, are mine. And the king of Israel answered and said, My lord, O king, according to thy saying, I ⁵am ⁵thine, and all that I have. And the messengers came again, and said, Thus speaketh Ben-hadad, saying, Although I have sent unto thee, saying, Thou shalt deliver me thy silver, and thy gold, and ⁶thy wives, and thy children; yet I will send my servants unto thee to morrow about this time, and they shall search thine house, and the houses of thy servants; and it shall be, that whatsoever is ⁷pleasant in thine eyes, they shall put it in their hand, and take it away. Then ^cthe king of Israel called all the elders of the land, and said, ^dMark, I pray you, and see how this man seeketh mischief: for he sent unto me for my wives, and for my children, and for my silver, and for my gold; ⁸and ^eI denied him not. And all the elders and all the people said unto him, Harken not unto him, nor consent.

Wherefore he said unto the messengers ⁹ of Ben-hadad, Tell my lord the king, All that thou didst send for to thy servant at the first I will do: but this thing I may not do. And the messengers departed, and brought him word again. And Ben-hadad sent unto him, ¹⁰ and said, The gods ^edo so unto me, and more also, if the dust of Samaria shall suffice for handfuls for all the people that ^ffollow me. And ^ethe king of ¹¹ Israel answered and said, Tell him, Let not him that girdeth on his ^fharness boast himself as he that putteth it off. And it came to pass, when Ben-hadad ¹² heard this ^fmessage, as he was ^gdrinking, he and the kings in the ^hpavilions, that he said unto his servants, ⁱSet yourselves in array. And they set themselves in array against the city.

And behold, there ^jcame a prophet ¹³ unto Ahab king of Israel, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Hast thou seen all this great multitude? behold, ^kI will deliver it into thine hand this day; and ^lthou shalt know that I am the LORD. And ¹⁴ Ahab said, By whom? And he said, Thus saith the LORD, Even by the ^myoung men of the princes of the provinces. Then he said, Who shall ⁿorder the battle? And he answered, Thou. Then he numbered the young men of ¹⁵ the princes of the provinces, and they were two hundred and thirty two: and after them he numbered all the people, even all the children of Israel, being seven thousand. And they went out at ¹⁶ noon. But Ben-hadad was ^kdrinking himself drunk in the pavilions, he and the kings, the thirty and two kings that helped him. And the young men ¹⁷ of the princes of the provinces went out first; and Ben-hadad sent out, and they told him, saying, There are men come out of Samaria. And he said, Whether ¹⁸ they be come out for peace, take them alive; or whether they be come out for war, take them alive. So these young ¹⁹ men of the princes of the provinces came out of the city, and the army which followed them. And they slew ²⁰ every one his man: and the Syrians fled; and Israel pursued them: and Ben-hadad the king of Syria escaped on a horse with the horsemen. And ^ethe king of Israel went out, and smote the horses and chariots, and slew the Syrians with a great slaughter.

of Israel, and said unto him, Go, strengthen thyself, and mark, and see what thou doest: for at ^mthe return of the year the king of Syria will come up ²³ against thee. And the servants of the king of Syria said unto him, Their gods are gods of the hills; therefore they were stronger than we; but let us fight against them in ⁿthe plain, and surely ²⁴ we shall be stronger than they. And do this thing, Take the kings away, every man out of his place, and put ²⁵ captains in their rooms: and number thee an army, like the army ^lthat thou hast lost, horse for horse, and chariot for chariot: and we will fight against them in ⁿthe plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they. And he hearkened unto their voice, and did so. And it came to pass at the return of the year, that Ben-hadad numbered the Syrians, and went up to ^oAphek, ^lto fight ²⁷ against Israel. And the children of Israel were numbered, and ^lwere all present, and went against them: and the children of Israel pitched before them like two little flocks of kids; but the ²⁸ Syrians filled the country. And there came ^{pa} a man of God, and spake unto the king of Israel, and said, Thus saith the LORD, Because the Syrians have said, ^qThe LORD is God of the hills, but he is not God of the valleys, therefore ^rwill I deliver all this great multitude into thine hand, and ye shall ²⁹ know that I am the LORD. And they pitched one over against the other seven days. And so it was, that in the seventh day the battle was joined: and the children of Israel slew of the Syrians an hundred thousand footmen in ³⁰ one day. But the rest fled to ^oAphek, into the city; and there a wall fell upon twenty and seven thousand of the men that were left. And Ben-hadad fled, and came into the city, ^linto an inner ³¹ chamber. And his servants said unto him, Behold now, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings: let us, I pray thee, ^sput sackcloth on our loins, and ropes upon our heads, and go out to ^ethe king of Israel: peradventure he will save thy ³² life. So they girded sackcloth on their loins, and put ropes on their heads, and came to ^ethe king of Israel, and said, Thy servant Ben-hadad saith, I pray thee, let me live. And he said, Is he ³³ yet alive? he is my brother. Now the is dead. And it came to pass, when¹⁵ Jezebel heard that Naboth was stoned, and was dead, that Jezebel said to Ahab, Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he refused to give thee for money: for Naboth is not alive, but dead. And it¹⁶ came to pass, when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, that Ahab rose up to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to take possession of it.

And¹⁷ the word of the LORD came to¹⁷ Elijah the Tishbite, saying, Arise, go¹⁸ down to meet Ahab king of Israel, which¹⁹ is in Samaria: behold, he is in the vineyard of Naboth, whither he is gone down to possess it. And thou¹⁹ shalt speak unto him, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Hast thou killed, and also taken possession? And thou shalt speak unto him, saying, Thus saith the LORD,²⁰ In the place where dogs licked the blood of Naboth shall dogs lick thy blood, even thine. And Ahab said to²⁰ Elijah, Hast thou found me, O mine enemy? And he answered, I have found thee: because thou hast²¹ sold thyself to work evil in the sight of the LORD, behold, I will bring evil upon thee,²¹ and will take away²² thy posterity, and will cut off from Ahab²² him that pisseth against the wall, and²³ him that is shut up and left in Israel, and will make²² thine house like²³ the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like²⁴ the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah, for the provocation wherewith thou hast provoked me to anger, and²⁴ made Israel to sin. And of Jezebel also spake the LORD, saying, The dogs shall eat Jezebel by the²⁴ wall of Jezreel. Him that²⁴ dieth of Ahab in the city the dogs shall eat; and him that dieth in the field shall the fowls of the air eat. (But²⁵ there was none like unto Ahab, which did²⁵ sell himself to work wickedness in the sight of the LORD, whom Jezebel his wife²⁶ stirred up. And he did very²⁶ abominably in following²⁷ idols, according to all things²⁷ as did the Amorites, whom the LORD cast out before the children of Israel). And it came to²⁷ pass, when Ahab heard those words, that²⁸ he rent his clothes, and²⁸ put sackcloth upon his flesh, and²⁹ fasted, and lay in sackcloth, and went softly. And the word of the LORD came to²⁸ Elijah the Tishbite, saying, Seest thou²⁹ how Ahab humbleth himself before me?

And they continued three years without war between Syria and Israel. And it came to pass on the third year, that³¹ Jehoshaphat the king of Judah came down to³² the king of Israel. And the king of Israel said unto his servants, Know ye that³³ Ramoth in Gilead is ours, and we³⁴ be still, and take it not out of the hand of the king of Syria? And he said unto Jehoshaphat, Wilt thou go with me to battle to Ramoth-gilead? And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, I am as thou art, my people as thy people, my horses as thy horses. And Jehoshaphat said unto the king of Israel, Inquire, I pray thee, at³⁵ the word of the LORD to day. Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, about four hundred men, and said unto them, Shall I go against Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And they said, Go up; for the Lord shall deliver it into the hand of³⁶ the king. And³⁷ Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of the LORD besides, that we might inquire of him? And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, There is yet one man, Micaiah the son of Imlah, by whom we may inquire of the LORD: but I hate him; for he doth not prophesy good concerning me, but evil. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king say so. Then the king of Israel called an³⁸ officer, and said, Hasten hither Micaiah the son of Imlah. And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah sat each on his throne, having put on their robes, in a³⁹ void place in the entrance of the gate of⁴⁰ Samaria; and all the prophets prophesied before them. mouth of all these thy prophets, and the LORD hath spoken evil concerning thee. But Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah went near, and ^s smote Micaiah on the cheek, and said, Which way went the spirit of the LORD from me to speak unto thee? And Micaiah said, ²⁵

Behold, thou shalt see in that day, when thou shalt go ^t into an inner chamber to hide thyself. And the king ²⁶ of Israel said, Take Micaiah, and carry him back unto Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son; and say, ²⁷

Thus saith the king, ^t Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until ^u I come in peace. And Micaiah said, ²⁸

If thou return at all in peace, ^w the LORD hath not spoken by me. And he said, Hearken, O people, every one of you.

²⁹ So the king of Israel and Jehosha-phat the king of Judah went up to ³⁰ Ramoth-gilead. And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, ^t I will ^x disguise myself, and enter into the battle; but put thou on thy robes. And the king of Israel ^x disguised himself, and ³¹ went into the battle. But the king of Syria commanded his ^y thirty and two captains that had rule over ^{his} chariots, saying, ^z Fight neither with small nor great, save only with the king of Israel.

³² And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, Surely it is the king of Israel.
And they ^a turned aside to fight against ³³ him: and Jehoshaphat ^a cried out. And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots perceived that it ^{was} not the king of Israel, that they turned back

³⁴ from pursuing him. And a ^{certain} man drew a bow ^t at a venture, and smote the king of Israel between the ^t joints of the harness: wherefore he said unto the driver of his chariot, Turn thine hand, and carry me out of the host; for ³⁵ I am ^t wounded. And the battle ⁱ increased that day: and the king was stayed up in ^{his} chariot against the Syrians, and died at even: and the blood ran out of the wound into the ³⁶ ^t midst of the chariot. And there went a proclamation throughout the host about the going down of the sun, saying,

Every man to his city, and every man

³⁷ to his own country. So the king died, and ^t was brought to Samaria; and they ³⁸ buried the king in Samaria. And ^{one} washed the chariot in the pool of Samaria; and the dogs licked up his blood; and they washed his armour;

acts of Ahab, and all that he did, and

THE SECOND BOOK OF THE KINGS,

COMMONLY CALLED,
THE FOURTH BOOK OF THE KINGS.

I. THEN Moab ^arebelled against Israel ^bafter the death of Ahab. And Ahaziah fell down through a lattice in his upper chamber that was in Samaria, and was sick: and he sent messengers, and said unto them, Go, inquire of ^dBaal-zebub the god of ^eEkron whether ^fI shall recover of this disease. But the angel ^gof the LORD said to Elijah ^hthe Tishbite, Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and say unto them, Is it not because there is not a God in Israel, that ye go to inquire of ^dBaal-zebub the god of ^eEkron? Now therefore thus saith the LORD, 'Thou shalt not come down from that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die. And Elijah departed. And when the messengers turned back unto him, he said unto them, Why are ye now turned back? And they said unto him, There came a man up to meet us, and said unto us, Go, turn again unto the king that sent you, and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Is it not because there is not a God in Israel, that thou sendest to inquire of ^dBaal-zebub the god of ^eEkron? therefore thou shalt not come down from that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die. And he said unto them, *'What manner of man was he* which came up to meet you, and told you these words? And they answered him, *He was ^{ha}a hairy man, and girt with a girdle of leather about his loins.* And he said, *It is Elijah ^hthe Tishbite.* Then the king sent unto him a captain of fifty with his fifty. And he went up to him: and behold, he sat on the top of a hill. And he spake unto him, Thou ⁱman of God, the king hath said, Come down. And Elijah answered and said to the captain of fifty, If I be a man of God, then ^jlet fire come down from heaven, and consume thee and thy fifty. And there came down fire from heaven, and consumed him and his fifty. Again also he sent unto him another captain of fifty with his fifty. And he answered and said unto him, O man of God, thus hath the king said, Come down quickly. And Elijah answered and said unto them, If I be a man of God, let fire come down from heaven, and consume thee and thy fifty. And ^kthe fire of God came down from heaven, and consumed him and his fifty. And he sent again a captain of the third fifty with his fifty. And the third captain of fifty went up, and came and ^lfell on his knees before Elijah, and besought him, and said unto him, O man of God, I pray thee, let my life, and the life of these fifty thy servants, ^mbe precious in thy sight. Behold, there came fire down from heaven, and burnt up the two captains of the former fifties with their fifties: therefore let my life now be precious in thy sight. And the angel of the LORD said unto Elijah, Go down with him: be not afraid of him. And he arose, and went down with him unto the king. And he said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Forasmuch as thou hast sent messengers to inquire of ^dBaal-zebub the god of ^eEkron, is it not because there is no God in Israel to inquire of his word? therefore thou shalt not come down off that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die. So he died according to the word of the LORD which Elijah had spoken. And ⁿJehoram reigned in his stead in the second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah; because he had no son. Now the rest of the acts of Ahaziah which he did, are they not written in the book

He took up also the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and went back, and stood by the ¹bank of Jordan; and he took the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and smote the waters, and said, Where is the LORD God of Elijah? and when he also had smitten the waters, ^sthey parted hither and thither: and Elisha went over. And when the sons of the prophets which ^twere to view at Jericho saw him, they said, The spirit of Elijah doth rest on Elisha. And they came to meet him, and bowed themselves to the ground before him. And they said unto him, Behold now, there be with thy servants fifty ¹strong men; let them go, we pray thee, and seek thy master: lest peradventure ^uthe spirit of the LORD hath taken him up, and cast him upon ¹some mountain, or into some valley. And he said, Ye shall not send. And when they urged him ^xtill he was ashamed, he said, Send. They sent therefore fifty men; and they sought three days, but found him not. And when they came again to him, (for he tarried at Jericho,) he said unto them, Did I not say unto you, Go not?

he wrought evil in the sight of the LORD; but not like his father, and like his mother: for he put away the [†]image of Baal ^bthat his father had made. Nevertheless he cleaved unto ^cthe sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, ^dwhich made Israel to sin; he departed not therefrom. And Mesha king of Moab was a ^esheep-master, and rendered unto the king of Israel an hundred thousand ^flambs, and an hundred thousand rams, with the wool. But it came to pass, when ^gAhab was dead, that the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel. And king Jehoram went out of Samaria the same time, and numbered all Israel. And he went and sent to Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, saying, The king of Moab hath rebelled against me: wilt thou go with me against Moab to battle? And he said, I will go up: ⁱI am as thou art, my people as thy people, and my horses as thy horses. And he said, Which way shall we go up? And he answered, The way through the wilderness of Edom. So the king of Israel went, and the king of Judah, and ^kthe king of Edom: and they fetched a compass of seven days' journey: and there was no water for the host, and for the cattle that [†]followed them. And the king of Israel said, ^lAlas, that the LORD hath called these three kings together, to deliver them into the hand of Moab. But ^mJehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of the LORD, that we may inquire of the LORD by him? And ⁿone of the king of Israel's servants answered and said, Here is Elisha the son of Shaphat, ^owhich poured water on the hands of Elijah. And Jehoshaphat said, The word of the LORD is with him. So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went down to him. And Elisha said unto the king of Israel, ^pWhat have I to do with thee? ^qget thee to the prophets of thy father, and to ^rthe prophets of thy mother. And the king of Israel said unto him, Nay: for the LORD hath called these three kings together, to deliver them into the hand of Moab. And Elisha said, ^sAs the LORD of hosts liveth, before whom I stand, surely, were it not that I ^tregard the presence of Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, I would not look toward thee, nor see thee. But now bring me ^ua minstrel. And it came to pass, when the minstrel played, that ^vthe hand of the LORD came upon him. And he said, Thus saith the LORD, ^wMake this valley full of ^xditches. For thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not see wind, neither shall ye see rain; yet that valley shall be filled with water, that ye may drink, both ye, and your cattle, and your beasts. And this is but ^ya light thing in the sight of the LORD: he will deliver the Moabites also into your hand. And ye shall smite every fenced city, and every choice city, and shall fell every good tree, and stop all wells of water, and ^zmar every good piece of land with stones. And it came to pass in the morning, when ²the meat offering was offered, that behold, there came water by the way of Edom, and the country was filled with water.

And when all the Moabites heard that the kings were come up to fight against them, they [†]gathered all that were able to ¹put on armour, and upward, and stood in the border. And they rose up early in the morning, and the sun shone upon the water, and the Moabites saw the water on the other side as red as blood: and they said, This is blood: the kings are surely [†]slain, and they have smitten one another: now therefore, Moab, to the spoil. And when they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up and smote the Moabites, so that they fled before them: but [†]they went forward smiting the Moabites, even in their country. And they beat down the cities, and ^aon every good piece of land cast every man his stone, and filled it; and they stopped all the wells of water, and felled all the good trees: [†]only in ^bKir-haraseth left they the stones thereof; howbeit the slingers went about it, and smote it. And when the king of Moab saw that the battle was too sore for him, he took with him seven hundred men ^cthat drew swords, to break through even unto the king of Edom: but they could not. Then ^dhe took his eldest son that should have reigned in his stead, and offered him for a burnt offering upon the wall. And there was great indignation against Israel: and they departed from him, and ^ereturned to their own land.

Now there cried a certain woman of the wives of ^athe sons of the prophets unto Elisha, saying, Thy servant my husband is dead; and thou knowest that thy servant did fear the LORD: and ^bthe creditor is come to take unto him my two sons to be bondmen. And Elisha said unto her, What shall I do for thee? tell me, what hast thou in the house? And she said, Thine handmaid hath not any thing in the house, save a pot of oil. Then he said, Go, ^cborrow thee vessels abroad of all thy neighbours, even empty vessels; ^bborrow not a few. And when thou art come in, thou shalt shut the door upon thee and upon thy sons, and shalt pour out into all those vessels, and thou shalt set aside that which is full. So she went from him, and shut the door upon her and upon her sons, who brought the vessels to her; and she poured out. And it came to pass, when the vessels were full, that she said unto her son, Bring me yet a vessel. And he said unto her, There is not a vessel more. And the oil stayed. Then she came and told ^dthe man of God. And he said, Go, sell the oil, and pay thy ^edebt, and live thou and thy children of the rest.

And ^fit fell on a day, that Elisha passed to ^gShunem, where was ^ha great woman; and she ⁱconstrained him to eat bread. And so it was, that as oft as he passed by, he turned in thither to eat bread. And she said unto her husband, Behold now, I perceive that this is a holy ^jman of God, which passeth by us continually. Let us make a little ^kchamber, I pray thee, on the wall; and let us set for him there a bed, and a table, and a stool, and a candlestick: and it shall be, when he cometh to us, that he shall turn in thither. And it fell on a day, that he came thither, and he turned into the ^lchamber, and lay there. And he said to ^mGehazi his servant, Call this ⁿShunammite. And when he had called her, she stood before him. And he said unto him, Say now unto her, Behold, thou hast been ^ocareful for us with all this care; what is to be done for thee? wouldest thou be spoken for to the king, or to ^pthe captain of the host? And she answered, I dwell among mine own people. And he said, What then is to be done for her? And Gehazi answered, Verily she hath no child, and her husband is old. And he said, Call her. And when he had called her, she stood in the door. And he said, ^qAbout this ^rseason, according to the time of life, thou shalt ^sembrace a son. And she said, Nay, my lord, ^tthou man of God, ^udo not lie unto thine handmaid. And the woman conceived, and bare a son at that season that Elisha had said unto her, according to the time of life.

And when the child was grown, it fell on a day, that he went out to his father to the reapers. And he said unto his father, ^vMy head, my head. And he said to a lad, Carry him to his mother. And when he had taken him, and brought him to his mother, he sat on her knees till noon, and then died. And she went up, and laid him on ^wthe bed of ^xthe man of God, and shut ^ythe door upon him, and went out. And she called unto her husband, and said, Send me, I pray thee, one of the young men, and one of the asses, that I may run to ^zthe man of God, and come again. And he said, Wherefore wilt thou go to him to day? it is neither ^{aa}new moon, nor sabbath. And she said, ^{ab}It shall be well. ^{ac}Then she saddled an ass, and said to her servant, Drive, and go forward; ^{ad}slack not thy riding for me, except I bid thee. So she went and came unto the man of God to ^{ae}mount Carmel. And it came to pass, when the man of God saw her ^{af}afar off, that he said to Gehazi his servant, Behold, ^{ag}yonder is that ^{ah}Shunammite: run now, I pray thee, to meet her, and say unto her, Is it well with thee? is it well with thy husband? is it well with the child? And she answered, It is well. And when she came to the man of God to ^{ai}the hill, she ^{aj}caught ^{ak}him by the feet: but Gehazi came near to thrust her away. And the man of God said, Let her alone; for her soul is ^{al}vexed within her: and the LORD hath hid ^{am}it from me, and hath not told me. Then she said, Did I desire a son of my lord? ^{an}did I not say, Do not deceive me? Then he said to Gehazi, ^{ao}Gird up thy loins, and take my staff in thine hand, and go thy way: if thou meet any man, ^{ap}salute him not; and if any salute thee, answer him not again: and ^{aq}blay my staff upon the face of the child. And the mother of the child said, ^{ar}As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. And he arose, and followed her. And Gehazi passed on before them, and laid the staff upon the face of the child; but there was neither voice, nor ^{as}hearing. Wherefore he went again to meet him, and told him, saying, ^{at}The child is not ^{au}awaked. And when Elisha was come into the house, behold, the child was dead, and laid upon his bed. He went in therefore,³³ and ^eshut the door upon them twain, and ^fprayed unto the LORD. And he³⁴ went up, and lay upon the child, and put his mouth upon his mouth, and his eyes upon his eyes, and his hands upon his hands: and he ^gstretched himself upon the child; and the flesh of the child waxed warm. Then he returned,³⁵ and walked in the house ^hto and fro; and went up, and ^gstretched himself upon him: and the child neesed seven times, and the child opened his eyes. And he called Gehazi, and said, Call³⁶ this ⁱShunammite. So he called her. And when she was come in unto him, he said, Take up thy son. Then she³⁷ went in, and fell at his feet, and bowed herself to the ground, and ^htook up her son, and went out.

And Elisha came again to ⁱGilgal:³⁸ and there was a ^kdearth in the land; and ^lthe sons of the prophets ^mwere ⁿsitting before him: and he said unto his servant, ⁿSet on the great pot, and seethe pottage for the sons of the prophets. And one went out into the field to³⁹ gather herbs, and found a wild vine, and gathered thereof wild gourds his lap full, and came and shred them into the pot of pottage: for they knew them not. So they poured out for the men to eat. And it came to pass, as they were eating of the pottage, that they cried out, and said, O thou man of God, there is death in the pot. And they could not eat thereof. But he said,⁴¹ Then bring meal. And ^ohe cast it into the pot; and he said, Pour out for the people, that they may eat. And there was no ^pharm in the pot.

And there came a man from Baal-⁴² ^qshalisha, and ^qbrought the man of God bread of the firstfruits, twenty loaves of barley, and ^rfull ears of corn ⁱin the husk thereof. And he said, ^sGive unto the people, that they may eat. And⁴³ his ^tservitor said, What, should I set this before an hundred men? He said again, Give the people, that they may eat: for thus saith the LORD, They shall eat, and ^ushall leave thereof. So he set⁴⁴ ^uit before them, and they did eat, and ^uleft thereof, according to the word of the LORD.

Now Naaman, ^acaptain of the host of the king of Syria, was a great man ^vwith his master, and ^whonourable, because by him the LORD had given ^xdeliverance unto Syria: he was also a mighty ^yman in valour, but he was a leper. And the Syrians had gone out ^zby ^bcompanies, and had brought away captive out of the land of Israel a little maid; and³ she ^zwaited on Naaman's wife. And she said unto her mistress, Would God my lord ^zwere ^zwith the prophet that is in Samaria; for he would ^zrecover him of his leprosy. And ^{one} went in, and told his lord, saying, Thus and thus said the maid that is of the land of⁵ Israel. And the king of Syria said, Go to, go, and I will send a letter unto the king of Israel. And he departed, and ^ztook ^zwith him ten talents of silver, and six thousand ^zpieces of gold, and ten ^dchanges of raiment. And he brought the letter to ^zthe king of Israel, saying, Now when this letter is come unto thee, behold, I have therewith sent Naaman my servant to thee, that thou mayest recover him of his leprosy. And it came to pass, when ^zthe king of Israel had read the letter, that ^zhe rent his clothes, and said, ^gAm I God, to kill and to make alive, that this ^zman doth send unto me to recover a man of his leprosy? wherefore ^hconsider, I pray you, and see how he seek-⁸ eth a quarrel against me. And it was so, when Elisha the man of God had heard that ^zthe king of Israel had rent his clothes, that he sent to the king, saying, Wherefore hast thou rent thy clothes? let him come now to me, and he shall know that there is a prophet in⁹ Israel. So Naaman came with his horses and with his chariot, and stood at the¹⁰ door of the house of Elisha. And Elisha sent a messenger unto him, saying, Go and ^zwash in Jordan seven times, and thy flesh shall come again to thee,¹¹ and thou shalt be clean. But Naaman was wroth, and went away, and said, Beho'd, ⁱI thought, He will surely come out to me, and stand, and call on the name of the LORD his God, and ^zstrike his hand over the place, and¹² recover the leper. Are not ^zAbana and Pharpar, rivers of ^kDamascus, better than all the waters of Israel? may I not wash in them, and be clean? So he¹³ turned and went away in a rage. And his servants came near, and spake unto him, and said, ⁱMy father, if the prophet had bid thee do some great thing, wouldest thou not have done it? how much rather then, when he saith to thee, Wash, and be clean? Then went ¹⁴ he down, and dipped himself seven times in Jordan, according to the saying of the man of God: and ^mhis flesh came again like unto the flesh of a little child, and ⁿhe was clean.

And he returned to the man of God, ¹⁵ he and all his company, and came, and stood before him: and he said, Behold, now I know that there is ^ono God in all the earth, but in Israel: now therefore, I pray thee, take ^pa blessing of thy servant. But he said, ^qAs the LORD ¹⁶ liveth, before whom I stand, ^rI will receive none. And he urged him to take it; but he refused. And Naaman ¹⁷ said, Shall there not then, I pray thee, be given to thy servant two mules' burden of earth? for thy servant will henceforth offer neither burnt offering nor sacrifice unto other gods, but unto the LORD. In this thing the LORD ¹⁸ pardon thy servant, that when my master goeth into the house of ^sRimmon to worship there, and ^the leaneth on my hand, and I bow myself in the house of Rimmon: when I bow down myself in the house of Rimmon, the LORD pardon thy servant in this thing. And he ¹⁹ said unto him, ^uGo in peace. So he departed from him ^va little way.

But ^xGehazi, the servant of Elisha ²⁰ the man of God, said, Behold, my master hath spared Naaman this Syrian, in not receiving at his hands that which he brought: but, ^yas the LORD liveth, I will run after him, and take somewhat of him. So Gehazi followed after Naaman. And when Naaman saw him running after him, he ^zlighted down from the chariot to meet him, and said, [†]Is all well? And he said, All is well. My ²² master hath sent me, saying, Behold, even now there be come to me from ^amount Ephraim two young men of ^bthe sons of the prophets: give them, I pray thee, a talent of silver, and two changes of garments. And Naaman said, ^cBe ²³ content, take two talents. And he urged him, and ^dbound two talents of silver in two ^ebags, with two changes of garments, and laid them upon two of his servants; and they bare them before him. And when he came to the [¶]tower, ²⁴ he took them from their hand, and bestowed them in the house: and he let the men go, and they departed. But ²⁵ he went in, and stood before his master. And Elisha said unto him, Whence comest thou, Gehazi? And he said, Thy ²⁶ servant went [†]no whither. And he said unto him, Went not mine heart with thee, when the man turned again from his chariot to meet thee? Is it a time to receive money, and to receive garments, and oliveyards, and vineyards, and sheep, and oxen, and menservants, ²⁷ and maidservants? The leprosy therefore of Naaman shall cleave unto thee, and unto thy seed for ever. And he went out from his presence ^{†a} leper as white as snow.

And ^athe sons of the prophets said unto Elisha, Behold now, the place where we dwell with thee is too strait ² for us. Let us go, we pray thee, unto Jordan, and take thence every man a beam, and let us make us a place there, where we may dwell. And he answered, Go ye. And one said, Be content, I pray thee, and go with thy servants. ⁴ And he answered, I will go. So he went with them. And when they came ⁵ to Jordan, they cut down wood. But as one was felling a beam, the [†]axe [†]head fell into the water: and he cried, and said, Alas, master, for it was ^bbor-⁶rowed. And the man of God said, Where fell it? And he shewed him the place. And ^che cut down a stick, and cast it in thither; and the iron did ⁷ swim. Therefore said he, Take it up to thee. And he put out his hand, and took it.

⁸ Then the king of Syria warred against Israel, and took counsel with his servants, saying, In such and such a place ⁹ shall be my [¶]camp. And the man of God sent unto ^dthe king of Israel, saying, Beware that thou pass not such a place; for thither the Syrians are come ¹⁰ down. And the king of Israel sent to the place which the man of God told him and ^ewarned him of, and saved himself there, not once nor twice. ¹¹ Therefore the heart of the king of Syria was sore troubled for this thing; and he called his servants, and said unto them, Will ye not shew me which of ¹² us is for the king of Israel? And one of his servants said, [†]None, my lord, O king: but Elisha, the prophet that is in Israel, telleth the king of Israel the words that thou speakest in thy ¹³ bedchamber. And he said, Go and spy where he is, that I may send and fetch him. And it was told him, say-¹⁴ ing, Behold, he is in [†]Dothan. Therefore sent he thither horses, and chariots, and a [†]great host: and they came by night, and compassed the city about. And when the [‡]servant of the man of ¹⁵ God was risen early, and gone forth, behold, a host compassed the city both with horses and chariots. And his servant said unto him, Alas, my master, how shall we do? And he answered, ¹⁶ Fear not: for [§]they that be with us are more than they that be with them. And ¹⁷ Elisha prayed, and said, LORD, I pray thee, open his eyes, that he may see. And when they came down to him, ¹⁸ Elisha prayed unto the LORD, and said, Smite this people, I pray thee, with ⁱblindness. And he smote them with blindness according to the word of Elisha. And Elisha said unto them, This ¹⁹ is not the way, neither is this the city: [†]follow me, and I will bring you to the man whom ye seek. But he led them to Samaria. And it came to pass, when ²⁰ they were come into Samaria, that Elisha said, ^jLORD, open the eyes of these men, that they may see. there was no man there. For the Lord ⁶ had made the host of the Syrians ^fto hear a noise of chariots, and a noise of horses, even the noise of a great host: and they said one to another, Lo, the king of Israel hath hired against us ^gthe kings of the Hittites, and the kings of the Egyptians, to come upon us. ^hWhere-⁷fore they arose and fled in ^ethe twilight, and left their tents, and their horses, and their asses, even the camp ⁱas it was, and fled for their life. And when ⁸these lepers came to the uttermost part of the camp, they went into one tent, and did eat and drink, and carried thence silver, and gold, and raiment, and went and hid it; and came again, and entered into another tent, and carried thence also, and went and hid it. Then they ⁹said one to another, We do not well: this day is a day of good tidings, and we hold our peace: if we tarry till the morning light, [†]some mischief will come upon us: now therefore come, that we may go and tell the king's household. So they came and called unto the por-¹⁰ter of the city: and they told them, saying, We came to the camp of the Syrians, and behold, there was no man there, neither voice of man, but horses tied, and asses tied, and the tents ⁱas they were. And he called the porters;¹¹ and they told it to the king's house within.

And the king arose in the night, and ¹²said unto his servants, I will now shew you what the Syrians have done to us. They know that we be hungry; therefore are they gone out of the camp to hide themselves in the field, saying, When they come out of the city, we shall catch them alive, and get into the city. And ¹³one of his servants answered and said, Let some take, I pray thee, ^kfive of the horses that remain, which are left ⁱin the city, (behold, they are as all the multitude of Israel that are left in it: behold, I say, they are even as all the multitude of the Israelites that are consumed:) and let us send and see. They ¹⁴took therefore two chariot horses; and the king sent after the host of the Syrians, saying, Go and see. And they ¹⁵went after them unto Jordan: and lo, all the way was full of garments and vessels, which the Syrians had cast away in their haste. And the messengers returned, and told the king. And the ¹⁶people went out, and spoiled the tents of the Syrians. So a measure of fine flour was sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, ¹according to the word of the LORD.

¹⁷ And the king appointed ^mthe lord on whose hand he leaned to have the charge of the gate: and the people trode upon him in the gate, and he died, as the man of God had said, who spake ⁿwhen ⁿch. 6. 32. the king came down to him. And it came to pass as the man of God had spoken to the king, saying, ¹Two measures of barley for a shekel, and a measure of fine flour for a shekel, shall be to morrow about this time in the gate of Samaria: and that ^mlord answered the man of God, and said, Now behold, if the LORD should make windows in heaven, might such a thing be? And he said, Behold, thou shalt see it with thine eyes, but shalt not eat thereof. ²⁰ And so it fell out unto him: for the people trode upon him in the gate, and he died.

Then spake Elisha unto the woman, ^awhose son he had restored to life, saying, Arise, and go thou and thine household, and sojourn wheresoever thou canst sojourn: for the LORD ^bhath called for a famine; and it shall also come upon the ²land seven years. And the woman arose, and did after the saying of the man of God: and she went with her household, and sojourned in the land of the Philis-³tines seven years. And it came to pass at the seven years' end, that the woman returned out of the land of the Philistines: and she went forth to cry unto the king for her house and for her land. ⁴ And the king talked with ^cGehazi the servant of the man of God, saying, Tell me, I pray thee, all the great things that ⁵Elisha hath done. And it came to pass, as he was telling the king how he had ^drestored a dead body to life, that be- hold, the woman, whose son he had re- stored to life, cried to the king for her house and for her land. And Gehazi said, My lord, O king, this is the woman, and this is her son, whom Elisha ⁶restored to life. And when the king asked the woman, she told him. So the king appointed unto her a certain [†]officer, saying, Restore all that was hers, and all the fruits of the field since the day that she left the land, even until now.

and it was told him, saying, The man of God is come hither. And the king said ⁸ unto ^aHazael, Take ^ba present in thine hand, and go, meet the man of God, and inquire of the LORD by him, saying, Shall I recover of this disease? So ⁹ Hazael went to meet him, and took a present ^cwith him, even of every good thing of Damascus, forty camels' burden, and came and stood before him, and said, ^kThy son Ben-hadad king of Syria hath sent me to thee, saying, Shall I recover of this disease? And Elisha ¹⁰ said unto him, Go, say unto him, Thou mayest certainly recover: howbeit the LORD hath shewed me that ^lhe shall surely die. And he settled his countenance ^mstedfastly, ⁿuntil he was ashamed: and the man of God wept. And Hazael ¹² said, Why weepeth my lord? And he answered, Because I know ⁿthe evil that thou wilt do unto the children of Israel: their strong holds wilt thou set on fire, and their young ^{men} wilt thou slay with the sword, and ^owilt dash their children, and ^prip up their women with child. And Hazael said, But what, ^qis thy servant a dog, that he should do this great thing? And Elisha answered, ^rThe LORD hath shewed me that thou shalt be king over Syria. So he departed from ¹⁴ Elisha, and came to his master; who said to him, What said Elisha to thee? And he answered, He told me that ^sthou shouldest surely recover. And it came ¹⁵ to pass on the morrow, that he took a thick cloth, and dipt ^tit in water, and spread ^uit on his face, so that he died: and Hazael reigned in his stead.

And in the fifth year of ^tJoram the ¹⁶ son of Ahab king of Israel, Jehoshaphat being then king of Judah, ^uJehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah ^vbegan to reign. ^xThirty and two years old was he when he ^wbegan to reign; and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem. And he ¹⁸ walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as did the house of Ahab: for ^ythe daughter of Ahab was his wife: and he did evil in the sight of the LORD. Yet ¹⁹ the LORD would not destroy Judah for David his servant's sake, ^zas he promised him to give to him alway a ^{light}, ^aand to his children. In his days Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, and ^bmade a king over themselves. So Jo- ²¹ ram went over to Zair, and all the chariots with him: and he rose by night, and smote the Edomites which compass-

ed him about, and the captains of the chariots: and the people fled ^cinto their tents. ²² Yet Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah unto this day. Then ²³ Libnah revolted at the same time. And the rest of the acts of Joram, and all that he did, ^{are} they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of ²⁴ Judah? And Joram slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers ^ein the city of David: and ^fAhaziah his son reigned in his stead.

In the ^gtwelfth year of Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel did Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah ^{begin} to ²⁶ reign. ^hTwo and twenty years old ^{was} Ahaziah when he ⁱbegan to reign; and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. And his mother's name ^{was} Athaliah, the ²⁷ daughter of Omri king of Israel. And he walked in the way of the house of Ahab, and did evil in the sight of the LORD, as ^{did} the house of Ahab: for he ^{was} ⁱthe son in law of the house of ²⁸ Ahab. And he went with Joram the son of Ahab to the war against ^kHazael king of Syria in ^lRamoth-gilead; and the ²⁹ Syrians wounded Joram. And ^mking Joram went back to be healed in ⁿJezreel of the wounds ^twhich the Syrians had given him at ^oRamah, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria. ^oAnd Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Joram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was ^ssick.

And Elisha the prophet called one of ^athe children of the prophets, and said unto him, ^bGird up thy loins, and take this ^cbox of oil in thine hand, and go to ² ^dRamoth-gilead: and when thou comest thither, look out there ^eJehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi, and go in, and make him arise up from among ^fhis brethren, and carry him to an ^{inner} chamber: then take the ^cbox of oil, and pour ^{it} on his head, and say, Thus saith the LORD, I have anointed thee king over Israel. Then open the door, and ⁴ flee, and tarry not. So the young man, ^{even} the young man ^athe prophet, went ⁵ to Ramoth-gilead. And when he came, behold, the captains of the host ^{were} sitting; and he said, I have an errand to thee, O captain. And Jehu said, Unto which of all us? And he said, To thee, ⁶ O captain. And he arose, and went into the house; and he poured the oil on his head, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, I have anointed thee king over the people of the LORD, even over Israel. And thou shalt smite the house of Ahab thy master, that I may avenge the blood of my servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of the LORD, at the hand of Jezebel. For the whole house of Ahab shall perish: and I will cut off from Ahab him that pisseth against the wall, and him that is shut up and left in Israel: and I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah: and the dogs shall eat Jezebel in the portion of Jezreel, and there shall be none to bury her. And he opened the door, and fled.

Then Jehu came forth to the servants of his lord: and one said unto him, Is all well? wherefore came this mad fellow to thee? And he said unto them, Ye know the man, and his communication. And they said, It is false; tell us now. And he said, Thus and thus spake he to me, saying, Thus saith the LORD, I have anointed thee king over Israel. Then they hasted, and took every man his garment, and put it under him on the top of the stairs, and blew with trumpets, saying, Jehu is king. So Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi conspired against Joram. (Now Joram had kept Ramoth-gilead, he and all Israel, because of Hazael king of Syria. But king Joram was returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Syrians had given him, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria.) And Jehu said, If it be your minds, then let none go forth nor escape out of the city to go to tell it in Jezreel. So Jehu rode in a chariot, and went to Jezreel; for Joram lay there. And Ahaziah king of Judah was come down to see Joram. And there stood a watchman on the tower in Jezreel, and he spied the company of Jehu as he came, and said, I see a company. And Joram said, Take a horseman, and send to meet them, and let him say, Is it peace? So there went one on horseback to meet him, and said, Thus saith the king, Is it peace? And Jehu said, What hast thou to do with peace? turn thee behind me. And the watchman told, saying, The messenger came to them, but he cometh not again. Then he sent out a second on horseback, which came to them, and said, Thus saith the king, Is it peace? And Jehu answered, What hast thou to do with peace? turn thee behind me. And the watchman told, saying, He came even unto them, and cometh not again: and the driving is like the driving of Jehu the son of Nimshi; for he driveth furiously. And Joram said, Make ready. And his chariot was made ready. And Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah went out, each in his chariot, and they went out against Jehu, and met him in the portion of Naboth the Jezreelite. And it came to pass, when Joram saw Jehu, that he said, Is it peace, Jehu? And he answered, What peace, so long as the whoredoms of thy mother Jezebel and her witchcrafts are so many? And Joram turned his hands, and fled, and said to Ahaziah, There is treachery, O Ahaziah. And Jehu drew a bow with his full strength, and smote Jehoram between his arms, and the arrow went out at his heart, and he sunk down in his chariot. Then said Jehu to Bidkar his captain, Take up, and cast him in the portion of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite: for remember how that, when I and thou rode together after Ahab his father, the LORD laid this burden upon him; surely I have seen yesterday the blood of Naboth, and the blood of his sons, saith the LORD; and I will requite thee in this plat, saith the LORD. Now therefore take and cast him into the plat of ground, according to the word of the LORD.

But when Ahaziah the king of Judah saw this, he fled by the way of the garden house. And Jehu followed after him, and said, Smite him also in the chariot. And they did so at the going up to Gur, which is by Ibleam. And he fled to Megiddo, and died there. And his servants carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem, and buried him in his sepulchre with his fathers in the city of David. And in the eleventh year of Joram the son of Ahab began Ahaziah to reign over Judah.

And when Jehu was come to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it; and she laid her face, and tired her head, and looked out at a window. And as Jehu entered in at the gate, she said, Had Zimri peace, who slew his master? And he lift up his face to the window, and said, Who is on my side? who?

And there looked out to him two or three [¶]eunuchs. And he said, Throw ³³her down. But they were exceedingly ⁴afraid, and said, Behold, two kings stood not before him: how then shall we stand? And he that was over the ⁵house, and he that was over the city, the elders also, and the bringers up of [¶]the children, sent to Jehu, saying, [¶]We are thy servants, and will do all that thou shalt bid us; we will not make any king: do thou that which is good in thine eyes. ⁹And it came to pass in the morning, that he went out, and stood, and said to all the people, Ye be righteous: behold, [¶]I conspired against my master, and slew him: but who slew all these? [¶]ch. 9. 14. 24.

bly for Baal. And they ^uproclaimed it. And Jehu sent through all Israel: and all the worshippers of Baal came, so that there was not a man left that came not. And they came into the ^xhouse of Baal; and the house of Baal was ^{||}full from one end to another. And he said unto him that was over the vestry, ^yBring forth vestments for all the worshippers of Baal. And he brought them forth vestments. And Jehu went, and Jehonadab the son of Rechab, into the house of Baal, and said unto the worshippers of Baal, Search, and look that there be here with you none of the servants of the LORD, but the worshippers of Baal only. And when they went in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings, Jehu appointed fourscore men without, and said, If any of the men whom I have brought into your hands escape, he that letteth him go, ^zhis life shall be for the life of him. And it came to pass, as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, that Jehu said to the ^aguard and to the captains, ^bGo in, and slay them; let none come forth. And they smote them with [†]the edge of the sword; and the ^aguard and the captains cast them out, and went to the city of the house of Baal. And they brought forth the [†]images out of the house of Baal, and burnt them. And they brake down the image of Baal, and brake down the house of Baal, and made it ^ca draught house unto this day. Thus Jehu destroyed Baal out of Israel. Howbeit from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, ^dwho made Israel to sin, Jehu departed not from after them, to wit, ^ethe golden calves that were in Beth-el, and that were in Dan. And the LORD said unto Jehu, Because thou hast done well in executing that which is right in mine eyes, and hast done unto the house of Ahab according to all that was in mine heart, ^fthy children of the fourth *gene-*ration shall sit on the throne of Israel. But Jehu [†]took no heed to walk in the law of the LORD God of Israel with all his heart: for he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam, ^dwhich made Israel to sin.

In those days the LORD ^gbegan [†]to cut Israel short: and ^hHazael smote them in all the coasts of Israel; from Jordan [†]eastward, all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, and the Reubenites, and the Manassites, ⁱfrom Aroer, which is by the river Arnon, ^{||}even ^kGilead and Bashan. Now the ^krest of the acts of Jehu, and all that he did, and all his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? And Jehu slept with his fathers: and they buried him in Samaria. And Jehoahaz his son reigned in his stead. And [†]the time that Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria was twenty and eight years.

^aAnd when ^bAthaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the [†]seed royal. ²But ^{||}Jehosheba, the daughter of king Joram, sister of Ahaziah, took ^{||}Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him from among the king's sons which were slain; and they hid him, even him and his nurse, in the bedchamber from Athaliah, so that he was not slain. And he was with her hid in the house of the LORD six years. And Athaliah did reign over the land.

⁴And the seventh year ^cJehoiada sent and fet the rulers over hundreds, with the ^dcaptains and the ^eguard, and brought them to him into the house of the LORD, and made a covenant with them, and took an oath of them in the house of the LORD, and shewed them the king's son. And he commanded them, saying, This is the thing that ye shall do; A third part of you [†]that enter in on the sabbath shall even be keepers of the watch of the king's house; and a third part shall be at the gate of ^gSur; and a third part at the gate behind the ^eguard: so shall ye keep the watch of the house, [†]that it be not broken down. And two [†]parts of all you [†]that go forth on the sabbath, even they shall keep the watch of the house of the LORD about the king. And ye shall ^hcompass the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand: and he that cometh within [†]the ranges, let him be slain: and be ye with the king as [†]he goeth out and as he cometh in. ⁹And the captains over the hundreds did according to all things that Jehoiada the priest commanded: and they took every man his men [†]that were to come in on the sabbath, with them that should go out on the sabbath, and came ¹⁰to Jehoiada the priest. And to the captains over hundreds did the priest give king David's spears and ^kshields, that were in the temple of the LORD. And the guard stood, every man with his weapons in his hand, round about the king, from the right corner of the temple to the left corner of the temple, along by the altar and the temple. And he brought forth the king's son, and put the crown upon him, and gave him the Testimony; and they made him king, and anointed him; and they clapt their hands, and said, God save the king. And when Athaliah heard the noise of the guard and of the people, she came to the people into the temple of the LORD. And when she looked, behold, the king stood by a pillar, as the manner was, and the princes and the trumpeters by the king, and all the people of the land rejoiced, and blew with trumpets: and Athaliah rent her clothes, and cried, Treason, Treason. But Jehoiada the priest commanded the captains of the hundreds, the officers of the host, and said unto them, Have her forth without the ranges: and him that followeth her kill with the sword. For the priest said, Let her not be slain in the house of the LORD. And they laid hands on her; and she went by the way by the which the horses came into the king's house: and there was she slain.

And Jehoiada made a covenant between the LORD and the king and the people, that they should be the LORD's people; between the king also and the people. And all the people of the land went into the house of Baal, and brake it down; his altars and his images brake they in pieces throughly, and slew Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. And the priest appointed officers over the house of the LORD. And he took the rulers over hundreds, and the captains, and the guard, and all the people of the land; and they brought down the king from the house of the LORD, and came by the way of the gate of the guard to the king's house. And he sat on the throne of the kings. And all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was in quiet: and they slew Athaliah with the sword beside the king's house. Seven years old was Jehoash when he began to reign.

XII.

In the seventh year of Jehu Jehoash began to reign; and forty years reigned he in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Zibiah of Beer-sheba. And

Jehoash did that which was right in the sight of the LORD all his days wherein Jehoiada the priest instructed him. But the high places were not taken away: the people still sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places. And Jehoash said to the priests, All the money of the dedicated things that is brought into the house of the LORD, even the money of every one that passeth the account, the money that every man is set at, and all the money that cometh into any man's heart to bring into the house of the LORD, let the priests take it to them, every man of his acquaintance: and let them repair the breaches of the house, wheresoever any breach shall be found. But it was so, that in the three and twentieth year of king Jehoash the priests had not repaired the breaches of the house. Then king Jehoash called for Jehoiada the priest, and the other priests, and said unto them, Why repair ye not the breaches of the house? now therefore receive no more money of your acquaintance, but deliver it for the breaches of the house. And the priests consented to receive no more money of the people, neither to repair the breaches of the house. But Jehoiada the priest took a chest, and bored a hole in the lid of it, and set it beside the altar, on the right side as one cometh into the house of the LORD: and the priests that kept the door put therein all the money that was brought into the house of the LORD. And it was so, when they saw that there was much money in the chest, that the king's scribe and the high priest came up, and they put up in bags, and told the money that was found in the house of the LORD. And they gave the money, being told, into the hands of them that did the work, that had the oversight of the house of the LORD: and they laid it out to the carpenters and builders, that wrought upon the house of the LORD, and to masons, and hewers of stone, and to buy timber and hewed stone to repair the breaches of the house of the LORD, and for all that was laid out for the house to repair it. Howbeit there were not made for the house of the LORD bowls of silver, snuffers, basons, trumpets, any vessels of gold, or vessels of silver, of the money that was brought into the house of the LORD: but they gave that to the workmen, and repaired

Then [¶]Hazael king of Syria went up,¹⁷ and fought against ^{*}Gath, and took it: and Hazael [§]set his face to go up to Jerusalem. And Jehoash king of Ju-¹⁸ dah [‡]took all the hallowed things that Jehoshaphat, and Jehoram, and Ahaziah, his fathers, kings of Judah, had dedicate, and [§]his own hallowed things, and all the gold that was found in the treasures of the house of the LORD, and in the king's house, and sent it to Hazael king of Syria: and [¶]he [†]went away from Jerusalem. And the rest of¹⁹ the acts of Joash, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? And [¶]his servants arose, and made a²⁰ conspiracy, and slew Joash in [¶]the house of Millo, which goeth down to [¶]Silla. For [¶]Jozachar the son of Shimeath, and Jehoabad the son of [¶]Shomer, his servants, smote him, and he died; and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David: and Amaziah his son reigned in his stead.

XIII. [¶]In the three and twentieth year of Joash the son of Ahaziah king of Judah Jehoahaz the son of Jehu began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned seventeen years. And he did that which [¶]was evil in the sight of the LORD, and [¶]followed the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, [¶]which made Israel to sin; he departed not therefrom. And [¶]the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he delivered them into the hand of [¶]Hazael king of Syria, and into the hand of [¶]Ben-hadad the son of Hazael, [¶]all their days. And Jehoahaz [¶]be-⁴ sought the LORD, and the LORD hearkened unto him: for [¶]he saw the oppression of Israel, because the king of Syria oppressed them. ([¶]And the LORD gave⁵ Israel a [¶]saviour, so that they went out from under the hand of the Syrians: and the children of Israel dwelt in [¶]their tents, [¶]as beforetime. Nevertheless they⁶ departed not from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, [¶]who made Israel sin, but [†]walked therein: and [¶]there [¶]remained⁷ the grove also in Samaria.) Neither did he leave of the people to Jehoahaz but fifty horsemen, and ten chariots, and ten thousand footmen; for the king of Syria had destroyed them, and had made them [¶]like the dust [¶]by threshing. Now the rest of the acts of Jehoahaz, and all that he did, and his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? And Jehoahaz slept with his fathers; and they buried him in Samaria: and [¶]Joash his son reigned in his stead^{*}.

¹⁰ In the thirty and seventh year of Joash king of Judah began [¶]Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned sixteen years. And he did that which [¶]was evil in the sight of the LORD; he departed not from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, [¶]who made Israel sin: but he walked¹² therein. [¶]And the rest of the acts of Joash, and [¶]all that he did, and his might [¶]where[¶]with he fought against Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? And Joash slept with his fathers; and Jeroboam sat upon his throne: and Joash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.

¹⁴ Now [¶]Elisha was fallen sick of his sickness whereof he died. And Joash the king of Israel came down unto him, and wept over his face, and said, O [¶]my father, my father, the chariot of Israel, ¹⁵and the horsemen thereof. And Elisha said unto him, Take bow and arrows. And he took unto him bow and arrows. ¹⁶And he said to the king of Israel, [¶]Put thine hand upon the bow. And he put his hand upon it: and Elisha put his¹⁷ hands upon the king's hands. And he said, Open the window eastward. And he opened it. Then Elisha said, Shoot. And he shot. And he said, The arrow of the LORD's deliverance, and the arrow of deliverance from Syria: for thou shalt smite the Syrians in [¶]Aphek, till *thou*¹⁸ have consumed them. And he said, Take the arrows. And he took them. And he said unto the king of Israel, Smite upon the ground. And he smote¹⁹ thrice, and stayed. son of Joash king of Judah ¹Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel began to reign in Samaria, and reigned forty and one years. And he did that which was ²⁴evil in the sight of the LORD: he departed not from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, ^awho made Israel to sin. He restored the coast of Israel ²⁵from the entering of Hamath unto ^cthe sea of the plain, according to the word of the LORD God of Israel, which he spake by the hand of his servant ^dJonah, the son of Amittai, the prophet, which was of ^eGath-hepher. For the ²⁶LORD ^fsaw the affliction of Israel, that it was very bitter: for ^gthere was not any shut up, nor any left, nor any helper for Israel. ^hAnd the LORD said not that he ²⁷would blot out the name of Israel from under heaven: but he saved them by the hand of Jeroboam the son of Joash. Now the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, ²⁸and all that he did, and his might, how he warred, and how he recovered ⁱDamascus, and Hamath, ^kwhich belonged to Judah, for Israel, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? And Jeroboam slept with his ²⁹fathers, even with the kings of Israel; and ¹Zachariah his son reigned in his stead.

In the ¹twenty and seventh year of Jeroboam king of Israel ^a*began* ¹Azariah son of Anaziah king of Judah to reign. ^bSixteen years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned ²two and fifty years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jecholiah of Jerusalem. ^bAnd he did that which was right ³in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Amaziah had done; ^csave that the high places were not removed: the people sacrificed and burnt incense still on the high places. And the LORD ^dsmote the king, so that he was a leper unto the day of his death, and ^edwelt in a several house. And Jotham the king's son was over the house, judging the people of the land. And ⁶the rest of the acts of Azariah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? So Azariah slept with his ⁷fathers; and they buried him ^fwith his fathers in the city of David: and Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

In the thirty and eighth year of Azariah king of Judah did ¹Zachariah the son of Jeroboam reign over Israel in ⁹Samaria six months. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as his fathers had done: he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, ^gwho made Israel to sin. And Shallum the son of Jabesh conspired against him, and ¹⁰smote him before the people, and slew him, and reigned in his ¹¹stead. And the rest of the acts of Zachariah, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of ¹²Israel. This was ^hthe word of the LORD which he spake unto Jehu, saying, Thy sons shall sit on the throne of Israel unto the fourth generation. And so it came to pass.

¹³ Shallum the son of Jabesh began to reign in the nine and thirtieth year of ¹Uzziah king of Judah; and he reigned ¹⁴ⁱa full month in Samaria. For Menahem the son of Gadi went up from ^kTirzah, and came to Samaria, and smote Shallum the son of Jabesh in Samaria, and slew him, and reigned in his stead. ¹⁵And the rest of the acts of Shallum, and his conspiracy which he made, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

¹⁶ Then Menahem smote ¹Tipsah, and all that were therein, and the coasts thereof from ^kTirzah: because they opened not to him, therefore he smote it; and all ^mthe women therein that were ¹⁷with child he ript up. In the nine and thirtieth year of Azariah king of Judah began Menahem the son of Gadi to reign over Israel, and reigned ten years in Samaria. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: he departed not all his days from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, ^gwho made Israel to sin. And ⁿPul the king of ^oAssyria came against the land: and Menahem gave Pul a thousand ^ptalents of silver, that his hand might be with him to ²⁰confirm the kingdom in his hand. And Menahem ^qexactd the money of Israel, even of all ^rthe mighty men of wealth, of each man fifty ^sshekels of silver, to give to the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria turned back, and stayed not ²¹there in the land. And the rest of the acts of Menahem, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the ²²chronicles of the kings of Israel? And Menahem slept with his fathers; and Pekahiah his son reigned in his stead.

Judah Pekahiah the son of Menahem began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned two years. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, [§]who made Israel to sin. But Pekah the son of Remaliah, a [§]captain of his, conspired against him, and smote him in Samaria, in [†]the palace of the king's house, with Argob and Arieah; and with him fifty men of the Gileadites: and he killed him, and reigned in his room. And the rest of the acts of Pekahiah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

In the two and fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah Pekah the son of Remaliah began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned twenty years. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, [§]who made Israel to sin. In the days of Pekah king of Israel came Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, and took [×]Ijon, and [×]yAbel-beth-maachah, and ^zJanoah, and ^aKedesh, and ^bHazor, and Gilead, and Galilee, all the land of Naphtali, and carried them captive to Assyria. And Hoshea the son of Elah made a conspiracy against Pekah the son of Remaliah, and smote him, and slew him, and reigned in his stead, [¶]in the twentieth year of Jotham the son of Uzziah. And the rest of the acts of Pekah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

In the second year of Pekah the son of Remaliah king of Israel began Jotham the son of Uzziah king of Judah to reign. Five and twenty years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jerusha, the daughter of Zadok. And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD: he did [¶]according to all that his father Uzziah had done. [¶]Howbeit the high places were not removed: the people sacrificed and burnt incense still in the high places. He built the [†]higher gate of the house of the LORD. [¶]Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? [¶]In those days the LORD began to send against Judah ^hRezin the king of Syria, and [†]Pekah the son of Remaliah. ^hAnd Jotham slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father: and Ahaz his son reigned in his stead.

In the seventeenth year of Pekah the son of Remaliah Ahaz the son of Jotham king of Judah began to reign. ^aTwenty years old was Ahaz when he began to reign, and reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem, and did not that which was right in the sight of the LORD his God, like David his father. But he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, yea, ^band made his son to pass through the fire, ^caccording to the abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD cast out from before the children of Israel. And ^dhe sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places, and ^eon the hills, and under every green tree. ^fThen Rezin king of Syria and Pekah son of Remaliah king of Israel came up to Jerusalem to war: and they besieged Ahaz, but ^gcould not overcome him. At that time Rezin king of Syria recovered Elath to Syria, and drave the Jews from [†]Elath: and the Syrians came to Elath, and dwelt there unto this day. ^hSo Ahaz sent messengers to [†]Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, saying, I am thy servant and thy son: come up, and save me out of the hand of the king of Syria, and out of the hand of the king of Israel, which ⁱrise up against me. ^hAnd Ahaz [†]took the silver and gold that was found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king's house, and sent it for a [†]present to the king of Assyria. And the king of Assyria hearkened unto him: for the king of Assyria went up against [†]Damascus, and [†]took it, and carried the people of it captive to ^hKir, and slew Rezin. And king Ahaz went to [†]Damascus to meet Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, and saw an altar that was at Damascus: and king Ahaz sent to ^hUrijah the priest the fashion of the altar, and the pattern of it, according to all the workmanship thereof. And Urijah the priest built an altar according to all that king Ahaz had sent from Damascus: so Urijah the priest made it against king Ahaz came from Damascus. And when the king was come from Damascus, the king saw the altar: and [†]the king approached to the altar, and offered thereon. And he burnt his burnt offering and his meat

And he brought ¹⁴also ^mthe brasen altar, which was before the LORD, from ⁿthe forefront of the house, from between ^othe altar and the house of the LORD, and put it on the north side of ^othe altar. [†] [After an interregnum, ch. 15. 30.]

In the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah began [†]Hoshea the son of Elah to reign in Samaria over Israel nine years. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, but not as the kings of Israel that were before him. Against ³him came up ^aShalmaneser king of Assyria; and Hoshea became his servant, and [†]gave him [†]presents. And the king ⁴of Assyria found conspiracy in Hoshea: for he had sent messengers to So king of Egypt, and brought no [†]present to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year: therefore the king of Assyria shut him up, and bound him in prison. Then ⁵^bthe king of Assyria came up throughout all the land, and went up to Samaria, and besieged it three years. ⁶^cIn the ninth year of Hoshea, the king of Assyria took Samaria, and ^dcarried Israel away into Assyria, and placed them ^ein Halah and in Habor by the river of ^{e†}Gozan, and in the cities of the [†]Medes.

⁷For so it was, that the children of Israel had sinned against the LORD their God, [†]which had brought them up out of the land of Egypt, from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and had ⁸fearing other gods, and walked in the statutes ^kof the heathen, [†]whom the LORD cast out from before the children of Israel, and [†]of the kings of Israel, which ⁹they had made. And the children of Israel did secretly those things that were not right against the LORD their God, and they built them high places in all their cities, ^mfrom the tower of the watchmen to the fenced city. ¹⁰And they set them up [†]images and ^ogroves in every high hill, and under every green ¹¹tree: and there they burnt incense in all the high places, as did the heathen whom the LORD carried away before them; and wrought wicked things ^pto provoke the LORD to anger: for they served ^qidols, [†]whereof the LORD had said unto them, ^sYe shall not do this thing. Yet the LORD [†]testified against Israel, and against Judah, [†]by all the prophets, and by all ^uthe seers, saying, ^wTurn ye from your evil ways, and keep my commandments and my statutes, according to all the law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you [†]by my servants the prophets. Notwithstanding they would not hear, but ^xhardened their necks, like to the neck of their fathers, that did not believe in the LORD their God. And they rejected his statutes, and his covenant that he made with their fathers, and his testimonies which he testified against them; and they followed ^yvanity, and ^zbecame vain, and went after the heathen that were round about them, concerning whom the LORD ^ahad charged them, that they should not do like them. ¹⁶And they left all the commandments of the LORD their God, and made them molten images, even ^btwo calves, and made ^ca grove, and worshipped ^dall the host of heaven, and served ^eBaal. And [†]they caused their sons and [†]their daughters to pass through the fire, and ^gused divination and ^henchantments, and ⁱsold themselves to do evil in the sight of the LORD, ^kto provoke him to anger. ¹⁸Therefore the LORD was very angry with Israel, and removed them out of his sight: there was none left but the tribe of Judah ¹only. Also ²Judah kept not ³the commandments of the LORD their God, but walked in the statutes of Israel which they made. And the LORD ⁴re-⁵jected all the seed of Israel, and afflicted them, and ⁶delivered them into the hand of spoilers, until ⁷he had cast them out of his sight. For ⁸the rent Israel ⁹from the house of David; and ¹⁰they made Jeroboam the son of Nebat king: and Jeroboam ¹¹drove Israel from following the LORD, and ¹²made them sin a great sin. For the children of Israel ¹³walked in all the sins of Jeroboam which he did; they departed not from them; until the LORD removed Israel ¹⁴out of his sight, ¹⁵as he had said by all his servants the prophets. ¹⁶So was Israel carried away out of their own land to Assyria unto this day.

¹⁷ And the king of Assyria brought ¹⁸men from ¹⁹Babylon, and from Cuthah, and from ²⁰Ava, and from ²¹Hamath, and from ²²Sepharvaim, and placed ²³them in the cities of Samaria instead of the children of Israel: and they possessed Samaria, and dwelt in the cities thereof. And ²⁴so it was at the beginning of their dwelling there, ²⁵that they feared not the LORD: therefore the LORD sent lions among them, which slew ²⁶some of them. Wherefore they spake to the king of Assyria, saying, The nations which thou hast removed, and placed in the cities of Samaria, know not the manner of the God of the land: therefore he hath sent lions among them, and behold, they slay them, because they know not the manner of the God of the land. Then the king of Assyria commanded, saying, Carry thither one of the priests whom ye brought from thence; and let them go and dwell there, and let him teach them the manner of the God of the land. Then one of the priests whom they had carried away from Samaria came and dwelt in ²⁷Beth-el, and taught them how they should fear the LORD. Howbeit every nation made gods of ²⁸their own, and put ²⁹them in ³⁰the houses of the high places which the Samaritans had made, every nation in their cities wherein they dwelt. And the men of ³¹Babylon made Succoth-benoth, and the men of Cuth made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made Ashima, and the Avites made Nibhaz and Tartak, and the Sepharvites ³²burnt their children in fire to ³³Adrammelech and Anamme-

lech, the gods of Sepharvaim. So they feared the LORD, and ³⁴made unto themselves of the lowest of them priests of the high places, which sacrificed for them in ³⁵the houses of the high places. ³⁶They feared the LORD, and served their own gods, after the manner of the nations ³⁷whom they carried away from thence. Unto this day they do after the former manners: they fear not the LORD, neither do they after their statutes, or after their ordinances, or after the law and commandment which the LORD commanded the children of Jacob, ³⁸whom he named Israel; with whom the LORD had made a covenant, and charged them, saying, ³⁹Ye shall not fear other gods, nor ⁴⁰bow yourselves to them, nor serve them, nor sacrifice to them: but the LORD, ⁴¹who brought you up out of the land of Egypt with great power and ⁴²a stretched out arm, him shall ye fear, and him shall ye worship, and to him shall ye do sacrifice. And the statutes, and the ordinances, and the law, and the commandment, which he wrote for you, ⁴³ye shall observe to do for evermore; and ⁴⁴ye shall not fear other gods. And the covenant that I have made with you ⁴⁵ye shall not forget; neither ⁴⁶shall ye fear other gods. But ⁴⁷the LORD your God ye shall fear; and he shall deliver you out of the hand of all your enemies. Howbeit they did not hearken, but ⁴⁸they did after their former manner. ⁴⁹So these nations feared the LORD, and served their graven images, both their children, and their children's children: as did their fathers, ⁵⁰so do they unto this day.

Now it came to pass in ⁵¹the third year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, ⁵²that ⁵³Hezekiah the son of Ahaz king of Judah ⁵⁴began to reign. Twenty and five years old was he when he ⁵⁵began to reign; and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also ⁵⁶was ⁵⁷Abi, the daughter of Zaccuriah. ⁵⁸And he did ⁵⁹that which ⁶⁰was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that David his father did. ⁶¹He removed the high places, and brake the ⁶²images, and cut down ⁶³the groves, and brake in pieces the ⁶⁴brass serpent that Moses had made: for unto those days the children of Israel did burn incense to it:

and he called it [†]Nehushtan. He ^gtrusted in the LORD God of Israel; ^hso that after him was none like him among all the kings of Judah, nor any that were before him. For he ⁱclave to the LORD, and departed not ⁱfrom following him, but kept his commandments, which the LORD commanded Moses. And ^kthe
LORD was with him; and he ^lprospered whithersoever he went forth: and he ^mrebelled against the king of Assyria, and served him not. He ⁿsmote the Philistines, even unto [†]Gaza, and the borders thereof, ^ofrom the tower of the watchmen to the fenced city.

And ^pit came to pass in the fourth year of king Hezekiah, which was the seventh year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, that Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against Samaria, and besieged it. And at the end of three years they took it: even in the sixth year of Hezekiah, that is the ninth year of Hoshea king of Israel, Samaria was taken. And the king of Assyria did carry away Israel unto Assyria, and put them in Halah and in Habor by the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes; because ^qthey obeyed not the voice of the LORD their God, but ^rtrans-gressed his covenant, and all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded, and would not hear them, nor do them.

Now ^sin the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah did [†]Sennacherib king of Assyria come up against all the fenced cities of Judah, and took them. And Hezekiah king of Judah sent to the king of Assyria to [†]Lachish, saying, I have offended; return from me: that which thou puttest on me will I bear. And the king of Assyria appointed unto Hezekiah king of Judah ^uthree hundred talents of silver and thirty talents of gold.
And Hezekiah ^xgave him all the silver that was found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king's house. At that time did Hezekiah cut off the gold from the doors of the temple of the LORD, and from the pillars which Hezekiah king of Judah had overlaid, and gave ^yit to the king of Assyria.

And the king of Assyria sent ^zTar-tan and Rabsaris and Rab-shakeh from Lachish to king Hezekiah with a [†]great host against Jerusalem. And they went up and came to Jerusalem. And when they were come up, they came and stood by ^athe conduit of the upper pool, which is in the highway of the fuller's field. And when they had called to the king, there came out to them

^bEliakim the son of Hilkiah, which was over the household, and ^bShebna the [†]scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph ^cthe recorder. And Rab-shakeh said unto them, Speak ye now to Hezekiah, Thus saith the great king, the king of Assyria,

^dWhat confidence is this wherein thou trustest? Thou ^esayest, (but they are but ^fvain words,) [†]I have counsel and strength for the war. Now on whom dost thou trust, that thou rebellest against me? Now behold, thou [†]trustest upon ^ethe staff of this bruised reed, even upon Egypt, on which if a man lean,

it will go into his hand, and pierce it:

so is Pharaoh king of Egypt unto all that trust on him. But if ye say unto me, We trust in the LORD our God: is not that he, ^fwhose high places and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away,

and hath said to Judah and Jerusalem,

Ye shall worship before this altar in Jerusalem? Now therefore, I pray thee, give [†]pledges to my lord the king of Assyria, and I will deliver thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them. How then wilt thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put thy trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen? Am I now come up without the LORD against this place to destroy it? The LORD said to me, Go up against this land, and destroy it.

Then said Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, and Shebna, and Joah, unto Rab-shakeh, Speak, I pray thee, to thy servants ^gin the Syrian language; for we understand it: and talk not with us in the Jews' language in the ears of the people that are on the wall. But Rab-shakeh said unto them, Hath my master sent me to thy master, and to thee, to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the men which sit on the wall, that they may eat their own dung, and drink [†]their own piss with you? Then Rab-shakeh stood and ^hcried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and spake, saying, Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria:

Thus saith the king, ⁱLet not Hezekiah [†]deceive you: for he shall not be able to deliver you out of his hand:

neither let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, The LORD will surely deliver us, and this city shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria. Harken not to Hezekiah: ³¹for thus saith the king of Assyria, ¹Make an agreement with me by a present, and come out to me, and then eat ye every man ^kof his own vine, and every one of his fig tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his ^lcistern: until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, ^{1a}a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of oil olive and ^mof honey, that ye may live, and not die: and hearken not unto Hezekiah, when he ^lpersuadeth you, saying, The LORD will deliver us. ³²ⁿHath any of the gods of the nations delivered at all his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria? ^oWhere ³⁴are the gods of ^pHamath, and of ^qArpad? where ^{are} the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena, and ^lIvah? have they delivered Samaria out of mine hand? Who ^{are} ³⁵they among all the gods of the countries, that have delivered their country out of mine hand, that ^tthe LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of mine hand? But the people held their peace, and answered him not a word: for the king's commandment was, saying, Answer him not. Then came ^sEliakim the son of Hilkiah, which ^{was} over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder, to Hezekiah ^twith their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rab-shakeh.

XIX.

And it came to pass, when king Hezekiah heard ^{it}, that ^ahe rent his clothes, and ^bcovered himself with sackcloth, and ^cwent into the house of the LORD. And he sent Eliakim, which ^{was} over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, ^bcovered with sackcloth, ^dto Esai the prophet the son of Amoz. And they said unto him, Thus saith Hezekiah, This day ^{is} a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and ^lblasphemy: for the children are come to the birth, and ^{there is} not strength to bring forth. ^eIt may be the LORD ⁴thy God will hear all the words of Rab-shakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master hath sent ^fto reproach the living God; and ^gwill reprove the words which ^hthe LORD thy God hath heard: wherefore lift up ^{thy} prayer for ⁱthe remnant that are ^lleft. So the servants of king ⁵Hezekiah came to Isaiah. And ^{*}Isaiah said unto them, Thus shall ye say to your master, Thus saith the LORD, Be not afraid of the words which thou hast heard, ^{with} which ^kthe servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed ⁷me. Behold, ^lI will send ^{ma} a blast upon him, and he ⁿshall hear a rumour, and shall return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.

⁸ So Rab-shakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against ^oLibnah: for he had heard that he was ⁹departed from ^pLachish. And ^qwhen he heard say of Tirhakah king of ^rEthiopia, Behold, he is come out to fight against thee: he sent messengers again ¹⁰unto Hezekiah, saying, Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Let not thy God ^sin whom thou trustest ^tdeceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be delivered into the hand of ¹¹the king of Assyria. Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by destroying them utterly: and shalt thou be delivered? ¹²^uHave the gods of the nations delivered them which my fathers have destroyed; as ^xGozan, and ^yHarar, and Rezep, and the children of ^zEden which ^{were} ¹³in ^aThelassar? ^bWhere ^{is} the king of Hamath, and the king of ^cArpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivah?

¹⁴ And Hezekiah received the ^dletter of the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up ^{into} the house of the LORD, and spread it before ¹⁵the LORD. And ^eHezekiah prayed before the LORD, and said, O LORD God of Israel, which dwellest ^fbetween the cherubims, ^gthou art the God, ^{even} thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth; ¹⁶thou hast made heaven and earth. LORD, ^hbow down thine ear, and hear: ⁱopen, LORD, thine eyes, and see: and hear the words of Sennacherib, which hath sent him ^kto reproach the living God. ¹⁷ Of a truth, LORD, the kings of Assyria have destroyed the nations and their ¹⁸lands, and have ^lcast their gods into the fire: for they ^{were} no gods, but ^lthe work of men's hands, wood and stone: therefore they have destroyed ¹⁹them. Now therefore, O LORD our God, I beseech thee, save ^{thou} us out of his hand, ^mthat all the kingdoms of the earth may know that thou art the LORD God, ^{even} thou only.

Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to ²⁰ Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, That which thou hast prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria ²¹ I have heard. This is the word that the LORD hath spoken concerning him;

The ^o virgin the daughter of Zion hath despised thee, and laughed thee to scorn;

The daughter of Jerusalem ^p hath shaken her head at thee.

Whom hast thou ^q reproached and ²² ^r blasphemed?

And against whom hast thou exalted thy voice,

And lift up thine eyes on high?

Even against ^s the Holy One of Israel.

^t By thy messengers thou hast reproached ²³ ed the Lord, and hast said,

^u With the multitude of my chariots I am come up

To the height of the mountains, to the sides of ^x Lebanon,

And will cut down ^t the tall ^x cedar trees thereof, and the choice fir trees thereof:

And I will enter into the lodgings of his borders, and into ^l the forest of his ^y Carmel.

I have digged and drunk strange waters, ²⁴

And with the sole of my feet have I dried up all the rivers of ^l besieged places.

^l Hast thou not heard long ago how ²⁵ ^z I have done it,

And of ancient times that I have formed it?

Now ^a have I brought it to pass, that thou shouldest be to lay waste Fenced cities into ruinous heaps.

Therefore their inhabitants were ¹ of ²⁶ small power,

They were dismayed and confounded; They were as the grass of the field, and as the green ^b herb,

As ^c the grass on the house tops, and as corn blasted before it be grown up.

But I know thy ^l abode, and ^d thy going out, and thy coming in,

And thy rage against me. Because thy rage against me and ²⁸ thy tumult is come up into mine cars,

Therefore I will put ^e my hook in thy nose, and my bridle in thy lips,

And I will turn thee back ^f by the way by which thou camest. ^{f ver. 33, 36.}

²⁹ And this shall be ^g a sign unto thee, Ye shall eat this year ^h such things as grow of themselves,

And in the second year that which springeth of the same;

And in the third year sow ye, and reap,

And plant vineyards, and eat the fruits thereof.

³⁰ ⁱ And ^l the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah

Shall yet again take root downward, and bear fruit upward.

³¹ For out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant,

And ^l they that escape out of mount Zion:

^k The zeal of the LORD of hosts shall do this.

³² Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the king of Assyria,

He shall not come into this city,

Nor shoot an arrow there,

Nor come before it with shield,

Nor ^l cast a bank against it.

³³ ^m By the way that he came, by the same shall he return,

And shall not come into this city, saith the LORD.

³⁴ For ⁿ I will defend this city, to save it,

For mine own sake, and ^o for my servant David's sake.

³⁵ And ^p it came to pass that night, that ^q the angel of the LORD went out, and smote ^r in the camp of the Assyrians an hundred fourscore and five thousand:

and when they arose early in the morning, behold, they were all dead corpses.

³⁶ So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, and went and returned, and dwelt at ^s Nineveh.

saying, I beseech thee, O LORD, ^cremember now how I have walked before thee in truth and with ^da perfect heart, and ^ehave done that which is good in thy sight. And Hezekiah ^fwept ^gsore. And it came to pass, afore Isaiah was gone out into the middle ^hcourt, that the word of the LORD came to him, saying, Turn again, and tell Hezekiah ⁱthe captain of my people, Thus saith the LORD, the God of David thy father, ^jI have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears: behold, I will heal thee: on the third day thou shalt go up unto the house of the LORD. And I will add unto thy days fifteen years; and I will deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria; and ^kI will defend this city for mine own sake, and for my servant David's sake. And ^lIsaiah said, Take a lump of figs. And they took and laid it on ^mthe boil, and he recovered. And Hezekiah said unto Isaiah, ⁿWhat shall be the sign that the LORD will heal me, and that I shall go up into the house of the LORD the third day? And Isaiah said, This sign shalt thou have of the LORD, that the LORD will do the thing that he hath spoken: ^oshall the shadow go forward ten degrees, or go back ten degrees? And Hezekiah answered, ^pIt is a light thing for ^qthe shadow to go down ten degrees: nay, but let the shadow return backward ten degrees. And Isaiah the prophet cried unto the LORD: and he brought the shadow ten degrees backward, by which it had gone down in the ^rdial of Ahaz.

^sAt that time ^tBerodach-baladan, the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present unto Hezekiah: for he had heard that Hezekiah had been sick. And Hezekiah ^uhearkened unto them, and shewed them all the house of his ^vprecious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his ^warmour, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah shewed them not. Then came Isaiah the prophet unto king Hezekiah, and said unto him, What said these men? and from whence came they unto thee? And Hezekiah said, They are come from a far country, even from Babylon. And he said, What have they seen in thine house? And Hezekiah answered, ^xAll the things that are in mine house have they seen: there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shewed them. And Isaiah said unto Hezekiah. Hear the word of the LORD. Behold, the days come, that all that is in thine house, and that which thy fathers have laid up in store unto this day, ^yshall be carried unto Babylon: nothing shall be left, saith the LORD. And of thy sons that shall issue from thee, which thou shalt beget, ^zshall they take away; ^{aa}and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon. Then said Hezekiah unto Isaiah, ^{ab}Good is the word of the LORD which thou hast spoken. And he said, ^{ac}Is it not good, if peace and truth be in my days? ^{ad}And the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and all his might, and how he ^{ae}made a pool, and a conduit, and ^{af}brought water into the city, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? For he built ^{ak}up again the high places ^{al}which Hezekiah his father had destroyed; and he reared up altars for Baal, and made a grove, ^{am}as did Ahab king of Israel; and worshipped ^{an}all the host of heaven, and served them. land which I gave their fathers; only if they will observe to do according to all that I have commanded them, and according to all the law that my servant Moses commanded them. But they⁹ hearkened not: and Manasseh seduced them to do more evil than did the nations whom the LORD destroyed before the children of Israel.

And the LORD spake by his servants¹⁰ the prophets, saying, ^PBecause Manasseh king of Judah hath done these abominations, ^qand hath done wickedly above all that the Amorites did, which ^{were} before him, and ^rhath made Judah also to sin with his ^sidols: therefore¹² thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Behold, I am bringing such evil upon Jerusalem and Judah, that whosoever heareth of it, ^tboth his ears shall tingle. And I will stretch over Jerusalem ^uthe line of Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Ahab: and I will wipe Jerusalem as a man wipeth a dish, ^vwiping it, and turning it upside down. And I¹⁴ will forsake the remnant of mine inheritance, and deliver them into the hand of their enemies; and they shall become a prey and a spoil to all their enemies; because they have done that which¹⁵ was evil in my sight, and have ^mprovoked me to anger, since the day their fathers came forth out of Egypt, even unto this day.

^xMoreover Manasseh shed innocent¹⁶ blood very much, till he had filled Jerusalem ^tfrom one end to another; beside his sin ^rwhere^{with} he made Judah to sin, in doing that which was evil in the sight of the LORD. Now ^ythe rest¹⁷ of the acts of Manasseh, and all that he did, and his sin that he sinned, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? And¹⁸ ^zManasseh slept with his fathers, and was buried in the garden of his own house, in the garden of ^aUzza: and Amon his son reigned in his stead.

^bAmon was twenty and two years old¹⁹ when he began to reign, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Meshullemeth, the daughter of Haruz of ^cJotbah. And he did *that*²⁰ which was evil in the sight of the LORD, ^das his father Manasseh did. And he²¹ walked in all the way that his father walked in, and served the idols that his father served, and worshipped them: and he ^eforsook the LORD God of his²² fathers, and walked not in the way of²³ the LORD. And the servants of Amon conspired against him, and slew the²⁴ king in his own house. And the people of the land slew all them that had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son²⁵ king in his stead. Now the rest of the acts of Amon which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? And he was buried in his sepulchre ^fin the garden of Uzza: and ^gJosiah his son reigned in his stead.

Josiah ^awas eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned thirty and one years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jedidah, the daughter² of Adaiah of ^bBosath. And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in all the way of David his father, and ^eturned not aside³ to the right hand or to the left. ^dAnd it came to pass in the eighteenth year of king Josiah, that the king sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, the son of Meshullam, the scribe, to the house of the LORD, saying, Go up to Hilkiah ^ethe high priest, that he may sum the silver which is ^fbrought into the house of the LORD, which the keepers of the ⁱdoor have⁴ gathered of the people: and let them ^gdeliver it into the hand of the doers of the work, that have the oversight of the house of the LORD: and let them give it to the doers of the work which is in the house of the LORD, to repair the⁶ breaches of the house, ^hunto carpenters, and builders, and masons, and to buy timber and hewn stone to repair the⁷ house. Howbeit ^hthere was no reckoning made with them of the money that was delivered into their hand, because they dealt faithfully.

⁸ And Hilkiah the high priest said unto Shaphan the scribe, ⁱI have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD. And Hilkiah gave the book to⁹ Shaphan, and he read it. And Shaphan the scribe came to the king, and brought the king word again, and said, Thy servants have ^jgathered the money that was found in the house, and have delivered it into the hand of them that do the work, that have the oversight of the¹⁰ house of the LORD. And Shaphan the scribe shewed the king, saying, Hilkiah the priest hath delivered me a book. And Shaphan read it before the king.

And it came to pass, when the king¹¹ had heard the words of the book of the law, that^j he rent his clothes. And¹² the king commanded Hilkiah the priest, and^k Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and^l Achbor the son of^m Michaiah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asahiah a servant of the king's, saying, Go ye, in-¹³quire of the LORD for me, and for the people, and for all Judah, concerning the words of this book that is found: for great^{is} ¹⁴the wrath of the LORD that is kindled against us, because our fathers have not hearkened unto the words of this book, to do according unto all that which is written concerning us. So¹⁵ Hilkiah the priest, and Ahikam, and Achbor, and Shaphan, and Asahiah, went unto Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son ofⁿ Tikvah, the son of^o Harhas, keeper of the^p wardrobe; (now she dwelt in Jerusalem^q in the college;) and they communed with her. And she said unto them, Thus¹⁶ saith the LORD God of Israel, Tell the man that sent you to me, Thus saith¹⁷ the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, even all the words of the book which the king of Judah hath read: ¹⁸because they have forsaken me, and have burnt incense unto other gods, that they might^r provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore^s my wrath shall be kindled against this place, and shall not be quenched. But to the king of Judah which sent¹⁹ you to inquire of the LORD, thus shall ye say to him, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, As touching the words which thou hast heard; because thine^t heart²⁰ was tender, and thou hast^u humbled thyself before the LORD, when thou heardst what I spake against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof, that they should become^v a desolation and^w a curse, and^x hast rent thy clothes, and wept before me; I also have heard thee, saith the LORD. Behold therefore, I²¹ will gather thee unto thy fathers, and thou^y shalt be gathered into thy grave in peace; and thine eyes shall not see all the evil which I will bring upon this place. And they brought the king word again.

XXIII.

And^a the king sent, and they gathered unto him all the elders of Judah and of Jerusalem. And the king went up *into*²² the house of the LORD, and all the men of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the people, ¹both small and great: and^b he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant^c which was found in the² house of the LORD. And the king stood by^d a pillar, and made a covenant before the LORD, ³to walk after the LORD, and to keep his commandments and his testimonies and his statutes with all their heart and all their soul, to perform the words of this covenant that were written in this book. And all the⁴ people stood to the covenant. And the king commanded Hilkiah^e the high priest, and the priests^f of the second order; and the keepers of the door, to bring forth out of the temple of the LORD all the vessels that were made for^h Baal, and for the grove, and for all the host of heaven: and he burnt them without Jerusalem in the fields ofⁱ Kidron, and carried the ashes of them *unto*⁵ Beth-el. And he^j put down the^k idolatrous priests, whom the kings of Judah had ordained to burn incense in the high places in the cities of Judah, and in the places round about Jerusalem; them also that burnt incense unto Baal, to the sun, and to the moon, and to the^l planets, and to^m all the host of⁶ heaven. And he brought out theⁿ grove from the house of the LORD, without Jerusalem, unto the^o brook Kidron, and burnt it at the brook Kidron, and^p stamp^q it small to powder, and cast the powder thereof^r upon the graves of⁷ the children of the people. And he brake down the houses of^s the sodomites, that were by the house of the LORD, ⁸where the women wove^t hangings for the grove. And he brought all the priests out of the cities of Judah, and defiled the high places where the priests had burnt incense, from^u Geba to^v Beer-sheba, and brake down the high places of the gates that were in the entering in of the gate of Joshua the governor of the city, which were on a man's left hand at the gate of the city. ⁹Nevertheless the priests of the high places came not up to the altar of the LORD in Jerusalem, but they did eat of the unleavened bread among their¹⁰ brethren. And he defiled^w Topheth, which is in^x the valley of the children of Hinnom, that no man^y might make his son or his daughter to pass through the fire to ^wMolech. And he ^xtook away the horses that the kings of Judah had given to the sun, at the entering in of the house of the LORD, by the ^ychamber of Nathan-melech the ^zchamberlain, which was in the ^zsuburbs, and burnt the chariots of the sun with fire. And the altars that were ^aon the top of the bupper chamber of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars which ^cManasseh had made in the two courts of the house of the LORD, did the king beat down, and ^bbrake them down from thence, and cast the dust of them into ^dthe brook Kidron. And the high places that were before Jerusalem, which were on the right hand of ^ethe mount of corruption, which Solomon the king of Israel had builded for ^eAshtoreth the abomination of the Zidonians, and for ^fChemosh the abomination of the Moabites, and for ^eMilcom the abomination of the children of Ammon, did the king defile. And he brake in pieces the ^gimages, and cut down the groves, and filled their places with the bones of men.

Moreover the altar that was at Beth-el, and the high place ^hwhich Jeroboam the son of Nebat, ^hwho made Israel to sin, had made, both that altar and the high place he brake down, and burnt the high place, and stampt it small to powder, and burnt the grove. And as Josiah turned himself, he spied the sepulchres that were there in the mount, and sent, and took the bones out of the sepulchres, and burnt them upon the altar, and polluted it, ⁱaccording to the word of the LORD which the man of God proclaimed, who proclaimed these words. Then he said, What ^ktitle is that that I see? And the men of the city told him, It is ^lthe sepulchre of the man of God, which came from Judah, and proclaimed these things that thou hast done against the altar of Beth-el. And he said, Let him alone; let no man move his bones. So they let his bones ^malone, with the bones ^mof the prophet that came out of Samaria. And all the houses also of the high places that were ⁿin the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made to provoke the LORD to anger, Josiah took away, and did to them according to all the acts that he had done in Beth-el. And he ^oslew all the priests of the high places that were there upon the altars, and ^pburnt men's bones upon them, and returned to Jerusalem.

21 And the king commanded all the people, saying, ^qKeep the passover unto the LORD your God, ^ras it is written ^sin the book of this covenant. ^tSurely there was not holden such a passover from the days of the judges that judged Israel, nor in all the days of the kings of Israel, nor of the kings of Judah; but in the eighteenth year of king Josiah, wherein this passover was holden ^uto the LORD in Jerusalem. Moreover the ^vworkers with familiar spirits, and the wizards, and the ^wimages, and ^xthe idols, and all the abominations that were spied in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, did Josiah put away, that he might perform ^ythe words of the law which were written in the book that Hilkiah the priest found in the house ^zof the LORD. ^zAnd like unto him was there no king before him, that turned to the LORD with all his heart, and with all his soul, and ^awith all his might, according to all the law of Moses; neither after him arose there any like him. Notwithstanding the LORD turned not from the fierceness of his great wrath, wherewith his anger was kindled against Judah, ^bbecause of all the ^cprovocations that Manasseh had provoked him withal. And the LORD said, I will remove Judah also out of my sight, as ^dI have removed Israel, and ^dwill cast off this city Jerusalem which I have chosen, and ^ethe house of which I said, ^fMy name shall be there. Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and all that he did, ^gare they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? ^hIn his days ^hPharaoh-nechoh king of Egypt went up against the king of Assyria to the river Euphrates: and king Josiah went against him; and he slew him at ⁱMegiddo, when he ⁱhad seen him. ^jAnd his servants carried him in a ^jchariot ^jdead from ^jMegiddo, and brought him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his own sepulchre. And ^mthe people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and anointed him, and made him king in his father's stead.

31 ^lJehoahaz was twenty and three years old when he began to reign; and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was ^mHamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah of ⁿLibnah. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done. And Pharaoh-nechoh put him in hands at Riblah in the land of Hamath, that he might not reign in Jerusalem; and put the land to a tribute of an hundred talents of silver, and a talent of gold. And Pharaoh-nechoh made Eliakim the son of Josiah king in the room of Josiah his father, and turned his name to Jehoiakim, and took Jehoahaz away: and he came to Egypt, and died there. And Jehoiakim gave the silver and the gold to Pharaoh; but he taxed the land to give the money according to the commandment of Pharaoh: he exacted the silver and the gold of the people of the land, of every one according to his taxation, to give it unto Pharaoh-nechoh.

Jehoiakim was twenty and five year old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Zebudah, the daughter of Pedaiah of Rumah. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done. In his days Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up, and Jehoiakim became his servant three years: then he turned and rebelled against him. And the LORD sent against him bands of the Chaldees, and bands of the Syrians, and bands of the Moabites, and bands of the children of Ammon, and sent them against Judah to destroy it, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake by his servants the prophets. Surely at the commandment of the LORD came this upon Judah, to remove them out of his sight, for the sins of Manasseh, according to all that he did; and also for the innocent blood that he shed: for he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood; which the LORD would not pardon. Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? So Jehoiakim slept with his fathers: and Jehoiachin his son reigned in his stead. And the king of Egypt came not again any more out of his land: for the king of Babylon had taken from the river of Egypt unto the river Euphrates all that pertained to the king of Egypt.

Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem three months. And his mother's name was Nehushta, the daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father had done. At that time the servants of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came against Jerusalem, and the city was besieged. And Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came against the city, and his servants did besiege it. And Jehoiachin the king of Judah went out to the king of Babylon, he, and his mother, and his servants, and his princes, and his officers: and the king of Babylon took him in the eighth year of his reign. And he carried out thence all the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house, and cut in pieces all the vessels of gold which Solomon king of Israel had made in the temple of the LORD, as the LORD had said. And he carried away all Jerusalem, and all the princes, and all the mighty men of valour, even ten thousand captives, and all the craftsmen and smiths: none remained, save the poorest sort of the people of the land. And he carried away Jehoiachin to Babylon, and the king's mother, and the king's wives, and his officers, and the mighty of the land, those carried he into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon. And all the men of might, even seven thousand, and craftsmen and smiths a thousand, all that were strong and apt for war, even them the king of Babylon brought captive to Babylon. And the king of Babylon made Mattaniah his father's brother king in his stead, and changed his name to Zedekiah.

Zedekiah was twenty and one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done. For through the anger of the LORD it came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, until he had cast them out from his presence, that Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon. And it came to pass in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he, and all his host, against Jerusalem, and pitched against it; and they built ^c forts against it round about. And the city was besieged unto the eleventh year of king Zedekiah. And on the ninth ^d day of the ^d fourth month ^e the famine prevailed in the city, and there was no bread for the people of the land. And ^e the city was broken up, and ^f all the men of war ^g fled by night by the way of the gate between two walls, which ^h is by ^h the king's garden: (now the ⁱ Chaldees were against the city round about :) and ^j the king went the way toward ^k the plain. And the army of the Chaldees pursued after the king, and overtook him in ^k the plains of Jericho: and all his army were scattered from him. So they took the king, and ^l brought him up to the king of Babylon to ^m Riblah; and they ^l gave judgment upon him. And they slew ⁿ the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and ^o put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and ^o bound him with fetters of brass, and carried him to Babylon.

And in the ^p fifth month, on the ^q twentieth ^q day of the month, which ^r is ^r the nineteenth year of king Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, came Nebuzar-adan, ^s captain of the guard, a servant of the king of Babylon, unto Jerusalem: and ^s he burnt the house of the LORD, and the king's house, and ^t all the houses of Jerusalem, and every great ^u man's house burnt he with fire. And all the army of the Chaldees, that ^v were ^v with the captain of the guard, ^w brake down the walls of Jerusalem round about. Now ^x the rest of the people that were left in the city, and the ^y fugitives that fell away to the king of Babylon, with the remnant of the multitude, did Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carry away. But the captain of the guard left ^z of the poor of the land to be vinedressers and husbandmen. ^z And ^a the pillars of brass that ^{were} in the house of the LORD, and ^b the bases, and ^c the brasen sea that ^{was} in the house of the LORD, did the Chaldees break in ^b pieces, and carried the brass of them to Babylon. And ^d the pots, and ^d the shovels, and ^e the snuffers, and ^f the spoons, and all the vessels of brass wherewith they ministered, took they away. And ^d the firepans, and ^d the bowls, and ^g such ^g things as ^{were} of gold, in gold, and ^h of silver, in silver, the captain of the guard took away. ^h The two pillars, ⁱ one sea, and ^h the bases which Solomon had made for the house of the LORD; ⁱ the brass of all these vessels was without weight. ^k The height of the one pillar ^{was} eighteen cubits, and the chapter upon it ^{was} brass: and the height of the chapter ^l three cubits; and the wreathen work, and pomegranates upon the chapter round about, all ^{of} brass: and like unto these had the second pillar with wreathen work. And the captain of the guard took ^m Seraiah ⁿ the chief priest, and ^o Zephaniah ^p the second priest, and the three keepers of the ^l door: and out of the city he took an ^l officer that was set over the men of war, and ^q five men of them that ^l were in the king's presence, which were found in the city, and the ^r principal scribe of the host, which mustered the people of the land, and three-score men of the people of the land that were found in the city: and Nebuzar-adan captain of the guard took these, and brought them to the king of Babylon to ^r Riblah; and the king of Babylon smote them, and slew them at ^r Riblah in the land of Hamath. ^s So Judah was carried away out of their land.

And ^{as} for the people that remained in the land of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had left, even over them he made ^t Gedaliah the son of ^u Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, ruler.

And when all the ^x captains of the armies, they and ^{their} men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah governor, there came to Gedaliah to ^y Mizpah, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan the son of Careah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth ^z the ^a Netophathite, and Jaazaniah the son of a ^b Maachathite, they and their men. And Gedaliah sware to them, and to their men, and said unto them, Fear not to be the servants of the Chaldees: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon; and it shall be well with you. But ^c it came to pass in the ^d seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the seed ^l royal, came, and ten men with him, and smote Gedaliah, that he died, and the Jews and the Chaldees that were with him at ^y Mizpah. And all the people, both small and great, and the captains of the armies, arose, and came to ^e Egypt: for they were afraid of the Chaldees.

Now the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel, (for ^ahe was the firstborn; but, forasmuch as he ^bdefiled his father's bed, ^chis birthright was given unto the sons of Joseph the son of Israel: and the genealogy is not to be reckoned after the birthright. For ^dJudah prevailed ² above his brethren, and of him came the ¹chief ruler; but the birthright was Joseph's: ^ethe sons, I say, of Reuben the firstborn of Israel were, Hanoch, and Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi. The sons ⁴ of Joel; Shemaiah his son, Gog his son, Shimei his son, Micah his son, Reaia ⁵ his son, Baal his son, Beerah his son, ⁶ whom ¹Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria carried away captive: he was prince of the Reubenites. And his brethren by ⁷ their families, ^fwhen the genealogy of their generations was reckoned, were the chief, Jeiel, and Zechariah, and Bela ⁸ the son of Azaz, the son of ¹Shema, the son of Joel, who dwelt in ⁸Aroer, even unto ^hNebo and ⁱBaal-meon: and ⁹ eastward he inhabited unto the entering in of the wilderness from the river Euphrates: because their cattle were multiplied ^jin the land of Gilead. And ¹⁰ in the days of Saul they made war ^kwith the Hagarites, who fell by their hand; and they dwelt in their tents ^lthroughout all the east land of Gilead.

And the children of Gad dwelt over ¹¹ against them, in the land of Bashan unto ¹Salchah: Joel the chief, and Shapham ¹² the next, and Jaanai, and Shaphat in Bashan. And their brethren of the ¹³ house of their fathers were, Michael, and Meshullam, and Sheba, and Jorai, and Jachan, and Zia, and Heber, seven. These are the children of Abihail the ¹⁴ son of Huri, the son of Jaroah, the son of Gilead, the son of Michael, the son of Jeshishai, the son of Jahdo, the son of Buz; Ahi the son of Abdiel, the son ¹⁵ of Guni, chief of the house of their fathers. And they dwelt in Gilead ¹⁶ in Bashan, and in her towns, and in all the suburbs of ^mSharon, upon ⁿtheir borders. All these were reckoned by ge- ¹⁷ nealogies in the days of ⁿJotham king of Judah, and in the days of ^oJeroboam king of Israel.

¹⁸ The sons of Reuben, and the Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh, of ¹valiant men, men able to bear buckler and sword, and ^pto shoot with bow, and skilful in war, were four and forty thousand seven hundred and threescore, ^qthat went ¹⁹ out to the war. And they made war with ^rthe Hagarites, with ^sJetur, and ²⁰ ^sNephish, and Nodab. And they were helped against them, and the Hagarites were delivered into their hand, and all that were with them: for ^tthey cried to God in the battle, and he was intreated of them; because they ^uput their trust in him. And they ^vtook away their cattle; ²¹ of their camels fifty thousand, and of sheep two hundred and fifty thousand, and of asses two thousand, and of ^wmen an hundred thousand. For there fell down many slain, because the war was of God. And they dwelt in their ^xsteads ²² until ^ythe captivity. And the children of the half tribe of Manasseh dwelt in the land: they increased from Bashan unto Baal-hermon and ^zSenir, and unto ²⁴ ^zmount Hermon. And these were the heads of the house of their fathers, even Ephraim, and Ishi, and Eliel, and Azriel, and Jeremiah, and Hodaviah, and Jahdai, mighty men of valour, ²⁵ famous men, and heads of the house of their fathers. And they transgressed against the God of their fathers, and went ^awhoring after the gods of the people of the land, whom God destroyed before ²⁶ them. And the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of ^bPul king of Assyria, and the spirit of ^cTilgath-pilneser king of Assyria, and he carried them away, even the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh, and brought them unto ^dHalah, and ^dHabor, and Hara, and ^dto the river Gozan, unto this day.

Meshelemiah was porter of the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. All these which were ^bchosen to be porters in the gates were two hundred and twelve. These were reckoned by their genealogy in their villages, whom ^aDavid and Samuel ^cthe seer ^ddid ordain in their ^eset office. So they and their children had the oversight of the gates of the house of the LORD, namely, the house of the tabernacle, by wards. In four quarters were the porters, toward the east, west, north, and south. And their brethren, which were ^din their villages, were to come ^eafter seven days from time to time with them. For these Levites, the four chief porters, were in their ^eset office, and were over the ^fchambers and treasuries of the house of God. And they lodged round about the house of God, because ^fthe charge was upon them, and the opening thereof every morning pertained to them. And certain of them had the charge of the ministering vessels, that they should ^fbring them in and out by tale. Some of them also were appointed to oversee the vessels, and all the ^finstruments of the sanctuary, and ^gthe fine flour, and the wine, and the oil, and the frankincense, and the spices. And some of the sons of the priests ^hmade the ointment of the spices. And Mattithiah, ⁱone of the Levites, who was the first-born of ⁱShallum the Korahite, had the ^eset office over the things that were made ^jin the pans. And other of their brethren, of the sons of the Kohathites, were ^jover the ^kshewbread, to prepare it every sabbath. And these are ^kthe singers, chief of the fathers of the Levites, who remaining in the chambers were ^lfree: for ^lthey were employed in that work ^mday and night. These chief fathers of the Levites were chief throughout their generations; these dwelt at Jerusalem.

Now ^athe Philistines fought against Israel; and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell down ²slain in mount Gilboa. And the Philistines followed hard after Saul, and after his sons; and the Philistines slew Jonathan, and ³Abinadab, and Malchishua, the sons of Saul. And the battle went sore against Saul, and the ⁴archers ⁴hit him, and he was wounded of the archers. Then said Saul to his armourbearer, Draw thy sword, and thrust me through therewith; lest these uncircumcised come and ⁵abuse me. But his armourbearer would not; for he was sore afraid. So Saul took a sword, and fell upon it. And when his armourbearer saw that Saul was dead, he fell likewise on the sword, and died. So Saul died, and his three sons, and all ⁶his house died together.

And it came to pass on the morrow, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his ⁹sons fallen in mount Gilboa. And when they had stripped him, they took his head, and his armour, and sent into the land of the Philistines round about, to carry tidings ^dunto their idols, and to the people. And they put his armour in the house of their gods, and fastened ¹¹his head in the temple of Dagon. And when all Jabesh-gilead heard all that ¹²the Philistines had done to Saul, they arose, all the valiant men, and took away the body of Saul, and the bodies of his sons, and brought them to Jabesh, and buried their bones under ¹³the oak in Jabesh, and fasted seven days. ^eThese also are the chief of the ¹⁰ mighty men whom David had, who ^{||}strengthened themselves with him in his kingdom, and with all Israel, to make him king, [†]according to the word of the LORD concerning Israel. And ¹¹ this is the number of the mighty men whom David had; ^{||}Jashobeam, ^{||}a Hachmonite, ^bthe chief of the captains: he lift up his spear against three hundred slain by him at one time. And after ¹² him was Eleazar the son of Dodo, the Ahohite, who was one of the three mighty. He was with David at ¹³ Pas-
dammin, ⁱand there the Philistines were gathered together to battle, where was a parcel of ground full of barley; and the people fled from before the Philistines. And [†]they ^{||}set themselves in the midst ¹⁴

of that parcel, and delivered it, and slew the Philistines; and the LORD ¹⁵ saved them by a great ^{||}deliverance. Now ^{||}three of the thirty captains went down to the rock to David, into the cave of Adullam; and the host of the Philistines encamped ^jin the valley of Rephaim. ¹⁶ And David was then in the hold, and the Philistines' ^kgarrison was then at ¹⁷ Beth-lehem. And David longed, and said, Oh that one would give me drink of the water of the well of Beth-lehem, ¹⁸ that is at the gate. And the three brake through the host of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Beth-lehem, that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David: but David would not drink of it, but poured it out ¹⁹ to the LORD, and said, My God forbid it me, that I should do this thing: shall I drink the blood of these men [†]that have put their lives in jeopardy? for with the jeopardy of their lives they brought it. Therefore he would not drink it. These things did these three ²⁰ mightiest. And Abishai the brother of Joab, he was chief of [†]the three: for lifting up his spear against three hundred, he slew them, and had a name ²¹ among the three. Of the three, he was more honourable than the two; for he was their captain: howbeit he attained ²² not to the first three. Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man of Kabzeel, [†]who had done many acts; he slew two lionlike men of Moab: also he went down and slew a lion in a pit ²³ in a snowy day. And he slew an Egyptian, [†]a man of great stature, five cubits high; and in the Egyptian's hand was a spear ^mlike a weaver's beam; and he went down to him with a staff, and pluckt the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and slew him with his own spear. ²⁴ These things did Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and had the name among ²⁵ [†]the three mighties. Behold, ^{||}he was honourable among the thirty, but attained not to the first three: and David set him over his guard.

²⁶ Also ^othe valiant men of the armies were, Asahel the brother of Joab, Elhanan the son of Dodo of Beth-lehem, ²⁷ Shammoth the ^{||}Harorite, Helez [†]the Pelonite, Ira the son of Ikesh the ²⁸ Tekoite, Abi-ezer [†]the Antothite, [†]Sibbecai the Hushathite, ^{||}Ilai the Ahohite, ³⁰ Maharai the Netophathite, [†]Heled the ³¹ son of Baanah the Netophathite, Ithai

the Moabite, Eliel, and Obed, and Jasiel the Mesobaite.

Now these are they that came to David to Ziklag, while he yet kept himself close because of Saul the son of Kish: and they were among the mighty men, helpers of the war. They were armed with bows, and could use both the right hand and the left in hurling stones and shooting arrows out of a bow, even of Saul's brethren of Benjamin. The chief was Ahiezer, then Joash, the sons of Shemaah the Gibeathite; and Jeziel, and Pelet, the sons of Azmaveth; and Berachah, and Jehu
the Antothite, and Ismaiah the Gibeonite, a mighty man among the thirty, and over the thirty; and Jeremiah, and Jahaziel, and Johanan, and Josabad the Gederathite, Eleuzai, and Jerimoth, and Bealiah, and Shemariah, and Shephatiah the Haruphite, Elkanah, and Jesiah, and Azareel, and Joezer, and Jashobeam,
the Korhites, and Joelah, and Zebadiah, the sons of Jeroham of Gedor. And of the Gadites there separated themselves unto David into the hold to the wilderness men of might, and men of war fit for the battle, that could handle shield and buckler, whose faces were like the faces of lions, and were as swift as the roes upon the mountains: Ezer the first,

Obadiah the second, Eliab the third, Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth, Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh, Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth,
Jeremiah the tenth, Machbanai the eleventh. These were of the sons of Gad, captains of the host: one of the least was over an hundred, and the greatest over a thousand. These are they that went over Jordan the first month, when it had overflowed all his banks;
and they put to flight all them of the valleys, both toward the east, and toward the west. And there came of the children of Benjamin and Judah to the hold unto David. And David went out to meet them, and answered and said unto them, If ye be come peaceably unto me to help me, mine heart shall be knit unto you: but if ye be come to betray me to mine enemies, seeing there is no wrong in mine hands, the God of our fathers look thereon, and rebuke it.
Then the spirit came upon Amasai, who was chief of the captains, and he said,

Thine are we, David,

And on thy side, thou son of Jesse:

Peace, peace be unto thee,

And peace be to thine helpers;

For thy God helpeth thee.

Then David received them, and made them captains of the band. And there fell some of Manasseh to David, when he came with the Philistines against Saul to battle: but they helped them not: for the lords of the Philistines upon advisement sent him away, saying, He will fall to his master Saul to the jeopardy of our heads. As he went to Ziklag, there fell to him of Manasseh, Adnah, and Jozabad, and Jediael, and Michael, and Jozabad, and Elihu, and Zilthai, captains of the thousands that were of Manasseh. And they helped David against the band of the rovers:
for they were all mighty men of valour, and were captains in the host. For at that time day by day there came to David to help him, until it was a great host, like the host of God.

And these are the numbers of the bands that were ready armed to the war, and came to David to Hebron, to turn the kingdom of Saul to him,
according to the word of the LORD.
The children of Judah that bare shield and spear were six thousand and eight

the children of Simeon, mighty men of valour for the war, seven thousand and one hundred. Of the children of ²Levi ²⁶four thousand and six hundred. And ²⁷Jehoiada was the leader of the Aaronites, and with him were three thousand and seven hundred; and ^aZadok, a ²⁸young man mighty of valour, and of his father's house twenty and two captains. And of the children of Benja-²⁹min, the ¹kindred of Saul, three thousand: for hitherto ^bthe greatest part of them had kept the ward of the house of Saul. And of the children of ^bEph-³⁰raim twenty thousand and eight hundred, mighty men of valour, ¹famous throughout the house of their fathers. And of the half tribe of Manasseh ³¹eighteen thousand, which ^cwere expressed by name, to come and make David king. And of the children of Issachar, ³²*which were men* ^dthat had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do; the heads of them were two hundred; and all their brethren were at their commandment. Of Zebu-³³lun, ^esuch as went forth to battle, ¹expert in war, with all instruments of war, fifty thousand, which could ¹keep rank: they were ¹not of double heart. And of ³⁴Naphtali a thousand captains, and with them with shield and spear thirty and seven thousand. And of the Danites ³⁵expert in war twenty and eight thousand and six hundred. And of ^bAsher, ³⁶^esuch as went forth to battle, ¹expert in war, forty thousand. And ^bon the ³⁷*other side* of Jordan, of the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and of the half tribe of Manasseh, with all manner of instruments of war for the battle, an hundred and twenty thousand. All these men ³⁸of war, that could keep rank, came ^fwith a perfect heart to Hebron, to make David king over all Israel: and all the rest also of Israel were of one heart to make David king. And there they were with David three days, eating and drinking: for their brethren had prepared for them. Moreover they that ⁴⁰*were* nigh them, even unto Issachar and Zebulun and Naphtali, brought bread on asses, and on ^gcamels, and on mules, and on oxen, and ¹meat, meal, ^bcakes of figs, and ¹bunches of raisins, and wine, and oil, and oxen, and sheep abundantly: for there was joy in Israel.

XIII.

And David consulted with the captains of thousands and hundreds, and with ²every leader. And David said unto all the congregation of Israel, If it seem good unto you, and that it be of the LORD our God, ¹let us send abroad unto our brethren every where, that are ^aleft in all the land of Israel, and with them also to the priests and Levites which are ¹in their cities and suburbs, that they may gather themselves unto us: and let us ¹bring again the ark of our God to us: for ^bwe inquired not at ⁴it in the days of Saul. And all the congregation said that they would do so: for the thing was right in the eyes of all ⁵the people. So ^cDavid gathered all Israel together, from ^dShihor of Egypt even ^eunto the entering of Hemath, to bring the ark of God from ^fKirath-jearim. ^gAnd David went up, and all Israel, to ^bBaalath, that is, to Kirath-jearim, which belonged to Judah, to bring up thence the ark of God the LORD, that dwelleth between the cherubims, ⁷whose name is called ¹on it. And they ¹carried the ark of God in a new cart out of the house of Abinadab: and Uzza ⁸and Ahio drave the cart. And David and all Israel played before God with all their might, and with ¹singing, and with ^kharps, and with ^kpsalteries, and with timbrels, and with ^kcymbals, ⁹and with trumpets. And when they came unto the threshingfloor of ¹Chidon, Uzza put forth his hand to hold ¹⁰the ark; for the oxen ¹stumbled. And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzza, and he smote him, because he put his hand to the ark: and ¹¹there he ¹died before God. And David was displeased, because the LORD had made a breach upon Uzza: wherefore that place is called ¹Perez-uzza to this ¹²day. And David was afraid of God that day, saying, How shall I bring the ¹³ark of God home to me? So David ¹brought not the ark home to himself to the city of David, but carried it aside into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite. ¹⁴And the ark of God remained with the family of Obed-edom in his house three months. And the LORD ^mblessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that he had.

Now ^aHiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and timber of cedars, with masons and carpenters, to build ²him a house. And David perceived that the LORD had confirmed him king over Israel, for his kingdom was lift up on high, because of his people Israel.

And David took [†]moe wives at Jeru-and Solomon, and Ibhaz, and Elishua, and Elpalet, and Nogah, and Nepheg, and Japhia, and Elishama, and [†]Beeliada, and Eliphalet.

And when the Philistines heard that David was anointed king over all Israel, all the Philistines went up to seek David. And David heard of it, and ^cwent out against them. And the Philistines came and ^dspread themselves in the valley of Rephaim. And David inquired of God, saying, Shall I go up against the Philistines? and wilt thou deliver them into mine hand? And the LORD said unto him, Go up; for I will deliver them into thine hand. So they came up to Baal-perazim; and David smote them there. Then David said, God hath broken in upon mine enemies by mine hand like the breaking forth of waters: therefore they called the name of that place [†]Baal-perazim. And when they had left their gods there, David gave a commandment, and they were ^eburnt with fire. And the Philistines yet again spread themselves abroad in the valley. Therefore David inquired again of God; and God said unto him, Go not up after them; turn away from them, and come upon them over against the mulberry trees. And it shall be, when thou shalt hear a sound of going in the tops of the mulberry trees, that then thou shalt go out to battle: for God is gone forth before thee to smite the host of the Philistines. David therefore did as God commanded him: and they smote the host of the Philistines from [†]Gibeon even to Gazer. And [†]the fame of David went out into all lands;
and the LORD brought [‡]the fear of him upon all nations.

And David made him houses in the city of David, and prepared a place for the ark of God, and ^apitched for it a tent. Then David said, [†]None ought to carry the ^bark of God but the Levites: for them hath the LORD chosen to carry the ark of God, and to minister unto him for ever. And David ^cga-thered all Israel together to Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the LORD unto ^dhis place, which he had prepared for it.
And David assembled the children of 5 Aaron, and the Levites: of the sons of ^eKohath; Uriel the chief, and his [†]brethren an hundred and twenty: of the sons of ^eMerari; Asaiah the chief, and his brethren two hundred and twenty: 7 of the sons of ^eGershon; Joel the chief,

and his brethren an hundred and thirty:
8 of the sons of [†]Elizaphan; Shemaiah the chief, and his brethren two hun-9 dred: of the sons of [‡]Hebron; Eliel
the chief, and his brethren fourscore: 10 of the sons of [‡]Uzziel; Amminadab the chief, and his brethren an hundred and twelve.

11 And David called for ^bZadok and [†]Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites, for [†]Uriel, Asaiah, and Joel, Shemaiah, and Eliel, and Amminadab, and said unto them, Ye are the chief of the fathers of the Levites: [†]sanctify yourselves, both ye and your brethren, that you may bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel unto ^dthe place that I have 13 prepared for it. For ^kbecause ye did it not at the first, the LORD our God [†]made a breach upon us, for that we sought him not after the due order.
14 So the priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the ark of the 15 LORD God of Israel. And the children of the Levites bare the ark of God upon their shoulders with the ^mstaves thereon, as ⁿMoses commanded according to 16 the word of the LORD. And David spake to the chief of the Levites to appoint their brethren to be the singers with instruments of musick, ^opsalteries and ^oharps and ^ocymbals, sounding, by 17 lifting up the voice with joy. So the Levites appointed ^pHeman the son of excel. And Chenaniah, chief of the Levites, ¹was for [†]song: he instructed about the [†]song, because he was skilful. And Berechiah and Elkanah were door-keepers for the ark. And Shebaniah, and Jehoshaphat, and Nethaneel, and Amasai, and Zechariah, and Benaiah, and Eliezer, the priests, did blow ^ywith the trumpets before the ark of God: and Obed-edom and Jehiah were door-keepers for the ark.

So ²David, and the elders of Israel, and the captains over thousands, went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the house of Obed-edom with joy. And it came to pass, when God helped the Levites that bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, that they offered ^aseven bullocks and seven rams. And David was clothed with a robe of ^bfine linen, and all the Levites that bare the ark, and the singers, and Chenaniah the master of the [†]song with the singers: David also had upon him an ephod of linen. Thus all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the LORD with shouting, and with sound of the ^ccornet, and with ^dtrumpets, and with ^ecymbals, making a noise with ^epsalteries and ^eharps. [†]And it came to pass, as the ark of the covenant of the LORD came to the city of David, that Michal the daughter of Saul looking out at a window saw king David dancing and playing: and she despised him in her heart. So they brought the ark of God, and set it in the midst of the tent that David had pitched for it: and they offered burnt sacrifices and peace offerings before God. And when David had made an end of offering the burnt offerings and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD. And he dealt to every one of Israel, both man and woman, to every one a loaf of bread, and a good piece of flesh, and a flagon of wine. And he appointed certain of the Levites to minister before the ark of the LORD, and to ^arecord, and to thank and praise the LORD God of Israel: ^bAsaph the chief, and ^cnext to him Zechariah, Jeiel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Mattithiah, and Eliab, and Benaiah, and Obed-edom: and Jeiel [†]with ^dpsalteries and with ^dharps; but Asaph made a sound with ^dcymbals; Benaiah also and Jahaziel the priests with ^etrumpets continually before the ark of the covenant of God.

⁷ Then on that day David delivered [†]first this psalm to thank the LORD into the hand of ^bAsaph and his brethren.

it shall come to pass, when thy days be expired that thou must go to be with thy fathers, that I will raise up thy seed after thee, which shall be of thy sons; and I will stablish his kingdom. He shall build me a house, and I will¹² stablish his throne for ever. ^dI will¹³ be his father, and he shall be my son: and I will not take my mercy away from him, as I took it from ^ehim that was before thee: but I will settle¹⁴ him in mine house and in my kingdom for ever: and his throne shall be established for evermore. According to¹⁵ all these words, and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speak unto David.

And David the king came and sat¹⁶ before the LORD, and said, Who am I, O LORD God, and what is mine house, that thou hast brought me hitherto? And ^fyet this was a small thing in thine¹⁷ eyes, O God; for thou hast ^galso spoken of thy servant's house for a great while to come, and ^hhast regarded me according to the ^hestate of a man of high degree, O LORD God. What can David¹⁸ say more to thee for the honour of thy servant? for thou knowest thy servant. O LORD, for thy ⁱservant's sake,¹⁹ and according to thine own heart, hast thou done all this greatness, in making known all these ^jgreat things. O LORD,²⁰ there is none like thee, neither is there any God besides thee, according to all that we have heard with our ears. And what one nation in the earth is like thy people Israel, whom God went to redeem to be his own people, to make thee a name of greatness and terrible-ness, by driving out nations from before thy people, whom thou hast redeemed out of Egypt? For thy people Israel²² didst thou make thine own people for ever; and thou, LORD, becamest their God. Therefore now, LORD, let the thing that thou hast spoken concerning thy servant and concerning his house be established for ever, and do as thou hast said. Let it even be established,²⁴ that thy name may be magnified for ever, saying, The LORD of hosts is the God of Israel, even a God to Israel: and let the house of David thy servant be established before thee. For thou,²⁵ O my God, ^khast told thy servant that thou wilt build him a house: therefore thy servant hath found ^kin his heart to pray before thee. And now, LORD,²⁶ thou art God, and hast promised this²⁷ goodness unto thy servant: now therefore ^llet it please thee to bless the house of thy servant, that it may be before thee for ever: for thou blessest, O LORD, and it shall be blessed for ever.

Now ^aafter this it came to pass, that David smote the Philistines, and subdued them, and took ^bGath and her ^ctowns out of the hand of the Philistines. And he smote Moab; and the Moabites became David's servants, and³ brought gifts. And David smote ^lHadarezer king of Zobah unto ^dHamath, as he went to stablish his dominion by⁴ the river Euphrates. And David took from him a thousand chariots, and ^lseven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen: David also houghed all the chariot horses, but reserved of them⁵ an hundred chariots. And when the Syrians of ^lDamascus came to help Hadarezer king of Zobah, David slew of the Syrians two and twenty thousand⁶ men. Then David put ^egarrisons in Syria-damascus; and the Syrians became David's servants, and brought gifts. Thus the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went. And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadarezer, and brought them⁸ to Jerusalem. Likewise from ^lTibhath, and from Chun, cities of Hadarezer, brought David very much brass, wherewith ^fSolomon made the brasen sea, and the pillars, and the vessels of brass. ⁹Now when ^lTou king of ^dHamath heard how David had smitten all the¹⁰ host of Hadarezer king of Zobah; he sent ^lHadoram his son to king David, ^lto inquire of his welfare, and ^lto congratulate him, because he had fought against Hadarezer, and smitten him; (for Hadarezer ^lhad war with Tou;) and ^gwith him all manner of vessels of gold¹¹ and silver and brass. Them also king David dedicated unto the LORD, with the silver and the gold that he brought from all these nations; from Edom, and from Moab, and from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines, and¹² from Amalek. Moreover ^lAbishai the son of Zeruiah slew of the Edomites in the valley of salt eighteen thousand. ¹³And he put garrisons in Edom; and all the Edomites became David's servants. Thus the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went.

[†] Heb. the face of the battle was,

So David reigned over all Israel, and 14 executed judgment and justice among all his people. And Joab the son of 15 Zeruiah was over the host; and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud, ¹recorder.
And Zadok the son of Ahitub, and 16 ¹Abimelech the son of Abiathar, were the priests; and ¹Shavsha was scribe;
and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was 17
over the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and the sons of David were chief [†]about the king.

Now ^ait came to pass after this, that Nahash the king of the children of Ammon died, and his son reigned in his stead. And David said, I will shew 2 kindness unto Hanun the son of Nahash, because his father shewed kindness to me. And David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. So the servants of David came into the land of the children of Ammon to Hanun, to comfort him. But the 3 princes of the children of Ammon said to Hanun, [†]Thinkest thou that David doth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters unto thee? are not his servants come unto thee for to search, and to overthrow, and to spy out the land? Wherefore Hanun took David's 4 servants, and shaved them, and cut off their garments in the midst hard by their buttocks, and sent them away.
Then there went certain, and told David 5 how the men were served. And he sent to meet them: for the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, Tarry at Jericho until your beards be grown, and then return. And when the children of 6 Ammon saw that they had made themselves [†]odious to David, Hanun and the children of Ammon sent a thousand talents of silver to hire them chariots and horsemen out of ^bMesopotamia, and out of Syria-^cmaachah, and out of Zobah. So they hired thirty and two 7 thousand chariots, and the king of ^cMaachah and his people; who came and pitched before ^dMedeba. And the children of Ammon gathered themselves together from their cities, and came to battle. And when David heard of it, he 8 sent Joab, and all the host of the mighty men. And the children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array before the gate of the city: and the kings that were come were by themselves in the field. Now when Joab 10 saw that [†]the battle was set against him before and behind, he chose out of all the ¹choice of Israel, and put them in 11 array against the Syrians. And the rest of the people he delivered unto the hand of ¹Abishai his brother, and they set themselves in array against the chil-12 dren of Ammon. And he said, If the Syrians be too strong for me, then thou shalt help me; but if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, then 13 I will help thee. Be of good courage, and let us behave ourselves valiantly for our people, and for the cities of our God: and let the LORD do that which 14 is good in his sight. So Joab and the people that were with him drew nigh before the Syrians unto the battle; and 15 they fled before him. And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, they likewise fled before Abishai his brother, and entered into the city. Then Joab came to Jerusalem.

And when the Syrians saw that they were put to the worse before Israel,
they sent messengers, and drew forth
the Syrians that were beyond the ¹river:
and ¹Shophach the captain of the host 17 of Hadarezer went before them. And it was told David; and he gathered all Israel, and passed over Jordan, and came upon them, and set the battle in array against them. So when David had put the battle in array against the 18 Syrians, they fought with him. But the Syrians fled before Israel; and David slew of the Syrians seven ^cthousand men which fought in chariots, and forty thousand ^cfootmen, and killed Shophach 19 the captain of the host. And when the servants of Hadarezer saw that they were put to the worse before Israel, they made peace with David, and became his servants: neither would the Syrians help the children of Ammon any more.

And ^ait came to pass, that [†]after the year was expired, at the time that kings go out to battle, Joab led forth the power of the army, and wasted the country of the children of Ammon; and came and besieged Rabbah. But David tarried at Jerusalem. And ^bJoab smote Rabbah, 2 and destroyed it. And David ^ctook the crown of their king from off his head, and found it [†]to weigh a talent of gold, and there were precious stones in it; and it was set upon David's head: and he brought also exceeding much spoil out people that were in it, and ^dcut them with saws, and with harrows of iron, and with axes. Even so dealt David with all the cities of the children of Ammon. And David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

^eAnd it came to pass after this, that there ¹arose war at ^fGezer with the Philistines; at which time Sibbechai the Hushathite slew ¹Sippai, that was of the children of ¹the giant; and they were subdued. And there was war again with the Philistines; and Elhanan the son of ¹Jair slew Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, whose spear staff was like a weaver's beam. And yet again there ⁶was war at Gath, where was ¹a man of great stature, whose fingers and toes were four and twenty, six on each hand, and six on each foot; and he also was ¹the son of the giant. But when he ⁷died Israel, Jonathan the son of ¹Shimea David's brother slew him. These were ⁸born unto the giant in Gath; and they fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

And ^aSatan stood up against Israel, and ^bprovoked David to number Israel. And David said to Joab and to the rulers of the people, Go, number Israel from Beer-sheba even to Dan; and bring the number of them to me, that I may know it. And Joab answered, The LORD make his people an hundred times so many moe as they be: but, my lord the king, are they not all my lord's servants? why then doth my lord require this thing? why will he be ^ca cause of trespass to Israel? Nevertheless the king's word prevailed against Joab. Wherefore Joab departed, and went throughout all Israel, and came to Jerusalem. And Joab gave the sum of the number of the people unto David. And all they of Israel were ^da thousand thousand and an hundred thousand men that drew sword: and Judah was ^dfour hundred threescore and ten thousand men that drew sword. ^eBut Levi and Benjamin counted he not among them: for the king's word was abominable to Joab.

¹¹So Gad came to David, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, ¹Choose thee either ¹three years' famine; or three months to be destroyed before thy foes, while that the sword of thine enemies overtaketh thee; or else three days the sword of the LORD, even the pestilence, in the land, and the angel of the LORD destroying throughout all the coasts of Israel. Now therefore advise thyself what word I shall bring again to him ¹³that sent me. And David said unto Gad, I am in a great strait: let me fall now into the hand of the LORD; for very ¹great are his mercies: but let me not ¹⁴fall into the hand of man. So the LORD sent pestilence upon Israel: and there fell of Israel seventy thousand men.

¹⁵And God sent an angel unto Jerusalem to destroy it: and as he was destroying, the LORD beheld, and he repented him of the evil, and said to the angel that destroyed, It is enough, stay now thine hand. And the angel of the LORD stood by the threshingfloor of ¹Ornan the Jebusite. And David lift up his eyes, and saw the angel of the LORD stand between the earth and the heaven, having a drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders of Israel, who were clothed ¹⁷in sackcloth, fell upon their faces. And David said unto God, Is it not I that commanded the people to be numbered? even I it is that have sinned and done evil indeed; but as for these sheep, what have they done? let thine hand, I pray thee, O LORD my God, be on me, and on my father's house; but not on thy people, that they should be plagued.

of this threshingfloor, that I may build an altar therein unto the LORD: thou shalt ¹grant it me for the full price: that the plague may be stayed from the people. And Ornan said unto David, Take ²³ it to thee, and let my lord the king do that which is good in his eyes: lo, I give thee the oxen also for burnt offerings, and the threshing instruments for wood, and the ¹wheat for the meat offering; I give it all. And king David said to Ornan, Nay; but I will verily buy it for the full price: for I will not take that which is thine for the LORD, nor offer burnt offerings without cost. So David gave ²⁵ to Ornan for the place ¹six hundred shekels of gold by weight. And David built ²⁶ there an altar unto the LORD, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings, and called upon the LORD; and ^khe answered him from heaven by fire upon the altar of burnt offering. And the LORD commanded the angel; and he put up his sword again into the sheath thereof.

At that time when David saw that the LORD had answered him in the threshingfloor of Ornan the Jebusite, then he sacrificed there. ¹For the tabernacle of the LORD, which Moses made in the wilderness, and the altar of the burnt offering, were at that season in the high place at Gibeon. But David could not go ³⁰ before it ^mto inquire of God: for he was ⁿafraid because of the sword of the angel of the LORD. Then David said, ^aThis is the house of the LORD God, and this is the altar of the burnt offering for Israel. And David commanded to gather ² together ^bthe strangers that were in the land of Israel; and he set masons to hew ^cwrought stones to build the house of God. And David prepared iron in abundance for the nails for the doors of the gates, and for the ^{cc}joinings; and brass in abundance ^dwithout weight; also cedar trees in abundance: for ^ethe Zidonians and they of Tyre brought much cedar wood to David. And David said, ⁵ Solomon my son is ^fyoung and tender, and the house that is to be build for the LORD must be exceeding magnifical, of fame and of glory throughout all countries: I will therefore now make preparation for it. So David prepared abundantly before his death.

Then he called for Solomon his son, ⁶ and charged him to build a house for the LORD God of Israel. And David ⁷ said to Solomon, My son, as for me, ^git was in my mind to build a house ^hunto the name of the LORD my God: but the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ⁱThou hast shed blood abundantly, and ^jhast made great wars: thou shalt not build a house unto my name, because thou hast shed much blood upon the ⁹earth in my sight. Behold, a son shall be born to thee, who shall be a man of rest; and I will give him ^krest from all his enemies round about: for his name shall be ^lSolomon, and I will give peace and quietness unto Israel in his days. ¹⁰He shall build a house for my name; and ^mhe shall be my son, and I will be his father; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel for ever. ¹¹Now, my son, ⁿthe LORD be with thee; and prosper thou, and build the house of the LORD thy God, as he hath said of ¹²thee. Only the LORD ^ogive thee wisdom and understanding, and give thee charge concerning Israel, that thou mayest keep the law of the LORD thy God. ¹³Then shalt thou prosper, if thou takest heed to fulfil the statutes and judgments which the LORD charged Moses with concerning Israel: ^qbe strong, and of good courage; ^rdread not, nor be dismayed. Now behold, ¹⁴in my trouble I have prepared for the house of the LORD an ^shundred thousand talents of gold, and a thousand thousand talents of silver; and of brass and iron ^twithout weight; for it is in abundance: timber also and stone have I prepared; and ¹⁵thou mayest add thereto. Moreover there are workmen with thee in abundance, hewers and ^uworkers of stone and timber, and all manner of cunning men ¹⁶for every manner of work. Of the gold, the silver, and the brass, and the iron, there is ^vno number. Arise therefore, and be doing, and ^wthe LORD be with thee.

¹⁷ David also commanded all ^xthe princes of Israel to help Solomon his son, saying, ¹⁸Is not the LORD your God with you? and hath he ^ynot ^zgiven you rest on every side? for he hath given the inhabitants of the land into mine hand; and the land is subdued before the LORD, ¹⁹and before his people. Now ^zset your heart and your soul to seek the LORD your God; arise therefore, and build ye the sanctuary of the LORD God, to bring ^athe ark of the covenant of the LORD, and the holy vessels of God, into the house that is to be built to the name of the LORD. So when David was old and ^afull of days, he made ^bSolomon his son king over Israel.

And he gathered together all the ²princes of Israel, with the priests and the Levites. Now the Levites were num- ³bered from the age of ^cthirty years and upward: and their number ^dby their polls, man by man, was ^ethirty and eight thousand. Of which, twenty and four ⁴thousand were ^fto set forward the work of the house of the LORD; and six thou- ⁵sand were ^gofficers and judges: moreover four thousand were porters; and four thousand praised the LORD with the in- ⁶struments ^hwhich I made, ⁱsaid David, to praise therewith. And ^jDavid divided them into ^kcourses among ^lthe sons of Levi, namely, Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

¹Of the Gershonites were, ^mLaadan, ⁿand Shimei. The sons of Laadan; the ⁸chief was ^oJehiel, and ^pZetham, and ⁹Joel, three. The sons of Shimei; She- ^llomith, and Haziël, and Haran, three. These were the chief of the fathers of Laadan. And the sons of ^uShimei were, ¹⁰Jahath, ^vZina, and Jeush, and Beriah. These four were the sons of Shimei. And Jahath was the chief, and Zizah ¹¹the second: but Jeush and Beriah ^hhad not many sons; therefore they were in one reckoning, according to their father's house.

^oThe sons of Kohath; Amram, Izhar, ¹²Hebron, and Uzziel, four. The sons of ¹³Amram; Aaron and Moses: and ^qAaron was separated, that he should sanc- ^rtify ^sthe most holy things, he and his sons for ever, ^tto burn incense before the LORD, ^uto minister unto him, and ^vto bless in his name for ever. Now ¹⁴concerning Moses ^wthe man of God, ^xhis sons were named of the tribe of Levi. ^zThe sons of Moses were, Gershom, and ¹⁵Eliezer. ^aOf the sons of Gershom, ^bShe- ¹⁶buël was the chief. And the sons of ¹⁷Eliezer were, ^cRehabiah ^dthe chief. And Eliezer had none other sons; but the sons of Rehabiah ^ewere very many. ¹⁸Of the sons of Izhar; ^fShelomith the chief. ¹⁹Of the sons of Hebron; Jeriah the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth. ²⁰Of the sons of Uzziel; ^gMichah the first, and ^hJesiah the second.

²⁴These were ^kthe sons of Levi after the house of their fathers; even the chief of the fathers, as ^lthey were counted by number of names by their polls, that did the work for the service of the house of the LORD, from the age of ^mtwenty years ²⁵and upward. For David said, The LORD God of Israel ⁿhath given rest unto his people, ^othat they may dwell in Jerusalem for ever: and also unto the ²⁶Levites; they shall no more ^pcarry the tabernacle, nor any vessels of it for the service thereof. For by the last words of David, the Levites were ²⁷numbered from twenty years old and above: be- ²⁸cause ^qtheir office was to wait on the sons of Aaron for the service of the house of the LORD, in the courts, and in the ^rchambers, and in the purifying of all holy things, and the work of the ser- ²⁹vice of the house of God; both for ^sthe shewbread, and for ^tthe fine flour for meat offering, and for ^uthe unleavened cakes, and for ^vthat which is ^wbaked in the ^xpan, and for that which is ^yfried, and for all ^zmanner of ^ameasure and ^bsize; ³⁰and to stand every morning to thank and praise the LORD, and likewise at ³¹even; and to offer all burnt sacrifices unto the LORD in the ^asabbaths, in the ^bnew moons, and on the ^cset feasts, by number, according to the order com- ³²manded unto them, continually before the LORD: and that they should ^akeep the charge of the tabernacle of the con- ^bgregation, and the charge of the holy ^cplace, and ^dthe charge of the sons of Aaron their brethren, in the service of the house of the LORD.

Now these are the divisions of the sons of Aaron. ^aThe sons of Aaron; Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. But ^bNadab and Abihu died be- fore their father, and had no children: therefore Eleazar and Ithamar executed ³the priest's office. of the sons of Ithamar: and thus were they divided. Among the sons of Eleazar there were sixteen chief men ^d of the house of their fathers, and eight among the sons of Ithamar ^d according to the house of their fathers. Thus were they ⁵ divided by ^e lot, one sort with another; for the governors of the sanctuary, and governors of the house of God, were of the sons of Eleazar, and of the sons of Ithamar. And Shemaiah the son of ⁶ Nathaneel the scribe, one of the Levites, wrote them before the king, and the princes, and ^e Zadok the priest, and ^e Ahimelech the son of ^f Abiathar, and before the chief of the fathers of the priests and Levites: one ¹ principal household being taken for Eleazar, and one taken for Ithamar. Now the first lot came forth to ⁷ ^g Jehoiarib, the second to ^h Jedaiah, the ⁸ third to ^h Harim, the fourth to Seorim, the fifth to ⁱ Malchijah, the sixth to Mijamin, the seventh to Hakkoz, the eighth ¹⁰ to ^j Abijah, the ninth to Jeshua, the ¹¹ tenth to Shecaniah, the eleventh to Elia- ¹² shib, the twelfth to Jakim, the thirteenth ¹³ to Huppah, the fourteenth to Jeshebeal, the fifteenth to Bilgah, the sixteenth to ¹⁴ ^h Immer, the seventeenth to Hezir, the ¹⁵ eighteenth to Aphses, the nineteenth to ¹⁶ Pethahiah, the twentieth to Jehezkel, the one and twentieth to Jachin, the ¹⁷ two and twentieth to Gamul, the three ¹⁸ and twentieth to Delaiah, the four and twentieth to Maaziah. These were the ¹⁹ orderings of them in their service ^k to come into the house of the LORD, according to their manner, under Aaron their father, as the LORD God of Israel had commanded him.

And the rest of the sons of Levi were ²⁰ these: Of the sons of ¹ Amram: ¹ Shubael: of the sons of Shubael; Jehdeiah. Con- ²¹ cerning ¹ Rehabiah: of the sons of Rehabiah, the first was Isshiah. Of the ²² Izharites: ¹ Shelomoth: of the sons of Shelomoth; Jahath. And the sons ^m of ²³ Hebron; Jeriah ^m the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, Jekameam the fourth. Of the sons of Uzziel; ²⁴ ⁿ Michah: of the sons of Michah; Shamir. The brother of Michah was ²⁵ ⁿ Ishai; of the sons of Isshiah; Zechariah. ^o The sons of Merari were Mahli and ²⁶ Mushih: the sons of Jaaziah; Beno. The sons of Merari by Jaaziah; Beno, and Shoham, and Zaccur, and Ibri. Of Mahli ²⁸ came Eleazar, ^p who had no sons. Con- ²⁹ cerning ^q Kish: the son of Kish was ³⁰ Jerahmeel. ^r The sons also of Mushi; ^s Mahli, and Eder, and Jerimoth. These were the sons of the Levites after the ³¹ house of their fathers. These likewise ^t cast lots over against their brethren the sons of Aaron ^u in the presence of David the king, and ^e Zadok, and ^e Ahimelech, and the chief of the fathers of the priests and Levites, even the principal fathers over against their younger brethren.

Moreover David and ^a the captains of the host separated to the service of the sons of ^b Asaph, and of ^c Heman, and of ^d Jeduthun, ^e who should prophesy with ^f harps, with ^f psalteries, and with ^f cymbals: and the number of the workmen ² according to their service was: of the sons of ^b Asaph; ^f Zaccur, and Joseph, and Nethaniah, and ¹ Asarelah, the sons of Asaph under the hands of Asaph, ^e which prophesied ^t according to the order of ³ the king. Of ^d Jeduthun: the sons of Jeduthun; Gedaliah, and ¹ Zeri, and Jeshaiiah, Hashabiah, and Mattithiah, ⁶ six, under the hands of their father Jeduthun, ^e who prophesied with a harp, to ⁴ give thanks and to praise the LORD. Of ^c Heman: the sons of Heman; Bukkiah, Mattaniah, ¹ Uzziel, ¹ Shebuel, and Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, and Romamti-ezer, Joshbekashah, ⁵ Mallothi, Hothir, and Mahazioth: all these were the sons of Heman the king's ⁸ seer in the ¹ words of God, to lift up the horn. And God gave to Heman ⁶ fourteen sons and three daughters. All these were under the hands of their father for song in the house of the LORD, with ^f cymbals, ^f psalteries, and ^f harps, for the service of the house of God, ^t according to the king's order to ^b Asaph, ^d Jeduthun, ⁷ and ^c Heman. So the number of them, with their brethren that were instructed in the songs of the LORD, even all that were ^h cunning, was ⁱ two hundred fourscore and eight.

⁸ And they cast lots, ward against ¹ ward, as well the small as the great, ⁹ the ^h teacher as the scholar. Now ^k the first lot came forth for Asaph to ¹ Joseph: the second to ^m Gedaliah, who ⁿ with his brethren and sons were twelve: the third to ¹ Zaccur, ⁿ he, his sons, and his ¹⁰ brethren, were twelve: the fourth to ^m Izri, ^{he}, his sons, and his brethren, were ¹² twelve: the fifth to ¹ Nethaniah, ^{he}, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve: the sixth to ^o Bukkiah, ^{he}, his sons, and his ¹⁴ brethren, were twelve: the seventh to

Concerning the divisions of the porters: Of the Korhites was ¹Mesheleemiah the son of Kore, of the sons of ¹Asaph. And the sons of ^aMesheleemiah were, ² ^aZechariah the firstborn, Jedaiel the second, Zebadiah the third, Jathniel the fourth, Elam the fifth, Jehohanan the sixth, Elioenai the seventh. Moreover the sons of ^bObed-edom were, Shemaiah the firstborn, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, and Sacar the fourth, and Ne-⁵thaneel the fifth, Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh, Peulthai the eighth: for God blessed ¹him. Also unto ^cShe-⁶maiah his son were sons born, that ruled throughout the house of their father: for they were mighty men of valour. The sons of Shemaiah; Othni, and Rephael, and Obed, Elzabad, whose brethren were ^dstrong men, Elihu, and Semachiah. All ⁸these of the sons of Obed-edom: they and their sons and their brethren, able men for strength for the service, were three-score and two of Obed-edom. And ⁹

the children of Merari, had sons; Simri the chief, (for though he was not the first-born, yet his father made him the chief;) ¹¹Hilkiah the second, Tebaliah the third, Zechariah the fourth: all the sons and ¹²brethren of Hosah were thirteen. Among these were the divisions of the porters, even among the chief men, having wards one against another, to minister in the house of the LORD.

¹³And they ^gcast lots, ^has well the small as the great, according to the house of their fathers, for every gate. ¹⁴And the lot eastward ^gfell to ¹Shele-¹⁵miah. Then for Zechariah his son, a wise counsellor, they cast lots; and his lot came out northward. To Obed-¹⁶edom southward; and to his sons the house of ¹Asuppim. To Shuppim and Hosah the lot came forth westward, with the gate ^hShallecheth, by ⁱthe causeway ^kof the going up, ward against ward. ¹⁷Eastward were six Levites, northward four a day, southward four a day, and ¹⁸toward Asuppim two and two. At ¹Par-¹⁹bar westward, four at ⁱthe causeway, and two at Parbar. These are the divisions of the porters among the sons of ^mKore, and among the sons of ⁿMerari. ²⁰And of the Levites, Abijah was over ^othe treasures of the house of God, and over the treasures of the ¹dedicate ²¹things. As concerning the sons of ¹Laad-²²an; the sons of the Gershonite Laadan, chief fathers, even of Laadan the Ger-²³shonite, were ¹Jehieli. The sons of Je-²⁴hieli; ^pZetham, and Joel his brother, which were over the treasures of the ²⁵house of the LORD. ^qOf the Amram-²⁶ites, and the Izharites, the Hebronites, and the Uzzielites: and ¹Shebuel the son of Gershom, the son of Moses, was ²⁷ruler of the treasures. ^rAnd his brethren by Eliezer; Rehabiah his son, and ^sJeshaiah his son, and Joram his son, and Zichri his son, and Shelomith his son. ²⁸Which Shelomith and his brethren were over all the treasures of the dedicate ²⁹things, which David the king, and the chief fathers, the captains over thou-³⁰sands and hundreds, and the captains of the host, had ¹dedicated. ^tOut of the spoils won in battles did they ¹dedicate to maintain the house of the LORD. ³¹And all that ^uSamuel the seer, and Saul the son of Kish, and ^vAbner the son of Ner, and ^wJoab the son of Zeruiah, had dedicated; and whosoever had dedicated anything, it was under the hand of She-lomith, and of his brethren. Of the ²⁹ Izharites, Chenaniah and his sons were for [†]the outward business over Israel, for [‡]officers and judges. And of the ³⁰ Hebronites, ^aHashabiah and his brethren, men of valour, a thousand and seven hundred, were [†]officers among them of Israel on this side Jordan westward in all the business of the LORD, and in the service of the king. Among the Hebronites was ^bJerijah the chief, even among the Hebronites, according to the generations of his fathers. In the fortieth year of the reign of David they were sought for, and there were found among them mighty men of valour ^cat Jazer of Gilead. And his ³² brethren, men of valour, were two thousand and seven hundred chief fathers, whom king David made rulers over the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh, ^dfor every matter pertaining to God, and [†]affairs of the king.

XXVII. Now the children of Israel after their number, to wit, the chief fathers and captains of thousands and hundreds, and their officers that served the king in any matter of the courses, which came in and went out month by month throughout all the months of the year, of every course were twenty and four thousand. Over the first course for the ² first month was ^aJashobeam the son of Zabdiel: and in his course were twenty and four thousand. Of the children of ³ ^bPerez was the chief of all the captains of the host for the first month. And over the course of the second month was [†]Dodai an Ahohite, and of his course was Mikloth also the ruler: in his course likewise were twenty and four thousand. The third captain of the ⁵ host for the third month was ^cBenaiah the son of Jehoiada, a [†]chief priest: and in his course were twenty and four thousand. This is that Benaiah, who was ⁶ ^dmighty among the thirty, and above the thirty: and in his course was Ammizabad his son. The fourth captain for the fourth month was ^eAsahel the brother of Joab, and Zebadiah his son [†]after him: and in his course were twenty and four thousand. The fifth captain ⁸ for the fifth month was [‡]Shamhuth the [†]Izrahite: and in his course were twenty and four thousand. The sixth captain ⁹ for the sixth month was ^bIra the son of Ikkeish the Tekoite: and in his course were twenty and four thousand. The ¹⁰ seventh captain for the seventh month was [†]Helez the Pelonite, of the children of Ephraim: and in his course were ¹¹ twenty and four thousand. The eighth captain for the eighth month was [†]Sibbecai the ^kHushathite, of the [†]Zarhites: and in his course were twenty and four ¹² thousand. The ninth captain for the ninth month was ^mAbiezer the Anethothite, of the Benjamites: and in his course were twenty and four thousand. The tenth captain for the tenth month was ⁿMaharai the Netophathite, of the [†]Zarhites: and in his course were twenty ¹⁴ and four thousand. The eleventh captain for the eleventh month was ^oBenaiah the Pirathonite, of the children of Ephraim: and in his course were twenty ¹⁵ and four thousand. The twelfth captain for the twelfth month was [†]Heldai the Netophathite, of [†]Othniel: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

Furthermore over the tribes of Israel: the ruler of the Reubenites was Eliezer the son of Zichri: of the Simeonites, Shephatiah the son of Maachah: of the Levites, ^qHashabiah the son of Kemuel: of the Aaronites, [†]Zadok: of Judah, [†]Elihu, one of the brethren of David: of Issachar, Omri the son of Michael: of Zebulun, Ishmaiah the son of Obadiah: of Naphtali, Jerimoth the son of Azriel: of the children of Ephraim, Hoshea the son of Azariah: of the half tribe of Manasseh, ²¹ Joel the son of Pedaiiah: of the half tribe of Manasseh in Gilead, [†]Iddo the son of Zechariah: of Benjamin, Jaasiel the son of [†]Abner: of Dan, Azareel the son of Jeroham. These were ²² the princes of the tribes of Israel.

But David took not the number of them from twenty years old and under: because the LORD had said he would increase Israel ^vlike to the stars of the heavens. Joab the son of Zeruiah began to number, but he ^wfinished not, because ^xthere fell wrath for it against Israel; neither [†]was the number put in the account of the chronicles of king David.

And over the king's treasures was ^yAzmaveth the son of Adiel: and over the storehouses in the fields, in the cities, and in the villages, and in the castles, was Jehonathan the son of ²⁶ Uzziah: and over them that did the work of the field for tillage of the XXVIII. And David ^aassembled all the princes of Israel, ^bthe princes of the tribes, and ^cthe captains of the companies that ministered to the king by course, and the captains over the thousands, and captains over the hundreds, and ^dthe stewards over all the substance and ^epossession of the king, ^fand of his sons, with the ^gofficers, and ^hwith ⁱthe mighty men, and with all the valiant men, unto Jerusalem. Then David the king stood up upon his feet, and said, Hear me, my brethren, and my people: As for me, ⁱI had in mine heart to build a house of rest for the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and for ^jthe footstool of our God, and had made ready for the building: but God said ^kunto me, ^lThou shalt not build a house for my name, because thou hast been a man of war, and hast shed ^mblood. Howbeit the LORD God of Israel chose ⁿme before all the house of my father to be king over Israel ^ofor ever: for he hath chosen ^pJudah to be the ruler; and of the house of Judah, ^qthe house of my father; and ^ramong the sons of my father he liked me to make ^sme king over all Israel: ^tand of all my sons, ^u(for the LORD hath given me many sons,) ^vhe hath chosen Solomon my son to sit upon the throne of ^wthe kingdom of the LORD over Israel. And he said unto me, ^xSolomon thy son, he shall build my house and my courts: for I have chosen him to be my son, and I ^ywill be his father. Moreover I will establish his kingdom ^zfor ever, ^{aa}if he be ^{ab}constant to do my commandments and ^{ac}my judgments, as ^{ad}at this day. ^{ae}Now therefore in the sight of all Israel the congregation of the LORD, and in the audience of our God, keep and seek for all the commandments of the LORD your God: that ye may possess ^{af}this good land, and leave ^{ag}it for an inheritance for your children after you ^{ah}for ever. And thou, Solomon my son, ^{ai}know thou the God of thy father, and serve him with ^{aj}a perfect heart and with a willing mind: for ^{ak}the LORD searcheth all hearts, and understandeth ^{al}all the imaginations of the thoughts: if thou seek him, he will be found of thee; but ^{am}if thou forsake him, he will ^{an}cast thee off for ever. Take heed now; for the LORD hath chosen thee to build a house for the sanctuary: ^{ao}be strong, and do ^{ap}it.

^{aq}Then David gave to Solomon his son ^{ar}the pattern of ^{as}the porch, and of the houses thereof, and of the treasures thereof, and of the ^{at}upper chambers thereof, and of the inner parlours thereof, and of the place of ^{au}the mercy seat, ^{av}and the pattern ^{aw}of all that he had by the spirit, of the courts of the house of the LORD, and of all the ^{ax}chambers round about, ^{ay}of the treasures of the house of God, and of the treasures of the ^{az}dedicate ^{ba}things: also for the ^{bb}courses of the priests and the ^{bc}Levites, and for all the work of the service of the house of the LORD, and for all the vessels of ^{bd}service in the house of the LORD. ^{be}He gave of gold by weight for ^{bf}things of gold, for all instruments of all manner of service; ^{bg}silver also for all instruments of silver by weight, for all instruments ^{bh}of every kind of service: even the weight for the ^{bi}candlesticks of gold, and ^{bj}for their ^{bk}lamps of gold, by weight for every candlestick, and ^{bl}for the lamps thereof: and for the candlesticks of silver by weight, ^{bm}both for the candlestick, and ^{bn}also for the lamps thereof, according to ^{bo}the use of every candlestick. And by weight ^{bp}he gave gold for the tables of shewbread, for every table; and ^{bq}likewise

Furthermore David the king said unto all the congregation, Solomon my son, whom alone God hath chosen, is yet a young and tender, and the work is great: for the ^bpalace is not for man, but for the LORD God. Now I ² have prepared with all my might for the house of my God the gold for things to be made of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and the brass for things of brass, the iron for things of iron, and wood for things of wood; ^conyx stones, and ^dstones ^eto be set, ^fglistening stones, and ^gof divers colours, and all manner of precious stones, and ^hmarble stones in abundance. More- ³ over, because I have set my affection to the house of my God, I have of mine own proper good, of gold and silver, which I have given to the house of my God, over and above all that I have prepared for the holy house, even ^bthree ⁴ thousand talents of gold, of the gold of ⁱOphir, and seven thousand talents of ^jrefined silver, to overlay the walls of the houses withal: the gold for things ⁵ of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and for all manner of work to be made by the hands of artificers. And who then is willing ^tto consecrate his service this day unto the LORD?

⁶ Then ^kthe chief of the fathers and princes of the tribes of Israel, and the captains of thousands and of hundreds, with ^lthe rulers over the king's work, ⁷ offered willingly, and gave for the service of the house of God of gold five thousand talents and ten thousand ^mdrams, and of silver ten thousand talents, and of brass eighteen thousand talents, and one hundred thousand ⁸ talents of iron. And they with whom ⁿprecious stones were found gave them to the ^otreasure of the house of the LORD, ^pby the hand of ^pJehiel the ⁹Gershonite. Then the people rejoiced, for that they offered willingly, because with perfect heart they ^qoffered willingly to the LORD: and David the king also rejoiced with great joy.

¹⁰ Wherefore David blessed the LORD before all the congregation: and David said, 'Blessed be thou, LORD God of Israel our father, for ever and ever. Thine, O LORD, is the ^sgreatness, and the ^tpower, and the ^uglory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is ^vthine; thine is the ^wkingdom, O LORD, and thou art exalted ¹² as head above all. ^uBoth riches and honour come of thee, and thou reignest over all; and ^xin thine hand is power and might; and in thine hand it is to make great, and to give strength unto all.

¹³ Now therefore, our God, we thank thee, ¹⁴ and praise thy glorious name. But who ^{am} I, and what is my people, that we should ^ybe able to offer so willingly after this sort? for all things come of thee, and

¹⁵ ^zof thine own have we given thee. For we are ^astrangers before thee, and sojourners, as were all our fathers: ^your days on the earth are as a shadow, and ¹⁶ there is none ^{abiding}. O LORD our God, all this store that we have prepared to build thee a house for thine holy name cometh of thine hand, and is all

¹⁷ thine own. I know also, my God, that thou ^ztriest the heart, and ^ahast pleasure in uprightness. As for me, in the uprightness of mine heart I have willingly offered all these things: and now have I seen ^bwith joy thy people, which are ^cpresent here, to offer willingly unto ¹⁸ thee. O LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, our fathers, keep this for ever in ^cthe imagination of the thoughts of the heart of thy people, and ^dprepare

THE SECOND BOOK

OF THE

CHRONICLES.

I. ^aAND ^aSolomon the son of David was strengthened in his kingdom, and ^bthe LORD his God was with him, and ^cmagnified him exceedingly. Then Solomon spake unto all Israel, to ^dthe captains of thousands and of hundreds, and to the judges, and to every governor in all Israel, the chief of the fathers. So Solomon, and all the congregation with him, went to ^ethe high place that was at Gibeon; for there was the tabernacle of the congregation of God, ^fwhich Moses the servant of the LORD had made in the wilderness. ^gBut the ark of God had David brought up from ^hKirjath-jearim to the place which David had prepared for it: for he had pitched a tent for it at Jerusalem. Moreover ⁱthe brassen altar, that ^jBezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made, ^khe put before the tabernacle of the LORD: and Solomon and the congregation ^lsought unto it. And Solomon went up thither to the brassen altar before the LORD, which was at the tabernacle of the congregation, and ^moffered a thousand burnt offerings upon it.

ⁿIn that night did God appear unto Solomon, and said unto him, Ask what I shall give thee. And Solomon said unto God, Thou hast shewed great mercy unto David my father, and hast made me to reign in his stead. Now, O LORD God, let thy promise unto David my father ^obe established: for thou hast made me king over a people ^plike the dust of the earth in multitude. Give me now wisdom and knowledge, that I may go out and come in before this people: for who can judge this thy people, that is so great? And God said to Solomon, Because this was in thine heart, and thou hast not asked riches, ^qwealth, or honour, nor the life of thine enemies, neither yet hast asked long life; but hast asked wisdom and knowledge for thyself, that thou mayest judge my people, over whom I have made thee king: wisdom and knowledge is granted unto thee; and I will give thee riches, and ^rwealth, and honour, such as ^snone of the kings have had that have been before thee, neither shall there any after thee have the like.

^tThen Solomon came from his journey to ^uthe high place that was at Gibeon to Jerusalem, from before the tabernacle of the congregation, and reigned over Israel. ^vAnd Solomon gathered chariots and horsemen: and ^whe had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, which he placed in ^xthe chariot cities, and with ^ythe king at Jerusalem. And the king ^zmade silver and gold at Jerusalem as plenteous as stones, and cedar trees made he as the sycamore trees that are in the vale for abundance. And ^{aa}Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and linen yarn: the king's merchants received the ^{ab}linen yarn at a price. And they fetcht up, and brought forth out of Egypt a chariot for six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse for an hundred and fifty: and so brought they out horses for all the kings of Syria, ^{ac}by their means. And Solomon ^{ad}determined to build a house for the name of the LORD, and a house ^{ae}for his kingdom. And ^{af}Solomon told out threescore and ten thousand men ^{ag}to bear burdens, and fourscore thousand to hew in the mountain, and three thousand and six hundred ^{ah}to oversee them.

him cedars to build him a house to dwell therein, ^f*even so deal with me.* Behold, I build a house to the name of the LORD my God, to dedicate it to him, and to burn before him [†]sweet incense, and [‡]for [§]the continual shewbread, and [¶]for ^hthe burnt offerings morning and evening, ^hon the sabbaths, and ^hon the new moons, and on ^hthe solemn feasts of the LORD our God. This is an ordinance for ever to Israel. And the house which I build ⁵is great: for [†]great is our God above all gods. But who [†]is able to build him a ⁶house, seeing [†]the heaven and heaven of heavens cannot contain him? who am I then, that I should build him a house, save only to burn sacrifice before him? Send me now therefore a man cunning ⁷to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, and in iron, and in ^hpurple, and ^hcrimson, and blue, and that can skill [†]to grave with the cunning men that are with me in Judah and in Jerusalem, ^hwhom David my father did provide. Send me ⁸also cedar trees, fir trees, and ^halgum trees, out of Lebanon: for I know that thy servants can skill to cut timber in Lebanon; and behold, my servants shall ⁹be with thy servants, even to prepare me timber in abundance: for the house which I am about to build shall be [†]wonderful great. And behold, ^hI will give to thy ¹⁰servants, the hewers that cut timber, ^otwenty thousand ^hmeasures of beaten wheat, and twenty thousand ^hmeasures of barley, and twenty thousand ^hbaths of wine, and ^otwenty thousand ^hbaths of oil. Then Hiram the king of Tyre an- ¹¹swered in writing, which he sent to Solomon, [†]Because the LORD hath loved his people, [†]he hath made thee king over them. Hiram said moreover, [§]Blessed ¹²be the LORD God of Israel, [†]that made heaven and earth, who hath given to David the king a wise son, [†]endued with prudence and understanding, that ^hmight build a house for the LORD, and a house for his kingdom. And now I have sent ¹³a cunning man, endued with understanding, of Hiram my father's, ^hthe son of ¹⁴a woman of the daughters of Dan, and his father was a man of Tyre, skilful [†]to work in gold, and in silver, in brass, in iron, in stone, and in timber, in purple, in blue, and in ^hfine linen, and in crimson; also to grave any manner of grav- ing, and to find out every device which shall be put to him, with thy cunning men, and with the cunning men of my ¹⁵lord David thy father. Now therefore the wheat, and the barley, the oil, and the wine, which ^hmy lord hath spoken ¹⁶of, let him send unto his servants: and we will cut wood out of Lebanon, [†]as much as thou shalt need: and we will bring it to thee in flotes by sea to [†]Joppa; and thou shalt carry it up to Jerusalem. ¹⁷And Solomon numbered all [†]the strangers that were in the land of Israel, after the numbering wherewith ^hDavid his father had numbered them; and they were found an hundred and fifty thousand and three thousand and six hundred. And he set ^hthreescore and ten thousand of them to be bearers of burdens, and fourscore thousand to be hewers in the mountain, and three thousand and six hundred overseers to set the people a work. Then ^hSolomon began to build the house of the LORD at Jerusalem in mount ^hMoriah, ^hwhere the LORD appeared unto David his father, in the place that David had prepared in the threshingfloor of ^hOrnan the Jebusite. ²And he began to build in the second day of the second month, in the fourth year of his reign.

³Now these are the things wherein Solomon was [†]instructed for the building of the house of God. ^hThe length by cubits after the first measure was threescore cubits, and the breadth twenty ⁴cubits. And the ^hporch that was in the front of the house, the length of it was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the height was an hundred and twenty: and he overlaid it ⁵within with pure gold. And [†]the greater house he cieleth with [§]fir tree, which he overlaid with fine gold, and set there- ⁶on ^hpalm trees and ^hchains. And he [†]garnished the house with precious stones for beauty: and the gold was gold of ⁷Parvaim. He overlaid also the house, the ^hbeams, the ^hposts, and the walls thereof, and the doors thereof, with gold; and ^hgraved cherubims on the walls. ⁸And he made the ^hmost holy house, the length whereof was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof twenty cubits: and ^hhe overlaid it with fine gold, amount- ⁹ing to six hundred talents. And the weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold. And he overlaid the ^hupper chambers with gold.

¹⁰And in the ^hmost holy house he made ^htwo cherubims ^hof image work, and overlaid them with gold. And the wings ¹¹ of the cherubims were twenty cubits long: one wing of the one cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house: and the other wing was likewise five cubits, reaching to the wing of the other cherub. And one wing of the other cherub was ¹² five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house: and the other wing was five cubits also, joining to the wing of the other cherub. The wings of these cherubims ¹³ spread themselves forth twenty cubits: and they stood on their feet, and their faces were ¹⁴ inward.

And he made the ¹⁵ pvail of blue, and purple, and crimson, and ¹⁶ fine linen, and wrought cherubims thereon. ¹⁷ Also he made before the house two pillars of ¹⁸ thirty and five cubits ¹⁹ high, and the chapter that was on the top of each of them was five cubits. And he made ²⁰ chains, as in ²¹ the oracle, and put them on the heads of the pillars; and made ²² an hundred pomegranates, and put them on the chains. And he reared up ²³ the pillars before the temple, one on the right hand, and the other on the left; and called the name of that on the right hand ²⁴ Jachin, and the name of that on the left ²⁵ Boaz.

Moreover he made ²⁶ an altar of brass, twenty cubits the length thereof, and twenty cubits the breadth thereof, and ten cubits the height thereof.

²⁷ Also he made a molten sea of ten cubits ²⁸ from brim to brim, round in compass, and five cubits the height thereof; and a line of thirty cubits did compass it round about. And under it was ²⁹ the similitude of ³⁰ oxen, which did compass it round about: ten in a cubit, compassing the sea round about. Two rows of oxen were cast, when it was cast. It ³¹ stood upon twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east: and the sea was set above upon them, and all their hinder parts were inward. And the thickness of it was ³² a handbreadth, and the brim of it like the work of the brim of a cup, ³³ with flowers of lilies; and it received and held ³⁴ three thousand baths.

He made also ³⁵ ten lavers, and put five on the right hand, and five on the left, to wash in them: ³⁶ such things as they offered for the burnt offering they ³⁷ washed in them; but the sea was for

⁴⁸ And Hiram made the pots, and the shovels, and the ⁴⁹ basons. And Hiram finished the work that he was to make for king Solomon for the house of God; ⁵⁰ to wit, the two pillars, and ⁵¹ the pommels, and the chapters which were on the top of the two pillars, and the two wreaths to cover the two pommels of the chapters which were on the top of the pillars; and ⁵² four hundred pomegranates on the two wreaths; two rows of pomegranates on each wreath, to cover the ⁵³ two pommels of the chapters ⁵⁴ which were upon the pillars. He made also ⁵⁵ bases and ⁵⁶ lavers made he upon the bases; one sea, and twelve oxen under it. The pots also, and the shovels, and ⁵⁷ the fleshhooks, and all their instruments, did ⁵⁸ Hiram his father make to king Solomon for the house of the LORD

⁵⁹ of ⁶⁰ bright brass. In the plain of Jordan did the king cast them, in the ⁶¹ clay ground between Succoth and ⁶² Zeredathah. Thus Solomon made all these vessels in great abundance: for ⁶³ the weight of the brass could not be found out. And Solomon made all the vessels that were for the house of God, the golden altar also, and ⁶⁴ the tables whereon the shewbread was set; moreover the candlesticks with their lamps, that they should burn ⁶⁵ after the manner before the ⁶⁶ oracle, of ⁶⁷ pure gold; and the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs, ⁶⁸ made he of gold, and that ⁶⁹ perfect gold; and the snuffers, and the ⁷⁰ basons, and the spoons, and the censers, of ⁷¹ pure gold: and the ⁷² entry of the house, the inner doors thereof for the most holy place, and the doors of the house of the temple, were of gold. Thus all the work that Solomon made for the house of the LORD was finished: and Solomon brought in all the things that David his father had dedicated; and the silver, and the

¹⁰ There was nothing in the ark save the two tables which Moses put therein at Horeb, ¹¹ when the LORD made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of Egypt. ¹² And it came to pass, when the priests were come out of the holy place: (for all the priests that were ¹³ present were sanctified, and did not then wait by ¹⁴ course: also the Levites ¹⁵ which were the singers, all of them ¹⁶ of Asaph, of Heman, of Jeduthun, with their sons and their brethren, being arrayed in ¹⁷ white linen, having ¹⁸ cymbals and psalteries and harps, stood at the east end of the altar, and with them an hundred and twenty ¹⁹ priests sounding with trumpets;) it came even to pass, as ²⁰ the trumpeters and singers were as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking the LORD; and when ²¹ they lift up their voice with ²² the trumpets and cymbals and instruments of musick, and praised the LORD, ²³ saying, For he is good; for his mercy endureth

^a Then said Solomon, The LORD hath said that he would dwell in the thick ² darkness. But I have built a house of habitation for thee, and a ³ place for thy dwelling for ever. And the king turned his face, and blessed the whole congregation of Israel: and all the congregation of Israel stood. And he said, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who hath with his hands fulfilled that which he spake with his mouth to my father David, saying, Since the day that I brought forth my people out of the land of Egypt I chose no city among all the tribes of Israel to build a house in, that my name might be there; ^c neither chose I any man ⁴ to be a ruler over my people Israel: ^d but I have chosen Jerusalem, that my name might be there; and have chosen David ⁵ to be over my people Israel. Now it was in the heart of David my father to build a house for the name of the LORD ⁶ God of Israel. But the LORD said to David my father, Forasmuch as it was in thine heart to build a house for my name, thou didst well in that it was in ⁷ thine heart: notwithstanding thou shalt not build the house; but thy son which shall come forth out of thy loins, he shall ⁸ build the house for my name. The LORD therefore hath performed his word that he hath spoken: for I am risen up in the room of David my father, and am set on the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised, and have built the house for the ⁹ name of the LORD God of Israel. to thy servants, that walk before thee with all their hearts: thou which hast kept with thy servant David my father that which thou hast promised him; and spakest with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thine hand, as it is this day. Now therefore, O LORD God of Israel, keep with thy servant David my father that which thou hast promised him, saying, 'There shall not fail thee a man in my sight to sit upon the throne of Israel; yet so that thy children take heed to their way to walk in my law, as thou hast walked before me. Now then, O LORD God of Israel, let thy word be verified, which thou hast spoken unto thy servant David.

But will God in very deed dwell with men on the earth? behold, heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain thee; how much less this house which I have built? Have respect therefore to the prayer of thy servant, and to his supplication, O LORD my God, to hearken unto the cry and the prayer which thy servant prayeth before thee: that thine eyes may be open upon this house day and night, upon the place whereof thou hast said that thou wouldest put thy name there; to hearken unto the prayer which thy servant prayeth towards this place. Harken therefore unto the supplications of thy servant, and of thy people Israel, which they shall make towards this place: hear thou from thy dwelling place, even from heaven; and when thou hearest, forgive.

If a man sin against his neighbour, and an oath be laid upon him to make him swear, and the oath come before thine altar in this house; then hear thou from heaven, and do, and judge thy servants, by requiring the wicked, by recompensing his way upon his own head; and by justifying the righteous, by giving him according to his righteousness.

And if thy people Israel be put to the worse before the enemy, because they have sinned against thee; and shall return and confess thy name, and pray and make supplication before thee in this house; then hear thou from the heavens, and forgive the sin of thy people Israel, and bring them again unto the land which thou gavest to them and to their fathers.

When the heaven is shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against thee; yet if they pray towards this place, and confess thy name, and turn from their sin, when thou dost afflict them; then hear thou from heaven, and forgive the sin of thy servants, and of thy people Israel, when thou hast taught them the good way, wherein they should walk; and send rain upon thy land, which thou hast given unto thy people for an inheritance.

If there be dearth in the land, if there be pestilence, if there be blasting, or mildew, locusts, or caterpillars; if their enemies besiege them in the cities of their land; whatsoever sore or whatsoever sickness there be: then what prayer or what supplication soever shall be made of any man, or of all thy people Israel, when every one shall know his own sore and his own grief, and shall spread forth his hands in this house: then hear thou from heaven thy dwelling place, and forgive, and render unto every man according unto all his ways, whose heart thou knowest; (for thou only knowest the hearts of the children of men:) that they may fear thee, to walk in thy ways, so long as they live in the land which thou gavest unto our fathers.

Moreover concerning the stranger, which is not of thy people Israel, but is come from a far country for thy great name's sake, and thy mighty hand, and thy stretched out arm; if they come and pray in this house; then hear thou from the heavens, even from thy dwelling place, and do according to all that the stranger calleth to thee for; that all people of the earth may know thy name, and fear thee, as doth thy people Israel, and may know that this house which I have built is called by thy name.

If thy people go out to war against their enemies by the way that thou shalt send them, and they pray unto thee toward this city which thou hast chosen, and the house which I have built for thy name; then hear thou from the heavens their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause. If they sin against thee, (for there is no man which sinneth not,) and thou be angry with them, and deliver them over before their enemies, and they carry them away captives unto a land far off or near; yet if they bethink themselves in the land whither they are carried

VII. Now ^a when Solomon had made an end of praying, the ^b fire came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and ^c the glory of the LORD filled the house. ^d And the priests could not enter into the house of the LORD, because the glory of the LORD had filled the LORD's house. And when all the children of Israel saw how the fire came down, and the glory of the LORD upon the house, they bowed themselves with their faces to the ground upon the pavement, and worshipped, and praised the LORD, ^e saying, For he is good; for his mercy endureth for ever.

^f Then the king and all the people ⁴ offered sacrifices before the LORD. And king Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty and two thousand oxen, and an hundred and twenty thousand sheep: so the king and all the people dedicated the house of God. And the priests ⁶ waited on their ^g offices: ^h the Levites also with instruments of musick of the LORD, which David the king had made ⁱ to praise the LORD, ^j because his mercy endureth for ever, when David praised ^k by their ministry; and ^l the priests sounded trumpets before them, and all

⁷ Israel stood. Moreover Solomon halted the middle of the court that was before the house of the LORD: for there he offered burnt offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings, because the brazen altar which Solomon had made was not able to receive the burnt offerings, and the meat offerings, and the fat. ⁸ Also at the same time Solomon kept the feast seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great congregation, from the entering in of Hamath unto ^k the ⁹ river of Egypt. And in the eighth day they made ^l a solemn assembly: for ¹ they kept the dedication of the altar seven ¹⁰ days, and the feast seven days. And ^m on the three and twentieth day of the seventh month he sent the people away into their tents, glad and merry in heart for the goodness that the LORD had shewed unto David, and to Solomon, and to Israel his people.

¹¹ Thus ⁿ Solomon finished the house of the LORD, and the king's house: and all that came into Solomon's heart to make in the house of the LORD, and in his own house, he prosperously effected.

¹² And the LORD appeared to Solomon by night, and said unto him, I have heard thy prayer, and ^o have chosen this place ¹³ to myself for a house of sacrifice. ^p If I shut up heaven that there be no rain, or if I command the ^q locusts to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among

¹⁴ my people; if my people, ^r which are called by my name, shall ^r humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; ^s then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive ¹⁵ their sin, and will heal their land. ^t Now mine eyes shall be open, and mine ears

VIII.

And ^ait came to pass at the end of twenty years, wherein Solomon had built the house of the LORD, and his own house, that the cities which Hiram had ² restored to Solomon, Solomon built them, and caused the children of Israel to dwell there. And Solomon went to ³ Hamath-^dzobah, and prevailed against it. And he built Tadmor in the wilderness, and all the store cities, which he built in Hamath. But of the children of ⁹ Israel did Solomon make no servants for his work; but they were men of war, and chief of his captains, and captains of his chariots and horsemen. And these were the chief of king Solo- ¹⁰ mon's officers, even ^gtwo hundred and fifty, that bare rule over the people. [†] Heb. word. It was a true [†] report which I heard in mine own land of thine [†] acts, and of thy wisdom: howbeit I believed not their words, until I came, and mine eyes had seen it: and behold, the one half of the greatness of thy wisdom was not told me: for thou exceedest the fame that I heard. Happy are thy men, and happy are these thy servants, which stand continually before thee, and hear thy wisdom. Blessed be the LORD thy God, which delighted in thee to set thee on [†] his throne, to be king for the LORD thy God: because thy God loved Israel, to establish them for ever, therefore made he thee king over them, to do judgment and justice. And she gave the king an hundred and twenty talents of gold, and of spices great abundance, and precious stones: neither was there any such spice as the queen of Sheba gave king Solomon. And the servants also of Hiram, and the servants of Solomon, which brought gold from Ophir, brought [†] alnum trees and precious stones. And the king made of the alnum trees [†] terraces to the house of the LORD, and to the king's palace, and harps and psalteries for singers: and there were none such seen before in the land of Judah. And king Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all her desire, whatsoever she asked, besides that which [†] she had brought unto the king. So she turned, and went away to her own land, she and her servants.

[†] Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred and threescore and six talents of gold; besides that which chapmen and merchants brought. And all the kings of Arabia and [†] governors of the country brought gold and silver to Solomon. And king Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten gold: six hundred shekels of beaten gold went to one target. And three hundred shields made he of beaten gold: [†] three hundred shekels of gold went to one shield. And the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon. Moreover the king made [†] it with [†] pure gold. And there were six steps to the throne, with a footstool of gold, which were fastened to the throne, and [†] stays on each side of the sitting place, and two lions standing by the stays: and twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other upon the six steps. There was not the like made in any kingdom. And all the drinking vessels of king Solomon were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of [†] pure gold: [†] none were of silver; it was [†] not any thing accounted of in the days of Solomon. For the king's ships went to Tarshish with the servants of Hiram: every three years once came the ships of Tarshish bringing gold, and silver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks. And king Solomon passed all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom. And all the kings of the earth sought the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom, that God had put in his heart. And they brought every man his present, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and raiment, [†] harness, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year. [†] And Solomon had [†] four thousand stalls for horses and chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen; whom he bestowed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem. [†] And he reigned over all the kings from the [†] river even unto the land of the Philistines, and to the border of Egypt. And the king [†] made silver in Jerusalem as stones, and cedar trees made he as the sycamore trees that are in [†] the low plains in abundance. And they brought unto Solomon horses out of Egypt, and out of all lands.

[†] Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, [†] first and last, are they not written in the [†] book of [†] Nathan the prophet, and in the [†] prophecy of [†] Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of [†] Iddo the [†] seer against Jeroboam the son of Nebat? And Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel forty years. And Solomon slept with his fathers, and he was buried in the city of David his father: and Rehoboam his son reigned in his stead.

And [†] Rehoboam went to Shechem: [†] for to Shechem were all Israel come to make him king. And it came to pass, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who was in Egypt, [†] whither he had fled from the presence of Solomon the king, heard it, that Jeroboam returned out of Egypt. And they sent and called him. So Jeroboam and all Israel came and spake to Rehoboam, saying, Thy father made our yoke grievous: now therefore ease thou somewhat the grievous servitude of thy father, and his heavy yoke that he put upon us, and we will serve thee. And he said unto them, Come again unto me after three days. And the people departed. And king Rehoboam took counsel with the old men that had stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, saying, What counsel give ye me to return answer to this people? And they spake unto him, saying, ^cIf thou be kind to this people, and please them, and speak good words to them, they will be thy servants for ever. But he forsook the counsel which the old men gave him, and took counsel with the young men that were brought up with him, that stood before him. And he said unto them, What advice give ye that we may return answer to this people, which have spoken to me, saying, Ease somewhat the yoke that thy father did put upon us? And the young men that were brought up with him spake unto him, saying, Thus shalt thou answer the people that spake unto thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou it somewhat lighter for us; thus shalt thou say unto them, My little finger shall be thicker than my father's loins. For whereas my father ^fput a heavy yoke upon you, I will put more to your yoke: my father chastised you with whips, but I ^dwill chastise you with scorpions. So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, as the king bade, saying, Come again to me on the third day. And the king answered them roughly; and king Rehoboam forsook the counsel of the old men, and answered them after the advice of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add thereto: my father chastised you with whips, but I ^dwill chastise you with scorpions. So the king hearkened not unto the people: for the cause was of God, that the LORD might perform his word, which he spake by the hand of ^eAhijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

And when all Israel saw that the king would not hearken unto them, the people answered the king, saying,

What portion have we in David?

And we have none inheritance in the son of Jesse:

Every man to your tents, O Israel:

And now, David, see to thine own house.

So all Israel went to their tents. But as for the children of Israel that dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them. Then king Rehoboam sent ^fHadoram that was over the tribute; and the children of Israel stoned him with stones, that he died. But king Rehoboam ^fmade speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem. And Israel rebelled against the house of David unto this day.

And when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he gathered of the house of Judah and Benjamin an hundred and fourscore thousand chosen men, which were warriors, to fight against Israel, that he might bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam. But the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying, Speak unto Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all ^aIsrael in Judah and Benjamin, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not go up, nor fight against ^{aa}your brethren: return every man to his house, for this thing is done of me. And they obeyed the words of the LORD, and returned from going against Jeroboam.

And Rehoboam dwelt in Jerusalem, and built ^bcities for defence in Judah. He built even ^cBeth-lehem, and ^dEtam, and ^eTekoa, and ^fBeth-zur, and ^gShoco, and ^hAdullam, and ⁱGath, and ^kMare-shah, and ^lZiph, and ^mAdoraim, and ⁿLachish, and ^oAzekah, and ^pZorah, and ^qAijalon, and ^rHebron, which are in Judah and in Benjamin, ^bfenced cities.

And he fortified the strong holds, and put captains in them, and store of victual, and of oil and wine. And in every several city he put shields and spears, and made them exceeding strong, having Judah and Benjamin on his side.

And the priests and the Levites that were in all Israel ¹resorted to him out of all their coasts. For the Levites left ^stheir suburbs and their possession, and came to Judah and Jerusalem: for Jeroboam and his sons ^thad cast them off from executing the priest's office unto the LORD: and he ordained him ^upriests for the high places, and for ^xthe devils, and for ^ythe calves which he had made.

And after them out of all the tribes of Israel such as set their hearts to seek the LORD God of Israel came to Jerusalem, to sacrifice unto the LORD God of their fathers. So they ^astrengthened the kingdom of Judah, and made ^b2 Sam. 7. 12, 13, 16. the LORD God of Israel ^bgave the kingdom over Israel to David for ever, even to him and to his sons by ^{1a} a covenant of salt? Yet Jeroboam the son of Nebat, the servant of Solomon the son of David, is risen up, and hath ^krebelled against his lord. And there are gathered unto him ¹vain men, ^mthe children of Belial, and have strengthened themselves against Rehoboam the son of Solomon, when Rehoboam was ⁿyoung and tender hearted, and could not withstand them. And now ye think to withstand ^othe kingdom of the LORD in the hand of the sons of David; and ye be a great multitude, and there are with you ^pgolden calves, which Jeroboam made you for gods. ^qHave ye not cast out the priests of the LORD, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and have made you priests after the manner of the nations of other lands? so that whosoever cometh ^rto consecrate himself with ^ra young bullock and seven rams, the same may be a priest of them that are ^sno gods. ¹But as for us, the LORD ^tis our God, and we have not forsaken him; and the priests, which minister unto the LORD, are the sons of Aaron, and the Levites wait upon their business: and they burn unto the LORD ^uevery morning and every evening ^uburnt sacrifices and ^usweet incense: the ^ushewbread also set they in order upon the pure table; and ^xthe candlestick of gold with the lamps thereof, ^yto burn every evening: for we ^zkeep the charge of the LORD our God; but ye have forsaken him. And behold, God himself ¹²is with us for our captain, and his priests ^awith sounding trumpets to cry alarm against you. O children of Israel, ^bfight ye not against the LORD God of your fathers; for you shall not prosper.

But Jeroboam caused ^can ambushment to come about behind them: so they were before Judah, and the ambushment was behind them. And when Judah looked back, behold, the battle was before and behind: and they cried unto the LORD, and ^dthe priests sounded with the trumpets. Then the men of Judah gave a shout: and as the men of Judah shouted, it came to pass, that God ^esmote Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah. And the children of Israel fled before Judah: and ^fGod delivered them into their hand. And Abijah and his people slew them ¹⁷ with a great slaughter: so there fell down slain of Israel five hundred thousand chosen men. Thus the children of Israel were brought under at that time, and the children of Judah prevailed, because they ^grelied upon the LORD God of their fathers. And Abijah pursued after Jeroboam, and took cities from him, ^hBeth-el with the towns thereof, and Jeshanah with the towns thereof, and ⁱEphraim with the towns thereof. Neither did Jeroboam ^krecover strength again in the days of Abijah: and the LORD ¹struck him, and ^mhe died. But Abijah ⁿwaxed mighty, and married fourteen wives, and begat twenty and two sons, and sixteen daughters. And the rest of the acts of Abijah, and his ways, and his sayings, are written in the ¹story of the prophet ^oIddo. So Abijah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David: and ^aAsa his son reigned in his stead. In his days the land was quiet ten years.

And Asa did that which was good and right in the eyes of the LORD his God: for he took away the altars of the strange ^{gods}, and ^bthe high places, and brake down the ¹images, and ^ccut down the groves: and commanded Judah to seek the LORD God of their fathers, and to do the law and the commandment. Also he took away out of all the cities of Judah ^bthe high places and the ¹images: and the kingdom was quiet before him. And he built ^dfenced cities in Judah: for the land had rest, and he had no war in ^ethose years; because the LORD had given him rest. Therefore he said unto Judah, Let us build these cities, and make about them ^fwalls, and towers, gates, and bars, while the land is yet before us; because we have sought the LORD our God, we have sought him, and ^ghe hath given us rest on every side. So they built and prospered.

And Asa had an army of men that bare targets and spears, out of Judah ^hthree hundred thousand; and out of Benjamin, that bare shields and ⁱdrew bows, two hundred and fourscore thousand: all these were mighty men of valour.

And there came out against them Zerah ¹the Ethiopian with a host of a thousand thousand, and three hundred chariots; and came unto ^kMareshah. Then Asa went out against him, and they set the battle in array in the valley of ¹Zephathah at ^kMareshah. And Asa

And he brought into the house of God the things that his father had dedicated, and that he himself had dedicated, silver, and gold, and vessels. And there was no more war unto the five and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa.

In the ^z six and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa ^b Baasha king of Israel came up against Judah, and built Ramah, to the intent that he might let none go out or come in to Asa king of Judah. Then Asa brought out silver and gold out of the treasures of the house of the LORD and of the king's house, and sent to Ben-hadad king of Syria, that dwelt at ^z Damascus, saying, ^z There is a league between me and thee, as there was between my father and thy father: behold, I have sent thee silver and gold; go, break thy league with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me. And Ben-hadad hearkened unto king Asa, and sent the captains of ^z his armies against the cities of Israel; and they smote Ijon, and Dan, and ^z Abel-maim, and all ^z the store cities of Naphtali. And it came to pass, when 5 Baasha heard it, that he left off building of Ramah, and let his work cease. Then 6 Asa the king took all Judah; and they carried away the stones of Ramah, and the timber thereof, wherewith Baasha was a building; and he built therewith Geba and Mizpah.

And at that time ^eHanani ^fthe seer 7 came to Asa king of Judah, and said unto him, ^gBecause thou hast ^hrelied on the king of Syria, and not relied on the LORD thy God, therefore is the host of the king of Syria escaped out of thine hand. Were not ⁱthe Ethiopians and 8 ^jthe Lubims ^ka huge host, with very many chariots and horsemen? yet, because thou didst rely on the LORD, ^khe delivered them into thine hand. For 9 ^lthe eyes of the LORD run to and fro throughout the whole earth, ^lto shew himself strong in the behalf of them whose ^mheart is perfect towards him.
Herein ⁿthou hast done foolishly: therefore from henceforth ^othou shalt have wars. Then Asa was wroth with ^tthe 10 seer, and put him in ^{pa}a prison house;
for he was in a rage with him because of this thing. And Asa ^uoppressed some of the people the same time.

And behold, ^qthe acts of Asa, ^rfirst 11
and last, lo, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. And 12 Asa in the thirty and ninth year of his reign ^qwas diseased in his feet, until his disease was exceeding great: yet in his disease he sought not to the LORD, but to the physicians. ^sAnd Asa slept 13 with his fathers, and died in the one and fortieth year of his reign. And 14 ^sthey buried him in his own sepulchres, which he had ^tmade for himself in the city of David, and laid him in the bed which was filled ^twith sweet odours and ^udivers kinds of spices prepared by ^xthe apothecaries' art: and they made ^{va}a very great burning for him.

And ^aJehoshaphat his son reigned in his stead, and strengthened himself against Israel. And he placed forces in 2 all ^bthe fenced cities of Judah, and set ^cgarrisons in the land of Judah, and in the cities of Ephraim, ^dwhich Asa his father had taken. And the LORD was 3 with Jehoshaphat, because he walked in the first ways ^lof his father David, and sought not unto Baalim; but ^esought to 4
the LORD God of his father, and walked in his commandments, and not after ^fthe doings of Israel. Therefore the LORD stablished the kingdom in his hand;

and all Judah ^lbrought to Jehoshaphat ^gpresents; and ^hhe had riches and honour in abundance. And his heart ^lwas lift up in the ways of the LORD: moreover he took away ⁱthe high places and ^jgroves out of Judah. Also in the third year of his reign he sent to his princes, ^{even} to Ben-hail, and to Obadiah, and to Zechariah, and to Nethaneel, and to Michaiah, to teach in the cities of Judah. And with them he sent Levites, ^{even} Shemaiah, and Nethaniah, and Ze-badiah, and Asahel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehonathan, and Adonijah, and Tobijah, and Tob-adonijah, ^kLevites; and with them Elishama and Jehoram, ^kpriests.
9 And they taught in Judah, and had the book of the law of the LORD with them, and went about throughout all the cities of Judah, and taught the people.

10 And ^lthe fear of the LORD ^tfell upon all the kingdoms of the lands that were round about Judah, so that they made 11 no war against Jehoshaphat. Also some of the ^mPhilistines ⁿbrought Jehosha-phat ^gpresents, and tribute silver; and the ^mArabians brought him flocks, seven thousand and seven hundred rams, and seven thousand and seven hundred he 12 goats. And Jehoshaphat ^owaxed great exceedingly; and he built in Judah 13 ^lcastles, and ^pcities of store. And he had much business in the cities of Judah: and the men of war, mighty men 14 of valour, were in Jerusalem. And these are the numbers of them according to the house of their fathers: Of Judah, the captains of thousands; Adnah the chief, and with him mighty men of valour 15 three hundred thousand. And ^unext to him was Jehohanan the captain, and with him two hundred and fourscore 16 thousand. And next him was Amasiah the son of Zichri, ^qwho willingly offered himself unto the LORD; and with him two hundred thousand mighty men of 17 valour. And of Benjamin; Eliada a mighty man of valour, and with him ^rarmed men with bow and shield two 18 hundred thousand. And next him was Jehozabad, and with him an hundred and fourscore thousand ^sready prepared 19 for the war. These waited on the king, besides those whom ^tthe king put in the fenced cities throughout all Judah.

XVIII. Now Jehoshaphat ^ahad riches and honour in abundance, and ^bjoined affinity with Ahab. And ^cafter certain years ^dhe went down to Ahab to ^eSamaria. And Ahab killed sheep and oxen for him in abundance, and for the people that he had with him, and ^epersuaded him to go up with him to ^fRamoth-gilead. And Ahab king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat king of Judah, Wilt thou go with me to Ramoth-gilead? And he answered him, I am as thou art, and my people as thy people; and we will be with thee in the war. And Jehoshaphat said unto the king of Israel, Inquire, I pray thee, at the word of the LORD to day. Therefore the king of Israel gathered together of prophets four hundred men, and said unto them, Shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And they said, Go up; for God will deliver it into the king's hand. But Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of the LORD ^{besides}, that we might inquire of him? And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, There is yet one man, by whom we may inquire of the LORD: but I hate him; for he never prophesied good unto me, but always evil: the same is Micaiah the son of Imla. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king say so. And the king of Israel called for one of his officers, and said, ^{Fetch} quickly Micaiah the son of Imla. And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah sat either of them on his throne, clothed in their robes, and they sat in a ^{void} place at the entering in of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets prophesied before them. And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah had made him horns of iron, and said, Thus saith the LORD, With these thou shalt push Syria until ^{they} be consumed. And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and prosper: for the LORD shall deliver it into the hand of the king.

And the messenger that went to call Micaiah spake to him, saying, Behold, the words of the prophets declare good to the king ^{with} one assent; let thy word therefore, I pray thee, be like one of theirs, and speak thou good. And Micaiah said, As the LORD liveth, even what my God saith, that will I speak. And when he was come to the king, the king said unto him, Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And he said, Go ye up, and prosper, and they shall be delivered into your hand. And the king said to him, How many times shall I adjure thee that thou say nothing but the truth to me in the name of the LORD? Then he said, I did see all Israel scattered upon the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd: and the LORD said, These have no master; let them return therefore every man to his house in peace.

And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee that he would not prophesy good unto me, ^{but} evil? Again he said, Therefore hear the word of the LORD; I saw the LORD sitting upon his throne, and all the host of heaven standing on his right hand and on his left. And the LORD said, Who shall ^{entice} Ahab king of Israel, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead? And one spake saying after this manner, and another saying after that manner. Then there came out a spirit, and stood before the LORD, and said, I will ^{entice} him. And the LORD said unto him, Wherewith? And he said, I will go out, and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And the LORD said, Thou shalt ^{entice} him, and thou shalt also prevail: go out, and do even so. Now therefore behold, the LORD hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of these thy prophets, and the LORD hath spoken evil against thee.

Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came near, and smote Micaiah upon the cheek, and said, Which way went the spirit of the LORD from me to speak unto thee? And Micaiah said, Behold, thou shalt see on that day when thou shalt go ^{into} an inner chamber to hide thyself. Then the king of Israel said, Take ye Micaiah, and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son; and say, Thus saith the king, Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until

I return in peace. And Micaiah said, If thou certainly return in peace, then hath not the LORD spoken by me. And he said, Harken, all ye people.

So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth-gilead. And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, I will disguise myself, and will go to the battle; but put thou on thy robes. So the king of Israel disguised himself; and they went to the battle. Now the king of Syria³⁰ had commanded the captains of the chariots that were with him, saying, Fight ye not with small or great, save only with the king of Israel. And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, It is the king of Israel. Therefore they³¹ compassed about him to fight: but Jehoshaphat³² cried out, and the LORD helped him; and God³³ moved them to depart from him. For it came to pass, that when the captains of the chariots perceived that it was not the king of Israel, they turned back again³⁴ from pursuing him. And a certain man drew a bow³⁵ at a venture, and smote the king of Israel³⁶ between the joints of the harness: therefore he said to his chariot man, Turn thine hand, that thou mayest carry me out of the host; for I am wounded. And the battle increased³⁷ that day: howbeit the king of Israel stayed himself up in his chariot against the Syrians until the even: and about the time of the sun going down he died.

XIX.

And Jehoshaphat the king of Judah¹ returned to his house in peace to Jerusalem. And Jehu the son of Hanani² the seer went out to meet him, and said to king Jehoshaphat, Shouldst thou help the ungodly, and love them that hate the LORD? therefore is³ wrath upon thee from before the LORD. Nevertheless there are good things⁴ found in thee, in that thou hast taken away the groves out of the land, and hast prepared thine heart to seek God. And Jehoshaphat dwelt at Jerusalem: and he went out again through the people from Beer-sheba to mount Ephraim, and brought them back unto the LORD God of their fathers. And he set judges⁵ in the land throughout all the fenced cities of Judah, city by city, and said to the judges, Take heed what ye do: for my judge not for man, but for the LORD, who is with you in the judgment. Wherefore now let the fear of the LORD be upon you; take heed and do it: for there is no iniquity with the LORD our God, nor respect of persons, nor taking of gifts. Moreover in Jerusalem did Jehoshaphat set of the Levites, and of the priests, and of the chief of the fathers of Israel, for the judgment of the LORD, and for controversies, when they returned to Jerusalem. And he charged them, saying, Thus shall ye do in the fear of the LORD, faithfully, and with a perfect heart. And what cause soever shall come to you of your brethren that dwell in their cities, between blood and blood, between law and commandment, statutes and judgments, ye shall even warn them that they trespass not against the LORD, and so wrath come upon you, and upon your brethren: this do, and ye shall not trespass. And behold, Amariah the chief priest is over you in all matters of the LORD; and Zebadiah the son of Ishmael, the ruler of the house of Judah, for all the king's matters: also the Levites shall be officers before you. Deal courageously, and the LORD shall be with the good.

It came to pass after this also, that the children of Moab, and the children of Ammon, and with them other beside the Ammonites, came against Jehoshaphat to battle. Then there came some that told Jehoshaphat, saying, There cometh a great multitude against thee from beyond the sea on this side Syria; and behold, they be in Hazazon-tamar, which is Engedi. And Jehoshaphat feared, and set himself to seek the LORD, and proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah. And Judah gathered themselves together, to ask help of the LORD: even out of all the cities of Judah they came to seek the LORD. And Jehoshaphat stood in the congregation of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of the LORD, before the new court, and said, O LORD God of our fathers, art not thou God in heaven? and rulest not thou over all the kingdoms of the heathen? and in thine hand is there not power and might, so that none is able to withstand thee? Art not thou our God, who didst drive out the inhabitants of this land before thy people Israel, and gavest it to the seed of Abraham thy friend for ever? And they dwelt therein, and have built thee a sanctuary therein for thy name, saying, If, when evil cometh upon us, as the sword, judgment, or pestilence, or famine, we stand before thy house, and in thy presence, (for thy name is in this house,) and cry unto thee in our affliction, then thou wilt hear and help. And now behold, ¹⁰ the children of ^aAmmon and Moab and ^rmount Seir, whom thou ^swouldest not let Israel invade, when they came out of the land of Egypt, but ^tthey turned from them, and destroyed them not; behold, I say, how they reward us, to ¹¹ come ^uto cast us out of thy possession, which thou hast given us to inherit. O ¹² our God, wilt thou not ^xjudge them? for we have no might against this great company that cometh against us; neither know we what to do: but ^your eyes are upon thee. And all Judah ¹³ stood before the LORD, with their little ones, their wives, and their children.

Then upon Jahaziel the son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah, a Levite of the sons of ^zAsaph, ^acame the spirit of the LORD in the midst of the congregation; and he said, Hearken ye, all ¹⁵ Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem, and thou king Jehoshaphat, Thus saith the LORD unto you, ^bBe not afraid nor dismayed by reason of this great multitude; for ^cthe battle is not yours, but God's. To morrow go ye down against ¹⁶ them: behold, they come up by the ^tcliff of Ziz; and ye shall find them at the end of the ^hbrook, before the wilderness of Jeruel. ^dYe shall not need ¹⁷ to fight in this battle: set yourselves, stand ye still, and see the salvation of the LORD with you, O Judah and Jerusalem: ^bfear not, nor be dismayed; to morrow go out against them: ^efor the LORD will be with you. And Jehoshaphat ^fbowed his head with his face to the ground: and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell before the LORD, worshipping the LORD. And the ¹⁹ Levites, of the children of the ^gKohathites, and of the children of the ^hKorhites, stood up to praise the LORD God of Israel with a loud voice on high.

And they rose early in the morning, ²⁰ and went forth into ^tthe wilderness of Tekoa: and as they went forth, Jehoshaphat stood and said, Hear me, O Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem; ^kBelieve in the LORD your God, so shall you be established; believe his prophets, so shall ye prosper. And when ²¹ he had consulted with the people, he appointed singers unto the LORD, and ^tthat should praise ^lthe beauty of holiness, as they went out before the army, and to say, ^mPraise the LORD; for his ²² mercy endureth for ever. ^tAnd when they began ^tto sing and to praise, the LORD set ⁿambushments against the children of ^oAmmon, Moab, and mount Seir, which were come against Judah;

²³ and ^hthey were smitten. For the children of ⁿAmmon and Moab stood up against the inhabitants of mount Seir, utterly to slay and destroy them; and when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, every one helped ²⁴ ^tto destroy another. And when Judah came toward the watch tower in the wilderness, they looked unto the multitude, and behold, they were dead bodies fallen to the earth, and ^tnone ²⁵ escaped. And when Jehoshaphat and his people came to take away the spoil of them, they found among them in abundance both riches with the dead bodies, and ^qprecious jewels, which they stripped off for themselves, more than they could carry away: and they were three days in gathering of the spoil, it ²⁶ was so much. And on the fourth day they assembled themselves in the valley of ^rBerachah; for there they blessed the LORD: therefore the name of the same place was called, The valley of Berachah, unto this day. Then they returned, every man of Judah and Jerusalem, and Jehoshaphat in the ^tforefront of them, to go again to Jerusalem with joy; ^rfor the LORD had made them ²⁸ to rejoice over their enemies. And they came to Jerusalem with ^spsalteries and harps and trumpets unto the house of the LORD. And ^tthe fear of God was on all the kingdoms of those countries, when they had heard that the LORD fought against the enemies of Israel. ³⁰ So the realm of Jehoshaphat was quiet: for his ^uGod gave him rest round about.

³¹ ^xAnd Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah: he was thirty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi. And he walked in the way of Asa his father, and departed not from it, doing that which was right in the sight of the LORD. Howbeit son of Hanani, ^bwho [†]is mentioned in the book of the kings of Israel. And ³⁵after this ^cdid Jehoshaphat king of Judah join himself with Ahaziah king of Israel, who did very wickedly: ³⁶and he joined himself with him to make ships to go ^{to} Tarshish: and they made the ships in Ezion-gaber. Then Eliezer the ³⁷son of Dodavah of ^dMareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, ^eBecause thou hast joined thyself with Ahaziah, the LORD hath broken thy works. And the ships were broken, that they ^fwere not able to go to Tarshish.

Now Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. And Jehoram his son ¹reigned in his stead. And he had ²brethren the sons of Jehoshaphat, Azariah, and Jehiel, and Zechariah, and Azariah, and Michael, and Shephatiah: all these ^{were} the sons of Jehoshaphat king of ^aIsrael. And their father gave ³them great gifts of silver, and of gold, and of ^bprecious things, with ^cfenced cities in Judah: but the kingdom gave he to [†]Jehoram; because he ^{was} the firstborn. Now when Jehoram was risen ⁴up to the kingdom of his father, he strengthened himself, and slew all his brethren with the sword, and ^{divers} also of the princes of ^aIsrael.

^dJehoram ^{was} thirty and two years ⁵old when he ^{began} to reign, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem. And ⁶he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, like as did the house of Ahab: for he had ^ethe daughter of Ahab to wife: and he wrought ^{that} which ^{was} evil in the eyes of the LORD. Howbeit the ⁷LORD would not destroy the house of David, because of the covenant that he had made with David, and as he promised to give a [†]light to him and to his sons for ever. In his days the Edom- ⁸ites revolted from under the [†]dominion of Judah, and made themselves a king. Then Jehoram went forth ^fwith his ⁹princes, and all ^{his} chariots with him: and he rose up by night, and smote the Edomites which compassed him in, and the captains of the chariots. So the ¹⁰Edomites revolted from under the hand of Judah unto this day. The same time also did Libnah revolt from under his hand; because he had forsaken the LORD God of his fathers. Moreover he made ¹¹high places in the mountains of Judah, and ^gcaused the inhabitants of Jerusalem to commit fornication, and ^hcompelled Judah ^{thereto}.

¹² And there came a [†]writing to him from Elijah the prophet, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of David thy father, Because thou hast not walked in ⁱthe ways of Jehoshaphat thy father, nor in ¹³^kthe ways of Asa king of Judah, but hast walked in ^lthe way of the kings of Israel, and hast ^mmade Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to go a whoring, like to the ⁿwhoredoms of the house of Ahab, and also hast ^oslain thy brethren of thy father's house, ^{which were} ^obetter ¹⁴than thyself: behold, ^{with} ^aa great plague will the LORD smite thy people, and thy children, and thy wives, and all thy ¹⁵goods: and thou ^{shalt} have great sickness by ^pdisease of thy bowels, until thy bowels fall out by reason of the sickness ¹⁶day by day. Moreover the LORD ^qstirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the ^rPhilistines, and of the ^rArabians, that ¹⁷^{were} near the ^sEthiopians: and they came up into Judah, and brake into it, and [†]carried away all the [†]substance that was found in the king's house, and ^uhis sons also, and his wives; so that there was never a son left him, save ^x[†]Jehoram ¹⁸ahaz, the youngest of his sons. [†]And after all this the LORD smote him in ^yhis bowels with an incurable disease. And ¹⁹it came to pass, that in process of time, after the end of two ^zyears, his bowels fell out by reason of his sickness: so he died of sore diseases. And his people made no burning for him, like ^athe burning of his fathers. ^bThirty and two ²⁰years old was he when he ^{began} to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years, and departed [†]without being desired. Howbeit they buried him in the city of David, ^cbut not in the sepulchres of the kings.

And the inhabitants of Jerusalem made ^aAhaziah his ^byoungest son king in his stead: for the ^cband of men that came with ^dthe Arabians to the camp had slain all the eldest. ^eSo Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah reigned. ^fForty and two years old ^{was} Ahaziah when he ^{began} to reign, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name also ^{was} Athaliah ^gthe daughter of Omri. He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab: for his mother was his counsellor to do wicked- ⁴ly. Wherefore he did evil [†]in the sight of the LORD, like the house of Ahab: for they were his counsellors after the death of his father to his destruction. He walked also after their counsel, and went with Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel to war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth-gilead: and the Syrians smote Joram. And he returned to be healed in Jezreel, because of the wounds [†]which were given him at Ramah, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria. And [†]Azariah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab at Jezreel, because he was sick. And the [†]destruction of Ahaziah [†]was of God by coming to Joram: for when he was come, [†]he went out with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, [†]whom the LORD had anointed to cut off the house of Ahab. And it came to pass, that when [†]Jehu was executing judgment upon the house of Ahab, and found the princes of Judah, and [†]the sons of the brethren of Ahaziah, that ministered to Ahaziah, he slew them. [†]And he sought Ahaziah: and they caught him, (for he [†]was hid in [†]Samaria,) and brought him to Jehu: and when they had slain him, [†]they buried him: Because, said they, he [†]is the son of Jehoshaphat, who [†]sought the LORD with all his heart. So the house of Ahaziah had no power [†]to keep still the kingdom.

[†]But when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the seed royal of the house of Judah. But [†]Jehoshabeath, the daughter of the king, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him from among the king's sons that were slain, and put him and his nurse in a bed-chamber. So Jehoshabeath, the daughter of king Jehoram, the wife of Jehoiada the priest, (for she was the sister of Ahaziah,) hid him from Athaliah, so that she slew him not. And he was with them hid in the house of God six years: and Athaliah reigned over the land.

And in the seventh year [†]Jehoiada strengthened himself, and took the captains of hundreds, Azariah the son of Jehoram, and Ishmael the son of Jehohanan, and [†]Azariah the son of [†]Obed, and Maaseiah the son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat the son of Zichri, into covenant with him. And they went about in Judah, and gathered the Levites out of all the cities of Judah, and the chief of the fathers of [†]Israel, and they came to Jerusalem. And all the congregation made a covenant with the king in the house of God. And he said unto them, Behold, the king's son shall reign, as [†]the LORD hath said of the sons of David. This [†]is the thing that ye shall do; A third [†]part of you entering on the sabbath, of the priests and of the Levites, [†]shall be porters of the [†]doors; and a third [†]part shall be at the king's house; and a third [†]part at the gate of [†]the foundation: and all the people shall be in the courts of the house of the LORD. But let none come [†]into the house of the LORD, save the priests, and [†]they that minister of the Levites; they shall go in, for they [†]are holy: but [†]all the people shall keep the watch of the LORD. And the Levites shall compass the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand; and whosoever [†]else cometh into the house, he shall be put to death: but be you with the king when he cometh in, and when he goeth out. So the Levites and all Judah did according to all [†]things that Jehoiada the priest had commanded, and took every man his men that were to come in on the sabbath, with them that were to go out on the sabbath: for Jehoiada the priest [†]dismissed not [†]the courses. Moreover Jehoiada the priest delivered to the captains of hundreds spears, and bucklers, and shields, that [†]had been king David's, which [†]were in the house of God. And he set all the people, every man having his weapon in his hand, from the right [†]side of the [†]temple to the left side of the [†]temple, [†]along by the altar and the [†]temple, by the king round about. Then they brought out the king's son, and put upon him the crown, and [†]gave him the Testimony, and made him king. And Jehoiada and his sons anointed him, and said, [†]God save the king. Now when Athaliah heard the noise of the people [†]running and praising the king, she came to the people [†]into the house of the LORD: and she looked, and behold, the king stood at his pillar at the entering in, and the princes and the trumpets by the king: and all the people of the land rejoiced, and sounded with trumpets, also the singers with instruments of music, and [†]such as taught to [†]sing praise. Then Athaliah rent her clothes, and said, [†]Treason, Treason. Then Jehoiada the priest brought out the captains of hundreds that were set over the host, and said unto them, Have her forth of the ranges: and whoso followeth her, let him be slain with the sword. For the priest said, Slay her not in the house of the LORD. So they laid hands on her; and when she was come to the entering of the ^mhorse gate by the king's house, they slew her there.

And Jehoiada made a covenant between him, and between all the people, and between the king, that they should be the LORD's people. Then all the people went to the house of Baal, and brake it down, and brake his altars and his images in pieces, and ^{mm}slew Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. Also Jehoiada appointed the offices of the house of the LORD by the hand of ⁿthe priests the Levites, whom ^oDavid had distributed in the house of the LORD, to offer the burnt offerings of the LORD, as it is written ^pin the law of Moses, with rejoicing and with singing, ^qas it was ordained by David. And he set the ^qporters at the gates of the house of the LORD, that none which was unclean in any thing should enter in. And he took the captains of hundreds, and the nobles, and the governors of the people, and all the people of the land, and brought down the king from the house of the LORD: and they came through the ^rhigh gate into the king's house, and set the king upon the throne of the kingdom. And all the people of the land rejoiced: and the city was quiet, after that they had slain Athaliah with the sword.

Joash was seven years old when he began to reign, and ^ahe reigned forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Zibiah of Beer-sheba. And Joash ^bdid that which was right in the sight of the LORD ^call the days of Jehoiada the priest. And Jehoiada took for him two wives; ^dand he begat sons and daughters. And it came to pass after this, that Joash ^ewas minded ^fto repair the house of the LORD. And he gathered together the priests and the Levites, and said to them, Go out unto the cities of Judah, and gather of all ^fIsrael money to repair the house of your God from year to year, and see that ye haste the matter. ^gHowbeit the Levites hastened it not. And the king called for Jehoiada the chief, and said unto him, Why hast thou not required of the Levites to bring in out of Judah and out of Jerusalem the collection, according to the commandment of ^hMoses the servant of the LORD, and of the congregation of Israel, for the ⁱtabernacle of Witness? For ^kthe sons of Athaliah, that wicked woman, had broken up the house of God; and also all the ^ldedicate things of the house of the LORD did they bestow upon ^mBaalim. And at the king's commandment they made a chest, and set it ⁿwithout at the gate of the house of the LORD. And they made ^aa proclamation through Judah and Jerusalem, to bring in to the LORD ⁿthe collection that Moses the servant of God laid upon Israel in the wilderness. And all the princes and all the people rejoiced, and brought in, and cast into the chest, until they had made an end. Now it came to pass, that at what time the chest was brought unto the king's office by the hand of the Levites, and when they saw that there was much money, the king's scribe and the high priest's officer came and emptied the chest, and took it, and carried it to his place again. Thus they did day by day, and gathered money in abundance. And the king and Jehoiada gave it to such as did the work of the service of the house of the LORD, and hired masons and carpenters to repair the house of the LORD, and also such as wrought iron and brass to ^omend the house of the LORD. So the workmen wrought, and ^tthe work was perfected by them, and they set the house of God in his state, and strengthened it. And when they had finished it, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada, ^pwhereof were made vessels for the house of the LORD, even vessels to minister, and ^qto offer withal, and spoons, and vessels of gold and silver. And they offered burnt offerings in the house of the LORD continually ^qall the days of Jehoiada.

But Jehoiada waxed old, and ^rwas full of days when he died; an hundred and thirty years old was he when he died. And they buried him in the city of David among the kings, because he had done good in ^fIsrael, both towards God, and towards his house. Now after the death of Jehoiada came the princes of Judah, and made obeisance to the king. Then the king hearkened unto ^sthem. And they left the house of the LORD God of their fathers, and served ^tgroves and ^uidols: and ^vwrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem for this their trespass. *Yet he sent prophets to¹⁹ them, to bring them again unto the LORD; and they testified against them: but they would not give ear. And the spirit of God came upon Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest, which stood above the people, and said unto them, Thus saith God, ²⁰Why transgress ye the commandments of the LORD, that ye cannot prosper? ²¹because ye have forsaken the LORD, he hath also forsaken you. And they conspired against him, and stoned him with stones at the commandment of the king in the court of the house of the LORD. Thus Joash the king remembered not the kindness which Jehoiada his father had done to him, but slew his son. And when he died, he said, The LORD look upon it, and require it.

And it came to pass at the end of the year, that the host of Syria came up against him: and they came to Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all the princes of the people from among the people, and sent all the spoil of them unto the king of Damascus. For the army of the Syrians came with a small company of men, and the LORD delivered a very great host into their hand, because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers. So they executed judgment against Joash. And when they were departed from him, (for they left him in great diseases,) his own servants conspired against him for the blood of the sons of Jehoiada the priest, and slew him on his bed, and he died: and they buried him in the city of David, but they buried him not in the sepulchres of the kings. And these are they that conspired against him; Zabad the son of Shimeath an Ammonitess, and Jehozabad the son of Shimrith a Moabitess. Now concerning his sons, and the greatness of the burdens laid upon him, and the repairing of the house of God, behold they are written in the story of the book of the kings. And Amaziah his son reigned in his stead.

came to pass, when the kingdom was established to him, that he slew his servants that had killed the king his father. But he slew not their children, but did as it is written in the law in the book of Moses, where the LORD commanded, saying, The fathers shall not die for the children, neither shall the children die for the fathers, but every man shall die for his own sin.

Moreover Amaziah gathered Judah together, and made them captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, according to the houses of their fathers, throughout all Judah and Benjamin: and he numbered them from twenty years old and above, and found them three hundred thousand choice men, able to go forth to war, that could handle spear and shield. He hired also an hundred thousand mighty men of valour out of Israel for an hundred talents of silver. But there came a man of God to him, saying, O king, let not the army of Israel go with thee; for the LORD is not with Israel, to wit, with all the children of Ephraim. But if thou wilt go, do it, be strong for the battle: God shall make thee fall before the enemy: for God hath power to help, and to cast down. And Amaziah said to the man of God, But what shall we do for the hundred talents which I have given to the army of Israel? And the man of God answered, The LORD is able to give thee much more than this. Then Amaziah separated them, to wit, the army that was come to him out of Ephraim, to go home again: wherefore their anger was greatly kindled against Judah, and they returned home in great anger. And Amaziah strengthened himself, and led forth his people, and went to the valley of salt, and smote of the children of Seir ten thousand. And other ten thousand left alive did the children of Judah carry away captive, and brought them unto the top of the rock, and cast them down from the top of the rock, that they all were broken in pieces. But the soldiers of the army which Amaziah sent back, that they should not go with him to battle, fell upon the cities of Judah, from Samaria even unto Beth-horon, and smote three thousand of them, and took much spoil.

Now it came to pass, after that Amaziah was come from the slaughter of the Edomites, that he brought the gods of ^kthe children of Seir, and set them up to be his gods, and bowed down himself before them, and burned incense unto them. Wherefore the anger of the LORD ¹⁵ was kindled against Amaziah, and he sent unto him a prophet, which said unto him, Why hast thou sought after the gods of the people, ^rwhich could not deliver their own people out of thine hand? And it came to pass, as ¹⁶ he talked with him, that the king said unto him, Art thou made of the king's counsel? forbear; ^swhy shouldest thou be smitten? Then the prophet forbore, and said, I know that ^tGod hath ^tdetermined to destroy thee, because thou hast done this, and hast not hearkened unto my counsel.

Then ^uAmaziah king of Judah took ¹⁷ advice, and sent to Joash, the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, Come, let us see one another in the face. And Joash king of ¹⁸ Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, The ^vthistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my son to wife: and there passed by ^aa wild beast that was in Lebanon, and trode down the thistle. Thou sayest, Lo, thou ¹⁹ hast smitten the Edomites; and thine heart lifteth thee up to boast: abide now at home; why shouldest thou meddle to thine hurt, that thou shouldest fall, even thou, and Judah with thee? But Amaziah would not hear; for ²⁰ it came of God, that he might deliver them into the hand of their enemies, because ^wthey sought after the gods of Edom. So Joash the king of Israel went up; ²¹ and they saw one another in the face, both he and Amaziah king of Judah, at Beth-shemesh, which belongeth to Judah. And Judah was ²² put to the worse before Israel, and they fled every man to his tent. And Joash the king of Israel ²³ took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash, the son of ^xJehoahaz, at Beth-shemesh, and brought him to Jerusalem, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem from the ^ygate of Ephraim to ^tthe corner gate, four hundred cubits. And ²⁴ he took all the gold and the silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of God with ^aObed-edom, and the treasures of the king's house, the hostages also, and returned to Samaria.

son of Jehoahaz king of Israel fifteen ²⁶ years. Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, ^cfirst and last, behold, are they not written in the book of the kings of ²⁷ Judah and Israel? Now after the time that Amaziah did turn away ^tfrom following the LORD they ^tmade a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem; and he fled to Lachish: but they sent to Lachish after him, and slew him there. And they brought him upon horses, and buried him with his fathers in the city of ²⁸ Judah. Then all the people of Judah took ^uUzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in the room of ² his father Amaziah. He built Eloth, and restored it to Judah, after that the king slept with his fathers.

³ ^aSixteen years old was Uzziah when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty and two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Jecoliah of Jerusalem. ⁴ And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Amaziah did. ⁵ And ^bhe sought God in the days of Zechariah, who ^chad understanding ^tin the visions of God: and as long as he sought the LORD, God made him to ⁶ prosper. And he went forth and ^dwarred against the Philistines, and brake down the wall of ^eGath, and the wall of ^fJabneh, and the wall of ^gAshdod, and built cities ^habout Ashdod, and among ⁷ the Philistines. And God helped him against the ^hPhilistines, and against the ^hArabians that dwelt in Gur-baal, and ⁸ the ⁱMehunims. And the ^kAmmonites gave ^lgifts to Uzziah: and his name ^tspread abroad even to the entering in of Egypt: for he strengthened himself ⁹ exceedingly. Moreover Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the ^mcorner gate, and at the ⁿvalley gate, and at ^othe turning of the wall, and ^tfortified them. ¹⁰ Also he built towers in the desert, and ^ldigged many wells: for he had much cattle, both in the low country, and in ^pthe plains: ^qhusbandmen also, and ^qvine-dressers in the mountains, and in ^rCarmel: for he loved ^thusbandry. Moreover Uzziah had a host of fighting men, that went out to war by ^shands, according to the number of their account by the hand of Jeiel the scribe and Maseiah the ^truler, under the hand of Hananiah, one of the king's captains. The whole number of the chief of the fathers of the mighty men of valour were two thousand and six hundred. And under ¹³ their hand was [†]an army, ^uthree hundred thousand and seven thousand and five hundred, that made war with mighty power, to help the king against the en-my. And Uzziah prepared for them ¹⁴ throughout all the host ^xshields, and ^xspears, and ^yhelmets, and ^zhabergeons, and ^xbows, and ⁱslings to cast stones. And he made in Jerusalem ¹⁵ ^aengines, invented by cunning men, to be on the towers and upon the ^bbulwarks, to shoot arrows and great stones withal.

And his name [†]spread far abroad; for he was marvellously helped, till he was strong.

But ^cwhen he was strong, ^dhis heart ¹⁶ was lifted up to his destruction: for he transgressed against the LORD his God, and went into ^ethe temple of the LORD ^fto burn incense upon ^ethe altar of incense. And ^gAzariah the priest went ¹⁷ in after him, and with him fourscore priests of the LORD, that were ^hvaliant men: and they withstood Uzziah the king, and said unto him, ⁱ*It pertaineth* not unto thee, Uzziah, to burn incense unto the LORD, but to the ^kpriests the sons of Aaron, that are consecrated to burn incense: go out of the sanctuary: for thou hast trespassed; neither shall it be for thine honour from the LORD God. Then Uzziah was wroth, ¹⁹ and had a censer in his hand to burn incense: and while he was wroth with the priests, [†]the leprosy even rose up in his forehead before the priests in the house of the LORD, from beside the incense altar. And Azariah the chief ²⁰ priest, and all the priests, looked upon him, and behold, he was leprous in his forehead, and they ^mthrust him out from thence; yea, himself ⁿhasted also to go out, because ⁿthe LORD had smitten him. And Uzziah the king was a leper ²¹ unto the day of his death, and dwelt in a [†]several house, being a leper; for he was cut off from the house of the LORD:
and Jotham his son was over the king's house, judging the people of the land.
Now the rest of the acts of Uzziah, ^pfirst ²² and last, did ^qIsaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, write. So Uzziah slept ²³ with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers [†]in the field of the burial which belonged to the kings; for they said, He is a leper: and Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

Jotham ^a*was* twenty and five years ^{XXVII.} old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Jerushah, the ²daughter of Zadok. And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah did: howbeit ^bhe entered not into the temple of the LORD. And the ³people did yet corruptly. He built the ^chigh gate of the house of the LORD, and on the wall of ^dOphel he built ⁴much. Moreover he built cities in the mountains of Judah, and in the forests ⁵he built ^ecastles and towers. He fought also with the king of the ^fAmmonites, and prevailed against them. And the children of Ammon gave him the same year an hundred talents of silver, and ten thousand ^gmeasures of wheat, and ten thousand of barley. [†]So much did the children of Ammon pay unto him, both the second year, and the third.
⁶So Jotham became mighty, ^hbecause he [†]prepared his ways before the LORD his ⁷God. [†]Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all his wars, and his ways, lo they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. ^kHe was five and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem.
⁹[†]And Jotham slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David:
and Ahaz his son reigned in his stead.

Ahaz ^a*was* twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: but he did not that which was right in the sight of the ²LORD, like David his father: for he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and made also ^bmolten images for ³^cBaalim. Moreover he [†]burnt incense in ^dthe valley of the son of Hinnom, and burnt ^ehis children in the fire after the abominations of the heathen whom the LORD had cast out before the chil-⁴dren of Israel. He sacrificed also and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree.
⁵Wherefore the LORD his God delivered him into the hand of the king of Syria;
and they ^esmote him, and carried away a great multitude of them captives, and brought them to [†]Damascus. And he was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel, who smote him with a all [†] valiant men; because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers. And Zichri, a mighty man of Ephraim, ⁷ slew Maaseiah ⁸ the king's son, and Azrikam ⁸ the governor of the house, and Elkanah that was ¹ next to the king. And the children of Israel carried away ⁸ captive of their ^h brethren two hundred thousand, women, sons, and daughters, and took also away much spoil from them, and brought the spoil to Samaria. But a prophet of the LORD was there, ⁹ whose name was Oded: and he went out before the host that came to Samaria, and said unto them, Behold, ¹ because the LORD God of your fathers was wroth with Judah, he hath delivered them into your hand, and ye have slain them in a rage that ¹ reacheth up unto heaven. And now ye purpose to keep ¹⁰ under the children of Judah and Jerusalem for bondmen and bondwomen unto you: but are there not with you, even with you, sins against the LORD your God? Now hear me therefore, and deliver the captives again, which ye have taken captive of your brethren: for the fierce wrath of the LORD is upon you. Then certain of the heads of the children of Ephraim, Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, and ^k Jehizkiah the son of [†] Shalum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai, stood up against them that came from the war, and said unto them, Ye shall ¹³ not bring in the captives hither: for whereas we have offended against the LORD already, ye intend to add more to our sins and to our trespass: for our trespass is great, and there is fierce wrath against Israel. So ^m the armed men left ¹⁴ the captives and the spoil before the princes and all the congregation. And ¹⁵ the men ⁿ which were expressed by name rose up, and took the captives, and with the spoil clothed all that were naked among them, and arrayed them, and shod them, and ^o gave them to eat and to drink, and ^p anointed them, and carried all the feeble of them upon asses, and brought them to Jericho, ^q the city of palm trees, to their brethren: then they returned to Samaria.

^r At that time did king Ahaz send ¹⁶ unto the kings of Assyria to help him. For again the Edomites had come and ¹⁷ smitten Judah, and carried away [†] captives. The ^s Philistines also had [†] invaded the cities of ^u the low country, and of the south of Judah, and had taken ^w Beth-shemesh, and ^x Ajalon, and ^y Gederoth, and ^z Shochu with the ^a villages thereof, and ^b Timnah with the ^a villages thereof, Gimzo also and the ^a villages thereof: and they dwelt there. ¹⁹ For the LORD brought Judah low because of Ahaz king of ^c Israel; for he ^d made Judah naked, and transgressed ²⁰ sore against the LORD. And ^e Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria came unto him, and distressed him, but strengthened ²¹ him not. ^f For Ahaz took away a portion out of the house of the LORD, and out of the house of the king, and of the princes, and gave it unto the king of Assyria: but he helped him not.

²² And [†] in the time of his distress did he trespass yet more against the LORD: ²³ this is that king Ahaz. For ^g he sacrificed unto the gods of [†] Damascus, which smote him: and he said, Because the gods of the kings of Syria help them, therefore will I sacrifice to them, ^h that they may help me. But they ⁱ were the ²⁴ ruin of him, and of all ^c Israel. And Ahaz gathered together the vessels of the house of God, and ¹ cut in pieces the vessels of the house of God, and ^k shut up the doors of the house of the LORD, and [†] he made him altars in every corner ²⁵ of Jerusalem. And in every several city of Judah he made high places [†] to burn incense unto other gods, and ^m provoked to anger the LORD God of his ²⁶ fathers. ⁿ Now the rest of his acts and of all his ways, ^o first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings ²⁷ of Judah and Israel. And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, even in Jerusalem: ^p but they brought him not into the sepulchres of the kings of ^c Israel: and Hezekiah his son reigned in his stead.

Hezekiah ^a began to reign when he was five and twenty years old, and he reigned nine and twenty years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Abijah, the ² daughter of ^b Zechariah. And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that David his ³ father had done. He in the first year of his reign, in the first month, ^c opened the doors of the house of the LORD, and repaired them. And he brought in the priests and the Levites, and gathered them together into the east street, ⁵ and said unto them, Hear me, ye Levites, ^d sanctify now yourselves, and sanctify the house of the LORD God of your fathers, and carry forth the filthiness out of the holy place. For our fathers have trespassed, and done that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD our God, and have forsaken him, and have ^eturned away their faces from the habitation of the LORD, and ^tturned their backs. Also they have ^fshut up the doors of the porch, and put out the lamps, and have not burnt incense nor offered burnt offerings in the holy place unto the God of Israel. Wherefore the ^gwrath of the LORD was upon Judah and Jerusalem, and he hath delivered them to ^ttrouble, to astonishment, and to ^hhissing, as ye see with your eyes. For lo, ⁱour fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons and our daughters and our wives are in captivity for this. Now it is ^jin mine heart to make ^{ka} a covenant with the LORD God of Israel, that his fierce wrath may turn away from us. My sons, ^lbe not now negligent: ¹¹for the LORD hath ^lchosen you to stand before him, to serve him, and that you should minister unto him, and ^lburn incense.

Then the Levites arose, ^mMahath the son of Amasai, and Joel the son of Azariah, of the sons of the ⁿKohathites: and of the sons of ⁿMerari, ^oKish the son of Abdi, and ^mAzariah the son of Jehalelel: and of the ⁿGershonites; ^pJoah the son of Zimmah, and ^mEden the son of Joah: and of the sons of ^qElizaphan; Shimri, ¹³and Jeiel: and of the sons of ^rAsaph; Zechariah, and Mattaniah: and of the ¹⁴sons of ^sHeman; ^mJehiel, and ^mShimei: and of the sons of ^sJeduthun; ^mShemai-ah, and Uzziel. And they gathered ¹⁵their brethren, and ^tsanctified themselves, and came, according to the commandment of the king, ^lby the words of the LORD, ^uto cleanse the house of the LORD. And the priests went into the ¹⁶inner part of the house of the LORD, to cleanse it, and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of the LORD into the court of the house of the LORD. And the Levites took it, to carry it out abroad into the ^xbrook Kidron. Now they began on the first ¹⁷day of ^ythe first month to sanctify, and on the eighth day of the month came they to the porch of the LORD: so they sanctified the house of the LORD in eight days; and in the sixteenth day of the first month they made an end.

Then they went in to Hezekiah the king, and said, ^uWe have cleansed all the house of the LORD, and the altar of burnt offering, with all the vessels thereof, and the shewbread table, with all the vessels thereof. Moreover ^zall the vessels, which king Ahaz in his reign did cast away in his transgression, have we prepared and sanctified, and behold, they are before the altar of the LORD. Then Hezekiah the king rose early, and gathered the rulers of the city, and went ²¹up to the house of the LORD. And they brought ^aseven bullocks, and seven rams, and seven lambs, and seven ^ahe goats, for a ^bsin offering for the kingdom, and for the sanctuary, and for Judah. And he commanded the priests the sons of Aaron to offer them on the altar of the LORD. So they killed the bullocks, and the priests received the blood, and ^csprinkled it on the altar: likewise, when they had killed the rams, they sprinkled the blood upon the altar: they killed also the lambs, and they sprinkled the blood upon the altar. And they brought ²³forth the he goats for the sin offering before the king and the congregation; and the priests killed them, and they made reconciliation with their blood upon the altar, ^eto make an atonement for all Israel: for the king commanded that the burnt offering and the sin offering ²⁵*should be made* for all Israel. And ^fhe set the Levites in the house of the LORD with cymbals, with psalteries, and with harps, ^gaccording to the commandment of David, and of ^hGad the king's ⁱseer, and ^kNathan the prophet: for so was the commandment ^lof the LORD ^lby his ²⁶prophets. And the Levites stood with ^lthe instruments of David, and ^mthe priests with the trumpets. And Hezekiah commanded to offer the burnt offering upon the altar. And ⁿwhen the burnt offering began, the song of the LORD began also with ^mthe trumpets, and with ^lthe instruments ordained by ²⁸David king of Israel. And all the congregation worshipped, and the ^tsingers sang, and ^mthe trumpeters sounded: and all this continued until the burnt offering ²⁹was finished. And when they had made an end of offering, ⁿthe king and all that were ^lpresent with him bowed themselves, and worshipped. Moreover Hezekiah the king and the princes commanded the Levites to sing praise unto the LORD with the words of David, and of Asaph the ¹seer. And they sang praises with gladness, and ²they bowed their heads and worshipped. Then Hezekiah answered and said, Now ye have ³consecrated yourselves unto the LORD, come near and bring sacrifices and ⁴thank offerings into the house of the LORD. And the congregation brought in sacrifices and ⁵thank offerings; and as many as were ⁶of a free heart burnt offerings. And the number of the burnt offerings, ⁷which the congregation brought, was threescore and ten bullocks, an hundred rams, and two hundred lambs: all these were for a burnt offering to the LORD. And the consecrated things were six hundred oxen and three thousand sheep. But the priests were too few, so that they could not flay all the burnt offerings: wherefore ⁸their brethren the Levites ⁹did help them, till the work was ended, and ¹⁰until the other priests had sanctified themselves: for the Levites were more ¹¹upright in heart to sanctify themselves than the priests. And also the burnt offerings were in abundance, with ¹²the fat of the peace offerings, and ¹³the drink offerings for every burnt offering. So the service of the house of the LORD was set in order. And Hezekiah rejoiced, and all the people, that God had prepared the people: for the thing was done suddenly.

XXX. And Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and wrote letters also to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, to keep the passover unto the LORD God of Israel. For the king had taken counsel, and his princes, and all the congregation in Jerusalem, to keep the passover in the ¹second month. For they could not keep it ²at that time, ³because the priests had not sanctified themselves sufficiently, neither had the people gathered themselves together to Jerusalem. And the thing ⁴pleased the king and all the congregation. So they established a decree to ⁵make proclamation throughout all Israel, ⁶from Beer-sheba even to Dan, that they should come to keep the passover unto the LORD God of Israel at Jerusalem: for they had not done it of a long time in such sort as it was written. So ⁷the posts went with the letters ⁸from the king and his princes throughout all Israel and Judah, and according to the commandment of the king, saying, Ye children of Israel, ¹turn again unto the LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, and he will return to the remnant of you, that are escaped out of the hand of ²the kings of Assyria. And ³be not ye like your fathers, and like your brethren, which trespassed against the LORD God of their fathers, ⁴who therefore ⁵gave them up to desolation, as ye see. Now ⁶be ye not ⁷stiffnecked, as your fathers were, but ⁸yield yourselves unto the LORD, and enter into his sanctuary, which he hath sanctified for ever: and serve the LORD your God, ⁹that the fierceness of his wrath may turn away from you. For if ye turn again unto the LORD, your brethren and your children shall find ¹⁰compassion before them that lead them captive, so that they shall come again into this land: for the LORD your God is ¹¹gracious and ¹²merciful, and will not turn away his face from you, ¹³if ye return unto him. So ¹⁴the posts passed from city to city through the country of ¹⁵Ephraim and Manasseh even unto Zebulun: but they laughed them to scorn, and ¹⁶mocked them. Nevertheless divers of ¹⁷Asher and Manasseh and of Zebulun humbled themselves, and came to Jerusalem. Also in Judah the hand of God was to give them one heart to do the commandment of the king and of the princes, ¹⁸by the word of the LORD.

And there assembled at Jerusalem much people to keep the feast of unleavened bread in the ¹second month, a very great congregation. And they arose and took away the ²altars that were in Jerusalem, and all the altars for incense took they away, and ³cast them into the brook Kidron. Then they killed the passover on the fourteenth day of the ⁴second month: and the priests and the Levites ⁵were ashamed, and ⁶sanctified themselves, and brought in the burnt offerings into the house of the LORD. And they stood in ⁷their place after their manner, according to the law of Moses ⁸the man of God: the priests sprinkled the blood, ⁹which they received of the hand of the Levites. For there were many in the congregation that were not sanctified: therefore the Levites had the charge of the killing of the passovers for every one that was not clean, to sanctify them unto the LORD. For a multitude of the ¹⁸ people, even ^cmany of Ephraim, and Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, yet did they eat the passover otherwise than ^dit was written. But Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, The good LORD pardon every one that ^eprepareth his heart to seek ¹⁹ God, the LORD God of his fathers, though he be not cleansed according to the purification of the sanctuary. And ²⁰ the LORD hearkened to Hezekiah, and healed the people. And the children ²¹ of Israel that were ^fpresent at Jerusalem kept the feast of unleavened bread ^fseven days with great gladness: and the Levites and the priests praised the LORD day by day, singing with ^gloud instruments unto the LORD. And Hezekiah spake ^hcomfortably unto all the Levites ^gthat taught the good knowledge of the LORD: and they did eat throughout the feast seven days, offering peace offerings, and ^hmaking confession to the LORD God of their fathers. And the whole assembly took counsel ²³ to keep ⁱother seven days: and they kept other seven days with gladness. For Hezekiah king of Judah ²⁴ did give to the congregation a thousand bullocks and seven thousand sheep; and the princes ⁱgave to the congregation a thousand bullocks and ten thousand sheep: and a great number of priests ^ksanctified themselves. And all the congregation of Judah, with the priests and the Levites, and all the congregation ¹that came out of Israel, and the strangers that came out of the land of Israel, and that dwelt in Judah, rejoiced. So there was great joy in Jerusalem: for ^msince the time of Solomon the son of David king of Israel there was not the like in Jerusalem. Then ²⁷ ⁿthe priests the Levites arose and ^oblessed the people: and their voice was heard, and their prayer came up to ^hhis holy dwelling place, even unto heaven.

XXXI.

Now when all this was finished, all Israel that were ^fpresent went out to the cities of Judah, and ^abrake the ⁱimages in pieces, and cut down the groves, and threw down the high places and the altars out of all Judah and Benjamin, in Ephraim also and Manasseh, ^huntil they had utterly destroyed them all. Then all the children of Israel returned, every man to his possession, into their own cities. And Hezekiah appointed ^bthe courses of the priests and the Levites after their courses, every man according to his service, the priests and Levites ^cfor burnt offerings and for peace offerings, to minister, and to give thanks, and to praise in the gates of the ³tents of the LORD. He appointed also the king's portion of his substance for the burnt offerings, to wit, for the ^dmorning and evening burnt offerings, and the burnt offerings for the ^esabbaths, and for the ^fnew moons, and for the ^gset feasts, as it is written in the ⁴law of the LORD. Moreover he commanded the people that dwelt in Jerusalem to give the ^hportion of the priests and the Levites, that they might be ⁱencouraged in ^jthe law of the LORD. ⁵And as soon as the commandment ^kcame abroad, the children of Israel brought in abundance the firstfruits ^kof corn, wine, and oil, and ^lhoney, and of all the increase of the field; and the tithe of all things brought they in ⁶abundantly. And concerning the children of Israel and Judah, that dwelt in the cities of Judah, they also brought in the tithe of oxen and sheep, and the ^ltithe of holy things which were consecrated unto the LORD their God, ⁷and laid them ⁱby heaps. In the third month they began to lay the foundation of the heaps, and finished them in the ⁸seventh month. And when Hezekiah and the princes came and saw the heaps, they blessed the LORD, and his ⁹people Israel. Then Hezekiah questioned with the priests and the Levites ¹⁰concerning the heaps. And ^mAzariah the chief priest of ⁿthe house of Zadok answered him, and said, Since the people began to bring the offerings into the house of the LORD, we have had enough to eat, and have left plenty: for ^othe LORD hath blessed his people; and that ¹¹which is left is this great store. Then Hezekiah commanded to prepare ^lchambers in the house of the LORD; and ¹²they prepared them, and brought in ^pthe offerings and the tithes and ^qthe dedicate things faithfully: ^rover which Cononiah the Levite was ruler, and ^sShimei his brother was the next. And ¹³^sJehiel, and Azariah, and Nahath, and Asahel, and Jerimoth, and Jozabad, and Eliel, and Ismachiah, and ^tMahath, and Benaiah, were overseers ^uunder the hand of Cononiah and ^sShimei his brother, at the commandment of Hezekiah the was over the freewill offerings of God, to distribute [†]the oblations of the LORD, and ^uthe most holy things. And [†]next ¹⁵ him were ^uEden, and Miniamin, and Jeshua, and ^uShemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah, in ^uthe cities of the priests, in their [†]set office, to give to their brethren by courses, as well to the great as to the small: beside their genealogy ¹⁶ of males, from three years old and upward, even unto every one that entereth into the house of the LORD, his [†]daily portion for their service in their charges according to their courses; both to the ¹⁷ genealogy of the priests by the house of their fathers, and the Levites ²from twenty years old and upward, in their charges by their courses; and to the ¹⁸ genealogy of all their little ones, their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, through all the congregation: for in their [†]set office they sanctified themselves in holiness: also of the sons of Aaron the ¹⁹ priests, which were in ^uthe fields of the suburbs of their cities, in every several city, the men [†]that were expressed by name, to give portions to all the males among the priests, and to all that were reckoned by genealogies among the Levites. And thus did Hezekiah through- ²⁰ out all Judah, and ^uwrought that which was good and right and truth before the LORD his God. And in every work ²¹ that he began in the service of the house of God, and in the law, and in the commandments, to seek his God,

he did it with all his heart, and prospered.

^aAfter these things, and the establishment thereof, Sennacherib king of Assyria came, and entered into Judah, and encamped against the fenced cities, and thought [†]to win them for himself. And ² when Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib was come, and that [†]he was purposed to fight against Jerusalem, he took counsel with his princes and his mighty men ³ to stop the waters of the fountains which were without the city: and they did help him. So there was gathered ⁴ much people together, who stopt all the fountains, and [†]the brook that [†]ran through the midst of the land, saying,
Why should the kings of Assyria come,
and find much water? Also he strengthened himself, ^uand built up all the wall that was broken, and raised it up to the towers, and another wall without, and repaired ^uMillo in the city of David, and made [†]darts and shields in abundance. And he set captains of war over the people, and gathered them together to him in the street of the gate of the city, and [†]spake comfortably to them, ⁷saying, ^uBe strong and courageous, [†]be not afraid nor dismayed for the king of Assyria, nor for all the multitude that is with him: for ^uthere be moe with us ⁸than with him: with him is an ^uarm of flesh; but [†]with us is the LORD our God to help us, and to fight our battles. And the people [†]rested themselves upon the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

⁹After this did Sennacherib king of Assyria send his servants to Jerusalem, (but he himself laid siege against Lachish, and all his [†]power with him,) unto Hezekiah king of Judah, and unto all Judah that were at Jerusalem, saying,

¹⁰[†]Thus saith Sennacherib king of Assyria, Whereon do ye trust, that ye abide ¹¹[†]in the [†]siege in Jerusalem? Doth not Hezekiah ^upersuade you to give over yourselves to die by famine and by thirst, saying, ^uThe LORD our God shall deliver us out of the hand of the king

¹²of Assyria? ^uHath not the same Hezekiah taken away his high places and his altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, saying, Ye shall worship before one altar, and burn incense upon it?

¹³Know ye not what I and my fathers have done unto all the people of other lands? [†]Were the gods of the nations of those lands any ways able to deliver

¹⁴their lands out of mine hand? [†]Who was there among all the gods of those nations that my fathers utterly destroyed, that could deliver his people out of mine hand, that your God should be able to deliver you out of mine hand?

¹⁵Now therefore let not Hezekiah ^ude-ceive you, nor ^upersuade you on this manner; neither yet believe him: for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people out of mine hand, and out of the hand of my fathers: how much less shall your God deliver you

¹⁶out of mine hand? And [†]his servants spake yet more against the LORD God, ¹⁷and against his servant Hezekiah. He wrote also ^uletters to rail on the LORD God of Israel, and to speak against

of other lands have not delivered their people out of mine hand, so shall not the God of Hezekiah deliver his people out of mine hand. Then they ^acried ¹⁸ with a loud voice in the Jews' speech unto the people of Jerusalem ^{*}that were on the wall, to affright them, and to trouble them; that they might take the city. And they spake ^yagainst the God ¹⁹ of Jerusalem, as against the gods of the people of the earth, which were ^zthe work of the hands of man. And for this cause ^aHezekiah the king, and ^bthe prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz, prayed and cried ^{to} heaven. ^cAnd the LORD ²¹ sent an angel, which cut off all the mighty men of valour, and the leaders and captains in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned with ^dshame of face to his own land. And when he was come into the house of his god, they that came forth of his own bowels ^eslew him there with the sword. Thus ²² the LORD saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all other, and guided them on every side. And many brought ²³ ^egifts unto the LORD to Jerusalem, and ^fpresents to Hezekiah king of Judah: so that ^fhe was magnified in the sight of all nations from thenceforth.

^gIn those days Hezekiah was sick ^{to} the death, and prayed unto the LORD: and he spake unto him, and he ^hgave him ^ha sign. But Hezekiah ⁱrendered ²⁵ not again according to the benefit done unto him; for ^khis heart was lifted up: therefore there was ^lwrath upon him, and upon Judah and Jerusalem. Not-²⁶ withstanding Hezekiah ^mhumbled himself for ^lthe pride of his heart, both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the wrath of the LORD came not upon them ⁿin the days of Hezekiah. And Hezekiah had exceeding much ²⁷ riches and honour: and he made himself treasuries for silver, and for gold, and for precious stones, and for spices, and for shields, and for all manner of ^lpleasant jewels; ^ostorehouses also for ²⁸ the increase of corn, and wine, and oil; and ^pstalls for all manner of beasts, and cotes for flocks. Moreover he provided ²⁹ him cities, and possessions of flocks and herds in abundance: for God had given him substance very much. ^qThis same Hezekiah also stopped the upper ^rwater-course of ^sGihon, and brought it straight down to the west side of the city of David. And Hezekiah prospered in all his ³¹ works. Howbeit in the business of the ^tambassadors of the princes of Babylon, ^twho sent unto him to inquire of the ^uwonder that was done in the land, God left him, ^wto try him, that he might know ³² all that was in his heart. Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and his ^tgoodness, behold, they are written in ^xthe vision of Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, and in the ^ybook of the kings of Judah and Israel. ^zAnd Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the ^hchiefest of the sepulchres of the sons of David: and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem did him honour at his death. And Manasseh his son reigned in his stead.

Manasseh ^awas twelve years old when he ^{began} to reign, and he reigned fifty ²and five years in Jerusalem: but did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, like unto the abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel. For ^hhe built again the high places which Hezekiah his father had broken down, and he reared up altars for Baalim, and made groves, and worshipped all the host of heaven, ⁴and served them. Also he built altars in the house of the LORD, whereof the LORD had said, In Jerusalem shall my name be for ever. And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the two ⁶courts of the house of the LORD. And he caused his children to pass through the fire in ^bthe valley of the son of Hinnom: also he observed times, and used enchantments, and ^cused witchcraft, and dealt with a familiar spirit, and with wizards: he wrought much evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger. ⁷And he set a carved image, ^dthe idol which he had made, in the house of God, of which God had said to David and to Solomon his son, In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen before all the tribes of Israel, will I put ⁸my name for ever: neither will I any more remove the foot of Israel from out of the land which I have appointed for your fathers; so that they will take heed to do all that I have commanded them, according to the whole law and the statutes and the ordinances by the hand ⁹of Moses. So Manasseh made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to err, and to do worse than the heathen, whom

And the LORD spake to Manasseh,¹⁰ and to his people: but they would not hearken. Wherefore ^ethe LORD brought¹¹ upon them the captains of the host ^fof the king of Assyria, which took Manasseh among the ^gthorns, and bound him with ^hfetters, and ⁱcarried him to Babylon. And when he was in affliction, he ^jbesought the LORD his God, and ^khumbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers, and prayed unto him: and he ^lwas intreated of him, and heard his supplication, and brought him again to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh ^mknew that the LORD he ⁿwas God. Now after this he built a wall ^owithout the city of David, on the west side of ^pGihon, in the valley, even to the entering in at the ^qfish gate, and compassed about ^rOphel, and raised it up a very great height, and put captains of war in all the fenced cities of Judah. And he took away the ^sstrange gods,¹⁵ and the ^tidol out of the house of the LORD, and all the altars that he had built in the mount of the house of the LORD, and in Jerusalem, and cast ^uthem out of the city. And he repaired the altar of the LORD, and sacrificed thereon peace offerings and ^vthank offerings, and commanded Judah to serve the LORD God of Israel. Nevertheless ^wthe people did sacrifice still in the high places, ^xyet unto the LORD their God only. Now ^ythe rest of the acts of Manasseh, and ^zhis prayer unto his God, and the words of ^{aa}the seers that spake to him in the name of the LORD God of Israel, behold, they ^{ab}are written in the book of the kings of ^{ac}Israel. ^{ad}His prayer also,¹⁹ and ^{ae}how God ^{af}was intreated of him, and all his sin, and his trespass, and ^{ag}the places wherein he built high places, and set up groves and graven images, before he ^{ah}was humbled: behold, they ^{ai}are written among the sayings of ^{aj}the seers. So Manasseh slept with his fathers, and they buried him ^{ak}in his own house: and Amon his son reigned in his stead.

^{al}Amon ^{am}was two and twenty years old ^{an}when he ^{ao}began to reign, and ^{ap}reigned two years in Jerusalem. But he ^{aq}did that ^{ar}which ^{as}was evil in the sight of the LORD, as did Manasseh his father: for Amon sacrificed unto all ^{at}the carved images which Manasseh his father had made, and served them; and humbled not himself before the LORD, ^{ba}as Manasseh his father had humbled himself; but Amon ^{bb}trespassed more and more. And his servants conspired against him, and slew him in his own house. But the people of the land slew all them that had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his stead.

Josiah ^{bc}was eight years old when he ^{bd}began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem one and thirty years. And he did ^{be}that which ^{bf}was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the ways of David his father, and declined neither ^{bg}to the right hand, nor ^{bh}to the left. For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was yet young, he began to ^{bi}seek after the God of David his father: and in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem ^{bj}from the high places, and the groves, and the carved images, and the ^{bk}molten images. ^{bl}And they brake down the altars of Baalim in his presence; and the ^{bm}images, that ^{bn}were on high above them, he cut down; and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images, he brake ^{bo}in pieces, and made dust ^{bp}of them, and strowed ^{bq}it upon the ^{br}graves of them that had sacrificed unto them. And he ^{bs}burnt the bones of the priests upon their altars, and ^{bt}cleansed Judah and Jerusalem. And ^{bu}so ^{bv}did he in the cities of ^{bw}Manasseh, and Ephraim, and Simeon, even unto Naphtali, with their ^{bx}mattocks round about. And when he had broken down the altars and the groves, and had ^{by}beaten the graven images ^{bz}into powder, and cut down all the ^{ca}idols throughout all the land of Israel, he returned to Jerusalem. Now ^{cb}in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land, and the house, he sent ^{cc}Shaphan the son of Azariah, and ^{cd}Maaseiah the ^{ce}governor of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz ^{cf}the recorder, to repair the house of the LORD his God. And when they came to ^{cg}Hilkiah the high priest, they delivered the money that was brought ^{ch}into the house of God, which the Levites that kept the doors had gathered of the hand of ^{ci}Manasseh and Ephraim, and of all the remnant of Israel, and of all Judah and Benjamin; and they returned ^{cj}to Jerusalem. And they put ^{ck}it in the hand of the workmen that had the oversight of the house of the LORD, and they gave it to the workmen that wrought in the house of the LORD, to repair and mend the house: even to the artificers¹¹ and builders gave they it, to buy hewn stone, and timber for^a couplings, and¹² to floor the houses which the kings of Judah had destroyed. And the men did the work faithfully: and the overseers of them were Jahath and Obadiah, the Levites, of the sons of¹³ Merari; and Zechariah and Meshullam, of the sons of the¹⁴ Kohathites, to set it forward; and other of the Levites, all that could skill of instruments of musick. Also¹⁵ they were over¹⁶ the bearers of burdens, and were¹⁷ overseers of all that wrought the work in any manner of service: and of the Levites there were¹⁸ scribes, and¹⁹ officers, and porters.

And when they brought out the money that was brought into the house of the LORD, Hilkiah the priest found a book of the law of the LORD given¹ by Moses. And Hilkiah answered and² said to Shaphan the scribe, I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD. And Hilkiah delivered the book to Shaphan. And Shaphan carried the³ book to the king, and brought the king word back again, saying, All that was committed⁴ to thy servants, they do it. And they have⁵ gathered together the money that was found in the house of the LORD, and have delivered it into the hand of the overseers, and to the hand of the workmen. Then Shaphan the⁶ scribe told the king, saying, Hilkiah the priest hath given me a book. And Shaphan read⁷ it before the king. And it⁸ came to pass, when the king had heard the words of the law, that he rent his clothes. And the king commanded Hilkiah, and Abikam the son of Shaphan, and⁹ Abdon the son of Micah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah a servant of the king's, saying, Go, inquire of the¹⁰ LORD for me, and for them that are left in Israel and in Judah, concerning the words of the book that is found: for great is the wrath of the LORD that is poured out upon us, because our fathers have not kept the word of the LORD, to do after all that is written in this book. And Hilkiah, and they that the king had¹¹ appointed, went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvath, the son of¹² Hasrah, keeper of the¹³ wardrobe; (now she dwelt in Jerusalem in the college:) and they spake to her to that effect. And she answered them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Tell¹⁴ ye the man that sent you to me, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, even all the curses that are written in the book which they have¹⁵ read before the king of Judah: because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore¹⁶ my wrath shall be poured out upon this place, and shall¹⁷ not be quenched. And as for the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of the LORD, so shall ye say unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel concerning¹⁸ the words which thou hast heard; Because thine heart was tender, and thou didst humble thyself before God, when thou heardest his words against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof, and humbledst thyself before me, and didst rend thy clothes, and weep before me; I have even heard thee also,¹⁹ saith the LORD. Behold, I will gather thee to thy fathers, and thou shalt be gathered to thy grave in peace, neither shall thine eyes see all the evil that I will bring upon this place, and upon the inhabitants of the same. So they brought the king word again.

²⁰ Then the king sent and gathered together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem. And the king went up into the house of the LORD, and all the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the priests, and the Levites, and all the people, great and small: and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant that was found in²¹ the house of the LORD. And the king stood in his place, and made a covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD, and to keep his commandments, and his testimonies, and his statutes, with all his heart, and with all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant²² which are written in this book. And he caused all that were²³ present in Jerusalem and Benjamin to stand to it. And the inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers. And Josiah took away all the abominations out of all the countries that pertained to the children of Israel, and made all that were²⁴ present in Israel to serve, even to serve the LORD their God. parted not [†] from following the LORD, the God of their fathers.

Moreover ^a Josiah kept a passover unto the LORD in Jerusalem: and they killed the passover on the ^bfourteenth day of the first month. And he set the priests in their charges, and ^cencouraged them to the service of the house of the LORD, and said unto the Levites ^dthat taught all Israel, which were holy unto the LORD, ^ePut the holy ark ^fin the house which Solomon the son of David king of Israel did build; ^git shall not be a burden upon your shoulders: serve now the LORD your God, and his people Israel, and prepare ^hyourselves ⁱby the houses of your fathers, after your courses, according to the ^jwriting of David king of Israel, and according to the ^kwriting of Solomon his son. And ^lstand in the holy place according to the ^mdivisions of ⁿthe families of the fathers of your brethren ^othe people, and ^pafter the division of the families of the Levites. So kill the passover, and ^qsanctify yourselves, and prepare your brethren, that ^rthey may do according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses. And Josiah ^sgave to the people, of the flock, lambs and kids, all for the ^tpassover offerings, for all that were present, to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand bullocks: these ^uwere of ^vthe king's substance. And his princes ^wgave willingly unto the people, to the priests, and to the Levites: ^xHilkiah and ^yZechariah and Jehiel, rulers of the house of God, gave unto the priests for the ^zpassover offerings two thousand and six hundred ^{aa}small cattle, and three hundred oxen. ^{ab}Conaniah also, and ^{ac}Shemaiah and Nethaneel, his brethren, and Hashabiah and Jeiel and Jozabad, chief of the Levites, ^{ad}gave unto the Levites for ^{ae}passover offerings five thousand ^{af}small cattle, and five hundred oxen. So the service was prepared, and ^{ag}the priests ^{ah}stood in their place, and the Levites ^{ai}in their courses, according to the king's commandment. And ^{aj}they killed the passover, and the priests sprinkled ^{ak}the blood from their hands, and ^{al}the Levites flayed ^{am}them. And they removed ^{an}the burnt offerings, that they might give according to the divisions of the families of the people, to offer unto the LORD, as it is written in the book of Moses. And so ^{ao}did they with the oxen. And ^{ap}they roasted the passover with fire according to the ordinance: but the ^{aq}other holy offerings ^csod they in ^dpots, and in ^ecaldrons, and in ^fpans, and ^gdivided ^hthem speedily among all the people.

¹⁴ And afterward they made ready for themselves, and for the priests: because the priests the sons of Aaron ⁱwere busied in offering of burnt offerings and ^jthe fat until night; therefore the Levites prepared for themselves, and for the priests ¹⁵the sons of Aaron. And the singers the sons of Asaph ^kwere in their ^lplace, according to the commandment of ^mDavid, and Asaph, and Heman, and Jeduthun the king's ⁿhseer; and ^othe porters waited at every gate; they might not depart from their service; ^pfor their brethren the Levites prepared for them. So all the service of the LORD was prepared the same day, to keep the passover, and to offer burnt offerings upon the altar of the LORD, according to the commandment of king Josiah. And the children of Israel that were ^qpresent kept the passover at that time, and the feast of ¹⁸unleavened bread seven days. And ^rthere was no passover like to that, kept in Israel from the days of ^sSamuel the prophet; neither did all the kings of ^tIsrael keep such a passover as Josiah kept, and the priests, and the Levites, and all Judah and Israel that were ^upresent, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ¹⁹ In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah was this passover kept.

²⁰ "After all this, when Josiah had prepared the ^vtemple, Necho king of Egypt came up to fight against ^wCarchemish by Euphrates: and Josiah went out against ^xhim. But he sent ambassadors to him, saying, ^yWhat have I to do with thee, thou king of Judah? ^zI come not against thee ^{aa}this day, but against ^{ab}the house where-with I have war: for God commanded me to make haste: ^{ac}forbear thee from meddling with God, who ^{ad}is with me, ^{ae}that he destroy thee not. Nevertheless Josiah would not ^{af}turn his face from him, but ^{ag}disguised himself, that ^{ah}he might fight with him, and hearkened not unto the words of Necho ^{ai}from the mouth of God, and came to fight in the ^{aj}valley of ²³Megiddo. And the archers shot at king Josiah; and the king said to his servants, Have me away; for I am sore ²⁴wounded. ^{ab}His servants therefore took him out of ^{ac}that chariot, and put him in the second chariot that he had; and they brought him ^{ad}to Jerusalem, and he died, and was buried ^{ae}in one of the se-

Then ^athe people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and made him king in his father's stead in Jerusalem. Jehoahaz was twenty and three years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. And the king of Egypt ^tput him down ³at Jerusalem, and [†]condemned the land in an hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold. And the king of Egypt ⁴made Eliakim his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem, and turned his name to Jehoiakim. And Necho took Jehoahaz his brother, and carried him to Egypt.

^b Jehoiakim was twenty and five years ⁵old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD his God. ^cAgainst him ⁶came up Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and bound him in [†]fetters, to ^dcarry him to Babylon. ^eNebuchadnezzar also carried of the vessels of the house of the LORD to Babylon, and put them in his temple at Babylon. ^fNow the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and his abominations which he did, and that which was found in him, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah: and [†]Jehoiachin his son reigned in his stead.

^g Jehoiachin was ^height years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem: and he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD. And [†]when the year was ¹⁰expired, ⁱking Nebuchadnezzar sent, and brought him to Babylon, ^kwith the [†]goodly vessels of the house of the LORD, and made [†]Zedekiah his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem.

^m Zedekiah was one and twenty years ¹¹old when he began to reign, and reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And he did ¹²*that* which was evil in the sight of the LORD his God, and humbled not himself before ⁿJeremiah the prophet speaking ¹³from the mouth of the LORD. And he also ^orebelled against king Nebuchadnezzar, ^pwho had made him swear by God: but he ^qstiffened his neck, and ^rhardened his heart from turning unto the LORD ¹⁴God of Israel. Moreover all the chief of the priests, and the people, ^stransgressed very much after all the abominations of the heathen: and polluted the house of the LORD which he had hallowed in Jerusalem. And the LORD God of their fathers ^tsent to them [†]by his messengers, rising up [†]betimes, and sending; because he had compassion on his people, and on ¹⁶his dwelling place: but they ^umocked the messengers of God, and ^xdespised his words, and ^ymisused his prophets, until ^zthe wrath of the LORD arose against his ¹⁷people, till there was no [†]remedy. ^aTherefore he brought upon them the king of the Chaldees, who ^bslew their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion upon young man or maiden, old man, or ^chim that stooped for age: he gave them all into ¹⁸his hand. And ^dall the vessels of the house of God, great and small, and the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king, and of his princes; all these he brought to Babylon. ¹⁹^eAnd they burnt the house of God, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem, and burnt all the ^fpalaces thereof with fire, and destroyed all the ^ggoodly vessels thereof. And ^hthem that had escaped from the sword carried he away to Babylon; where ⁱthey were servants to him and his sons until ^kthe reign of the kingdom of Persia: to fulfil the word of the LORD by the mouth of [†]Jeremiah, until ^mthe land had enjoyed her sabbaths: for as long as she lay desolate ⁿshe kept sabbath, to fulfil threescore and ten years.

^o Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of the LORD spoken by the mouth of Jeremiah might be accomplished, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying, Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, All the kingdoms of the earth hath the LORD God of heaven given me; and he hath charged me to build him a house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Who is there among you of all his people? The LORD his God be with him, and let him go up.

NOW in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of the LORD ^aby the mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, ^bthat he ^cmade a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying, Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, The LORD God of heaven hath given me all the kingdoms of the earth; and he hath ^ccharged me to build him a house at Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Who is there among you of all his people? his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and build the house of the LORD God of Israel, (^dhe is the God,) which is in Jerusalem. And whosoever remaineth in any place where he sojourneth, let the men of his place ^ehelp him with silver, and with gold, and with goods, and with beasts, besides the freewill offering for the house of God that is in Jerusalem.

Then rose up the chief of the fathers of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests, and the Levites, with all them whose spirit ^eGod had ^fraised, to go up to build the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem. And all they that were about them ^gstrengthened their hands with vessels of silver, with gold, with goods, and with beasts, and with ^hprecious things, beside all that was willingly offered. ^hAlso Cyrus the king brought forth the vessels of the house of the LORD, ⁱwhich Nebuchadnezzar had brought forth out of Jerusalem, and had put them in the house of his gods; even those did Cyrus king of Persia bring forth ^jby the hand of ^kMithredath the ^ltreasurer, and numbered them unto ^mSheshbazzar, the prince of Judah. And this is the number of them: thirty chargers of gold, a thousand chargers of silver, nine and twenty ⁿknives, thirty ^obasons of gold, silver ^obasons of a second sort ^pfour hundred and ten, and other vessels a thousand.

11 All the vessels of gold and of silver were ^pfive thousand and four hundred. All these did Sheshbazzar bring up with them of ^qthe captivity that were brought up from Babylon unto Jerusalem.

And these were they which went up from Tel-melah, Tel-harsa, Cherub, ¹⁹Adan, ²⁰and Immer: but they could not shew their fathers' house, and their seed, whether they were of Israel: the children of Delaiah, the children of Tobiah, the children of Nekoda, six hundred ²¹fifty and two. And of the children of the priests: the children of Habaiiah, the children of ²²Koz, the children of Barzillai; which took a wife of the daughters of ²³Barzillai the Gileadite, and was called after their name: these sought their register among those that were reckoned by genealogy, but they were not found: therefore ²⁴were they, as polluted, put from the priesthood. And the ²⁵Tirshatha said unto them, that they should not eat of the most holy things till there stood up a priest with ²⁶Urim and with Thummim.

his place: they gave after their ability ⁶⁹ unto the ¹treasure of the work ^mthreescore and one thousand ⁿdrums of gold, and five thousand ^opound of silver, and one hundred priests' garments. So the priests, ⁷⁰ and the Levites, and some of the people, and the singers, and the porters, and the Nethinims, dwelt in their cities, and all Israel in their cities.

III.

^a And when the seventh month was come, and the children of Israel were in the cities, the people gathered themselves together as one man to Jerusalem. Then stood up ¹Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and his brethren the priests, and ²Zerubbabel the son of ³Shealtiel, and his brethren, and builded the altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt offerings thereon, as it is ^bwritten in the law of Moses ^cthe man of God. And they set ³ the altar upon his bases; for fear was upon them because of the people of those countries; and they offered burnt offerings thereon unto the LORD, even ^dburnt offerings morning and evening. They kept also the ^efeast of tabernacles, ⁴ as it is written, and offered ^ethe daily burnt offerings by number, according to the custom, ^fas the duty of every day required; and afterward offered the ⁵ continual burnt offering, both ⁱof the new moons, and of all the ^kset feasts of the LORD that were consecrated, and of every one that willingly offered a freewill offering unto the LORD. From the first day ⁶ of the ¹seventh month began they to offer burnt offerings unto the LORD. But ¹the foundation of the temple of the LORD was not yet laid. They gave money also ⁷ unto the masons, and to the ¹carpenters; and ^mmeat, and drink, and oil, unto them of Zidon, and to them of Tyre, to bring cedar trees from Lebanon to the sea of ⁿJoppa, ^oaccording to the grant that they had of Cyrus king of Persia.

Now in the second year of their coming unto the house of God at Jerusalem, in the second month, began ²Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and ³Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and the remnant of their brethren the priests and the Levites, and all they that were come out of the captivity unto Jerusalem; and appointed the Levites from ²⁰twenty years old and upward, ^rto set forward the work of the house of the LORD. Then stood ⁵Jeshua with his sons and his brethren, ^sKadmiel and his sons, the sons of ¹Judah, ^ttogether, ^rto set forward the workmen in the house of God: the sons of ^tHenadad, with their sons and their brethren the Levites. And when the builders laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, they set the priests ^uin their apparel with ^wtrumpets, and the Levites the sons of Asaph with ^xcymbals, to praise the LORD, ^yafter the ordinance of David ¹¹king of Israel. And they ^zsung together by course in praising and giving thanks unto the LORD; ^abecause he is good, for his mercy endureth for ever towards Israel. And all the people shouted with a great shout, when they praised the LORD, because the foundation of the house of the ¹²LORD was laid. But many of the priests and Levites and chief of the fathers, who were ancient men ^bthat had seen the first house, when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice; and many shouted aloud for ¹³joy: so that the people could not discern the noise of the shout of joy from the noise of the weeping of the people: for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the noise was heard afar off.

Now when ^athe adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that ^tthe children of the captivity builded the temple unto the LORD God of Israel; then they came to Zerubbabel, and to the chief of the fathers, and said unto them, Let us build with you: for we seek your God, as ye do; and we do sacrifice unto him ^bsince the days of Esar-haddon king of Assur, ³which brought us up hither. But Zerubbabel, and Jeshua, and the rest of the chief of the fathers of Israel, said unto them, ^cYou have nothing to do with us ^dto build a house unto our God; but we ourselves together will build unto the LORD God of Israel, as ^eking Cyrus the ⁴king of Persia hath commanded us. Then ^fthe people of the land ^gweakened the hands of the people of Judah, and troubled them in building, and hired counsellors against them, to ^hfrustrate their purpose, all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius ⁶king of Persia. And in the reign of ^tAhasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, wrote they unto him an ⁱaccusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem. And in the days of Artaxerxes wrote ¹Bishlam, ¹Mithredath, Tabeel, and the rest of their ⁱcompanions, unto Artaxerxes king of Persia; and the writing of ^kthe letter was written ¹in the Syrian

nians, the ^oSusanchites, the Dehavites, and the ^pElamites, and the rest of the ¹⁰nations whom the great and noble ^qAsnappar brought over, and set in the cities of ^rSamaria, and the rest that are on this side the river, ^sand ^tat such a time. This is the copy of the letter ¹¹that they sent unto him, even unto Artaxerxes the king:

Thy servants the men on this side the river, and at such a time. Be it known ¹²unto the king, that the Jews which came up from thee to us are come unto Jerusalem, building the rebellious and the bad city, and have ¹³set up the walls thereof, and ¹joined the foundations. Be it known now unto the king, that, if this city be builded, and the walls set up again, then will they not ¹pay ^ttoll, tribute, and custom, and so thou shalt endamage the ¹⁴revenue of the kings. Now because ¹we have maintenance from the king's palace, and it was not meet for us to see the king's dishonour, therefore have we sent and certified the king; that search may be made in the ¹⁵book of the records of thy fathers: so shalt thou find in the book of the records, and know that this city is a rebellious city, and hurtful unto kings and provinces, and that they have ¹moved sedition ^twithin the same of old time: for which cause was this city destroyed. We certify the king that, if this city be ¹⁶builded again, and the walls thereof set up, by this means thou shalt have no portion on this side the river.

Then sent the king an answer unto ¹⁷Rehum the chancellor, and to Shimshai the scribe, and to the rest of their ¹companions that dwell in Samaria, and unto the rest beyond the river:

²⁰made therein. There have been mighty kings also over Jerusalem, which have ^yruled over all countries beyond the river; and ^ttoll, tribute, and custom, was ²¹paid unto them. ¹Give ye now commandment to cause these men to cease, and that this city be not builded, until another commandment shall be ¹given ²²from me. Take heed now that ye fail not to do this: why should damage grow to the hurt of the kings?

²³ Now when the copy of king Artaxerxes' letter was read before Rehum, and Shimshai the scribe, and their companions, they went up in haste to Jerusalem unto the Jews, and made them ²⁴to cease ¹by force and power. Then ceased the work of the house of the God which is at Jerusalem. So it ceased unto the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia. Then the prophets, ^aHaggai the prophet, and ^bZechariah the son of Iddo, prophesied unto the Jews that were in Judah and Jerusalem in the name of the God of ²Israel, even unto them. Then rose up ^cZerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and ^cJeshua the son of Jozadak, and began to build the house of God which is at Jerusalem: and with them were the prophets of God helping them.

³ At the same time came to them ^dTatnai, governor on this side the river, and Shethar-boznai, and their companions, and said thus unto them, ^eWho hath commanded you to build this house, and to make up this wall? Then said we unto them ^fafter this manner, What are the names of the men ¹that make this building? But ^gthe eye of their God was upon the elders of the Jews, that they could not cause them to cease, till the matter came to Darius: and then they ^hreturned answer by letter concerning this matter. The copy of the letter that Tatnai, governor on this side the river, and Shethar-boznai, and his companions the ⁱApharsachites, which were on this side the river, sent ⁷unto Darius the king: they sent a letter unto him, ¹wherein was written thus: ⁸ Unto Darius the king, all peace. Be it known unto the king, that we went into the province of Judea, to the house of the great God, which is builded with ¹great stones, and timber is laid in the walls, and this work goeth fast on, and ⁹prospereth in their hands. Then asked we those elders, and said unto them

And thus they returned us answer, say-¹¹ ing, We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and build the house that was builded these many years ago, which a great king of Israel builded ¹and set up. But ^mafter that ¹² our fathers had provoked the God of heaven unto wrath, he gave them into the hand of ⁿNebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this house, and carried the people away into Babylon. But in the first ¹³ year of ^oCyrus the king of Babylon the same king Cyrus made a decree to build this house of God. And ^pthe vessels ¹⁴ also of gold and silver of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple that was in Jerusalem, and brought them into the temple of Babylon, those did Cyrus the king take out of the temple of Babylon, and they were delivered unto one, whose name was ^qSheshbazzar, whom he had made ¹⁵ governor; and said unto him, Take these vessels, go, carry them into the temple that is in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be builded in his place. Then Darius the king made a decree, and search was made in the house of the ^trolls, where the treasures were ¹laid up in Babylon. And there was found at ^bAchmetha, in ^cthe palace that is in the province of the ^dMedes, a roll, and therein was a record thus written:

In the first year of Cyrus the king ³ the same Cyrus the king made a decree concerning the house of God at Jerusalem, Let the house be builded, the place where they offered sacrifices, and let the foundations thereof be strongly laid; the height thereof threescore cubits, and the 4 breadth thereof threescore cubits; ^ewith three rows of great stones, and a row of new timber: and let the expences be ⁵ given out of the king's house: and also let ^fthe golden and silver vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took forth out of the temple which is at Jerusalem, and brought unto Babylon, be restored, and ¹brought again unto the temple which is at Jerusalem, every one to his place, and place them in the house ⁶ of God. Now therefore, ⁸Tatnai, governor beyond the river, Shethar-boznai, and ¹your companions the ^hApharsachites, which are beyond the river, be ye ⁷ far from thence: let the work of this house of God alone; let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews build this house of God in his place.

⁸ Moreover ¹I make a decree what ye shall do to the elders of these Jews for the building of this house of God: that of the king's ⁱgoods, even of the ^ktribute beyond the river, forthwith expences be given unto these men, that they be not ⁹ hindered. And that which they have need of, both young bullocks, and rams, and lambs, for the burnt offerings of the God of heaven, wheat, salt, wine, and oil, according to the appointment of the priests which are at Jerusalem, let it be given them day by day without ¹⁰ fail: that they may offer sacrifices ¹of sweet savours unto the God of heaven, and ¹pray for the life of the king, and ¹¹ of his sons. Also I have made a decree, that whosoever shall alter this word, let timber be pulled down from his house, and being set up, ¹let him be hanged thereon; and let his house be ¹² made ^ma dunghill for this. And the God that ⁿhath caused his name to dwell there destroy all kings and people, that shall put to their hand to alter and to destroy this house of God which is at Jerusalem. I Darius have made a decree; let it be done with speed.

¹⁴ And ^othe elders of the Jews builded, and they prospered through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. be done speedily, unto an hundred ²² talents of silver, and to an hundred [†]measures of wheat, and to an hundred [†]baths of wine, and to an hundred baths of oil, and salt without prescribing how much. [†]Whatsoever is commanded by ²³ the God of heaven, let it be diligently done for the house of the God of heaven: for why should there be wrath against the realm of [‡]the king and his sons? Also we certify you, that touch- ²⁴ ing any of the priests and Levites, singers, porters, Nethinims, or ministers of this house of God, it shall not be lawful to impose ²toll, tribute, or custom, upon them. And thou, Ezra, after ²⁵ the wisdom of thy God, that is in thine hand, set [‡]magistrates and judges, which may judge all the people that are beyond the river, all such as know the laws of thy God: and [‡]teach ye them that know them not. And whosoever ²⁶ will not do the law of thy God, and the law of the king, let judgment be executed speedily upon him, whether it be unto death, or [†]to banishment, or to confiscation of goods, or to imprisonment.

Of the sons also of ^mBigvai; Uthai, and ¹⁵ ^lZabbud, and with them seventy males. And I gathered them together to the river that runneth to ⁿAhava; and there ¹⁶ ^labode we in tents three days: and I viewed the people, and the priests, and found there none of the ^osons of Levi. ¹⁷ Then sent I for Eliezer, for Ariel, for Shemaiah, and for Elnathan, and for Jarib, and for Elnathan, and for Nathan, and for ^pZechariah, and for ^qMeshullam, chief men; also for Joarib, and for ¹⁸ Elnathan, men of understanding. And I said unto them, Ye ^{bd} are ^{be} holy ^{bf} unto the LORD; the vessels ^{bg} are ^{bh} holy also; and the silver and the gold ^{bi} are ^{bj} ha freewill offering unto the LORD God of your fathers. Watch ye, and keep ^{bk} them, ^{bl} until ye weigh ^{bm} them before the chief of the priests and the Levites, and chief of the fathers of Israel, at Jerusalem, ^{bn} in ^{bo} the chambers of the house of the LORD. So took the priests and the Levites the ^{bp} weight of the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, to bring ^{bq} them to Jerusalem unto the house of our God.

Then we departed from the river of ^{br} Ahava on ^{bs} the twelfth ^{bt} day of the first month, to go ^{bu} unto Jerusalem: and ^{bv} the hand of our God was upon us, and he delivered us ^{bw} from the hand of the enemy, and of such as lay in wait by the way. And ^{bx} we came to Jerusalem, and abode there three days. Now on the fourth day was the silver and the gold and the vessels ^{by} weighed in the house of our God by the hand of ^{bz} Meremoth the son of ^{ca} Uriah the priest; and with him ^{cb} was Eleazar the son of Phinehas; and with them ^{cc} was ^{cd} Jozabad the son of Jeshua, and Noadiah the son of ^{ce} Binnui, Levites; by number ^{cd} and by weight of ^{ce} every one: and all the weight was written at that time. Also the children ^{cf} of those that had been carried away, which were come out of the captivity, offered burnt offerings unto the God of Israel, ^{cg} twelve bullocks for all Israel, ninety ^{ch} and six rams, seventy and seven lambs, twelve he goats ^{ci} for a sin offering: all ^{ci} this ^{cj} was a burnt offering unto the LORD. And they delivered the king's ^{ck} commis- ^{cl} sions unto the king's ^{cl} lieutenants, and to the ^{cm} governors on ^{cm} this side the river: and they ^{cn} furthered the people, and the house of God.

Now when these ^{co} things were done, the princes came to me, saying, The people of Israel, and the priests, and the Levites, have not ^{cp} separated themselves from the people of the lands, ^{cq} doing according to their abominations, ^{cq} even of the ^{cr} Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the ^{cs} Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites. For they have ^{ct} taken of their daughters for themselves, and for their sons: so that the ^{cu} holy seed have ^{cu} mingled themselves with the people of ^{cu} those lands: yea, the hand of the princes and ^{cv} rulers hath been chief in ^{cv} this trespass. And when I heard this thing, ^{cw} I rent my garment and my mantle, and pluckt off the hair of my head and of my beard, and sat down ^{cx} astonished. ^{cy} Then were assembled unto me every one that ^{cz} trembled at the words of the God of Israel, because of the transgression of those that had been carried away; and I sat ^{ca} astonished until the ^{cb} evening sacrifice. And at the evening sacrifice ^{cb} I arose up from my ^{cc} heaviness; and ^{cc} having rent my garment and my mantle, I fell upon my knees, and ^{cd} spread out my hands unto the LORD my God, ^{cd} and said,

O my God, I am ashamed and blush to lift up my face to thee, my God: for ^{ce} our iniquities are increased over ^{ce} our head, and our ^{ce} trespass ^{ce} is grown up ^{ce} unto the heavens. ^{cf} Since the days of our fathers ^{cf} have ^{cf} been in a great trespass unto this day; and for our iniquities ^{cf} have we, our kings, and our priests, been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, and to a spoil, and to ^{cg} confusion ^{cg} of face, as ^{cg} it is this day. And now for a little ^{ch} space grace hath been ^{ch} shewed from the LORD our God, to leave us ^{ch} a remnant to escape, and to give us ^{ch} a nail in his holy place, that our God may ^{ci} lighten our eyes, and give us a little ^{ci} reviving in our bondage. ^{ci} For we ^{ci} were bondmen; yet our God hath not forsaken us in our bondage, but ^{cj} hath extended mercy unto us in the sight of the kings of Persia, to give us a reviving, to set up the house of our God, and ^{ck} to repair the desolations thereof, and to give us ^{ck} a wall in Judah and in Jerusalem. land, unto which ye go to possess it, is an unclean land with the filthiness of the people of the lands, with their abominations, which have filled it [†]from one end to another with their ^auncleanness. Now therefore ^bgive not your daughters ¹²unto their sons, neither take their daughters unto your sons, nor ^cseek their peace or their wealth for ever: that ye may be strong, and eat the good of the land, and ^dleave it for an inheritance to your children for ever. And after all ¹³that is come upon us for our evil deeds, and for ^eour great trespass, seeing that thou our God ^fhast punished us less than our iniquities deserve, and hast given us such ^gdeliverance as this; should we ¹⁴again break thy commandments, and ^hjoin in affinity with the people of these abominations? wouldest thou not be ⁱangry with us till thou hadst consumed us, so that there should be no remnant nor ^gescaping? O LORD God of Israel, ¹⁵^kthou art righteous: for we remain yet ^gescaped, as it is this day: behold, we are before thee ^lin our trespasses: for we cannot ^mstand before thee because of this.

Now ^awhen Ezra had prayed, and when he had confessed, weeping and ^bcasting himself down ^cbefore the house of God, there assembled unto him out of Israel a very great congregation ^{of} men and women and children: for the people ^twept very sore. And Shechaniah the son of ^dJehiel, one of the sons of Elam, answered and said unto Ezra, We have ^etrespassed against our God, and have taken strange wives of the people of the land: yet now there is hope in Israel concerning this thing. Now therefore let us make a covenant ³with our God ^tto put away all the wives, and such as are born of them, according to the counsel of my lord, and of those that ^ftremble at the commandment of our God; and let it be done ^gaccording to the law. Arise; for this matter be- ⁴*longeth* unto thee: we also will be with thee: ^hbe of good courage, and do it. Then arose Ezra, and made the chief ⁵priests, the Levites, and all Israel, ⁱto swear that they should do according to this word. And they sware. Then Ezra ⁶rose up ^kfrom before the house of God, and went into the ^lchamber of ^mJohanan the son of ⁿEliashib: and when he came thither, he did ^oeat no bread, nor drink water: for he mourned because of the transgression of them that had been ⁷carried away. And ⁿthey made proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem unto all the children of the captivity, that they should gather themselves to- ⁸gether unto Jerusalem; and that whosoever would not come within three days, according to the counsel of the princes and the elders, all his substance should be ^tforfeited, and himself separated from the congregation of those that had been carried away.

⁹ Then all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered themselves together unto Jerusalem within three days. It was the ninth month, on the twentieth day of the month; and all the people sat in the street of the house of God, ^otrembling because of this matter, and for ^tthe great rain. And Ezra the priest stood up, and said unto them, Ye have transgressed, and ^thave taken strange wives, ¹¹to increase the trespass of Israel. Now therefore ^pmake confession unto the LORD God of your fathers, and do his pleasure: and ^qseparate yourselves from the people of the land, and from the ¹²strange wives. Then all the congregation answered and said with a loud voice, As thou hast said, so must we do. ¹³ But the people are many, and it is a time of much rain, and we are not able to stand without, neither is this a work of one day or two: for ^rwe are many that have transgressed in this thing. ¹⁴ Let now our rulers of all the congregation stand, and let all them which have taken strange wives in our cities come at ^rappointed times, and with them the elders of every city, and the judges thereof, until ^sthe fierce wrath of our God ^tfor this matter be turned from us. ¹⁵ Only Jonathan the son of Asahel and Jahaziah the son of Tikvah ^twere employed about this matter: and ^tMeshullam and ^uShabbethai the Levite helped them. And the children of the captivity did so. And Ezra the priest, with certain chief of the fathers, after the house of their fathers, and all of them by their names, were separated. and sat down in ^vthe first day of the tenth month to examine the matter. And they made an end with all the men that had taken strange wives by ^vthe first day of the first month.

And ⁴it came to pass, when I heard these words, that ⁱI sat down and wept, and mourned certain days, and fasted, and prayed before the God of heaven, and said, I beseech thee, O LORD God of heaven, ^kthe great and terrible God, ^lthat keepeth covenant and mercy for them that love him and observe his commandments: let ^mthine ear now be attentive, and ⁿthine eyes open, that ^othou mayest hear the prayer of thy servant, which I pray before thee now, day and night, for the children of Israel thy servants, and ^pconfess the sins of the children of Israel, which we have sinned against thee: ^qboth I and my father's house have sinned. We have ⁷dealt very corruptly against thee, and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the judgments, ^rwhich thou commandedst thy servant Moses. Remember, I beseech thee, the word ⁸that thou commandedst thy servant Moses, saying, ^sIf ye transgress, I will scatter you abroad among the nations: ^tbut if ye turn unto me, and keep my commandments, and do them; ^uthough there were of you cast out unto the uttermost part of the heaven, yet will I gather them from thence, and will bring them ^xunto the place that I have chosen to set my name there. ^yNow these are thy servants and thy people, whom thou hast redeemed by thy great power, ¹¹and by thy strong hand. O Lord, I beseech thee, ²let now thine ear be attentive to the prayer of thy servant, and to the prayer of thy servants, ^awho desire to fear thy name: and prosper, I pray thee, thy servant this day, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man. For I was the king's ^bcupbearer.

And it came to pass in the month ^aNisan, in ^bthe twentieth year of Artaxerxes the king, that wine was before him: and ^cI took up the wine, and gave it unto the king. Now I had not been ²*beforetime* sad in his presence. Wherefore the king said unto me, ^dWhy is thy countenance sad, seeing thou art not sick? this is nothing else but ^esorrow of heart. Then the king said unto me, For what dost thou make request? So I prayed to ⁱthe God of heaven. And I said unto the king, If it please the king, and if thy servant have found favour in thy sight, ⁴that thou wouldest send me unto Judah, unto the city of my fathers' sepulchres, ⁶that I may build it. And the king said unto me, (the ^jqueen also sitting by him,) For how long shall thy journey be? and when wilt thou return? So it pleased the king to send me; and I set ⁷him a ^jtime. ¹¹ ch. 3. 7. the wall of the city, and for ¹² the house that I shall enter into. And the king granted me, ¹³ according to the good hand of my God upon me.

B.C. 445. Then I came to the ¹⁴ governors beyond the river, and gave them the king's letters. Now the king had sent captains of the army and horsemen with me. When ¹⁵ Sanballat the ¹⁶ Horonite, and ¹⁷ Tobiah the servant, the ¹⁸ Ammonite, heard of ¹⁹ it, it grieved them exceedingly that there was come a man ²⁰ to seek the welfare of the children of Israel. ²¹ So I came to Jerusalem, and ²² was there three days. And I arose in ²³ the night, I and ²⁴ some few men with me; neither told I ²⁵ any man what my God had put in my heart to do at Jerusalem: neither ²⁶ was there any beast with me, save the beast that I rode upon. And I went out by night by the ²⁷ gate of the valley, even before the dragon well, and to the ²⁸ dung port, and viewed the walls of Jerusalem, which were ²⁹ broken down, and ³⁰ the gates thereof were consumed with fire. Then I went on ³¹ to the ³² gate of the fountain, and to the ³³ king's pool: but ³⁴ there was no place for the beast ³⁵ that was under me to pass. Then went I up in the night ³⁶ by the ³⁷ brook, and viewed the wall, and turned back, and entered by the ³⁸ gate of the valley, and ³⁹ so returned. And the ⁴⁰ rulers knew not whither I ⁴¹ went, or what I did; neither had I as yet told ⁴² it to the Jews, nor to the priests, nor to the nobles, nor to the ⁴³ rulers, nor to the rest that did the work. Then said I unto them, Ye see ⁴⁴ the distress that we ⁴⁵ are in, how Jerusalem ⁴⁶ lieth waste, and ⁴⁷ the gates thereof are burnt with fire: come, and let us build ⁴⁸ up the wall of Jerusalem, that we be no more ⁴⁹ a reproach. Then I ⁵⁰ told them of ⁵¹ the hand of my God which was good upon me; as also the king's words that he had spoken unto me. And they said, Let us rise up and build. So they ⁵² strengthened their hands for ⁵³ this good work. But when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, and ⁵⁴ Geshem the Arabian, heard ⁵⁵ it, they ⁵⁶ laughed us to scorn, and despised us, and said, What ⁵⁷ is this thing that ye do? ⁵⁸ will ye rebel against the king? Then answered I ⁵⁹ them, and said unto them, The God of heaven, he will prosper us; therefore will his servants arise and build:

⁶⁰ but you have no portion, nor right, nor memorial, in Jerusalem.

Then ⁶¹ Eliashib the high priest rose up with his brethren the priests, and they built the ⁶² sheep gate; they sanctified it, and set up the doors of it; even unto the ⁶³ tower of Meah they sanctified ⁶⁴ it, unto the ⁶⁵ tower of Hananeel. And ⁶⁶ next unto him builded ⁶⁷ the men of Jericho. And next to them builded ⁶⁸ Zaccur the son of Imri. But the ⁶⁹ fish gate did the sons of ⁷⁰ Hassenaah build, who ⁷¹ also ⁷² laid the beams thereof, and ⁷³ set up the doors thereof, the locks ⁷⁴ thereof, and the bars thereof. And next unto them repaired ⁷⁵ Meremoth the son of ⁷⁶ Uriah, the son of ⁷⁷ Koz. And next unto them repaired ⁷⁸ Meshullam the son of Berechiah, the son of ⁷⁹ Meshezabeel. And next unto them repaired ⁸⁰ Zadok the son of Baana. And next unto them the ⁸¹ Tekoites repaired: but their nobles put not their necks to ⁸² the work of ⁸³ their Lord. Moreover the ⁸⁴ old gate repaired Jehoiada the son of ⁸⁵ Paseah, and Meshullam the son of Besodeiah; they ⁸⁶ laid the beams thereof, and set up the doors thereof, and the locks thereof, and the bars thereof. And next unto them repaired Melatiah the Gibeonite, and Jadon ⁸⁷ the Meronothite, the men of ⁸⁸ Gibeon, and of ⁸⁹ Mizpah, unto the ⁹⁰ throne of the governor on ⁹¹ this side the ⁹² river. Next unto him repaired Uzziel the son of Harhaiah, ⁹³ of the ⁹⁴ goldsmiths. Next unto him also repaired ⁹⁵ Hananiah the son of ⁹⁶ one of the ⁹⁷ apothecaries, and they ⁹⁸ fortified Jerusalem unto the ⁹⁹ broad wall. And next unto them repaired Rephaiah the son of Hur, the ruler of ¹⁰⁰ the half part of Jerusalem. And next unto them repaired Jedaiah the son of Harumaph, even over against his house. And next unto him repaired ¹⁰¹ Hattush the son of ¹⁰² Hashabniah. ¹⁰³ Malchijah the son of ¹⁰⁴ Harim, and ¹⁰⁵ Hashub the son of ¹⁰⁶ Pahath-moab, repaired the ¹⁰⁷ other piece, and the ¹⁰⁸ tower of the furnaces. And next unto him repaired Shallum the son of ¹⁰⁹ Hallohesh, the ruler of ¹¹⁰ the half part of Jerusalem, he and ¹¹¹ his daughters. The ¹¹² valley gate repaired ¹¹³ Hanun, and the inhabitants of ¹¹⁴ Zanoah; they built it, and ¹¹⁵ set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof, and a thousand cubits on the wall unto the dung gate. But the dung gate repaired Malchiah the son of Rechab, the ruler of part of Beth-haccere; he built it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof. But the gate of the fountain repaired Shallun the son of Col-hozeh, the ruler of part of Mizpah; he built it, and covered it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof, and the wall of the pool of Siloah by the king's garden, and unto the stairs that go down from the city of David. After him repaired Nehemiah the son of Azbuk, the ruler of the half part of Beth-zur, unto the place over against the sepulchres of David, and to the pool that was made,

 and unto the house of the mighty.
 After him repaired the Levites, Rehum the son of Bani. Next unto him repaired Hashabiah, the ruler of the half part of Keilah, in his part. After him repaired their brethren, Bavai the son of Henadad, the ruler of the half part of Keilah. And next to him repaired Ezer the son of Jeshua, the ruler of Mizpah, another piece over against the going up to the armoury at the turning of the wall. After him Baruch the son of Zabbai earnestly repaired the other piece, from the turning of the wall unto the door of the house of Eliashib the high priest. After him repaired Meremoth the son of Urijah the son of Koz another piece, from the door of the house of Eliashib even to the end of the house of Eliashib. And after him repaired the priests, the men of the plain. After him repaired Benjamin and Hashub over against their house. After him repaired Azariah the son of Maaseiah the son of Ananiah by his house. After him repaired Binnui the son of Henadad another piece, from the house of Azariah unto the turning of the wall, even unto the corner.
 Palal the son of Uzai, over against the turning of the wall, and the tower which lieth out from the king's high house, that was by the court of the prison.
 After him Pedaiah the son of Parosh.
 Moreover the Nethinims dwelt in Ophel, unto the place over against the water gate toward the east, and the tower that lieth out. After them the Tekoites repaired another piece, over against the great tower that lieth out, even unto the wall of Ophel. From above the horse gate repaired the priests, every one over against his house.

 After them repaired Zadok the son of Immer over against his house. After him repaired also Shemaiah the son of Shechaniah, the keeper of the east gate.
 After him repaired Hananiah the son of Shelemiah, and Hanun the sixth son of Zalaph, another piece. After him repaired Meshullam the son of Berechiah over against his chamber. After him repaired Malchiah the goldsmith's son unto the place of the Nethinims, and of the merchants, over against the gate Miphkad, and to the going up of the corner. And between the going up of the corner unto the sheep gate repaired the goldsmiths and the merchants.

But it came to pass, that when Sanballat heard that we builded the wall, he was wroth, and took great indignation, and mocked the Jews. And he spake before his brethren and the army of Samaria, and said, What do these feeble Jews? will they fortify themselves? will they sacrifice? will they make an end in a day? will they revive the stones out of the heaps of the rubbish which are burnt? Now Tobiah the Ammonite was by him, and he said, Even that which they build, if a fox go up, he shall even break down their stone wall. Hear, O our God; for we are despised: and turn their reproach upon their own head, and give them for a prey in the land of captivity: and cover not their iniquity, and let not their sin be blotted out from before thee: for they have provoked thee to anger before the builders. So built we the wall; and all the wall was joined together unto the half thereof: for the people had a mind to work.

But it came to pass, that when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and the Arabians, and the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites, heard that the walls of Jerusalem were made up, and that the breaches began to be stopped, then they were very wroth, and conspired all of them together to come and to fight against Jerusalem, and to hinder it. Nevertheless we made our prayer unto our God, and set a watch against them day and night, because of them. And Judah said, The strength of the bearers of burdens is decayed, and there is much rubbish; so that we are not able to build the wall. And our adversaries ¹¹said, They shall not know, neither see, till we come in the midst among them, and slay them, and cause the work to cease. And it came to pass, that when ¹²the Jews which dwelt by ^mthem came, they said unto us ⁿten times, [¶]From all places whence ye shall return unto us they will be upon you. Therefore set ¹³I [†]in the lower places behind the wall, and on the higher places, I even set the people after their families with their swords, their spears, and their bows. And I looked, and rose up, and said ¹⁴unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, ^oBe not ye afraid of them: remember the Lord, which is ^pgreat and terrible, and ^qfight for your brethren, your sons, and your daughters, your wives, and your houses. And it came to pass, when our ene- ¹⁵mies heard that it was known unto us, and God had ^rbrought their counsel to nought, that we returned all of us to the wall, every one unto his work. And ¹⁶it came to pass from that time forth, that the half of my servants wrought in the work, and the other half of them held both the ^sspears, the shields, and the bows, and the ^thabergeons; and the rulers were behind all the house of Judah. They which builded on the wall, and they that bare burdens, with those that laded, every one with one of his hands wrought in the work, and with the other hand held a weapon. For the builders, every one had his ¹⁸sword girded [†]by his side, and so builded. And he that sounded the trumpet was by me. And ¹⁹I said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, The work is great and large, and we are separated upon the wall, one far from another. In what ²⁰place therefore ye hear the sound of the trumpet, resort ye thither unto us: ^uour God shall fight for us. So we laboured ²¹in the work: and half of them held the spears from ^xthe rising of the morning till the stars appeared. Likewise at the same time said I unto the people, Let every one with his servant lodge within Jerusalem, that in the night they may be a guard to us, and labour on the day. So neither I, nor my brethren, ²³nor my servants, nor the men of the guard which followed me, none of us put off our clothes, [¶]saving that every one put them off for washing.

And there was a great ^acry of the people and of their wives against their ^bbrethren the Jews. For there were that said, We, our sons, and our daughters, are many: therefore we take up corn for them, that we may eat, and live. ³*Some* also there were that said, We have mortgaged our lands, vineyards, and houses, that we might buy corn, because ⁴of the dearth. There were also that said, We have borrowed money for the king's ^ctribute, and that upon our lands ^dand vineyards. Yet now ^dour flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, our children as their children: and lo, we bring into bondage our ^esons and our ^fdaughters to be servants, and some of our daughters are brought unto bondage already: neither is it in our power to redeem them; for other men have our lands and vine- ⁶yards. And I was very angry when I ⁷heard their cry and these words. Then [†]I consulted with myself, and I rebuked the nobles, and the rulers, and said unto them, ^gYou exact usury, every one of his brother. And I set a great assembly ⁸against them. And I said unto them, We after our ability have ^hredeemed our brethren the Jews, which were sold unto the heathen; and will you even sell your brethren? or shall they be sold unto us? Then held they their peace, ⁹and found nothing to answer. Also I said, It is not good that ye do: ought ye not to walk ⁱin the fear of our God ^kbecause of the reproach of the heathen ¹⁰our enemies? I likewise, and my brethren, and my servants, might exact of them money and corn: I pray you, let ¹¹us leave off this usury. Restore, I pray you, to them, even this day, their lands, their vineyards, their oliveyards, and their houses, also the hundredth part of the money, and of the corn, the wine, and the oil, that ye exact of them. ¹²Then said they, We will restore them, and will require nothing of them; so will we do as thou sayest. Then I called the priests, and ^ltook an oath of them, ^mthat they should do according ¹³to this promise. Also I shook my ⁿlap, and said, So God ^oshake out every man from his house, and from his ^plabour, that performeth not this promise, even thus be he shaken out, and [†]emptied. appointed to be their ^rgovernor in the land of Judah, from the ^stwentieth year even unto the ^ttwo and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes the king, that is, twelve years, I and my brethren have not ^ueaten the bread of the ^rgovernor. But the ¹⁵ former ^rgovernors that had been before me were chargeable unto the people, and had taken of them bread and wine, beside forty shekels of silver; yea, even their servants bare rule over the people: but so did not I, because of ^xthe fear of God. Yea also I continued in the ¹⁶ work of this wall, neither bought we any land: and all my servants were gathered thither unto the work. More-¹⁷ over there were ^yat my table an hundred and fifty of the Jews and rulers, besides those that came unto us from among the heathen that are about us. Now ¹⁸ that ^zwhich was prepared for me daily was one ox and six choice sheep; also fowls were prepared for me, and once in ten days store of all sorts of wine: yet for all this required not I ^athe bread of the ^rgovernor, because the bondage was heavy upon this people. ^bThink ¹⁹ upon me, my God, for good, according to all that I have done for this people.

Now it came to pass, when ^aSanballat, and ^aTobiah, and ^lGeshem the Arabian, and the rest of our enemies, heard that I had builded the wall, and that there was no breach left therein; (^bthough at that time I had not set up the doors upon the gates;) that Sanballat and Geshem sent unto me, saying, Come, let us ^{bb}meet together in some one of the villages in the plain of ^cOno. But they thought to do me mischief. And I sent ³ messengers unto them, saying, I am doing a great work, so that I cannot come down: why should the work cease, whilst I leave it, and come down to you? Yet they sent unto me four times ⁴ after this sort; and I answered them after the same manner. Then sent Sanballat his servant unto me in like manner the fifth time with an open letter in his hand; wherein was written, It is reported among the heathen, and ^{ll}Gashmu saith it, that thou and the Jews think ^dto rebel: for which cause thou buildest the wall, that thou mayest be their king, according to these words. And thou hast also appointed prophets ⁷ to preach of thee at Jerusalem, saying, There is a king in Judah: and now shall it be reported to the king according to these words. Come now therefore, and ⁸ let us take counsel together. Then I sent unto him, saying, There are no such things done as thou sayest, but thou ^efeignest them out of thine own ⁹ heart. For they all made us afraid, saying, Their hands shall be weakened from the work, that it be not done. Now therefore, ^fO God, strengthen my ¹⁰ hands. Afterward I came unto the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah the son of Mehetabeel, who was ^gshut up; and he said, Let us meet together in the house of God, within the temple, and let us shut the doors of the temple: for they will come to slay thee; yea, in the night will they come to slay thee. ¹¹ And I said, Should such a man as I flee? and who is there, that, being as I am, would go into the temple to save ¹² his life? I will not go in. And lo, I perceived ^hthat God had not sent him; but that he pronounced this prophecy against me: for Tobiah and Sanballat ¹³ had hired him. Therefore was he hired, that I should be afraid, and do so, and sin, and that they might have matter for an evil report, that they might ⁱreproach ¹⁴ me. ^kMy God, think thou upon Tobiah and Sanballat according to these their works, and on the ^hprophetess Noadiah, and the rest of the prophets, that would have put me in fear.

So the wall was finished in the twenty and fifth day of the month ^lElul, ^min fifty ¹⁵ and two days. And it came to pass, that when ⁿall our enemies heard thereof, and all the heathen that were about us saw these things, they were much cast down in their own eyes: for ^othey perceived that this work was wrought of ¹⁷ our God. Moreover in those days the nobles of Judah ^tsent many letters unto Tobiah, and the letters of Tobiah came ¹⁸ unto them. For there were many in Judah ^psworn unto him, because he was the son in law of Shechaniah the son of ^qArah; and his son Johanan had taken the daughter of ^rMeshullam the son of Berechiah. Also they reported his good deeds before me, and uttered my ¹⁹ words to him. And Tobiah sent letters to put me in fear.

Now it came to pass, when the wall was built, and I had ^aset up the doors, and the porters and the singers and the ² Levites were appointed, that I gave my brother ^bHanani, and ^cHananiah the ruler of ^dthe palace, charge over Jeru-

the children of Sotai, the children of Sophereth, the children of ¶ Perida, the 58 children of Jaala, the children of Dargon, the children of Giddel, the children of Shephatiah, the children of Hattil, the children of Pochereth Zebaim, the children of ¶ Amon. All the 60 Nethinims, and the children of Solomon's servants, were three hundred ninety and two.

And these were they which went up 61 also from Tel-melah, Tel-haresha, Cherub, ¶ Addon, and Immer: but they could not shew their fathers' house, nor their seed, whether they were of Israel. The 62 children of Delaiah, the children of Tobiah, the children of Nekoda, six hundred forty and two. And of the priests: 63 the children of Habaiah, the children of Koz, the children of Barzillai, which took one of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite to wife, and was called after their name. These sought their register 64 among those that were reckoned by genealogy, but it was not found: therefore were they, as polluted, put from the priesthood. And ¶ the Tirshatha said 65 unto them, that they should not eat of the most holy things, till there stood up a priest with Urim and Thummim.

The whole congregation together was 66 forty and two thousand three hundred and threescore, beside their manservants 67 and their maidservants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred thirty and seven: and they had ¶ two hundred forty and five singing men and singing 68 women. Their horses, seven hundred thirty and six: their mules, two hundred forty and five: their camels, four hundred thirty and five: six thousand seven hundred and twenty asses.

And ¶ some of the chief of the fathers 70 gave unto the work. The Tirshatha gave to the treasure ¶ a thousand drams of gold, fifty ¶ basons, five hundred and thirty priests' garments. And some of 71 the chief of the fathers gave to the treasure of the work ¶ twenty thousand drams of gold, and two thousand and two hundred pound of silver. And that which 72 the rest of the people gave was ¶ twenty thousand drams of gold, and two thousand pound of silver, and threescore and seven priests' garments. So the priests, 73 and the Levites, and the porters, and the singers, and some of the people, and the Nethinims, and all Israel, dwelt in their cities; ¶ and when the seventh

And all the people gathered themselves together as one man into the street that was before the water gate; and they spake unto Ezra the scribe to bring the book of the law of Moses, which the LORD had commanded to Israel. And Ezra the priest brought the law before the congregation both of men and women, and all that could hear with understanding, upon the first day of the seventh month. And he read therein before the street that was before the water gate from the morning until midday, before the men and the women, and those that could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive unto the book of the law. And Ezra the scribe stood upon a pulpit of wood, which they had made for the purpose; and beside him stood ¶ Mattithiah, and Shema, and ¶ Ananiah, and ¶ Urijah, and Hilkiah, and ¶ Maaseiah, on his right hand; and on his left hand, Pedaiah, and Mishaël, and ¶ Malchiah, and ¶ Hashum, and Hashbadana, ¶ Zechariah, 5 and ¶ Meshullam. And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people; (for he was above all the people;) and when he opened it, all the people stood 6 up: and Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God. And all the people answered, ¶ Amen, Amen, with lifting up their hands: and they bowed their heads, and worshipped the LORD with their 7 faces to the ground. Also ¶ Jeshua, and ¶ Bani, and ¶ Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, ¶ Shabbethai, ¶ Hodijah, ¶ Maaseiah, ¶ Kelita, ¶ Azariah, ¶ Jozabad, ¶ Hanan, ¶ Pellaiah, and the Levites, caused the people to understand the law: and the people stood in their place. So they read in the book in the law of God distinctly, and gave the sense, and caused them to understand the reading.

9 And Nehemiah, which is the Tirshatha, and Ezra the priest the scribe, and the Levites that taught the people, said unto all the people, ¶ This day is holy unto the LORD your God; ¶ mourn not, nor weep. For all the people wept, when they heard the words of the law. 10 Then he said unto them, Go your way, eat the fat, and drink the sweet, and send portions unto them for whom nothing is prepared: for this day is holy

Now in the twenty and fourth day of ¹ this month the children of Israel were assembled with ² fasting, and with ³ sack-clothes, and ⁴ earth upon them. And ⁵ the seed of Israel separated themselves from all ⁶ strangers, and stood and confessed their sins, and the iniquities of their fathers. And they ⁷ stood up in their place, and ⁸ read in the book of the law of the LORD their God ⁹ one fourth ¹⁰ part of the day; and ¹¹ another fourth ¹² part they confessed, and worshipped the LORD their God. fathers ¹dealt proudly, and ²hardened their necks, and hearkened not to thy commandments, and refused to obey, ³neither ⁴were mindful of thy wonders that thou didst among them; but ⁵hardened their necks, and in their rebellion ⁶appointed a captain to return to their bondage: but thou art ⁷a God ready to pardon, ⁸gracious and merciful, ⁹slow to anger, and of great kindness, and forsookest them not. Yea, ¹⁰when they ¹¹had made them a molten calf, and said, This is thy God that brought thee up out of Egypt, and had wrought ¹²great provocations; yet thou in ¹³thy manifold mercies forsookest them not in the wilderness: ¹⁴the pillar of the cloud departed not from them by day, to lead them in the way; neither the pillar of fire by night, to shew them light, and the way wherein they should go. Thou ¹⁵gavest also thy ¹⁶good spirit to instruct them, and withheldest not thy ¹⁷manna from their mouth, and gavest them ¹⁸water for their thirst. Yea, ¹⁹forty years ²⁰didst thou sustain them in the wilderness, so that they lacked nothing; ²¹their clothes waxed not old, and their feet swelled not. Moreover thou gavest them ²²kingdoms and nations, and didst divide them into ²³corners: so they possessed the land of ²⁴Sihon, and the land of the king of ²⁵Heshbon, and the land of ²⁶Og king of Bashan. Their children also ²⁷multipliedst thou as ²⁸the stars of heaven, and broughtest them into the land, concerning which thou hadst promised to their fathers, that they should go in to possess it. So ²⁹the children went in and possessed the land, and ³⁰thou subduedst before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and gavest them into their hands, with their kings, and the people of the land, that they might do with them ³¹as they would. And they took strong cities, and a ³²fat land, and possessed ³³houses full of all goods, ³⁴wells digged, vineyards, and oliveyards, and ³⁵fruit trees in abundance: so they did eat, and were filled, and ³⁶became fat, and delighted themselves in ³⁷thy great goodness. Nevertheless ³⁸they were disobedient, and rebelled against thee, and ³⁹cast thy law behind their backs, and ⁴⁰slew thy prophets which testified against them to turn them to thee, and they wrought ⁴¹great provocations. ⁴²Therefore thou ⁴³deliveredst them into the hand of their enemies, who vexed them: and in the time of their trouble, when they cried unto thee, thou heardest them from heaven; and according to ¹thy manifold mercies thou gavest them ²saviours, who saved them out of the hand of ³their enemies. But after they had rest, ⁴they did evil again before thee: therefore leftest thou them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them: yet when they returned, and cried unto thee, thou heardest them from heaven; and ⁵many times didst thou deliver them according to thy ⁶mercies; and testifiedst against them, that thou mightest bring them again unto thy law: yet they ⁷dealt proudly, and hearkened not unto thy commandments, but sinned against thy judgments, (⁸which if a man do, he shall live in them;) and ⁹withdrew the shoulder, and ¹⁰hardened their neck, and would ¹¹not hear. Yet many years didst thou ¹²forbear them, and ¹³testifiedst against them by thy spirit ¹⁴in thy prophets: yet would they not give ear: ¹⁵therefore gavest thou them into the hand of the ¹⁶people of the lands. Nevertheless for ¹⁷thy great mercies' sake ¹⁸thou didst not utterly consume them, nor forsake them; for thou art a ¹⁹gracious and ²⁰merciful God. Now therefore, our God, the ²¹great, the mighty, and the terrible God, ²²who keepest covenant and mercy, let not all the ²³trouble seem little before thee, ²⁴that hath come upon us, on our kings, on our princes, and on our priests, and on our prophets, and on our fathers, and on all thy people, ²⁵since the time of the kings of Assyria unto this day. ²⁶Howbeit ²⁷thou art just in all that is brought upon us; for thou hast done right, but ²⁸we have done wickedly: ²⁹neither have our kings, our princes, our priests, nor our fathers, kept thy law, nor hearkened unto thy commandments and thy testimonies, wherewith thou ³⁰didst testify against them. For they ³¹have not served thee in their kingdom, and in ³²thy great goodness that thou gavest them, and in the large and ³³fat land which thou gavest before them, neither turned they from their wicked ³⁴works. Behold, ³⁵we are servants this day, and for the land that thou gavest unto our fathers to eat the fruit thereof and the good thereof, behold, we are ³⁶servants in it: and ³⁷it yieldeth much increase unto the kings whom thou hast nine parts to dwell in other cities. And the people blessed all the men, that willingly offered themselves to dwell at Jerusalem. Now these are the chief of the province that dwelt in Jerusalem: but in the cities of Judah dwelt every one in his possession in their cities, to wit, Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the Nethinims, and the children of Solomon's servants. And at Jerusalem dwelt certain of the children of Judah, and of the children of Benjamin. Of the children of Judah; Athaiah the son of Uziah, the son of Zechariah, the son of Amariah, the son of Shephatiah, the son of Mahalaleel, of the children of Perez; and Maaseiah the son of Baruch, the son of Col-hozeh, the son of Hazaiah, the son of Adaiah, the son of Joiarib, the son of Zechariah, the son of Shiloni. All the sons of Perez that dwelt at Jerusalem were four hundred threescore and eight valiant men. And these are the sons of Benjamin; Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Joed, the son of Pedaiiah, the son of Kolaiah, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel, the son of Jesaiah. And after him Gabbai, Sallai, nine hundred twenty and eight. And Joel the son of Zichri was their overseer: and Judah the son of Senuah was second over the city.

Of the priests: Jedaiah the son of Joiarib, Jachin, Seraiah the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, was the ruler of the house of God. And their brethren that did the work of the house were eight hundred twenty and two: and Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Pashur, the son of Malchiah, and his brethren, chief of the fathers, two hundred forty and two: and Amashai the son of Azareel, the son of Ahasai, the son of Meshillemoth, the son of Immer, and their brethren, mighty men of valour, an hundred twenty and eight: and their overseer was Zabdiel, the son of one of the great men.

Also of the Levites: Shemaiah the son of Hashub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Bunni; and Shabbethai and Jozabad, of the chief of the Levites, had the oversight of the outward business of the house of God. And Mattaniah the son of Micha, the son of Zabdi, the son of Asaph, was the principal to begin the thanksgiving in prayer: and Bakkukiah the second among his brethren, and Abda the son of Shammua, the son of Galai, the son of Jeduthun. All the Levites in the holy city were two hundred fourscore and four. Moreover the porters, Akkub, Talmon, and their brethren that kept the gates, were an hundred seventy and two.

And the residue of Israel, of the priests, and the Levites, were in all the cities of Judah, every one in his inheritance. But the Nethinims dwelt in Ophel: and Ziha and Gispah were over the Nethinims. The overseer also of the Levites at Jerusalem was Uzzi the son of Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Micha. Of the sons of Asaph, the singers were over the business of the house of God. For it was the king's commandment concerning them, that a certain portion should be for the singers, due for every day. And Pethahiah the son of Meshezabeel, of the children of Zerah the son of Judah, was at the king's hand in all matters concerning the people.

And for the villages, with their fields, some of the children of Judah dwelt at Kirjath-arba, and in the villages thereof, and at Dibon, and in the villages thereof, and at Jekabzeel, and in the villages thereof, and at Jeshua, and at Moladah, and at Beth-pheret, and at Hazar-shual, and at Beer-sheba, and in the villages thereof, and at Ziklag, and at Mekonah, and in the villages thereof, and at En-rimmon, and at Zareah, and at Jarmuth, Zanoah, and Adullam, and in their villages, at Lachish, and the fields thereof, at Azekah, and in the villages thereof. And they dwelt from Beer-sheba unto the valley of Hinnom. The children also of Benjamin from Geba dwelt at Michmash, and Aija, and Beth-el, and in their villages, and at Anathoth, Nob, Ananiah, Hazor, Ramah, Gittaim, Hadid, Zeboim, Neballat, Lod, and Ono, the valley of craftsmen. And of the Levites were divisions in Judah, and in Benjamin.

Hattush, Shechaniah, Rehun, Meremmoth, Iddo, Ginnemin, Maadiah, Bilgah, Shemaiah, and Joiarib, Jedaiah, Sallu, Amok, Hilkiah, Jedaiah. These were the chief of the priests and of their brethren in the days of Jeshua. Moreover the Levites: Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and Mattaniah, which was over the thanksgiving, he and his brethren.
Also Bakbukiah and Unni, their brethren, were over against them in the watches.

And Jeshua begat Joiakim, Joiakim
also begat Eliashib, and Eliashib begat Joiada, and Joiada begat Jonathan, and Jonathan begat Jaddua.

And in the days of Joiakim were priests, the chief of the fathers: of Seraiah, Meraiah; of Jeremiah, Hananiah; of Ezra, Meshullam; of Amariah, Jehohanan; of Melicu, Jonathan; of Sheba-niah, Joseph; of Harim, Adna; of Meraioth, Helkai; of Iddo, Zechariah; of Ginne-thon, Meshullam; of Abijah, Zichri; of Miniamin, of Moadiah, Piltai; of Bilgah, Shammua; of Shemaiah, Jehonathan; and of Joiarib, Mattenai; of Je-daiah, Uzzi; of Sallai, Kallai; of Amok, Eber; of Hilkiah, Hashabiah; of Jeda-iah, Nethaneel.

The Levites in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, and Johanan, and Jaddua, were recorded chief of the fathers: also the priests, to the reign of Darius the Persian. The sons of Levi, the chief of the fathers, were written in the book of the chronicles, even until the days of Johanan the son of Eliashib. And the chief of the Levites: Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua the son of Kadmiel, with their brethren over against them,
to praise and to give thanks, according to the commandment of David the man of God, ward over against ward;
Mattaniah, and Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, Akkub, were porters keeping the ward at the thresholds of the gates. These were in the days of Joiakim the son of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the governor, and of Ezra the priest, the scribe.

And at the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem they sought the Levites out of all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem, to keep the dedication with gladness, both with thanksgivings, and with singing, with cymbals, psalteries, and with harps. And the sons of the singers gathered themselves together, both out of the plain country round about Jerusalem, and from the villages of Netophathi; also from the house of Gilgal, and out of the fields of Geba and Azmaveth: for the singers had builded them villages round about Jerusalem.

And the priests and the Levites purified themselves, and purified the people, and the gates, and the wall. Then I brought up the princes of Judah upon the wall, and appointed two great companies of them that gave thanks, whereof one went on the right hand upon the wall toward the dung gate: and after them went Hoshaiah, and half of the princes of Judah, and Azariah, Ezra, and Meshullam, Judah, and Benjamin, and Shemaiah, and Jeremiah, and certain of the priests' sons with trumpets; namely, Zechariah the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Matta-niah, the son of Michaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph: and his brethren, Shemaiah, and Azarael, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethaneel, and Judah, Hanani, with the musical instruments of David the man of God, and Ezra the scribe before them. And at the fountain gate, which was over against them, they went up by the stairs of the city of David, at the going up of the wall, above the house of David, even unto the water gate eastward. And the other company of them that gave thanks went over against them, and I after them, and the half of the people upon the wall, from beyond the tower of the furnaces even unto the broad wall; and from above the gate of Ephraim, and above the old gate, and above the fish gate, and the tower of Hananeel, and the tower of Meah, even unto the sheep gate: and they stood still in the prison gate. So stood the two companies of them that gave wives also and the children rejoiced: so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard even afar off.

^uAnd at that time were some appointed over the ^wchambers for the treasures, for the offerings, for the firstfruits, and for the tithes, to gather into them out of the fields of the cities the portions ^lof the law for the priests and Levites: ^tfor Judah rejoiced for the priests and for the Levites ^tthat waited. And both the singers and the porters kept the ward of their God, and the ward of the purification, ^aaccording to the commandment of David, and of Solomon his son. For in the days of David and ^yAsaph of old ^{there were} chief of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving unto God. And all Israel in the days of ^zZerubbabel, and in the days of Nehemiah, gave the portions of the singers and the porters, ^aevery day his portion: and ^bthey sanctified holy things unto the Levites: and ^kthe Levites sanctified them unto the children of Aaron.

XIII. On that day ^athey read in the book of Moses in the ^taudience of the people: and therein was found written, ^bthat the Ammonite and the Moabite should not come into the congregation of God for ever; because they met not the children of Israel with bread and with water, but ^chired Balaam against them, that he should curse them: ^dhowbeit our God turned the curse into a blessing. Now it came to pass, when they had heard the law, ^ethat they separated from Israel all ^fthe mixed multitude.

And before this, ^gEliashib the priest, ^thaving the oversight of the chamber of the house of our God, was allied unto ^hTobiah: and he had prepared for him a great chamber, ⁱwhere aforetime they laid the meat offerings, the frankincense, and the vessels, and the tithes of the corn, the new wine, and the oil, ^twhich was commanded to be given to the Levites, and the singers, and the porters; and the offerings of the priests. But in all this time was not I at Jerusalem: for in the ^ktwo and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes ^lking of Babylon came I unto the king, and ^tafter certain days ^lobtained I leave of the king: and I came to Jerusalem, and understood of the evil that ^gEliashib did for ^hTobiah, ^min preparing him ⁿa chamber in the courts of the house of God. And it grieved me sore: therefore I cast forth all the household stuff of Tobiah out of the chamber. Then I commanded, and they ^ocleansed the chambers: and thither brought I again ^mthe vessels of the house of God, with the meat offering and the frankincense.

And I perceived that ^pthe portions of the Levites had not been given them: for the Levites and the singers, that did the work, were fled every one to ^qhis field. Then ^rcontended I with the rulers, and said, Why is ^sthe house of God forsaken? And I gathered them together, and set them in their ^tplace. Then brought all Judah ^tthe tithe of the corn and the new wine and the oil unto the ^utreasuries. And ^uI made treasurers over the ^utreasuries, ^xShelemiah the priest, and ^yZadok the scribe, and of the Levites, ^zPedaiah: and ^tnext to them was ^aHanan the son of ^bZacchar, the son of Mattaniah: for they were counted ^cfaithful, and ^ttheir office was to distribute unto their brethren. ^dRemember me, O my God, concerning this, and wipe not out my ^tgood deeds that I have done for the house of my God, and for the ^uoffices thereof.

In those days saw I in Judah some treading wine presses ^eon the sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and lading asses; as also wine, grapes, and figs, and all manner of burdens, ^fwhich they brought into Jerusalem on the sabbath day: and I testified ^gagainst them in the day wherein they sold victuals. There dwelt men of ^hTyre also therein, which brought fish, and all manner of ware, and sold on the sabbath unto the children of Judah, and in Jerusalem. Then ⁱI contended with the nobles of Judah, and said unto them, What evil thing is this that ye do, and profane the sabbath day? ^kDid not your fathers thus, and did not our God bring all this evil upon us, and upon this city? yet ye bring more wrath upon Israel by profaning the sabbath. And it came to pass, that when the gates of Jerusalem began to be dark before the sabbath, I commanded that the gates should be shut, and charged that they should not be opened till after the sabbath: and some of my servants set I at the gates, that there should no burden be brought in on the sabbath day. So the merchants and sellers of all kind of ware lodged without Jerusalem once or twice. Then I testified against them, and said unto them, Why lodge ye ^tabout the

THE BOOK OF ESTHER.

I. NOW it came to pass in the days of ^aAhasuerus, (this is Ahasuerus which reigned, from ^bIndia even unto ^cEthiopia, over ^dan hundred and seven and twenty ^eprovinces:) that in those days, when the king Ahasuerus ^fsat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in ^gShushan the palace, in the third year of his reign, he ^hmade a feast unto all his princes and his servants; the power of Persia and Media, the ⁱnobles and princes of the provinces, being before him: when he shewed the riches of his glorious kingdom and the honour of his excellent majesty many days, even an hundred and fourscore days. And when these days were expired, the king made a feast unto all the people that were ^jpresent in Shushan the palace, both unto great and small, seven days, in the court of ^kthe garden of the king's palace; where were white, green, and ^lblue hangings, fastened with cords of ^mfine linen and purple to silver rings and pillars of marble: ⁿthe beds were of gold and silver, upon a pavement ^oof red, and blue, and white, and black marble. And they gave them drink in vessels of gold, (the vessels being diverse one from another,) and ^proyal wine in abundance, ^qaccording to the state of the king. And the drinking was according to the law; none did compel: for so the king had appointed to all the officers of his house, that they should do according to every man's pleasure. Also Vashti the queen made ^ra feast for the women in the royal house which belonged to king Ahasuerus.

On the seventh day, when ^sthe heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, ^tHarbona, ^uBigtha, and Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas, the seven ^vchamberlains that served in the presence of Ahasuerus the king, to bring Vashti the queen his empire, (for it is great.) all the wives shall ²give to their husbands honour. ^aboth to great and small. And ²¹the saying ¹pleased the king and the princes; and the king did according to the word of Memucan: for he sent let- ²²ters into all the king's provinces, into ^bevery province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language, that every man should bear rule in his own house, and [†]that it should be published according to the language of every people.

After these things, when the wrath of king Ahasuerus was appeased, he remembered Vashti, and what she had done, and what was ^adecreed against her. Then said the king's servants that ministered unto him, Let there be fair young virgins sought for the king: and let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather together all the fair young virgins unto Shushan the palace, to the house of the women, [†]unto the custody of ¹Hege the king's chamberlain, keeper of the women; and let their ^bthings for purification be given them: and let the maiden which pleaseth the king be queen instead of Vashti. And the thing pleased the king; and he did so.

Now in Shushan the palace there was ^ca certain Jew, whose name was ^cMordecai, the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, ^da Benjamite; who ^ehad been carried away from Jerusalem with the captivity which had been carried away with ¹Jecooniah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away. And ⁷he [†]brought up Hadassah, that is, Esther, [†]his uncle's daughter: for she had neither father nor mother, and the maid was [†]fair and beautiful; whom Mordecai, when her father and mother were dead, took for his own daughter. So ⁸it came to pass, when the king's commandment and his decree was heard, and when many maidens ^gwere gathered together unto Shushan the palace, to the custody of Hegai, that Esther was brought also unto the king's house, to the custody of Hegai, keeper of the women. And the maiden pleased him, ⁹and she ^hobtained kindness of him; and he speedily gave her her ⁱthings for purification, with [†]such things as belonged to her, and seven maidens, which were meet to be given her, out of the king's house: and [†]he preferred her and her maids unto the best place of the [†]house of the women. ^kEsther had not shewed her people nor her kindred: for Mordecai had charged her that she should not shew it. And Mordecai walked every day before the court of the women's house, [†]to know how Esther did, and what should become of her. Now when every maid's turn was come to go in to king Ahasuerus, after that she had been twelve months, according to the manner of the women, (for so were the days of their purifications accomplished, to wit, six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with sweet odours, and with other things for the purifying of the women;) then thus came every maiden unto the king; whatsoever she desired was given her to go with her out of the house of the women unto the king's house. In the evening she went, and on the morrow she returned into the second house of the women, to the custody of Shaashgaz, the king's chamberlain, which kept the concubines: she came in unto the king no more, except the king delighted in her, and that she were called by name. Now when the turn of Esther, [†]the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her for his daughter, was come to go in unto the king, she required nothing but what Hegai the king's chamberlain, the keeper of the women, appointed. And Esther obtained favour in the sight of all them that looked upon her. So Esther was taken unto king Ahasuerus into his house royal in the tenth month, which is the month Tebeth, in the seventh ¹⁷year of his reign. And the king loved Esther above all the women, and she obtained grace and [†]favour [†]in his sight more than all the virgins; so that he set the royal crown upon her head, and made her queen instead of Vashti. ¹⁸Then the king ^mmade a great feast unto all his princes and his servants, even Esther's feast; and he made a [†]release to the provinces, and ⁿgave gifts, ^oaccording to the state of the king. ¹⁹And when the virgins were gathered together ^pthe second time, then Mordecai sat ^qin the king's gate. [†]Esther had not yet shewed her kindred nor her people; as Mordecai had charged her: for

In those days, while Mordecai sat in the king's gate, two of the king's chamberlains, ¹Bigthan and ²Teresh, of those which kept ³the door, were wroth, and sought to lay hand on the king Ahasuerus. And the thing was known to ²²Mordecai, ²³who told it unto Esther the queen; and Esther certified the king, thereof in Mordecai's name. And when ²³inquisition was made of the matter, it was found out; therefore they were both hanged on a tree: and it was written in ²⁴the book of the chronicles before the king.

After these things did king Ahasuerus ¹promote Haman the son of Hammedatha the ²Agagite, and ³advanced him, and set his seat above all the princes that were with him. And all the king's ²servants, that were ³in the king's gate, bowed, and revered Haman: for the king had so commanded concerning him. But Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence. Then the king's servants, ³which were ⁴in the king's gate, said unto Mordecai, Why transgressest thou the ⁴king's commandment? Now it came ⁴to pass, when they spake daily unto him, and he hearkened not unto them, that they told Haman, to see whether Mordecai's matters would stand; for he had told them that he was a Jew. And ⁵when Haman saw that Mordecai ⁶bowed not, nor did him reverence, then was Haman ⁶full of wrath. And he thought ⁶scorn to lay hands on Mordecai alone; for they had shewed him the people of Mordecai: wherefore Haman sought to destroy all the Jews that were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus, even the people of Mordecai.

When Mordecai perceived all that was done, Mordecai ¹rent his clothes, and put on ²sackcloth with ³ashes, and went out into the midst of the city, and cried ²with a loud and a bitter cry; and came ³even before the king's gate: for none might enter into the king's gate clothed ³with sackcloth. And in every province, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, there was great mourning among the Jews, and ⁴fasting, and weeping, and wailing; and ⁵many lay in ⁶sackcloth and ⁷ashes. So Esther's maids and her ⁸chamberlains came and told it her. Then was the queen exceedingly grieved; and she sent raiment to clothe Mordecai, and to take away his sackcloth from him: but he received it not. Then called Esther for ⁵Hatach, one of the king's chamberlains, ⁶whom he had appointed to attend upon her, and gave him a commandment to Mordecai, to know what it was, and why it was. So Hatach went forth to Mordeccai unto the street of the city, which was before the king's gate. And Mordec-⁷cai told him of all that had happened unto him, and of ⁶the sum of the money that Haman had promised to pay to the king's treasuries for the Jews, to destroy them. Also he gave him ⁸the copy of the writing of the decree that was given at Shushan to destroy them, to shew it unto Esther, and to declare it unto her, and to charge her that she should go in unto the king, to make supplication unto him, and to make request before him for her people. And Hatach came and told Esther the words of Mordec-⁹cai. Again ¹⁰Esther spake unto Hatach, and gave him commandment unto Mordec-¹¹cai: All the king's servants, and the people of the king's provinces, do know, that whosoever, whether man or woman, shall come unto the king into ¹²the inner court, who is not called, ¹³there is one law of his to put him to death, except such to whom ¹⁴the king shall hold out the golden sceptre, that he may live: but I have not been called to come in unto the king these thirty days. And they told to Mordec-¹⁵cai Esther's words. Then Mordec-¹⁶cai commanded to answer Esther, Think not with thyself that thou shalt escape in the king's house, more than all the Jews. For if thou altogether holdest thy peace at this time, ¹⁷then shall there ¹⁸enlargement and deliverance arise to the Jews from another place; but thou and thy father's house shall be destroyed: and who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this? Then Esther bade them return Mordec-¹⁹cai this answer: Go, gather to-²⁰gether all the Jews that are ²¹present in Shushan, and fast ye for me, and neither eat nor drink ²²three days, night or day; I also and my maidens will fast like-²³wise: and so will I go in unto the king, which is not according to the law: and ²⁴if I perish, I perish. So Mordec-²⁵cai ²⁶went his way, and did according to all that Esther had commanded him.

V. Now it came to pass ²⁷on the third day, that Esther put on her royal ap-²⁸parel, and stood in ²⁹the inner court of the king's house, over against the king's house: and the king sat upon his royal throne in the royal house, over against the gate of the house. And it was so, ³⁰when the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, that ³¹she obtained favour in his sight: and ³²the king held out to Esther the golden sceptre that was in his hand. So Esther drew near, and touched the top of the sceptre. ³³Then said the king unto her, What wilt thou, queen Esther? and what is thy request? it shall be even given thee ³⁴to the half of the kingdom. And Esther answered, If it seem good unto the king, let the king and Haman come this day unto the banquet that I have prepared ³⁵for him. Then the king said, Cause Haman to make haste, that he may do as Esther hath said. So the king and Haman came to the banquet that Esther ³⁶had prepared. ³⁷And the king said unto Esther at the banquet of wine, ³⁸What is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request? even ³⁹to the half of the kingdom it shall be per-⁴⁰formed. Then answered Esther, and ⁴¹said, My petition and my request is: ⁴²if I have found favour in the sight of the king, and if it please the king to grant my petition, and ⁴³to perform my request, let the king and Haman come to the ban-⁴⁴quet that I shall prepare for them, and I will do to morrow as the king hath said. ⁴⁵Then went Haman forth that day joy-⁴⁶ful and with a ⁴⁷glad heart: but when Ha-⁴⁸man saw Mordec-⁴⁹cai in the king's gate, ⁵⁰that he stood not up, nor moved for him, he was full of indignation against Mordec-⁵¹cai. Nevertheless Haman ⁵²re-⁵³frained himself: and when he came home, he sent and ⁵⁴called for his friends. ⁵⁵and ⁵⁶Zeresh his wife. And Haman told them of the glory of his riches, and ⁵⁷the multitude of his children, and all the things wherein the king had ⁵⁸promoted him, and how he had ⁵⁹advanced him above the princes and servants of the ⁶⁰king. Haman said moreover, Yea, Es-⁶¹ther the queen did let no man come in with the king unto the banquet that she had prepared but myself: and to morrow ⁶²am I ⁶³invited unto her also with the ⁶⁴king. Yet all this availeth me nothing, so long as I see Mordec-⁶⁵cai the Jew sit-⁶⁶ting at the king's gate. Then said ⁶⁷Zeresh his wife and all his friends unto him, Let a ⁶⁸gallows be made of fifty cu-⁶⁹bits high, and to morrow speak thou unto the king that Mordec-⁷⁰cai may be hanged thereon: then go thou in merrily with the king unto the banquet. And the thing pleased Haman; and he caused the gallows to be made.

On that night [†]could not the king sleep, and he commanded to bring ^athe book of records of the chronicles; and they were read before the king. And it ²was found written, that Mordecai had told of [†]Bigthana and [†]Teresh, two of the king's chamberlains, the keepers of the [†]door, who sought to lay hand on the king Ahasuerus. And the king said, ³What ^chonour and ^cdignity hath been done to Mordecai for this? Then said the king's servants that ministered unto him, There is nothing done for him. And the king said, Who is in the court? ⁴Now Haman was come into ^dthe outward court of the king's house, ^eto speak unto the king to hang Mordecai on the gallows that he had prepared for him. And the king's servants said unto ⁵him, Behold, Haman standeth in the court. And the king said, Let him come in. So Haman came in. And ⁶the king said unto him, What shall be done unto the man [†]whom the king delighteth to honour? Now Haman thought in his heart, To whom would the king delight to do honour more than to myself? And Haman answered the king, ⁷For the man [†]whom the king delighteth to honour, [†]let the royal apparel be brought [†]which the king useth to wear, and [†]the horse that the king rideth upon, and the crown royal which is set upon his head: and let this apparel ⁹and horse be delivered to the hand of one of the king's most [§]noble princes, that they may array the man withal whom the king delighteth to honour, and [†]bring him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaim before him, Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delighteth to honour. Then the ¹⁰king said to Haman, Make haste, and take the apparel and the horse, as thou hast said, and do even so to Mordecai the Jew, that sitteth at the king's gate: [†]let nothing fail of all that thou hast spoken. Then took Haman the apparel ¹¹and the horse, and arrayed Mordecai, and brought him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaimed before him, Thus shall it be done unto the man whom the king delighteth to honour. And Mordecai came again to ¹²the king's gate. But Haman [†]hasted to his house mourning, and [†]having his head covered. And Haman told [†]Ze- ¹³resh his wife and all his friends [†]every thing that had befallen him. Then said his wise men and Zeresh his wife unto him, If Mordecai be of the seed of the Jews, before whom thou hast begun to fall, thou shalt not prevail against him, ¹⁴but shalt surely fall before him. And while they were yet talking with him, came the king's chamberlains, and ^mhasted to bring Haman unto ⁿthe banquet that Esther had prepared.

So the king and Haman came [†]to ²banquet with Esther the queen. And the king said again unto Esther on the second day at the banquet of wine, ^aWhat is thy petition, queen Esther? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request? and it shall be performed, ³*even* to the half of the kingdom. Then Esther the queen answered and said, ^bIf I have found favour in thy sight, O king, and if it please the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my ⁴people at my request: for we are ^csold, I and my people, [†]to be destroyed, to be slain, and to perish. But if we had been sold for bondmen and bondwomen, I had held my tongue, although the enemy could not countervail the king's ⁵damage. Then the king Ahasuerus answered and said unto Esther the queen, Who is he, and where is he, [†]that durst ⁶presume in his heart to do so? And Esther said, [†]The adversary and enemy is this wicked Haman. Then Haman ^dwas afraid [†]before the king and the ⁷queen. And the king arising from the banquet of wine in his wrath went into ^ethe palace garden: and Haman stood up to make request for his life to Esther the queen; for he saw that there was ^fevil determined against him by the ⁸king. Then the king returned out of ^ethe palace garden into the place of the banquet of wine; and Haman was fallen upon [§]the bed whereon Esther was. Then said the king, Will he force the queen also [†]before me in the house? As the word went out of the king's mouth, they covered Haman's face. ⁹And [†]Harbonah, one of the chamberlains, said before the king, Behold also, the [†]gallows fifty cubits high, which Haman had made for Mordecai, [†]who had spoken good for the king, standeth in the house of Haman. Then the king ¹⁰said, Hang him thereon. So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then [†]was the king's wrath pacified.

On that day did the king Ahasuerus give the house of Haman the Jews' enemy unto Esther the queen. And Mordecai came before the king; for Esther had told ^awhat he was unto her. And the king took off ^bhis ring, ² which he had taken from Haman, and gave it unto Mordecai. And Esther set Mordecai over the house of Haman. And Esther spake yet again before the king, and fell down at his feet, ³ and besought him with tears to put away the mischief of Haman the ^cAgagite, and his device that he had devised against the Jews. Then ^dthe king held ⁴ out the golden sceptre toward Esther. So Esther arose, and stood before the king, and said, If it please the king, and if I have found favour in his sight, and the thing ^eseem right before the king, and I be pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to reverse the letters ^fdevised by Haman the son of Hammedatha the ^cAgagite, ⁵ which he wrote to destroy the Jews which are in all the king's provinces: for how can I ⁶ endure to see ^fthe evil that shall ^gcome unto my people? or how can I ^hendure to see the destruction of my kindred? Then the king Ahasuerus said unto Esther the queen and to Mordecai the Jew, Behold, ^hI have given Esther the house of Haman, and him they have hanged upon the gallows, because he laid his hand upon the Jews. Write ye ⁸ also for the Jews, as it liketh you, ⁱin the king's name, and seal it with the king's ring: for the writing which is written in the king's name, and sealed with the king's ring, ^kmay no man reverse. ⁹ Then were the king's scribes called at that time in the third month, that is, the month ^mSivan, on the three and twentieth day thereof; and it was written according to all that Mordecai commanded unto the Jews, and to the ⁿlieutenants, and the ^odeputies and rulers of the provinces which are from ^pIndia unto Ethiopia, ^pan hundred twenty and seven provinces, unto every province ^qaccording to the writing thereof, and unto every people after their language, and to the Jews according to their writing, and according to their language. ^rAnd he wrote ⁱin the king ¹⁰ Ahasuerus' name, and sealed it with the king's ring, and sent letters by posts on horseback, and riders on ^smules, ^tcamels, and young dromedaries: ^rwhere- ¹¹ in the king granted the Jews which were in every city to gather themselves together, and to stand for their life, to destroy, to slay, and to cause to perish, all the power of the people and province that would assault them, both little ones and women, and ^uto take ¹² the spoil of them for a prey, ^xupon one day in all the provinces of king Ahasuerus, namely, upon the thirteenth ^yday of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar. ^yThe copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province was [†]published unto all people, and that the Jews should be ready against that day to avenge themselves ¹⁴ on their enemies. So the posts that rode upon ^smules and ^tcamels went out, being hastened and pressed on by the king's commandment, and the decree ¹⁵ was given at Shushan the palace. And Mordecai went out from the presence of the king ^zin royal apparel of [†]blue and white, and with a great crown of gold, and with a garment of ^afine linen and ^bpurple: and ^cthe city of Shushan ¹⁶ rejoiced and was glad. The Jews had ^dlight, and gladness, and joy, and honour. And in every province, and in every city, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, the Jews had joy and gladness, a feast and ^ea good day. And many of the people of the land became Jews; for ^fthe fear of the Jews fell upon them.

Now ^ain the twelfth month, that is, the month Adar, on the thirteenth day of the same, when ^bthe king's commandment and his decree drew near to be put in execution, in the day that the enemies of the Jews hoped to have power over them, (though it was turned to the contrary, that the Jews had rule ² over them that hated them;) the Jews ^cgathered themselves together in their cities throughout all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, to lay hand on such as ^dsought their hurt: and no man could withstand them; for ^ethe fear of them fell upon all people. And all the rulers of the provinces, and the ^flieutenants, and the ^gdeputies, and [†]officers of the king, helped the Jews; because the fear of Mordecai fell upon them. For Mordecai was great in the king's house, and his fame went out throughout all the provinces: for this man Mordecai ^hwaxed greater and greater. ⁵ Thus the Jews smote all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and slaughter, and destruction, and did [†]what they would unto those that hated them. And in Shushan the palace the Jews ⁶slew and destroyed five hundred men. And Parshandatha, and Dalphon, and ⁷Aspatha, and Poratha, and Adalia, and ⁸Aridatha, and Parmashta, and Arisai, ⁹and Aridai, and Vajezatha, ⁱthe ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews, slew them; but ^kon the spoil laid they not their hand.

On that day the number of those ¹¹that were slain in Shushan the palace [†]was brought before the king. And the ¹²king said unto Esther the queen, The Jews have slain and destroyed five hundred men in Shushan the palace, and the ten sons of Haman; what have they done in the rest of the king's provinces? now what is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: or ¹what is thy request further? and it shall be done. Then ¹³said Esther, If it please the king, let it be granted to the Jews which are in Shushan to do ^mto morrow also according unto this day's decree, and [†]let Haman's ten sons be hanged upon the gallows. And the king commanded ¹⁴it so to be done: and the decree was given at Shushan; and they hanged Haman's ten sons. For the Jews that ¹⁵were in Shushan ⁿgathered themselves together on the fourteenth day also of the month Adar, and slew three hundred men at Shushan; but ^oon the prey they laid not their hand. But the other ¹⁶Jews ^pthat were in the king's provinces ⁿgathered themselves together, and stood for their lives, and had rest from their enemies, and slew of their foes seventy and five thousand, but ^othey laid not their hands on the prey, on the thirteenth day of the month Adar; and on the fourteenth day [†]of the same rested they, and made it a day of feasting and gladness. But the Jews that were ¹⁸at Shushan assembled together ^qon the thirteenth day thereof, and on the fourteenth thereof; and on the fifteenth day of the same they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness. There-¹⁹fore the Jews ^rof the villages, that dwelt in the ^sunwalled towns, made the fourteenth day of the month Adar a day of gladness and feasting, and [†]a good day, and of ^usending portions one to another.

sent letters unto all the Jews that were in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, ²¹both nigh and far, to ^westablish this among them, that they should keep the ^xfourteenth day of the month Adar, and the fifteenth day of the same, yearly, ²²as the days wherein the Jews rested from their enemies, and the month which was turned unto them from sorrow to joy, and from mourning into [†]a good day: that they should make them days of feasting and joy, and of ^ysending portions one to another, and ^ygifts ^rto the poor. And the Jews ^zundertook to do as they had begun, and as Mordecai had written unto them; because Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, ^ahad devised against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast Pur, that is, the lot, to [†]consume them, and to ²⁵destroy them; but [†]when ^bEsther came before the king, he commanded by letters that his wicked device, which he devised against the Jews, should ^creturn upon his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows. Wherefore they called these days Purim after the name of [†]Pur. Therefore for all the words of ^dthis letter, and of that which they had seen concerning this matter, and which had come unto ²⁷them, the Jews ^wordained, and ^ztook upon them, and upon their seed, and upon all such as ^cjoined themselves unto them, so as it should not [†]fail, that they would keep [†]these two days according to their writing, and according to their appointed time every year; ²⁸and that these days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and that these days of Purim should not [†]fail from among the Jews, nor the memorial of them [†]perish from ²⁹their seed. Then Esther the queen, ^zthe daughter of Abihail, and Mordecai the Jew, wrote with [†]all authority, to ^wconfirm this ^bsecond letter of Purim. ³⁰And he sent the letters unto all the Jews, to ⁱthe hundred twenty and seven provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, ³¹with words of peace and truth, to ^wconfirm these days of Purim in their times appointed, according as Mordecai the Jew and Esther the queen had ^wenjoined them, and as they had ^wdecreed [†]for themselves and for their seed, the matters of ^kthe fastings and their cry.

[Moses is thought to have wrote the Book of Job, whilst among the Madianites, before Christ about 1520.]

THE BOOK OF JOB.

I. THERE was a man in the land of ^aUz, whose name was ^bJob; and that man was ^cperfect and upright, and one that ^dfeared God, and ^eeschewed evil. And there were born unto him seven sons and three daughters. His ^fsubstance also was seven thousand sheep, and three thousand camels, and five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred she asses, and a very great ^ghousehold; so that this man was the greatest of all the ^hmen of the east. And his sons went and ⁱfeasted in their houses, every one his day; and sent and ^jcalled for their three sisters to eat and to drink with them. And it was so, when the days of ^ktheir feasting were gone about, that Job sent and sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning, and ^loffered burnt offerings according to the number of them all: for Job said, It may be that my sons have sinned, and ^mcursed God in their hearts. Thus did Job ⁿcontinually.

Now ^othere was a day when ^pthe sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and ^qSatan came also ^ramong them. And the LORD said unto Satan, Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, ^sFrom going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it. And the LORD said unto Satan, ^tHast thou considered my servant Job, that ^uthere is none like him in the earth, ^vma perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil? Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, Doth Job fear God for nought? Hast not thou ^wmade a hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath on every side? ^xthou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his ^ysubstance ^zis increased in the land. ^{aa}But put forth thine hand now, and touch all that he hath, and he will curse thee to thy face. And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, all that he hath is in thy power; only upon himself put not forth thine hand. So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD.

And there was a day when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house: and there came a messenger unto Job, and said, The oxen were plowing, and the asses feeding beside them: and the Sabeans fell upon them, and took them away; yea, they have slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee. While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The fire of God is fallen from heaven, and hath burnt up the sheep, and the servants, and consumed them; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee. While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The Chaldeans made out three bands, and fell upon the camels, and have carried them away, yea, and slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee. While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, Thy sons and thy daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house: and behold, there came a great wind from the wilderness, and smote the four corners of the house, and it fell upon the young men, and they are dead; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee. Then Job arose, and rent his mantle, and shaved his head, and fell down upon the ground, and worshipped, and said, Naked came I out of my mother's womb, And naked shall I return thither: The LORD gave, and the LORD hath taken away; Blessed be the name of the LORD.

^a See ch. 1. 6. Again ^athere was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan came also among them to present himself before the LORD. ^bAnd the LORD said unto ² Satan, From whence comest thou? And Satan answered the LORD, and said,
 From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it. ^cAnd ³
 the LORD said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil? and still he ^dholdeth fast his ^eintegrity, although thou movedst me against him, ^tto destroy him ^fwithout cause. And Satan answer- ⁴ ed the LORD, and said, Skin for skin, yea, all that a man hath will he give for his life. ^gBut put forth thine hand now, ⁵ and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will ^hcurse thee to thy face. ⁱAnd the ⁶ LORD said unto Satan, Behold, he is in thine hand; ^jbut save his life. So went ⁷ Satan forth from the presence of the LORD, and smote Job with sore ^jboils ^kfrom the sole of his foot unto his crown.
 And he took him a potsherd to scrape ⁸ himself withal; ^land he sat down among the ashes. Then said his wife unto him, ⁹ ^mDost thou still ⁿretain thine integrity?
^hcurse God, and die. But he said unto ¹⁰ her, Thou speakest as ^oone of the foolish women speaketh. What? ^pshall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil? ^qIn all this did not Job ^rsin with his lips.

Now when Job's three friends heard ¹¹ of all this evil that was come upon him, they came every one from his own place;
 Eliphaz the ^sTemanite, and Bildad the ^tShuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite:
 for they had ^umade an appointment together to come ^vto mourn with him and to comfort him. And when they lift ¹² up their eyes afar off, and knew him not, they lifted up their voice, and wept; and they ^wrent every one his mantle, and sprinkled ^xdust upon their heads toward heaven. So they sat down with him ¹³ upon the ground ^yseven days and seven nights, and none spake a word unto him: for they saw that his grief was very great.

III. After this opened Job his mouth, and ² cursed his day. And Job ^tspake, and said,

³ ^aLet the day perish wherein I was born,
 And the night in which it was said,
 There is a man child conceived.

⁴ Let that day be darkness;
 Let not God regard it from above,
 Neither let the light shine upon it.

⁵ Let darkness and ^bthe shadow of death ^cstain it;
 Let a cloud dwell upon it;
^dLet the blackness of the day terrify it.

⁶ As for that night, let darkness seize upon it;
^eLet it not be joined unto the days of the year,
 Let it not come into the number of the months.

⁷ Lo, let that night be ^dsolitary,
 Let no ^ejoyful voice come therein.

⁸ Let them curse it that curse the day,
 Who are ready to raise up ^ftheir mourning.

⁹ Let the stars of the twilight thereof be dark;
 Let it look for light, but have none;
 Neither let it see ^gthe dawning of the day:

¹⁰ Because it shut not up the doors of my mother's womb,
 Nor hid sorrow from mine eyes.

¹¹ ^hWhy died I not from the womb?
ⁱWhy did I ^gnot give up the ghost
 when I came out of the belly?

¹² Why did ^hthe knees prevent me?
 Or why the breasts that I should suck?

¹³ For now should I have lien still and been quiet,
 I should have slept: then had I been
 at rest,

¹⁴ With kings and counsellors of the earth,
 Which built desolate places for themselves;

¹⁵ Or with princes that had gold,
 Who filled their houses with silver:

¹⁶ Or as a hidden ⁱuntimely birth I had not been;
 As infants which never saw light.

¹⁷ There the wicked cease from troubling;
 And there the ^jweary be at rest.

16 [†]An image was before mine eyes,
[°]There was silence, and I heard a voice, saying,

17 [°]Shall mortal man be more just than God?

Shall a man be more pure than his Maker?

18 Behold, he [†]put no trust in his servants;

[°]And his angels [°]he charged with folly:

19 [°]How much less in them that dwell
in [†]houses of clay,

Whose foundation is in [°]the dust,
Which are crushed before [°]the moth?

20 [°]They are [†]destroyed from morning to evening:

They perish for ever without any [°]regarding it.

21 [°]Doth not their excellency which is in them go away?

[°]They die, even without wisdom.

[°]Comp. Isai. 42. 25. & 57. 1 in the Heb.
[°]ch. 36. 12. [†]Ps. 49. 20. [†]Prov. 5. 23.

Call now, if there be any that will answer thee;

And to which of the [°]saints wilt thou
[†]turn?

2 For [°]wrath killeth the foolish man,
And [°]envy slayeth the silly one.

3 [°]I have seen the foolish taking root:
But suddenly I cursed his habitation.

4 [°]His children are far from safety,
And they are crushed [°]in the gate,

[°]neither is there any to deliver them.

Whose harvest the hungry eateth up,
And taketh it even out of ^gthe thorns,
And the robber swalloweth up their ^hsubstance.

Although ⁱaffliction cometh not forth of the dust,
Neither doth trouble spring out of the ground;
Yet man is ^jborn unto ^ktrouble,
As ^lthe sparks fly upward.
I would seek unto God,
And unto God would I commit my cause:

^mWhich doeth great things ⁿand un-searchable;
Marvellous things ^owithout number:
^pWho giveth rain upon the earth,
And sendeth waters upon the ^qfields:
^rTo set up on high those that be low;

That those which ^smourn may be exalted to safety.

He ^tdisappointeth the devices of the crafty,
So that their hands ^ucannot perform their enterprise.

^vHe taketh the wise in their ^wown craftiness:

And the counsel of the ^xprfroward is carried headlong.

They ^ymeet with darkness in the daytime,

And ^zgrope in the noonday as in the night.

But ^{aa}he saveth the poor from the sword,

From their mouth, and from the hand of the mighty.

So the poor hath hope,
And ^{ab}iniquity stoppeth her mouth.

Behold, ^{ac}happy is the man whom ^{ad}
God correcteth:

Therefore ^{ae}despise not thou the chastening of ^{af}the Almighty:

For he maketh sore, and bindeth up: ^{ag} ^{ah}He woundeth, and his hands make whole.

^{ai}He shall deliver thee in ^{aj}six troubles:

Yea, in ^{ak}seven ^{al}there shall no evil touch thee.

^{am}In famine he shall redeem thee from death:

And in war ^{an}from the power of the sword.

^{ao}Thou shalt be hid ^{ap}from the scourge of the tongue:

Neither shalt thou be afraid of destruction when it cometh.

At destruction and ^{aq}famine thou shalt ^{ar}laugh:

^{as}Neither shalt thou be afraid of the beasts of the earth.

For thou shalt be ^{at}in league with the stones of the field:

And ^{au}the beasts of the field shall be at peace with thee.

And thou shalt know ^{av}that thy tabernacle shall be in peace;

And thou shalt visit thy habitation,
and shalt not ^{aw}sin.

Thou shalt know also that ^{ax}thy seed shall be ^{ay}great,

And thine ^{az}offspring ^{ba}as the grass of the earth.

Thou shalt come to ^{bb}thy grave in ^{bc}a

Like as ^{bd}a shock of corn ^{be}cometh in in his season.

Lo this, we have searched it, so it ^{bf}is;
Hear it, and know thou ^{bg}it ^{bh}for thy good.

But Job answered and said,

Oh that my ^{bi}grief were thoroughly weighed,

And my ^{bj}calamity ^{bk}laid in the balances together!

For now it would be heavier than ^{bl}the sand of the sea:

Therefore ^{bm}my words ^{bn}are swallowed up.

For ^{bo}the arrows of the Almighty ^{bp}are within me,

The poison whereof drinketh up my spirit:

^{bq}The terrors of God do set themselves in array ^{br}against me.

Doth the ^{bs}wild ass bray ^{bt}when he hath grass?

Or loweth the ox over his ^{bu}fodder?

Can that which is unsavoury be eaten without salt?

Or is there ^{bv}any taste in the white of an egg?

Are as my sorrowful meat.

Because our days upon earth are ^{ja} shadow:)

10 Shall not they teach thee, and tell thee,
And utter words out of their heart?

11 Can the ^krush grow up without mire?
Can the ^lflag grow without water?

12 ^mWhilst it is yet in his greenness, and not cut down,

It withereth before any other herb.

13 So are the paths of all that forget God;
And the ⁿhypocrite's hope shall perish:

14 Whose hope shall be cut off,
And whose trust shall be ^ta spider's web.

15 He shall lean upon ^ohis house, but it shall not stand:

He shall hold it fast, but it shall not endure.

16 He is ^pgreen before the sun.
And his ^qbranch shooteth forth in his garden,

17 His roots are ^rwrapped about the heap,
And seeth the place of stones.

18 If he destroy him ^sfrom his place, Then it shall deny him, ^tsaying, I have not seen thee.

19 Behold, this is the joy of his way,
And ^uout of the earth shall others grow.

20 Behold, God will not cast away a perfect man,

Neither will he ^vhelp the evil doers:

21 Till he ^xfill thy mouth with laughing,
And thy lips with rejoicing.

22 They that hate thee shall be ^yclothed with shame;

And the ^zdwelling place of the wicked ^zshall come to nought.

Then Job answered and said,

2 I know ^a*it is* so ^bof a truth:
But ^chow should man be just ^dwith
God?

3 If he will contend with him,
He cannot answer him one of a thousand.

He is ^dwise in heart, and mighty in strength:

Who hath hardened ^ehimself against him, and hath prospered?

Which removeth the mountains, and they know not:

Which overturneth them in his anger.

Which ^fshaketh the earth out of her place,

And ^gthe pillars thereof tremble.

Which commandeth the sun, and it riseth not;

And sealeth up the stars.

Which alone ^hspreadeth out the heavens,

And treadeth upon the ⁱwaves of the sea.

^jWhich maketh ^kArcturus, ^lOrion, And ^mPleiades, and the chambers of the south.

ⁿWhich doeth great things past finding out;

Yea, and wonders without number.

Lo, he goeth by me, and ^oI see him not: ^pHe passeth on also, ^qbut I perceive him not.

Behold, he taketh away, ^rwho can hinder him?

^sWho will say unto him, What doest thou?

If God will not withdraw his anger, The ^tproud helpers do stoop under him.

^uHow much less shall I answer him, And ^vI choose out my words to reason with him?

^wWhom, though I were righteous, yet would I not answer,

But I would make supplication to my judge.

If I had called, and he had answered me;

Yet would I not believe that he had hearkened unto my voice.

For he ^xbreaketh me with a tempest, And multiplieth my wounds ^ywithout cause.

He will not suffer me ^zto take my breath,

But filleth me with bitterness.

If I ^{aa}speak ^{ab}of strength, lo, he is strong: And if of judgment, ^{ac}who shall set me a time to plead?

If I justify myself, ^{ad}mine own mouth shall condemn me:

If I say, I am perfect, it shall also prove me perverse.

Though I were perfect, yet would I not know my soul:

I would ^{ae}despise my life.

This is one thing, therefore I said it, ^{af}He destroyeth the perfect and the wicked.

If the ^{ag}scourge slay suddenly,

He will laugh at the trial of the innocent.

The earth is given into the hand of the wicked:

^{ah}He covereth the faces of the judges thereof;

^{ai}If not, where, and who is he?

Now ^{aj}my days are swifter than ^{ak}a post: They flee away, ^{al}they see no good.

They are passed away as the ^{am}swift ships:

As ^{an}the eagle that hasteth to the prey.

If I say, I will forget my complaint, I will leave off my heaviness, and ^{ao}comfort myself:

I am afraid of all my sorrows, I know that thou ^{ap}wilt not hold me innocent.

If I be wicked,

Why then labour I in vain?

If I wash myself with ^{aq}snow water, And ^{ar}make my hands never so clean;

Yet shalt thou plunge me in the ditch, And mine own clothes shall ^{as}abhor me.

For he is not a man, as I am, that I should answer him,

And ^{at}I we should come together in judgment.

^{au}Neither is there ^{av}any ^{aw}daysman between us,

That might ^{ax}lay ^{ay}his hand upon us both.

^{az}Let him take his ^{ba}rod away from me, And ^{bb}let not his fear terrify me:

Then would I speak, and not fear him; ^{bc}But it is not so with me.

^g Hast thou eyes of flesh?
Or ^h seest thou as ⁱ man seeth?
Are thy days as the days of ⁱ man?
Are thy years as man's days,
That thou inquirest after mine iniquity,
And searchest after my sin?
[†] Thou knowest that I am not wicked;
And there is none that can deliver out of thine hand.

^k Thine hands [†] have made me and fashioned me
¹ Together round about; yet thou dost destroy me.
Remember, I beseech thee, that thou hast made me as ^m the clay;
And ⁿ wilt thou bring me into dust again?
Hast thou not ^o poured me out as milk,
And cruddled me like cheese?
Thou hast clothed me with skin and flesh,
And hast [†] fenced me with bones and sinews.
Thou hast granted me life and favour,
And thy visitation hath preserved my spirit.

And these things hast thou hid in thine heart:
I know that ^p this is with thee.
If I sin, then thou ^q markest me,
And ^r thou wilt not acquit me from mine iniquity.
^s If I be wicked, woe unto me;
And ^t if I be righteous, yet will I not ^u lift up my head.
I am full of confusion; therefore ^x see thou mine affliction;
For it increaseth. Thou huntest me
as ^y a fierce lion;
And again thou shewest thyself marvellous upon me.
Thou renewest [†] thy witnesses against
me,
And increasest thine indignation upon
me;
^z Changes and war are against me.

^a Wherefore then hast thou brought me forth out of the womb?
Oh that I had given up the ghost,
and no eye had seen me!

^b I should have been as though I had not been;
I ^c should have been carried from the womb to the grave.

^d Are not my days few? ^e cease then,
And let me alone, that I may [†] take comfort a little,

^g Before I go whence I shall not return,
Even to the land of ^h darkness and
ⁱ the shadow of death;
A land of ^k darkness, as ¹ darkness itself;
And of ⁱ the shadow of death, without any order,
And where the light is as ¹ darkness.

Then answered ^a Zophar the Naama-thite, and said,

² Should not ^h the multitude of words be answered?
And should [†] a man full of talk be justified?
³ Should thy [†] lies make men hold their peace?
And when thou mockest, shall no man make thee ashamed?
⁴ For ^e thou hast said, My ^d doctrine is pure,
And I am clean in thine eyes.
⁵ But O that God would speak,
And open his lips against thee;
⁶ And that he would shew thee the secrets of wisdom,
That they are ^e double to [†] that which is.
Know therefore that God ^g exacteth of thee less than thine iniquity de- serveth.

⁷ ^h Canst thou by searching find out God?
Canst thou find out the Almighty ⁱ unto perfection?
⁸ It is [†] as ^k high as heaven; what canst thou do?
Deeper than hell; what canst thou know?
⁹ The measure thereof is longer than
the earth,
And broader than the sea.

¹⁰ If he [†] cut off, and ¹ shut up, or ^m gather together,
Then [†] who can hinder him?
¹¹ For he knoweth ⁿ vain men:
He seeth wickedness also; will he not then consider it?
¹² For [†] vain man would be wise, Though ^o man be born like ^p a wild ass's colt.

¹³ If thou ^q prepare thine heart,

^bCan a man be profitable unto God, ²
† As he ^cthat is wise may be profit-

Is it any ^dpleasure to the Almighty, ³

Or is it gain to him, that thou makest

Will he ^eenter with thee into judgment?

Is not thy wickedness great?

 Or did the contempt of families terrify me,
 That I kept silence, and went not out of the door?
 1Q that one would hear me! 35
 Behold, my desire is, that ^kthe Almighty would answer me,
 And that mine adversary ^{1h} had written a book.
 Surely I would take it ^m upon my 36

 And ⁿ bind it as ^o a crown to me.
 I would declare unto him the number 37

XXXII. So these three men ceased ^t to answer Job, because he ^{was} ^a righteous in his own eyes. Then was kindled the wrath 2 of Elihu the son of Barachel ^b the Buzite, of the kindred of ^b Ram: against Job was his wrath kindled, because he justified ^t himself ^c rather than God. Also 3 against his three friends was his wrath kindled, because they had found no answer, and yet had ^d condemned Job. Now Elihu had ^t waited till Job had 4 spoken, because they ^{were} ^t elder than he. When Elihu saw that ^{there was} no 5 answer in the mouth of these three men, then his wrath was kindled.
 And Elihu the son of Barachel the 6
 Buzite answered and said,

 † Who drinketh up scorning like water?
 Which goeth in company with the workers of iniquity,
 And walketh with wicked men.
 For † he hath said, It ‡ profiteth a man † nothing
 That he should delight himself with God.

Therefore hearken unto me, ye † men † of understanding:
 † Far be it from God, ‡ that he should do wickedness;
 And from the Almighty, ‡ that he should commit iniquity.
 † For the work of a man shall he render unto him,
 And cause every man to find † according to his ways.

Yea, surely God will not do wickedly, † Neither will † the Almighty pervert judgment.
 Who hath † given him a charge over the earth?
 Or † who hath disposed † the whole world?
 If he † set his heart † upon man,
 If he † gather unto himself his † spirit and his breath;
 All flesh shall † perish together,
 And man † shall turn again unto dust.

If now thou hast understanding, † hear † this:
 Harken to the voice of my words.
 † Shall even he that hateth right † go- † vern?
 And wilt thou condemn him that is most just?
 Is it fit † to say to a king, Thou art † wicked?
 And to princes, Ye are ungodly?
 How much less to him that † accepteth † not the persons of princes,
 Nor regardeth the † rich more than the poor?
 For † they all are the work of his hands.
 † In a moment shall they die,
 And the people shall be troubled † at midnight, and pass away:
 And † the mighty shall be taken away § without hand.

Luke 12. 20.

§ See Dan. 8. 25.

For his eyes are upon the ways of man,
 And he seeth all his † goings.
 † There is no darkness, nor † shadow of death,
 Where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves.
 For he will not lay upon man more † than right;
 That he should † enter into judgment with God.
 He shall † break in pieces mighty men † without number,
 And set † mothers in their stead.
 Therefore he knoweth their works,
 And he † overturneth them † in the night, so that they are † destroyed.
 He † striketh them as wicked men † in the open sight of others;
 Because they turned back † from him, And would not † consider any of his ways:
 So that they † cause the cry of the poor to come unto him,
 And † he heareth the cry of the afflicted.
 When he † giveth quietness, who then can make trouble?
 And † when he hideth his face, who then can behold him?
 Whether it be done against a nation, Or against a man only:
 That the hypocrite reign not,
 Lest † the people be ensnared.
 Surely it is † meet to be said unto God, I † have borne chastisement, I will not † offend any more:
 † That which I see not teach thou me:
 If I have done iniquity, I will do no more.
 † Should it be according to thy mind? he will recompense it,
 Whether thou refuse, or whether thou choose; and not I:
 Therefore † speak what thou knowest.
 Let men † of understanding tell me, And let a wise man hearken unto me.
 Job hath spoken † without knowledge, And his words were without wisdom.
 † My desire is that Job may be tried unto the end

[†] Heb. that there are yet words for God. As ch. 13, 7, 8, or as ch. 33, 6.
 Elihu ^aspake moreover, and said,
 Thinkest thou this to be right,
 That thou saidst, ^bMy righteousness is more than God's?
 For thou saidst, ^cWhat advantage will it be unto thee?
 And, ^dWhat profit shall I have, ^eif I be cleansed from my sin?
^fI will answer thee,
 And ^gthy companions with thee.
^hI look unto the heavens, and see;
 And behold the clouds ⁱwhich are higher than thou.
 If thou sinnest, ^jwhat doest thou against him?
 Or if thy transgressions be multiplied,
 what doest thou unto him?
^kIf thou be righteous, what givest thou him?
 Or what receiveth he of thine hand?
 Thy wickedness ^lmay hurt ^la man as thou art;
 And thy righteousness ^mmay profit ^mthe son of man.
 By reason of the multitude of ⁿoppressions they ^omake ^othe oppressed to cry:
 They ^pcry out by reason of the arm of the mighty.
 But none saith, Where ^qis God ^qmy
 Maker,
^rWho giveth songs ^rin the night;
 Who teacheth us more than the beasts
 of the earth,
 And maketh us wiser than the fowls
 of heaven?
 There they cry, ^sbut none giveth answer,
 Because of the pride of evil men.
 Surely God will not hear vanity,
 Neither will the Almighty ^tregard it.
 Although thou sayest ^uthou shalt not see him,
 Yet judgment ^vis before him; therefore ^wtrust thou in him.
 But now, because ^xit is not so, ^xhe hath ^yvisited ^yin his anger;
 Yet ^zhe knoweth ^zit not in great extremity:
 Therefore doth Job ^{aa}open his mouth
 in vain;
 He ^{ab}multiplieth words ^{ab}without knowledge.

XXXVI. Elihu also proceeded, and said,
 Suffer me a little, and I will shew thee ^aThat I have yet to speak on God's behalf.

3 I will fetch my ^aknowledge from afar,
 And will ascribe righteousness to ^bmy Maker.
 4 For truly my words ^cshall not be false:
He that is ^cperfect in knowledge ^cis with thee.
 5 Behold, God ^dis mighty, and despiseth not ^dany:
He is ^emighty in strength ^eand ^ewis-dom.
 6 He preserveth not the life of the wicked:
 But giveth right to the ^fpoor.
 7 He ^gwithdraweth not his eyes from
 the righteous:
 But with kings ^hare they ^hon the throne;
 Yea, he doth ⁱestablish them for ever,
 and they are exalted.
 8 And if ^jthey be ^jbound in ^jfetters,
 And be holden in cords of ^kaffliction;
 9 Then he sheweth them their ^kwork.
 And their transgressions that they have exceeded.
 10 ^lHe openeth also their ear to discipline.
 And commandeth that they return from iniquity.
 11 ^mIf they obey and serve ^mhim,
 They shall ⁿspend their days in prosperity,
 And their years ^oin pleasures.
 12 ^pBut if they obey not,
 They shall perish by the sword,
 And they shall die ^qwithout knowledge.
 13 But the hypocrites in heart ^rheap up wrath:
 They cry not when he ^sbindeth them.
 14 ^tThey die in youth,
 And their life ^uis among the ^uunclean.
 15 He delivereth the ^vpoor in his afflic-tion,
 And ^wopeneth their ears in oppression.
 16 Even so would he have ^xremoved thee out of the strait Into ^{aa}a broad place, where ^{aa}there is no ^{ab}straitness;
 And ^{ab}that which should be set on thy table ^{ac}should be full of ^{ac}fatness.

 of the wicked:

 thee.

9 Hast thou an arm like God?

Or, canst thou ^lthunder with a voice like him?

10 Deck thyself now with majesty and excellency;

And ^marray thyself with glory and beauty.

11 Cast abroad ⁿthe rage of thy wrath:

And ^obehold everyone that is proud,
and abase him.

12 ^oLook on every one that is proud, and ^obring him low;

And tread down the wicked ^pin their place.

13 ^qHide them ^qin the dust together;

And bind their faces in secret.

14 Then will I also confess unto thee

That ^rthine own right hand can save
thee.

15 Behold now ^tbehemoth,
Which I made with thee;

He eateth ^tgrass as an ox.

16 Lo now, his strength is in his loins,
And his force is in the navel of his belly.

17 ¹He moveth his tail like a cedar:

The sinews of his stones are ^uwrapt
together.

18 His bones are as strong pieces of brass;

His bones are like bars of iron.

19 He is the ^wchief of the ^xways of God:

He that made him can make his sword to approach unto him.

20 Surely the mountains bring him forth food,

Where all the beasts of the field play.

21 He lieth under the shady trees,

In the covert of the reed, and ^yfens.

22 The shady trees cover him with their shadow;

The ^zwillows of the brook compass him about.

23 Behold, ^the drinketh up a river, and ^ahasteth not:

He trusteth that he can ^bdraw up Jordan into his mouth.

24 ¹He taketh it with his eyes:

His nose pierceth through snares.

Shall they ⁱpart him among the ^kmerchants?

Canst thou fill his skin with barbed ⁷irons?

Remember the battle, do no more.

Behold, the hope of him ^lis in vain: ⁹

Shall ^mnot one be ⁿcast down even at the sight of him?

21 His breath ^ckindleth coals, And a flame goeth out of his mouth.

22 In his neck remaineth strength, And ^dsorrow is turned into joy before him.

23 ^eThe flakes of his flesh are ^ujoined together:

They are firm in themselves; they cannot be moved.

24 His heart is as firm as a stone; Yea, as hard as ^ea piece of the nether

25 When he raiseth up himself, the ^dmighty are afraid:

By reason of breakings they purify themselves.

26 The sword of him that layeth at him cannot hold:

The spear, the dart, nor the ^lhabergeon.

27 He esteemeth iron as straw, And brass as rotten wood.

28 The ^earrow cannot make him flee: Slingstones are turned with him into stubble.

29 Darts are counted as stubble: He laugheth at the shaking of a ^fspear.

30 [†]Sharp stones are under him: He spreadeth ^gsharp pointed things upon the mire.

31 He maketh ^hthe deep to ⁱboil like a pot: He maketh the sea like a pot of ointment.

And it was so, that after the LORD had ⁷ said to ^mEliphaz the Temanite, My wrath is kindled against thee, and against thy two friends: for ye have not spoken of me the thing that is ⁿright, as my servant

Job hath. Therefore take unto you now ⁸ ^oseven bullocks and seven rams, and go to my servant Job, and ^poffer up for yourselves a burnt offering; and my servant Job shall ^qpray for you: for ^thim will I accept: lest I deal with you after your folly, in that ye have not spoken of me the thing which is ⁿright, like my servant Job. So ^mEliphaz the Teman- ⁹ ite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went, and did according as the LORD commanded them: the LORD also accepted ^tJob. And the ¹⁰ LORD ^rturned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends: also the LORD ^tgave Job ^stwice as much as he had ^tHeb.

¹¹before. Then came there unto him all ^{added [all} his house: and they ^ubemoaned him, and ^{double.} ^ucomforted him over all the evil that the LORD had brought upon him: every man also gave him ^sa piece of money, and every one an ^vearring of gold.

¹² So the LORD blessed ^zthe latter end of Job more than his beginning: for he had ^afourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke ¹³of oxen, and a thousand she asses. ^bHe had also seven sons and three daughters.
¹⁴ And he called the name of the first,
Jemima; and the name of the second,
Kezia; and the name of the third, ¹⁵Keren-happuch. And in all the land were no women found so fair as the daughters of Job: and ^ctheir father gave them inheritance among their brethren.
¹⁶ After this lived Job an hundred and forty ¹⁷sons, even four generations. So Job died,

PSALM I.

BLESSED is the man
That ^awalketh not in the counsel of the ^lungodly,
Nor standeth in the way of sinners,
Nor ^bsitteth in the seat of the ^cscorn-ful.
But ^dhis delight is in the law of the ^e
LORD;
And ^ein his law doth he meditate day and night.
And he shall be ^flike a tree planted ^g
by the rivers of water, That bringeth forth his fruit in his season;
^hHis leaf also shall not ⁱwither;
And whatsoever he doeth shall ^jprosper.
The ungodly are not so:
But are ^klike the chaff which the wind driveth away.
Therefore the ungodly shall not ^lstand ^m in the judgment, Nor sinners in the congregation of
the righteous.
For ⁿthe LORD knoweth the way of ^o
the righteous:
But the way ^pof the ungodly shall perish.

PSALM II.

^aWhy do ^bthe heathen ^crage,
And the people ^dimagine a vain thing?
The ^ekings of the earth set themselves,
And the ^frulers take counsel together, Against the LORD, and against his ^ganointed, ^hsaying,
Let us ⁱbreak their bands asunder,
And cast away their cords from us.
He that ^jsitteth in the heavens shall ^k ^llaugh:
The LORD shall ^mhave them in derision.

5 Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath,
And ⁿvex them in his sore displeasure.
6 Yet have I ^oset my king
^pUpon my holy hill of Zion.
7 I will declare ^qthe decree:
The LORD hath said unto me, ^rThou ^sart my Son;
This day have I begotten thee.
8 Ask of me,
And I shall give ^tthee the heathen ^ufor thine inheritance,
And ^vthe uttermost parts of the earth
^wfor thy possession.
9 Thou shalt ^xbreak them ^ywith a rod of iron;
Thou shalt dash them in pieces ^zlike
a potter's vessel.
10 Be wise now therefore, O ye kings:
Be instructed, ye judges of the earth.
11 Serve the LORD with fear,
And rejoyce with ^{aa}trembling.

^b How say ye to my soul,
Flee as a bird to your mountain?

² For lo, ^c the wicked bend their bow,
^d They make ready their arrow upon

³ If [†] the foundations be destroyed,
What [†] can the righteous do?

⁴ ^h The LORD is in [†] his holy temple,

⁵ The LORD ^m trieth the righteous:

⁶ Upon the wicked he shall rain [†] snares,
fire and [†] brimstone,

^aHow long wilt thou forget me, O

How long wilt thou ^{aa}hide thy face
from me?
How long shall I take counsel in my 2

Having sorrow in my heart daily?
How long shall mine enemy be ex-

^bLighten mine eyes, ^clest I sleep the

I will call upon the LORD, who is ³ worthy to be praised:
So shall I be saved from mine enemies.

The ⁴sorrows of death compassed
me,
And the floods of [†]ungodly men made me afraid.

The ⁵sorrows of hell compassed me about:

The snares of death ^dprevented
me.

^{dd}In my distress I called upon the ⁶
LORD,

And cried unto my God:
He heard my voice out of his temple,
And my cry came before him, even into his ears.

Then the earth shook and trembled; ⁷
The foundations also ^eof the hills moved

And were shaken, because he was wroth.

There went up a smoke [†]out of his ⁸
nostrils,

And [†]fire out of his mouth devoured:
Coals were kindled by it.

He bowed the heavens also, and ⁹ came down:

And darkness was under his feet.
And he rode upon a cherub, and did ¹⁰ fly:

Yea, he did ^gfly upon the wings of the wind.

He made darkness his secret place; ¹¹
His pavilion round about him

Were ^hdark waters and thick clouds of the skies.

At the brightness that was before ¹² him his thick clouds passed,

ⁱHail-stones and coals of fire.
The LORD also thundered in the ¹³
heavens,

And the Highest gave his voice;
ⁱHail-stones and coals of fire.

Yea, he sent out his arrows, and scat- ¹⁴
tered them;

And he shot out lightnings, and discomfited them.

Then ^jthe channels of waters were ¹⁵ seen,

And the foundations of the world were discovered

At thy rebuke, O LORD,
At the blast of the breath of thy nostrils.

He sent from above, he took me, ¹⁶
He drew me out of [†]many waters.

He delivered me from my strong enemy,
And from them which hated me: ^{††}for ¹⁷
they were too strong for me.

They ^dprevented me in the day of my calamity:
But the LORD was my stay.

He brought me forth also into a large
place;
He delivered me, because he delighted in me.

The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness;
According to the cleanness of my hands hath he recompensed me.

For I have kept the ways of the LORD,
And have not wickedly departed from my God.

For all his judgments were before me,
And ^kI did not put away his statutes
from me.

I was also upright [†]before him,
And I kept myself from mine iniquity.

Therefore hath the LORD recompensed me according to my righteousness,
According to the cleanness of my hands [†]in his eyesight.

With the merciful thou wilt shew thyself merciful;
With an upright man thou wilt shew thyself upright;

With the pure thou wilt shew thyself
pure;
And with the froward thou wilt [†]shew thyself froward.

For thou wilt save the afflicted people;
But wilt bring down [†]high looks.

For thou wilt ^{††}light my [†]candle:
The LORD my God will enlighten my darkness.

For by thee I have [†]run through a troop;
And by my God have I leaped over a wall.

As for God, his way is perfect:
The word of the LORD is [†]tried:
He is a buckler to all those that trust in him.

For who is God save the LORD?
Or who is a rock save our God?

It is God that ^{mn}girdeth me with strength,
And ⁿmaketh my way perfect.

 It is ^zmelted in the midst of my bowels.
 My strength is ^{aa}dried up like a potsherd;
 And ^{ab}my tongue cleaveth to my jaws;
 And thou hast brought me into the dust of death.
 For ^{ac}dogs have compassed me:
 The assembly of the wicked have ^{ad}inclosed me:
 a They pierced my hands and my feet.
 I may tell all my bones:
 b They look and stare upon me.
 c They part my garments among them,
 And cast lots upon my vesture.
 But be not thou far ^dfrom me, O LORD:
 O my strength, haste thee to help me.

Deliver my soul from the sword;
 t My darling ^efrom the power of the ^fdog.
 f Save me from the lion's mouth:
 For thou hast ^gheard me from the horns of ^hthe unicorns.
 i I will declare thy name unto my brethren:
 In the midst of the congregation will I praise thee.
 k Ye that fear the LORD, praise him;
 All ye the seed of Jacob, ^lglorify him;
 And fear him, all ye the seed of Israel.
 For he hath not despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted;
 Neither hath he hid his face from him;
 But ^mwhen he cried unto him, he heard.
 My praise shall be of thee ⁿin the great congregation:
 o I will pay my vows before them that fear him.
 p The meek shall eat and be satisfied:
 They shall praise the LORD that seek him:
 q Your heart shall ^rlive for ever.
 s All the ends of the world shall remember and turn unto the LORD:
 And all the ^tkindreds of the nations shall worship before thee.
 u For ^vthe kingdom is the LORD's:
 And he is the governor among the nations.
 All they that be ^wfat upon earth shall eat and worship:
 All they that go down to the dust shall ^xbow before him:
 And none can keep alive his own soul.
 A seed shall serve him;
 x It shall be accounted to the Lord for a generation.
 y They shall come, and shall declare his righteousness
 z Unto a people that shall be born, that he hath done this.

What profit is there in my blood, ⁹
when I go down to the pit?

^a Shall the dust praise thee? shall it declare thy truth?

^o Hear, O LORD, and have mercy up-¹⁰
on me:

LORD, be thou my helper.

Thou hast turned for me my mourn-¹¹

girded me with gladness;

To the end that ¹my glory may sing ¹² praise to thee, and not be silent.

O LORD my God, I will give thanks unto thee for ever.

PSALM XXXI.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

^a In thee, O LORD, do I put my trust;

^a Let me never be ashamed:

^b Deliver me in thy righteousness.

^c Bow down thine ear to me; deliver ² me speedily:

Be thou ¹my strong rock,

For a house of ^ddefence to save me.

^d For thou art my rock and my for- ³
tress;

Therefore ^efor thy name's sake ^flead me, and ^gguide me.

^h Pull me out of the ⁱnet that they ⁴
have laid privily for me:

For ⁱthou art my strength.

^j Into thine hand I commit my ⁵
spirit:

Thou hast redeemed me, O LORD
^kGod of truth.

^l I have hated them that ^mregard ly- ⁶
ing vanities:

But ⁿI trust in the LORD.

I will be glad and rejoice in thy ⁷ mercy:

For thou hast considered my trouble;

Thou hast ^oknown my soul in adver-
sities;

And hast not ^pshut me up into the ⁸
hand of the enemy:

Thou hast set my feet ^qin a large room.

^r Have mercy upon me, O LORD, for ⁹
^rI am in trouble:

^s Mine eye is consumed with grief,
yea, my soul and my belly.

For my life is spent with grief, and ¹⁰
my years with sighing:

My strength faileth because of mine ^tiniquity, and ^umy bones are consumed.

I was a reproach among all mine enemies,

But ^wespecially among my neighbours, and a fear to mine ^xacquaintance:

^y They that did see me without fled
from me.

¹² I ^zam forgotten as a dead man out of mind:

I am like ^ta broken vessel.

¹³ ^a For I have heard the slander of many:

^{ab} Fear was on every side:

While they took counsel together against me,

They devised to take away my life.

¹⁴ But ^cI trusted in thee, O LORD:

I said, Thou art my God.

¹⁵ ^d My times are in thy hand:

^e Deliver me from the hand of mine enemies, and ^efrom them that persecute me.

¹⁶ ^f Make thy face to shine upon thy servant:

Save me for thy mercy's sake.

¹⁷ ^g Let me not be ashamed, O LORD;
for I have called upon thee:

Let the wicked be ashamed, and ^hlet them be silent in the grave.

¹⁸ Let the lying lips be put to silence;
Which speak ⁱgrievous things ⁱproudly and contemptuously against the righteous.

¹⁹ O how great is thy goodness, ^kwhich thou hast laid up for them that fear
thee;

Which thou hast wrought for them that trust in thee

^l Before the sons of men!

²⁰ Thou shalt hide them in ^mthe secret of thy presence from the pride of man:

Thou shalt ⁿkeep them secretly in a pavilion from ^othe strife of tongues.

²¹ Blessed be the LORD: for ^phe hath shewed me his marvellous kindness in a ¹strong city.

²² For ^qI said in my haste, ^rI am cut off ^sfrom before thine eyes:

Nevertheless thou heardest ^{ss}the voice of my supplications when I cried unto thee.

²³ O love the LORD, all ye his ^tsaints:
For the LORD preserveth the faithful,
And plentifully rewardeth the proud doer.

²⁴ ^u Be of good courage, and he shall strengthen your heart,
All ye that ^xhope in the LORD.

PSALM XXXII.

|| A Psalm of David, Maschil.

^a Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.

Blessed is the man unto whom ²
the LORD ^bimputeth not iniquity,

And ^cin whose spirit there is no guile.
When I kept silence, ^dmy bones ³ waxed old

Through my ^eroaring all the day long.
For day and night thy ^fhand was ⁴
heavy upon me:

My ^gmoisture is turned into the drought of summer. Selah.

I ^hacknowledged my sin unto thee, ⁵
And mine iniquity have I not hid.

ⁱI said, I will confess my transgressions unto the LORD;

And thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin. Selah.

For this shall every one that is ⁱⁱgodly ⁶ pray unto thee ^jin a time when thou mayest be found:

Surely in the floods of great waters
they shall not come nigh unto him.

Thou art my ^khiding place; thou ⁷ shalt preserve me ^lfrom trouble;

Thou shalt compass me about with ^msongs of deliverance. Selah.

I will instruct thee and teach thee in ^s
the way which thou shalt go:

^tI will guide thee with mine eye.

ⁿBe ye not as the horse,
Or as the mule, which have no understanding:

^oWhose mouth must be held in with bit and bridle,

Lest they come near unto thee.

^pMany sorrows shall be to the wicked: ¹⁰
But ^qhe that trusteth in the LORD, mercy shall compass him about.

^rBe glad in the LORD, and rejoice, ¹¹
ye righteous:

And ^sshout for joy, all ye that are ^tupright in heart.

PSALM XXXIII.

Rejoice ^ain the LORD, O ye righteous:
For ^bpraise is comely for the upright.

Praise the LORD with ^charp:

Sing unto him with the ^cpsaltery ^dand an instrument of ten strings.

Sing unto him ^ea new song;
Play skilfully ^fwith a loud noise.

Isai. 42. 10. Rev. 5. 9. & 14. 3. ^fJob 33. 26 (Heb.).

For the word of the LORD is right;
And all his works are done ^{ff}in truth.

^gHe loveth righteousness and judgment:

^hThe earth is full of the ^hgoodness of the LORD.

ⁱBy the word of the LORD were the heavens made;

And ^kall the host of them ^lby the breath of his mouth.

⁷He gathereth the waters of the sea together ^mas a heap:

ⁿHe layeth up the depth in store-houses.

Let all the earth fear the LORD:

Let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.

For ^ohe spake, and it was done;
He commanded, and it stood fast.

^pThe LORD ^lbringeth the counsel of the heathen to nought:

He maketh the devices of the people of none effect.

^qThe counsel of the LORD standeth
for ever,

The thoughts of his heart ^tto all generations.

^rBlessed is the nation whose God is
the LORD;

And the people whom he hath ^scho-
sen for his own inheritance.

^tThe LORD looketh from heaven;
He beholdeth all the sons of men.

From ^uthe place of his habitation
he ^wlooketh

Upon all the inhabitants of the earth.
He fashioneth their hearts alike;

^xHe ^wconsidereth all their works.

^yThere is no king saved by the multitude of a host:

A mighty man is not delivered by much strength.

^zA horse is a vain thing for safety:
Neither shall he deliver any by his great strength.

Behold, ^athe eye of the LORD is upon them that fear him,

Upon them that hope in his mercy;

^cTo deliver their soul from death,
And to keep them alive ^din famine.

^eOur soul ^fwaiteth for the LORD:
He is ^gour help and our shield.

For our ^hheart shall rejoice in him, Because we have ⁱtrusted in his holy name.

Let thy mercy, O LORD, be upon us,

According as we ^bhope in thee.

PSALM XXXIV.

A Psalm of David, when ^ahe changed his behaviour before ^bAbimelech; who ^bdrove him away, and ^bhe departed.

(^a) I will bless the LORD ^cat all times: His praise shall continually be in my mouth.

(^b) ^dMy soul shall ^emake her boast in ² the LORD:

The humble shall hear thereof, and ^ebe glad.

(^a) O ^fmagnify the LORD with me, ³ And let us exalt his name together.

(^g) I ^gsought the LORD, and he ^hheard ⁴ me,

And delivered me from all my fears.

(^h) They looked unto him, and ⁱwere ⁵ lightened:

(ⁱ) And their faces were not ashamed.

(ⁱ) This poor man ^hcried, and the ⁶ LORD heard him,

And ⁱsaved him out of all his troubles.

(^h) ^kThe angel of the LORD ⁱen- ⁷ campeth

Round about them that fear him, and delivereth them.

(^b) O ^mtaste and see that ^mthe LORD ⁸ is good:

ⁿBlessed is the man that ^otrusteth in him.

(ⁱ) O fear the LORD, ye his saints: ⁹ For there is no want to them that fear him.

(^b) ^pThe young lions do lack, and ¹⁰ suffer hunger:

But ^qthey that seek the LORD shall not want any good thing.

(^b) ^qCome, ye children, hearken unto ¹¹ me:

I will teach you the fear of the LORD.

(^h) ^rWhat man is he that desireth ¹² life,

And loveth many days, that he may ^ssee good?

(^t) ^tKeep thy tongue from evil, ¹³ And thy lips from ^uspeaking guile.

(^b) ^wDepart from evil, and do ¹⁴ good;

Seek peace, and ^xpursue it.

(^y) ^yThe eyes of the LORD are ¹⁵ upon the righteous,

And ^zhis ears are open unto their cry.

(^b) ^aThe face of the LORD is ^{a-16} against them that do evil, ^bTo cut off the remembrance of them from the earth.

17 (^s) ^{bb}The righteous cry, and ^cthe LORD heareth, ^cAnd delivereth them out of all their troubles.

18 (^p) ^dThe LORD is nigh ^tunto them that are of a ^ebroken heart; And saveth such as be ⁱof a contrite spirit.

19 (^g) ^fMany are the afflictions of the righteous:

^gBut the LORD delivereth him out of them all.

20 (^w) He keepeth all his bones:

^hNot one of them is broken.

21 (^h) ⁱEvil shall slay the wicked:

And they that hate the righteous ⁱshall be desolate.

22 (^b) ^{*}The LORD ^kredeemeth the soul of his servants:

And none of them that trust in him ⁱshall be desolate.

PSALM XXXV.

A Psalm of David.

^aPlead my cause, O LORD, ^bwith them that strive with me:

Fight against them that fight against me.

2 Take hold of ^cshield and buckler, And stand up ^dfor mine help.

3 Draw out also the spear, and stop the way against them that persecute me:

Say unto my soul, I am thy salvation.

4 ^{dd}Let them be ^econfounded and ^eput to shame that seek after my soul:

Let them be ^eturned back and ^ebrought to confusion that devise my hurt.

5 Let them be ^gas chaff before the wind: And let the angel of the LORD chase them.

6 Let their way be ^tdark and ^hslippery: And let the angel of the LORD persecute them.

7 For without cause have they ⁱhid for me their net in a pit,

Which without cause they have dig-ged for my soul.

8 ^jLet destruction come ^tupon him ^tat unawares;

And ^{ik}let his net that he hath hid catch himself:

Into that very destruction let him fall.

9 And my soul shall be joyful in the LORD:

^{1o} False witnesses did rise up;

^p They rewarded me evil for good
 To the ¹spoiling of my soul.

² For ^che flattereth himself in his own

⁴ ^fHe deviseth ¹mischief upon his ⁱ He abhorreth not evil.

⁵ ^jThy mercy, O LORD, is in the hea-

For the LORD ^bupholdeth him with his hand.

(J) I have been young, and now am ²⁵ old;

Yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken,

Nor ^{mm}his seed ^abegging bread.

^o He is ¹ever merciful, and lendeth; ²⁶
And his seed is blessed.

(D) ^pDepart from evil, and do good; ²⁷
And ^adwell for evermore.

For the LORD ¹loveth judgment,
And forsaketh not his ^ssaints;

(L) They are preserved for ever:
But ¹the seed of the wicked shall be cut off.

The righteous ¹shall inherit the land, ²⁸
And ^adwell therein for ever.

(D) The mouth of the righteous ^uspeak- ³⁰
eth wisdom,

And his ^utongue talketh of judgment.

^x The law of his God is in his heart; ³¹
None of his ¹steps shall ^vslide.

(S) The wicked ^zwatcheth the right- ³²
eous,

And seeketh to slay him.

The LORD will not leave him in his ³³
hand,

Nor ^acondemn him when he is judged.

(P) ^bWait on the LORD, and keep ³⁴
his way,

And he shall exalt thee ^cto inherit the land:

^d When the wicked are cut off, thou shalt see it.

(T) ^e I have seen the wicked ^fin great ³⁵ power,

And spreading himself like ¹a green bay tree.

Yet ^bhe passed away, and lo, ⁱhe was ³⁶
not:

Yea, I sought him, but he could not be found.

(M) Mark the perfect man, and be- ³⁷
hold the upright:

For the end of that man is ^kpeace.
But the transgressors shall be de- ³⁸
stroyed together:

(N) But ^mthe salvation of the righteous ³⁹ is of the LORD:

He is their strength ⁿin the time of trouble.

PSALM XXXVIII.

A Psalm of David, ^{*} to bring to remembrance.

O ^a LORD, rebuke me not in thy wrath:
Neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure.

For ^b thine arrows stick fast in me,
And ^c thy hand presseth me sore.

³ There is ^d no soundness in my flesh
because of thine anger;

Neither is there any ¹ rest in ^e my bones because of my sin.

For ^f mine iniquities are gone over mine head:

As a heavy burden they are too
^g heavy for me.

⁵ My ^h wounds stink and are corrupt
Because of my foolishness.

⁶ I am ¹ troubled; I am ¹ bowed down greatly;

^k I go ¹ mourning all the day long.

⁷ For my loins are filled with a loath-some disease:

And there is ^d no soundness in my flesh.

⁸ I am feeble and ¹ sore broken:
I have ^m roared by reason of the disquietness of my heart.

⁹ Lord, all my desire is before thee;
And ⁿ my groaning is not hid from thee.

¹⁰ My heart panteth, my strength faileth
me:

As for ^o the light of mine eyes, it also

¹¹ ^p My lovers and my friends ^a stand aloof from my ¹ sore;

And ¹ my ^r kinsmen ^s stand afar off.

¹² They also that seek after my life ¹ lay snares for me:

And they that seek my hurt ^t speak
^u mischievous things,

And imagine ^x deceits all the day long.

¹³ But ^y I, as a deaf man, heard not;
And I was ^z as a dumb man that openeth not his mouth.

¹⁴ ^y Thus I was as a man that heareth
not,

And in whose mouth are no ^a reproofs.

¹⁵ For ¹ in thee, O LORD, do I hope:
Thou wilt ¹ hear, O Lord my God.

¹⁶ For I said, Hear me, ^b lest otherwise

^dI was dumb with silence, I held my ^emouth

When I remember these things, ^f I 4
pour out my soul in me :

For I had gone with the multitude,
I ^g went with them to the house of

God,
With the voice of joy and praise, with a multitude that kept holy-

day.
^h Why art thou [†] cast down, O my 5

quieted in me?
^j Hope thou in God : for I shall yet

ber thee

Mizar.
ⁿ Deep calleth unto deep at the noise 7
of thy ^o waterspouts :

gone over me.

Yet the LORD will ^r command his lov- 8
ingkindness in the daytime,

And ^s in the night his song shall be
with me,

And my prayer unto the God of my life.

I will say unto God ^t my rock, Why 9 hast thou forgotten me?

^u Why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?

As with a [†] sword in my bones, mine 10

^a Our fathers have told us,
What work thou didst in their days,

in ^b the times of old.
² How thou didst ^c drive out the heathen with thy hand, and ^d plantedst

them ;

How thou didst afflict the people,
and ^e cast them out.

³ For they got not the land in possession ^f by their own sword,

Neither did their own arm save
them :

But thy right hand, and thine arm,
and [†] the light of thy countenance,

^g Because thou hadst a favour unto
them.

^h Thou art my King, O God :
ⁱ Command deliverances for Jacob.

⁵ Through thee will we ^k push down
our enemies :

Through thy name will we [†] tread them under that rise up against us.

⁶ For ^m I will not trust ^f in my bow,
Neither shall my sword save me.

⁷ But thou hast saved us from our enemies,

And hast ⁿ put them to shame that hated us.

⁸ ^o In God we boast all the day long,
And praise thy name for ever.

⁹ But thou hast ^p cast off, and put us to shame ;

In the midst of thy temple.

ⁱs thy praise unto ^wthe ends of the
earth :

Thy right hand is full of righteousness.
Let mount Zion ^xrejoice,
Let ^xthe daughters of Judah be glad,
Because of thy judgments.

Walk about Zion, and go round about 12 her : tell the towers thereof.

^tMark ye well her ^ybulwarks, ^lcon- 13

PSALM XLIX.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm || for the sons of Korah.

^a Hear this, all ye people ;
Give ear, all ye inhabitants of the ^aworld :

Both ^blow and high,
Rich and poor, together.
My mouth shall speak of ^{bb}wisdom ; 3
And the meditation of my heart shall be of understanding.

I will incline mine ear to ^ca parable : 4
I will open ^dmy dark saying upon the harp.

Wherefore should I fear in ^{dd}the days 5
of evil,

When ^ethe iniquity of my heels shall compass me about ?

They that ^ftrust in their wealth,
And boast themselves in the multitude of their riches ;

None of them ^gcan by any means 7
redeem his brother,

Nor ^hgive to God ⁱa ransom for him :
(For ^kthe redemption of their soul is 8 precious,

And it ceaseth for ever :)
That he should still live for ever, 9

And ^lnot see corruption.

For he seeth that ^mwise men die, 10
Likewise the ⁿfool and the ⁿbrutish person perish,

And ^oleave their wealth to others.

^pTheir inward thought is, that their houses shall continue for ever,
And their dwelling places ^tto all generations ;

They ^qcall their lands after their own names.

Nevertheless ^rman being in honour abideth not :

^sHe is like the beasts that perish.
This their way is their ^{ss}folly :

Yet their posterity ^tapprove their sayings. Selah.

Like sheep they are laid in the grave ;

Death shall feed on them ;
And the upright ^tshall have dominion
over them in the morning ;

And ^utheir ^tbeauty shall consume ⁱn
the grave from their dwelling.

But God ^wwill redeem my soul ^tfrom
the power of ^tthe grave :

For ^xhe shall receive me. Selah.

Be not thou afraid when one is made rich,

When the glory of his house is increased ;

^yFor when he dieth he shall carry nothing away :

His glory shall not descend after him.

Though ^twhiles he lived ^zhe blessed his soul :

And ^{men} will praise thee, when thou doest well to thyself.

^tHe shall ^ago to the generation of his fathers ;

They shall never see ^blight.

^cMan that is in honour, and under-standeth not,

Is like the beasts that perish.

 cording to thy lovingkindness:

 tender mercies ^bblot out my transgressions.
 2 Wash me throughly from mine inquity,

 4 ^fAgainst thee, thee only, have I

 And done this evil ^gin thy sight:
^hThat thou mightest be justified
 when thou speakest,
 And be clear when thou judgest.
 5 Behold, ⁱI was shapen in iniquity;
 And in sin did my mother ^tconceive
 me.
 6 Behold, thou desirest truth ^jin the inward parts:
 And in the hidden part thou shalt make me to know wisdom.
 7 ^kPurge me with hyssop, and I shall

^lWash me, and ⁱI shall be whiter

To the chief Musician on ^{*} Neginoth, [†] Maschil,
A Psalm of David.

^aGive ear to my ^bprayer, O God;

And hide not thyself from my ^bsupplication.

^aAttend unto me, and ^chear me:

I mourn in my ^dcomplaint, and ^emake a noise;

Because of the voice of the enemy, because of the oppression of the wicked:

For ^fthey cast iniquity upon me, and in wrath they hate me.

My heart is sore pained within me:

And ^gthe terrors of death are fallen upon me.

^hFearfulness and ^htrembling are come

upon me,

And ⁱhorror hath [†]overwhelmed me.

And I said, O that I had wings like a dove,

For then would I fly away, and be at rest.

Lo, then would I wander far off,

And remain in the wilderness. Selah.

From the windy storm and ^jtempest.

^{jj}Destroy, O Lord, and divide their

For I have seen ^kviolence and strife

Day and night they go about it upon

Mischief also and sorrow are in the 1 Wickedness is in the midst thereof:

^mDeceit and guile depart not from her

My ^oguide, and mine ^pacquaintance.

And ^rwalked unto the house of God in ^acompany.

15 Let death seize upon them,

And let them ^sgo down ^squick into ^hhell:

For wickedness is in their ^tdwellings, and among them.

16 As for me, I will call upon God;

And the LORD shall save me.

17 ^uEvening, and morning, and ^wat

noon, will I ^xpray, and ^xcry aloud:

And he shall hear my voice.

18 He hath delivered my soul in peace

PSALM LXIII.

A Psalm of David, *when he was in the wilderness of Judah.

O God, thou art my God; ^aearly will I seek thee:

^bMy soul thirsteth for thee,

^bMy flesh longeth for thee,

In a ^cdry and ^tthirsty land, ^twhere no water is;

To see ^{cc}thy power and thy glory,

So as I have seen thee in the sanctuary.

Because ^dthy lovingkindness is ^ebetter than life,

My lips shall praise thee.

Thus will I bless thee ^fwhile I live:

I ^gwill lift up my hands in thy name.

^hMy soul shall be satisfied as ^{with} ⁱmarrow and fatness;

And my mouth shall praise thee ^{with} joyful lips:

When ⁱI remember thee upon my bed,

And meditate on thee in ^jthe night watches.

Because thou hast been ^kmy help,

Therefore ^lin the shadow of thy wings will I rejoice.

My soul followeth hard after thee:

Thy right hand ^mupholdeth me.

ⁿBut those that seek my soul, to ^{de}stroy it,

Shall go into ^othe lower parts of the earth.

^tThey shall fall by the sword:

They shall be a portion for foxes.

But ^pthe king shall rejoice in God;

Every one that ^qswareth by him shall glory:

But ^rthe mouth of them that speak lies shall be stopped.

PSALM LXIV.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

Hear my voice, O God, in my ^aprayer:

Preserve my life from fear of the enemy.

Hide me from ^bthe secret counsel of ^cthe wicked;

From ^bthe insurrection of ^{bb}the workers of iniquity:

^cWho whet their tongue like a sword,

And ^dbend their bows to shoot their arrows, even bitter words:

^eThat they may shoot ^fin secret at the perfect:

Suddenly do they shoot at him, and ^{ff}fear not.

^gThey encourage themselves in an evil ^hmatter:

They commune ⁱof laying snares privily;

^hThey say, Who shall see them?

They search out iniquities;

^hThey accomplish ⁱa diligent search: Both ⁱthe inward thought of every one of them, and the heart, is deep.

But God ^dshall shoot at them with an arrow;

Suddenly ^tshall they be wounded.

So they shall make ^ktheir own tongue to fall upon themselves:

^lAll that ^msee them shall ^{mm}flee away.

And all men shall ^mfear, And shall ⁿdeclare the work of God;

For they shall ^owisely consider of his doing.

^pThe righteous shall be glad in the LORD, and ^qshall trust in him;

^rAnd all ^rthe upright in heart shall glory.

PSALM LXV.

And unto thee shall ^athe vow be performed.

O thou that ^{aa}hearest prayer, Unto thee ^bshall all flesh come.

PSALM LXVIII.

To the chief Musician, *A Psalm or Song of David.

Let ^aGod arise, let his enemies ^bbe

Let them also that hate him flee ^tbe-fore him.
^cAs smoke is driven away, so drive ² them away :
^dAs wax melteth before the fire,

sence of God.
But let ^ethe righteous be glad ; let ³
them rejoice before God :
Yea, let them ^texceedingly rejoice.
Sing unto God, ^tsing praises to his
name :
^gExtol him that rideth upon the heavens

fore him.

of the widows.
Is God in his holy habitation.
God ^ksetteth the ^lsolitary ^tin families : ⁶ ^mHe bringeth out those which are bound with chains :
But ⁿthe rebellious ^odwell in a dry
land.

fore thy people,

PSALM LXIX.

To the chief Musician ^a upon Shoshannim,
A Psalm of ^a David.
Save me, O God; for ^a the waters are come in ^b unto my soul.

^a I sink in ^t deep mire, where there is no standing;
I am come into ^t deep waters, where ^c the floods ^{cc} overflow me.
³ ^f I am weary of my crying: my throat is dried:
^g Mine eyes fail ^h while I wait for my God.
⁴ ⁱ They that hate me without a cause ^j are more than the hairs of mine head:
They that would destroy me, being mine enemies wrongfully, are mighty:
^k Then I restored that which I took not away.
⁵ O God, thou knowest my foolishness; And my ^l sins are not hid from thee.
⁶ Let not them that wait on thee, O Lord God of hosts, be ashamed for my sake:
Let not those that seek thee be confounded for my sake, O God of Israel.
⁷ Because ^l for thy sake I have borne reproach;
Shame hath covered my face.
⁸ I ^m am become a stranger unto ^m my brethren,
And an alien unto my mother's children.
⁹ For ^o the zeal of thine house hath eaten me up;
And ^p the reproaches of them that reproached thee are fallen upon me.
¹⁰ When I wept, and chastened ^q my soul with fasting,
That was to my reproach.
¹¹ I made ^r sackcloth also my garment;
And I became ^s a proverb to them.
¹² They that sit in the gate speak against me;
And I was the ^t song of the ^t drunkards.
¹³ But as for me, ^u my prayer is unto thee, O LORD, ^w in an acceptable time:
O God, in the multitude of thy mercy hear me, in the truth of thy salvation.
¹⁴ Deliver me ^x out of the mire, and let me not ^y sink:
^z Let me be delivered from them that hate me, and out of the ^y deep waters.
¹⁵ Let not the ^a waterflood overflow me,

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David, * to bring to remembrance.
Make haste, ^aO God, to deliver
me;
Make haste ^tto help me, O LORD.
²Let them be ashamed and confounded that seek after my soul:
Let them be turned backward, and ^bput to confusion, ^bthat desire my hurt.
³Let them ^cbe turned back for a reward of their shame
That say, Aha, aha.
⁴Let all those that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee:
And let such as love thy salvation say continually, Let God be magnified.
⁵But I am poor and needy: ^dmake ^dhaste unto me, O God:
Thou art my help and my deliverer;

^t My mouth shall shew forth thy right- 15

And thy salvation all the day ;
For ^u I know not the numbers thereof.

^x I will go in the strength of the Lord 16

O God, thou hast taught me from my 17

And hitherto have I declared thy wondrous works.

Now also ^t when I am ^v old and gray-headed,

O God, ^v forsake me not ;

Until I have shewed ^t thy strength

^c Thou, ^c which hast shewed me great and sore troubles,

Shalt ^d quicken me again,
And shalt bring me up again from the depths of the earth.

^e Thou shalt increase my greatness,
And comfort me on every side.

^f I will also praise thee ^t with the ^e psaltery,

Even thy truth, O my God : unto thee will I sing

With the ^e harp, O thou ^t Holy One of Israel.

^g My lips shall greatly rejoice when I sing unto thee ;

And ^g my soul, which thou hast redeemed.

³ ^c For I was ^d envious at the ^e foolish,

⁸ They are corrupt, and speak wickedly concerning oppression:
^l They speak ^m loftily.
⁹ They set their mouth against the heavens,
 And their tongue walketh through the ¹⁰ ⁿ Therefore his people return hither:

 And waters of a full ^o cup ^p are wrung

¹¹ And they say, ^q How doth God know?

¹² Behold, these ^{are} the ungodly,

PSALM LXXIV.

¶ Maschil of ^tAsaph.

O God, why hast thou ^acast us off for ever?

Why doth thine anger ^bsmoke against ^cthe sheep of thy pasture?

Remember thy congregation, which ^o ^dthou hast purchased of old;

Thy ^hrod of ⁱthine inheritance, which ^gthou hast redeemed;

This mount Zion, wherein thou hast dwelt.

Lift up thy feet unto the perpetual ^o ^hdesolations;

Even ^lall that the enemy hath done
wickedly in the sanctuary.

Thine enemies ^oroar in the midst of ^o thy ^jcongregations;

^kThey set up their ensigns for signs.

^l A man was famous according as he ^l had lifted up

Axes upon the thick trees.

But now they break down ^lthe carved work thereof

At once with axes and hammers.

^mThey have cast fire into thy sanctuary,
ⁿThey have defiled ^oby casting down the dwelling place of thy name to the ground.

^pThey said in their hearts, Let us ^tdestroy them together:
They have burnt up all the ^jsynagogues of God in the land.

We see not our ^ksigns:
^qThere is no more any prophet:

Neither is there among us any that knoweth ^rhow long.

O God, ^rhow long shall the adversary ^sreproach?

Shall the enemy ^sblaspheme thy name
for ever?

Why ^twithdrawest thou thy hand, even thy right hand?

Pluck it out of thy bosom.

For ^uGod is my King of old, Working salvation in the midst of the earth.

^xThou didst ^tdivide the sea by thy strength:

^yThou brakest the heads of the ^hdragons in the waters.

Thou brakest the heads of ^zleviathan
in pieces,

And gavest ^ahim to be meat ^bto the people inhabiting the wilderness.

^cThou didst ^dcleave the fountain and the flood:

^eThou driedst up ^tmighty rivers.

^fThe day is thine, the night also is thine:
Thou hast prepared ^fthe light and the sun.

Thou hast ^gset all the borders of the earth:

Thou hast ^tmade ^hsummer and winter.

ⁱRemember this, that the enemy hath ^kreproached, O LORD,

And ^lthat ^mthe foolish people have ^kblasphemed thy name.

O deliver not the soul of ⁿthy turludove unto the ^omultitude of the

⁴ Marvellous things did he in the sight 12
of their fathers,
In the land of Egypt, in ² the field of Zoan.
He ³ divided the sea, and caused 13
them to pass through;
And he ⁴ made the waters to stand as a heap.
⁵ In the daytime also he led them 14
with a cloud,
And all the night with a light of fire.
⁶ He clave the rocks in the wilder- 15
ness,
And gave them drink as out of the great depths.
He brought ⁷ streams also out of 16
⁸ the rock,
And caused waters to run down like rivers.
And they sinned yet more against 17
him
By ⁹ provoking the most High in the ¹⁰ wilderness.
And ¹¹ they tempted God in their 18
heart
By asking meat for their lust.
Yea, they spake against God; they 19
said,
¹² Can God ¹³ furnish a table in the wilderness?
Behold, ¹⁴ he smote the rock, that ² the 20
waters gushed out,
And the streams overflowed;
Can he give bread also?
Can he ¹ provide flesh for his people?
Therefore the LORD heard this, and 21
² was wroth:
So ³ a fire was kindled against ⁴ Jacob,
And anger also ⁵ came up against ⁶ Israel;
Because they ⁷ believed not in God, 22
And trusted not in his salvation:
Though he had commanded the clouds 23
from above,
And ⁸ opened the doors of heaven,
And had ⁹ rained down manna upon 24
them to eat,
And had given them of ¹ the corn of heaven.
² Man did eat ³ angels' food:
He sent them meat ⁴ to the full.
He caused an east wind ⁵ to blow in 26
the heaven:
And by his power he ⁶ brought in the south wind.

He rained flesh also upon them ² as dust,
And ¹ feathered fowls like ² as the sand
of the sea:
² And he let it fall in the midst of their camp,
Round about their habitations.
² So they did eat, and were well filled:
For he gave them their own ³ desire;
They were not estranged from their ⁴ lust.
But ⁵ while their meat was yet in their mouths,
The wrath of God ⁶ came upon them,
And slew the ⁷ fattest of them,
And ⁸ smote down the ⁹ chosen men of Israel.
For all this ¹⁰ they sinned still,
And ¹¹ believed not for his wondrous works.
Therefore ¹² their days did he consume
in ¹³ vanity,
And their years in trouble.
When he slew them, then they 34
¹ sought him:
And they ¹ returned and ¹² inquired early after God.
And they remembered that ² God was their rock,
And the high God ³ their redeemer.
Nevertheless they did ⁴ flatter him
with their mouth,
And they ⁵ lied unto him with their tongues.
For ⁶ their heart was not ⁷ right with
him,
Neither were they ⁸ stedfast in his covenant.
But he, being ⁹ full of compassion,
¹⁰ forgave their iniquity, and destroyed them not:
Yea, many a time turned he his anger
away,
And did not stir up all his wrath.
For ¹¹ he remembered that they were but ¹² flesh;
¹³ A wind that passeth away, and cometh not again.
How oft did they ¹ provoke him in the wilderness,
And ² grieve him in ³ the desert!
Yea, they turned back and ⁴ tempted
God,
And ⁵ limited the ⁶ Holy One of Israel.
They ⁷ remembered not his hand:
Nor the day when he delivered them
¹ from the enemy.

^f How he had wrought his signs in 43
Egypt,
And his wonders in the field of Zoan:
And he had turned their rivers into 44
blood;
And their floods, that they could not drink.
He sent divers sorts of flies among 45
them, which devoured them;
And frogs, which destroyed them.
He gave also their increase unto the 46
caterpillar,
And their labour unto the locust.
He destroyed their vines with hail, 47
And their sycamore trees with frost.
He gave up their cattle also to the 48 hail,
And their flocks to hot thunderbolts.
He cast upon them the fierceness of 49
his anger,
Wrath, and indignation, and trouble,
By sending evil angels among them.
He made a way to his anger; 50
He spared not their soul from death,
But gave their life over to the pestilence;
And smote all the firstborn in Egypt; 51
The chief of their strength in the tabernacles of Ham:
But made his own people to go forth 52
like sheep,
And guided them in the wilderness like a flock.
And he led them on safely, so that 53
they feared not:
But the sea overwhelmed their enemies.
And he brought them to the border 54
of his sanctuary, Even to this mountain, which his right hand had purchased.
He cast out the heathen also before 55
them,
And divided them an inheritance by line,
And made the tribes of Israel to dwell
in their tents.
Yet they tempted and provoked 56
the most high God,
And kept not his testimonies:
But turned back, and dealt unfaith- 57
fully like their fathers:
They were turned aside like a deceitful bow.

For they provoked him to anger
with their high places,
And moved him to jealousy with their graven images.
When God heard this, he was wroth,
And greatly abhorred Israel:
So that he forsook the tabernacle of Shiloh,
The tent which he placed among men;
And delivered his strength into captivity,
And his glory into the enemy's hand.
He gave his people over also unto the sword;
And was wroth with his inheritance.
The fire consumed their young men;
And their maidens were not given to marriage.
Their priests fell by the sword;
And their widows made no lamentation.
Then the Lord awaked as one out of sleep,
And like a mighty man that shouteth
by reason of wine.
And he smote his enemies in the hinder parts:
He put them to a perpetual reproach.
Moreover he refused the tabernacle of Joseph,
And chose not the tribe of Ephraim:
But chose the tribe of Judah,
The mount Zion which he loved.
And he built his sanctuary like high palaces,
Like the earth which he hath established for ever.
He chose David also his servant,
And took him from the sheepfolds:
From following the ewes great with young he brought him
To feed Jacob his people,
And Israel his inheritance.
So he fed them according to the sintegrity of his heart;
And guided them by the skilfulness of his hands.

 For lo, thine enemies ^c make a tumult :
 And they that ^d hate thee have ^e lift up the head.
^f They have taken crafty counsel against thy people,
 And consulted against ^g thy hidden ones.
 They have said, Come, and let us
^h cut them off ⁱ from being a nation ;
 That the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance.
 For they have ^k consulted together with one ^l consent :
 They ¹ are confederate against thee :
 The tabernacles of ^m Edom, and the ⁿ Ishmaelites ;
 Of ^o Moab, and the ^p Hagarenes ;
^q Gebal, and ^r Ammon, and ^s Ama-

 Who said, ⁱ Let us take to ourselves
 The ^j houses of God in possession.
 O my God, make them ^k like a wheel ;
^l As the stubble ^m before the wind.
¹ As the fire burneth a wood,
 And as the flame ⁿ setteth the mountains on fire ;
 So ⁱ persecute them ⁿ with thy ^o tempest,
 And make them afraid with thy ^p storm.
^q Fill their faces with shame ;
 That they may seek thy name, O

17 Let them be ^r confounded and troubled for ever ;
 Yea, let them be ^r put to shame, and 18 That men ^s may know that thou,

PSALM LXXXV.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm || for the sons of Korah.

LORD, thou hast been || favourable unto thy land :

Thou hast ^abrought back the captivity of Jacob.

Thou hast ^bforgiven the iniquity of ²thy people,

Thou hast ^bcovered all their sin. Selah.

Thou hast taken away all thy wrath :
|| Thou hast ^cturned ^dthyself from the fierceness of thine anger.

^eTurn us, O God of our salvation,
^fAnd cause thine anger towards us to cease.

^gWilt thou be angry with us for ever?
Wilt thou ^hdraw out thine anger to all generations?

Wilt thou not ⁱrevive us again :
That ^jthy people may rejoice in thee?

Shew us thy mercy, O LORD,
And grant us thy salvation.

^kI will hear what God the LORD will ⁸speak :

For ^lhe will speak peace unto his people, and to ^mhis saints :

But let them not ⁿturn again to ^ofolly.
Surely ^phis salvation is nigh them that ⁹fear him ;

That ^qglory may dwell in our land.

^rMercy and truth ^rare met together ; ¹⁰

^sRighteousness and ^speace have kissed each other.

Truth shall ^uspring out of the earth ; ¹¹
And ^urighteousness shall look down from heaven.

Yea, ^xthe LORD shall give that which ¹² is good ;

And ^your land shall yield her increase.

^zRighteousness shall go before him ; ¹³

2 Preserve my soul ; for I am ¹holy :
O thou my God, save thy servant
^cthat trusteth in thee.

3 ^dBe merciful unto me, O Lord :
For ^eI cry unto thee ¹daily.

4 Rejoice the soul of thy servant :

5 For thou, Lord, art good, and ^{ff}ready

6 ^hGive ear, O LORD, unto my prayer ;

And ^oworship before thee, O Lord ;
And shall glorify thy name.

10 For thou art ^pgreat, and ^qdoest won-

^rThou art God alone.

11 ^sTeach me thy way, O LORD ; ^tI will walk in thy truth :

Unite my heart to fear thy name.

12 I will praise thee, O Lord my God,
with all my heart :

And I will glorify thy name for evermore.

13 For great is thy mercy toward me :
And thou hast ^udelivered my soul from ^vthe lowest ¹hell.

14 O God, ^wthe proud are risen against
me,

And the assemblies of ^tviolent men
have sought after my soul ;

And have not set thee before them.

15 ^xBut thou, O Lord, art a God full of compassion, and gracious,

Longsuffering, and ^gplenteous in mercy and truth.

16 O ^yturn unto me, and ^dhave mercy
upon me ;

Give thy strength unto ^zthy servant,
And save ^zthe son of thine handmaid.

PSALM LXXXVII.

* A Psalm or Song || for the sons of Korah.

His ^a foundation is in ^b the holy mountains.The LORD ^c loveth the gates of Zion ²
More than all the dwellings of Jacob.
Glorious things are spoken of thee, ³
O ^d city of God. Selah.I will make mention of ^e Rahab and ⁴
^f Babylon ^g to them that know me:
Behold Philistia, and Tyre, with ^h Ethiopia;This man was born ⁱ there.
And of ^j Zion it shall be said, This ⁵
and that man was born in her:
And the Highest himself shall establish her.The LORD shall ^k count, when he ⁶ ^l writeth ^{up} the people,
That this man was born there. Selah.
As well the singers as the ^m players ⁷ on instruments shall be there:
All my springs are in thee.

PSALM LXXXVIII.

* A Song or Psalm || for the sons of Korah. To the chief Musician upon *Mahalath ¹Leannoth, || Maschil of *Heman the ¹Ezrahite.O LORD ^a God of my salvation,
I have ^b cried day and night before thee:
Let my prayer come before thee: ²
^c Incline thine ear unto my cry;
For my soul is full of troubles: ³
And ^d my life draweth nigh unto ^e the grave.I am counted ^f with them that go ⁴ down into the pit:
I am as a man that hath no strength:
Free among the dead,
Like the slain that lie in the grave,
Whom thou ^g rememberest no more:
And they are ^h cut off ¹ from thy hand.
Thou hast laid me in ⁱ the lowest pit, ⁶
^k In darkness, in ^l the deeps.
Thy wrath lieth hard upon me, ⁷
And thou hast afflicted me with ^m all thy waves. Selah.Thou hast put away ⁿ mine acquaint- ⁸ ance far from me;
Thou hast made me ^o an abomination unto them:
I am ^p shut up, ^q and I cannot come forth.⁹ ^r Mine eye mourneth by reason of affliction:LORD, ^s I have called daily upon thee, ^t I have stretched out my hands unto thee.¹⁰ ^u Wilt thou ^u shew wonders to the dead?
Shall ^v the dead arise and praise thee?
Selah.¹¹ Shall thy lovingkindness ^g be declared in the grave?Or thy faithfulness in ^v destruction?¹² Shall ^z thy wonders be known in ^a the dark?And thy righteousness in the land of ^b forgetfulness?¹³ But ^e unto thee have I cried, O LORD;
And ^d in the morning shall my prayer ^e prevent thee.LORD, why ^f castest thou off my soul?Why ^g hidest thou thy face from me?¹⁵ I am afflicted and ready to die from my youth up:While I suffer thy terrors I am distracted.¹⁶ Thy fierce wrath ^h goeth over me;
Thy ⁱ terrors have cut me off.¹⁷ ^j They came round about me ¹ daily like water;They ^k compassed me about together.¹⁸ ^l Lover and friend ^m hast thou put far from me,
And ⁿ mine acquaintance into ⁿ darkness.

PSALM LXXXIX.

|| Maschil of *Ethan the ¹Ezrahite.^a I will sing of the ^b mercies of the LORD for ever:With my mouth will I make known ^c thy faithfulness ¹ to all generations.² For I have said, Mercy shall be ⁱ built up for ever:^d Thy faithfulness ^e shalt thou establish in the very heavens.³ I have made a covenant with ^f my chosen,I have ^g sworn unto David my servant,⁴ ^h Thy seed will I stablish for ever,
And ⁱ build up ^k thy throne ^l to all generations. Selah.⁵ And ^m the heavens shall praise ⁿ thy wonders, O LORD:^d Thy faithfulness also ⁿⁿ in the congregation ^o of the saints.⁶ Thy faithfulness also ⁿⁿ in the congregation ^o of the saints.⁷ Thy faithfulness also ⁿⁿ in the con-

For who in the heaven ^p can be com- 6

Who among ^q the sons of the mighty can be likened unto the LORD?
God is greatly to be feared in ^{qq} the 7 assembly ^o of the saints,
And ^r to be had in reverence of all them that are about him.
O LORD God of hosts, Who is a strong ^s LORD ^t like unto
thee?
Or ^u to ^d thy faithfulness round about
thee?
Thou rulest the raging of the sea : 9
When the waves thereof arise, thou ^u stillest them.
^x Thou hast broken [†] Rahab in pieces, 10
as one that is slain ; Thou hast ^y scattered thine enemies [†] with thy strong arm.
^z The heavens are thine, the earth also 11 is thine :
As for ^a the world and ^a the fulness thereof, thou hast ^b founded them.
^c The north and the south thou hast 12 created them :
^d Tabor and ^e Hermon shall ^f rejoice in thy name.
Thou hast ^a mighty arm : 13 Strong is thy hand, and high is thy right hand
^g Justice and judgment are the [†] ^g ha- 14
bitation of thy throne :
^h Mercy and truth shall ⁱ go before thy face.
Blessed is the people that know the 15
^k joyful sound :
They shall walk, O LORD, in the ^l light of thy countenance.
In thy name shall they rejoice all the 16
day :
And in thy righteousness shall they be exalted.
For thou art the glory ^m of their 17
strength :
And in thy favour ⁿ our horn shall be exalted.
For [†] the LORD is our defence ; 18
And ^p the Holy One of Israel is ^q our king.
^q Then thou spakest in vision to ^r thy 19
holy one,
And saidst, I have ^s laid help upon
one that is ^t mighty ;
I have exalted one ^u chosen out of the people.

^x I have found David my servant ; 20
^y With my holy oil have I anointed
him :
^z With whom my hand shall be es- 21
tablished :
Mine arm also shall ^z strengthen him.
The enemy shall not exact upon him ;
Nor ^a the son of wickedness afflict him.
And I will ^b beat down his foes before his face,
And plague them that hate him.
But ^c my faithfulness and ^c my mercy 24
shall be with him :
And in my name ^d shall his horn be exalted.
I will set his hand also in ^e the sea,
And his right hand in ^e the rivers.
He shall cry unto me, Thou art ^f my Father,
My God, and ^g the rock of my salvation.
Also I will make him ^b my firstborn,
ⁱ Higher than the kings of the earth.
^k My mercy will I keep for him for evermore,
And ^l my covenant shall stand fast
with him.
^m His seed also will I make to endure
for ever,
And ⁿ his throne ^o as the days of heaven.
^p If his children ^q forsake my law,
And walk not in my judgments ;
If they ^r break my statutes,
And keep not my commandments ;
Then will I ^r visit their transgression 32
with ^s the rod,
And their iniquity with ^s stripes.
Nevertheless ^c my lovingkindness ^t will
I not utterly take from him,
Nor suffer ^c my faithfulness ^t to fail.
^l My covenant will I not ^t break, Nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips.
Once have I ^u sworn ^v by my holiness
^t That I will not lie unto David.
^m His seed shall endure for ever,
And ⁿ his throne ^x as the sun before
me.
It shall be established for ever as ^x the moon,
And as a faithful ^y witness in heaven.
Selah.
But thou hast ^z cast off and ^a abhor-

Thou ^a hast been wroth with ^d thine anointed.

Thou hast ^emade void the covenant ³⁹ of thy servant :

^fThou hast profaned ^ghis crown by casting it ^hto the ground.

ⁱThou hast broken down all his ⁴⁰
hedges ;

Thou hast brought his strong holds to ruin.

ⁱAll that pass by the way spoil him : ⁴¹
He is ^ja reproach to his neighbours.

Thou hast set up the right hand of ⁴²
his adversaries ;

Thou hast made all his enemies to rejoice.

Thou hast also turned the edge of his ⁴³
sword,

And hast not made him to stand in the battle.

Thou hast made his ^tglory to cease, ⁴⁴
And cast his throne down ^hto the ground.

^kThe days of his youth hast thou ⁴⁵ shortened :

Thou hast covered him with shame.
Selah.

^lm How long, LORD ? ^mwilt thou hide ⁴⁶
thyself, ^mfor ever ?

Shall thy wrath ⁿburn like fire ?

^oRemember how short ^pmy time is : ⁴⁷
Wherefore hast thou made all ^qmen
in vain ?

^rWhat man is he that liveth, and shall ⁴⁸
not ^ssee death ?

Shall he deliver his soul from the hand of the grave ? Selah.

Lord, where are thy former ^tloving- ⁴⁹
kindnesses,

Which thou ^uswarest unto David in thy ^vtruth ?

^wRemember, Lord, the reproach of ⁵⁰
thy servants ;

How I do bear ^xin my bosom the re- proach of all the mighty people ;

Wherewith ^ythine enemies have re- ⁵¹
proached, O LORD ;

Wherewith they have reproached the ^yfootsteps of ^dthine anointed.

^zBlessed be the LORD for evermore. ⁵²
Amen, and Amen.

PSALM XC.

|| A Prayer * of Moses the man of God.

LORD, ^athou hast been our dwelling place ^tin all generations.

² Before ^cthe mountains were ^dbrought forth,

Or ever thou hadst ^{b d}formed ^ethe
earth and the world,

^fEven from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God.

³ Thou ^gturnest man to destruction ;
And sayest, Return, ye children of men.

⁴ For ^ha thousand years in thy sight
ⁱ*Are but* as yesterday ^jwhen it is past,

And as a watch in the night.

⁵ Thou ^kcarriest them away as with a flood ; ^lthey are as a sleep :

In the morning they are ^{m n}like grass which ^ogroweth up.

⁶ ^pIn the morning it ^qflourisheth, and ^ogroweth up ;

^pIn the evening it is ^{m q}cut down, and withereth.

⁷ For we are consumed by thine anger,
And by thy wrath are we troubled.

⁸ ^rThou hast set our iniquities before
thee,

^sOur secret sins in the light of thy countenance.

⁹ For all our days are ^tpassed away in thy wrath :

We spend our years ^uas a tale that is told.

¹⁰ ^{tt}The days of our years are threescore years and ten ;

And if by reason of strength they be fourscore years,

Yet is their strength labour and sorrow ;
For it is soon cut off, and we fly away.

¹¹ Who knoweth the power of thine anger ?
Even according to thy fear, so is thy wrath.

¹² ^uSo teach us to number our days,
That we may ^tapply our hearts unto wisdom.

¹³ ^wReturn, O LORD, ^xhow long ?
And let it ^yrepent thee concerning
thy servants.

¹⁴ O satisfy us ^zearly with thy mercy ;
That ^awe may rejoice and be glad all our days.

¹⁵ Make us glad according to ^bthe days wherein thou hast afflicted us,

And ^bthe years wherein we have seen evil.

 ever:
 8 But thou, LORD, art ^mmost High for

 9 For lo, ⁿthine enemies, O LORD,
 For lo, ⁿthine enemies shall perish;
 All ^jthe workers of iniquity shall ^obe

 The LORD ^dis clothed ^ewith strength, wherewith ^ehe hath girded himself :
^bThe world also is stablished, that ^tit cannot be moved.

^dThe floods have lifted up their ^dThe floods lift up their waves.

 iThe LORD ^jon high is mightier
 Than the noise of many waters, Yea, than the ^kmighty ^lwaves of the sea.
 Thy testimonies are very sure :
 Holiness becometh thine house,
 O LORD, ^tfor ever.

PSALM XCIV.

O LORD ^tGod, ^ato whom vengeance
 belongeth ;
^bO God, to whom vengeance belongeth, ^tshew thyself.
^cLift up thyself, thou ^djudge of the ²
 earth :
 Render a reward to the proud.
 LORD, ^ehow long shall the wicked, ³ ^bHow long shall the wicked triumph?
How long shall they ^{ee}utter and speak ⁴ ^t*hard things* ?
 And all ^gthe workers of iniquity boast themselves?
 They ^bbreak in pieces thy people, O ⁵
 LORD,
 And afflict thine heritage.
 They slay the widow and the stranger, ⁶
 And murder the fatherless.
 iYet they say, The ^kLORD shall not see, ⁷ Neither shall the God of Jacob regard it.
 lUnderstand, ye ^lbrutish ^mamong the ⁸
 people :
 And ye ^lfools, when will ye be wise?

ⁿHe that planted the ear, shall he not hear?
 He that formed the eye, shall he not see?
 He that ^ochastiseth the heathen, shall not he correct?
^pHe that teacheth man knowledge, shall not he know?
 qThe LORD knoweth the thoughts of man,
 That they are ^rvanity.
 Blessed is the man whom thou ^{os}chas-
 tenest, O ^kLORD,
 And ^pteachest him out of thy law ;
 That thou mayest ^tgive him rest from ^uthe days of adversity, Until ^vthe pit be digged for the wicked.
 For ^wthe LORD will not cast off
 his people,
 Neither will he forsake his inheritance.
 But judgment shall return unto righteousness :
 And all ^xthe upright in heart ^tshall
 follow it.
 Who will ^yrise up for me ^zagainst the evildoers?
 Or who will ^ystand up for me ^zagainst ^gthe workers of iniquity?
 a Unless the LORD had been my help,
 My soul had ^balmost dwelt in ^csi-
 lence.
 When I said, ^dMy foot slippeth ;
 Thy mercy, O LORD, ^eheld me up.
 In the multitude of my ^fthoughts within me
 Thy comforts delight my soul.
 Shall the throne of ^giniquity have fellowship with thee,
 Which frameth mischief ^hby a law?
 They gather themselves together against the soul of the righteous,
 And ⁱcondemn the innocent blood.
 But the LORD is my ^jdefence ;
 And my God is ^kthe rock of my

 And ^mhe shall bring upon them their

 And shall ⁿcut them off in their own

 Yea, the LORD our God ^oshall ⁿcut

^bThy years are ^cthroughout all generations.

^dOf old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth:

And the heavens are the work of thy hands.

^eThey shall perish, but ^fthou ²⁶ shalt [†]endure:

Yea, all of them shall wax old like a garment;

As a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed:

But ^gthou art the same, ²⁷

And thy years shall have no end.

^hThe children of thy servants shall ²⁸ ⁱcontinue,

And ^jtheir seed shall ^kbe established before thee.

PSALM CIII.

A Psalm of David.

^aBless the LORD, O my soul:

And all that is within me, bless his holy name.

^aBless the LORD, O my soul,

And ^bforget not all his benefits:

Who ^cd^dforgiveth all thine iniquities; ³

Who ^de^ehealeth all thy diseases;

Who ^fredeemeth ^gthy life from ^bde- ⁴struction;

Who ⁱcrowneth thee with lovingkindness and tender mercies;

Who satisfieth thy ^kmouth with good ⁵things;

So that thy youth is renewed ^llike the eagle's.

The LORD ^mexecuteth righteousness ⁶And ^mjudgment for all that are oppressed.

ⁿHe made known his ways unto Mo- ⁷ses,

His acts unto the children of Israel.

^oThe LORD is merciful and gracious, ⁸

Slow to anger, and [†]plenteous in mercy.

^pHe will not always chide: ⁹

Neither will he ^qkeep his anger for ever.

¹⁰ ^rHe hath not dealt with us after our sins;

Nor ^srewarded us according to our iniquities.

¹¹ ^rFor [†]as the heaven is high above the earth,

So ^ugreat is his mercy toward ^vthem that fear him.

¹² As far as the east is from the west, So far hath he ^wremoved our transgressions from us.

¹³ ^xLike as a father pitieth his children, So the LORD pitieth ^vthem that fear him.

¹⁴ For he knoweth our ^yframe;

^zHe remembereth that we are ^adust.

¹⁵ As for man, his days are as ^bgrass:

As a ^cflower of the field, so he ^bflourisheth.

¹⁶ For ^{cc}the wind passeth over it, and [†]it is gone;

And ^dthe place thereof shall know it no more.

¹⁷ But ^ethe mercy of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting upon ^vthem that fear him,

And his righteousness ^funto children's children;

¹⁸ To such as ^gkeep his covenant, And to those that remember his ^hcommandments to do them.

¹⁹ The LORD hath prepared ⁱhis throne in the heavens;

And ^khis kingdom ruleth over all.

²⁰ Bless the LORD, ye ^lhis angels,

[†]That excel in strength, that ^mdo his commandments,

Harkening unto the voice of his word.

²¹ Bless ye the LORD, all ye ^lhis hosts;

Ye ^oministers of his, that do ^phis pleasure.

²² ^qBless the LORD, all his works In all places of his dominion:

^rBless the LORD, O my soul.

Who ^hlayeth the beams of his ⁱchambers ^jin the waters:

 Who walketh ^lupon the wings of the wind:
^mWho maketh his angels spirits; ⁿHis ministers a flaming ^ofire:
^t*Who* laid the foundations of the earth.
 That ^qit should not be removed for ever.
^rThou coveredst it with the deep as with a garment:

^sAt thy rebuke they fled;

^vThey go up by the mountains; they go down by the valleys
 Unto ^xthe place which thou hast ^yfounded for them.
^xThou hast set ^ya bound that they may not pass over;
^z*That* they turn not again to cover the earth.
¹He sendeth the springs into the valleys,
Which ¹run among the hills.
 They ^agive drink to every beast of the field:
 The ^bwild asses ^cquench their thirst.
 By them shall ^cthe fowls of the heaven have their habitation,

^fHe causeth the ^ggrass to grow for the cattle,

 That ^hhe may bring forth ^ffood out of the earth;

 Where the birds make their nests:
 As for the ^sstork, the fir trees are her house.

The high hills are a refuge for the ^twild goats;
 And the rocks for the ^uconies.
 He appointed the moon ^xfor seasons:
^yThe sun knoweth his going down.
^zThou makest darkness, and it is night:
 Wherein ¹all the beasts of the forest do ⁱcreep forth.
 The ^ayoung lions roar after their ^aprey,
 And ^bseek their meat from God.
 The sun ariseth, they gather themselves together,
 And lay them down in their ^cdens.
^dMan goeth forth unto ^ehis work

 O LORD, how manifold are thy works!
^fIn wisdom hast thou made them all:
 The earth is full of thy ^griches.

ⁱWherein are things creeping innumerable,
 Both small and great beasts.
 There go the ships:
 There is that ^kleviathan, whom thou hast ^lmade to ^lplay therein.
 These ^mwait all upon thee;
 That ⁿthou mayest ^mgive them their meat in due season.
 That thou givest them they gather:
ⁿThou openest thine hand, they are filled with good.
^oThou hidest thy face, they are troubled:
^pThou takest away their breath, they die,
 And ^qreturn to their dust.
 Thou sendest forth thy spirit, they are created:
 And thou renewest the face of the earth.
 The glory of the LORD ^tshall endure for ever:
^rThe LORD shall rejoice in his works.

he hath done;

O ye seed of ^eAbraham his servant, 6
Ye children of Jacob, ^ehis chosen.
He is the LORD our God: 7
His judgments are in all the earth.
He hath ^fremembered his cove- 8

^fWhich covenant he made with 9
Abraham,
And his oath unto Isaac;
And confirmed the same unto Jacob 10

And to Israel for an everlasting cove-

^tThe lot of your inheritance:
When ⁱthey were but ^aa few men in 12

Yea, very few, and strangers in it.
When they went from one nation to 13

From one kingdom to another people;
He suffered no man to do them wrong: 14
Yea, he reprov'd kings for their sakes;
^hSaying, ^kTouch not mine anointed, 15
And do my prophets no harm.
Moreover, ^lhe called for a famine 16

He ^mbrake the whole ^mstaff of bread.
ⁿHe sent a man before them, 17
Even Joseph, who ^owas sold for a

^pWhose feet they hurt with ^afetters: 18
^tHe was laid in iron:

23 ^bIsrael also came into Egypt;

24 And ^dhe increased his people greatly;
And made them stronger than their 25 ^eHe turned their heart to hate his

31 ^wHe spake, and there came ^rdivers

32 ^tHe gave them hail for rain,

33 ^tHe smote their vines also and their

For °he remembered his holy pro- 42

And he brought forth his people with 43
joy,
And ¶his chosen with †gladness:
And †gave them the lands of the hea- 44

†That they might observe his statutes, 45

PSALM CVI.

†Praise ye the LORD.
aO give thanks unto the LORD; bfor
he is good:
cFor his mercy endureth for ever.
Who can utter the mighty acts of the 2
LORD?
Who can shew forth all his praise?
Blessed are they that keep judgment, 3
And he that °doeth righteousness †at all times.
sRemember me, O LORD, with the 4 favour that thou bearest unto thy people;
O visit me with thy salvation;
That I may see the good of hthy 5 chosen,
That I may rejoice in the gladness of thy nation,
That I may glory with thine inheritance.
We have ksinned lwith our fathers, 6 kmWe have committed iniquity, knwe have done wickedly.
Our fathers °understood not thy won- 7
ders in Egypt;
They Remembered not the multitude of thy mercies;
But †provoked him at the sea, even at †the Red sea.
Nevertheless he saved them sfor his 8 name's sake,
That he °might make his mighty power to be known.
uHe wrebuked the Red sea also, and 9
it was °dried up:
So yhe led them through the depths,
as through the wilderness.
And zhe saved them from the hand 10
of him that hated them,
And †redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.

And bthe waters covered their enemies:
cThere was not one of them left.
Then dbelieved they his words;
They dsang his praise.
e†They soon forgot his works;
They †waited not for his counsel:
fBut †lusted exceedingly in the wilderness,
And htempted God in ithe desert.
And jhe gave them their request;
But sent kJeanness into their soul.
lThey envied Moses also in the camp,
And mAaron the saint of the LORD.
nThe earth opened and swallowed up Dathan,
And °covered nthe company of Abi-ram.
oPa fire was kindled in their company;
qThe flame burnt up rthe wicked.
sThey made a calf tin Horeb,
And worshipped the molten image.
Thus uthey changed their glory Into xthe similitude of an ox that eateth grass.
yThey yforgot God their saviour,
Which had done zgreat things in Egypt;
Wondrous works in the land aof Ham,
And zterrible things by bthe Red sea.
cTherefore dhe said that he would destroy them,
Had not Moses ehis chosen stood before him fin the breach,
To turn away his wrath, glest he should destroy them.
hYea, hthey despised †the pleasant land,
They ibelieved not his word:
kBut lmurmured in their tents,
And hearkened not unto the voice of
the LORD.
Therefore mhe lifted up his hand against them,
†To overthrow them in the wilderness:
†To overthrow their seed also among the nations,
And to nscatter them in the lands.
oThey °joined themselves also unto pBaal-peor,
And qate the sacrifices of rthe dead.
Thus they provoked him to anger with stheir inventions:
And the plague brake in upon them.

¹²So that he ¹³spake unadvisedly with

¹⁴They did not destroy the nations, ¹⁵34

Wilt not thou, O God, who hast cast us off ?

^gAnd wilt not thou, O God, go forth with our hosts ?

Give us help from trouble :
For vain is the help of man.
Through God we shall do valiantly :
For he it is that shall tread down our enemies.

PSALM CIX.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

^aHold not thy peace, ^bO God of my praise ;
For the mouth of the wicked and the ^cmouth of the deceitful ^dare opened against me :

They have spoken against me with a lying tongue.

They compassed me about also with words of hatred ;

And fought against me ^ewithout a cause.

For my love they ^dare my adversaries :

But ^eI give myself unto ^fprayer.

And ^gthey have rewarded me evil for
good,
And hatred for my love.

^hSet thou a wicked man over ⁱhim :
And ^klet ^lSatan stand ^kat his right hand.

^mWhen he shall be judged, let him ^tbe condemned :

And let ⁿhis prayer become sin.

Let his days be few ;
And ^olet another take his ^loffice.

Let ^phis children be fatherless,
And his wife a widow.

Let his children ^qbe continually vagabonds, and ^rbeg :

Let them seek ^s*their bread* also out of their desolate places.

Let the extortioner ^tcatch all that he hath ;

And ^ulet the strangers spoil his labour.

Let there be none to ^wextend mercy unto him :

Neither let there be ^xany to favour his fatherless children.

Let ^yhis posterity be cut off ;
And in the generation following let ^ztheir name be blotted out.

Let ^athe iniquity of his fathers be remembered with the LORD ;

And let not the sin of his mother ^bbe blotted out.

Let them be before the LORD continually,

^cThat he may cut off the memory of them from the earth.

Because that he remembered not to shew mercy,

But persecuted ^dthe poor and needy
man,

That he might even slay the ^ebroken in heart.

^fAs he loved cursing, so let it come
unto him :

As he delighted not in blessing, so let it be far from him.

As ^ghe clothed himself with cursing like as with his garment,

So let it ^hcome ⁱinto his bowels like water,

And like oil into his bones.

Let it be unto him as the garment which covereth him,

And for a girdle wherewith he is girded continually.

Let this be the reward of ⁱmine adversaries from the LORD,

And of them that speak evil against my soul.

But do thou for me, O GOD the Lord,
^jfor thy name's sake :

^kBecause thy mercy is good, deliver thou me.

That his mercy endureth for ever.

^b Let the house of Aaron now say,
That his mercy endureth for ever.

^b Let them now ^cthat fear the LORD ^d say,
That his mercy endureth for ever.

^d I called upon the ^eLORD ^fin ^fdis-
tress:

The ^eLORD answered me, and ^gset me in ^ha large place.

ⁱ The LORD ⁱis ^jon my side; ^jI ^kwill not fear:

What can man do unto me?

^k The LORD taketh my part with them
that help me:

Therefore shall ^lI see my desire upon them that hate me.

It is better to ^mtrust in the LORD
Than to put confidence in man.

It is better to ^mtrust in the LORD
Than to put confidence in ⁿprinces.

All nations ^ocompassed me about:
But in the name of the LORD will I

^ldestroy them.

^o They compassed me about; yea, they ¹¹ compassed me about:

But in the name of the LORD I will destroy them.

^o They compassed me about ^plike bees; ¹²
They are quenched ^qas the fire of thorns:

For in the name of the LORD I will ^ldestroy them.

Thou hast ^rthrust sore at me that ¹³ might fall:

But the LORD helped me.

The ^sLORD ^sis my strength and ¹⁴ song,

And ^tis become my salvation.

The voice of rejoicing and salvation ¹⁵ ^{is} in the tabernacles of the righteous:

^u The right hand of the LORD ^vdoeth
valiantly.

The right hand of the LORD ^{ex}-¹⁶
alted:

^u The right hand of the LORD ^vdoeth
valiantly.

I ^wshall not die, but live, ¹⁷
And ^xdeclare the works of the ^eLORD.

The ^eLORD hath ^ychastened me sore; ¹⁸
But he hath not given me over unto death.

¹⁹ ^z Open to me the gates of righteousness:

I will go into them, and I will praise
the ^eLORD:

²⁰ This gate of the LORD,

^a Into which the righteous shall enter.
²¹ I will praise thee: for ^bthou hast heard
me,

^c And art become my salvation.

^d The stone which the builders refused

Is become ^ethe head stone of the corner.

^f This is the LORD's doing;

It is marvellous in our eyes.

²⁴ This is the day which the LORD hath made;

We will rejoice and be glad in it.

^f Save now, I beseech thee, O LORD:
O LORD, I beseech thee, send now prosperity.

²⁶ ^g Blessed be ^hhe that cometh ⁱin
the name of the LORD:

^k We have blessed you out of the house of the LORD.

²⁷ God ⁱis the LORD, which hath ^lshewed us light:

Bind the ^msacrifice with cords,
Even unto ⁿthe horns of the altar.

²⁸ Thou art my God, and I will praise
thee:

Thou art my God, I will ^oexalt thee.

²⁹ ^p O give thanks unto the LORD; for he ⁱis good:

For his mercy endureth for ever.

a Praise ye the LORD.

b Praise ye the name of the LORD;
Praise him, O ye servants of the LORD.Ye that stand in the house of the LORD,
In the courts of the house of our God.Praise the LORD; for the LORD is good:Sing praises unto his name; for it is pleasant.For the LORD hath chosen Jacob unto himself.

And Israel for his peculiar treasure.

For I know that the LORD is great,
And that our Lord is above all gods.Whatsoever the LORD pleased,
That did he in heaven, and in earth,
In the seas, and all deep places.He causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth;

He maketh lightnings for the rain;

He bringeth the wind out of his treasuries.Who smote the firstborn of Egypt, Both of man and beast.Who sent tokens and wonders into the midst of thee, O Egypt,Upon Pharaoh, and upon all his servants.Who smote great nations,
And slew mighty kings;Sihon king of the Amorites,
And Og king of Bashan,And all the kingdoms of Canaan:
And gave their land for an heritage,

An heritage unto Israel his people.

Thy name, O LORD, endureth for ever;And thy memorial, O LORD, through out all generations.14 For the LORD will judge his people,
And he will repent himself concerning his servants.15 The idols of the heathen are silver and gold,

The work of men's hands.

16 They have mouths, but they speak
not;

Eyes have they, but they see not;

They have ears, but they hear not;

Neither is there any breath in their mouths.18 They that make them are like unto
them:

So is every one that trusteth in them.

19 Bless the LORD, O house of Israel:

Bless the LORD, O house of Aaron:

20 Bless the LORD, O house of Levi:

PSALM CXXXVII.

By the rivers of Babylon, there we sat down, yea, we wept,

When we remembered Zion.

We hanged our harps
Upon the willows in the midst thereof.

For there they that carried us away captive required of us a song ;

And they that wasted us required of us mirth,

Saying, Sing us one of the songs of Zion.

How shall we sing the LORD's song
In a strange land ?

If I forget thee, O Jerusalem,

Let my right hand forget her cunning.

If I do not remember thee,

Let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth ;

If I prefer not Jerusalem above my chief joy.

Remember, O LORD, the children of Edom in the day of Jerusalem ;
Who said, Rase it, rase it, even to the foundation thereof.

O daughter of Babylon, who art to be destroyed ;

Happy shall he be, that rewardeth thee

As thou hast served us.

Happy shall he be that taketh
And dasheth thy little ones against the stones.

PSALM CXXXVIII.

A Psalm of David.

I will praise thee with my whole heart :

Before the gods will I sing praise unto thee.

I will worship towards thy holy temple,

And praise thy name for thy loving-kindness and for thy truth :

For thou hast magnified thy word above all thy name.

In the day when I cried thou answeredst me,

And strengthenedst me with strength in my soul.

All the kings of the earth shall praise thee, O LORD,

When they hear the words of thy mouth.

Yea, they shall sing in the ways of the LORD :

For great is the glory of the LORD.

Though the LORD be high, yet hath he respect unto the lowly :

But the proud he knoweth afar off.

Though I walk in the midst of trouble, thou wilt revive me :

Thou shalt stretch forth thine hand against the wrath of mine enemies,

And thy right hand shall save me.

The LORD will perfect that which concerneth me :

Thy mercy, O LORD, endureth for ever :

Forsake not the works of thine own hands.

 And art ⁱ acquainted with all my ways.
 For there is not a word in my ^j
 tongue,
But lo, O LORD, ^k thou knowest it altogether.
 Thou hast ^l beset me behind and before,
 And ^m laid thine hand upon me.
Such ⁿ knowledge is ^o too wonderful for me;
 It is high, I cannot attain unto it.
^p Whither shall I go from thy spirit? ^q
 Or whither ^r shall I flee from thy presence?
^s If I ascend up into heaven, thou art ^t
 there;
^u If I ^v make my bed in hell, behold,
 thou art there.
If I take ^w the wings of the morning,
 And dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea;
 Even there shall thy hand ^x lead me,
 And thy right hand shall hold me.
 If I say, ^y Surely the darkness shall cover me;
 Even the night shall be light about

 Yea, ^z the darkness ^{aa} hideth not from ^{ab}

 But the night shineth as the day:
^{ac} The darkness and the light are both alike to thee.
 For thou hast ^{ad} possessed my reins: ^{ae}
 Thou hast ^{af} covered me in my mo-

 and wonderfully made:
^{ah} Marvellous are thy works;
 And ^{ai} that my soul knoweth ^{aj} right well.
^{ak} My substance was not hid from ^{al}

 And in thy book ^{aq} all my members were

^{ar} Which in continuance were fashion-

^b How precious also are ^c thy thoughts unto me, O God:
 How great is ^d the sum of them!
^e If I ^f should count them, they are more

 When I awake, I am still with thee.
^h Surely thou wilt ⁱ slay the wicked, O
 God:
^j Depart from me therefore, ^k ye bloody
 men.
^l For they ^m speak against thee wickedly,
 And thine ⁿ enemies take ^o thy name

^p Do not I hate them, O LORD, that hate thee?
 And am not I ^q grieved with ^r those that rise up against thee?
^s I hate them with perfect hatred:
 I count them mine enemies.
^t Search me, O God, and know my heart:
^u Try me, and know my ^v thoughts:
^w And see if there be any ^x wicked ^y way
 in me,
 And ^z lead me in the ^{aa} way ^{ab} ever-

^hdiscretion.
A wise man will hear, and ^hwill increase ⁱlearning ;
And a man of understanding shall ⁱattain unto ^jwise counsels :
To ^cunderstand a ^aproverb, and ^hthe interpretation ;
The words of the wise, and their ^kdark sayings.
^lThe fear of the LORD is ^hthe beginning of knowledge :
But ^hfools despise wisdom and ^bin-struction.
^mMy son, hear the ^binstruction of thy ^g
father,
And ⁿforsake not the law of thy mother :
For they shall be [†]an ornament of ^g
grace unto thy head,
And ^ochains about thy ^pneck.
My son, ^qif sinners entice thee,
Consent thou not.
If they say, Come with us, let us ^rlay wait for blood,
Let us ^slurk privily for the innocent without cause :
Let us ^uswallow them up alive ^vas
the grave ;
And whole, ^was those that go down into the pit :
We shall find all precious substance,
We shall fill our houses with spoil :

14 Cast in thy lot among us ;
Let us all have one purse :
15 My son, ^qwalk not thou in the way with them ;
Refrain thy foot from their path :
16 ^rFor their feet run to evil,
And make haste to shed blood.
17 Surely in vain ^zthe net is spread [†]in the sight of any bird.
18 And they ^clay wait for their own
blood ;
They ^clurk privily for their own lives.
19 So are the ways of every one ^dthat is greedy of gain ;
Which taketh away the life of ^{dd}the owners thereof.
20 ^{†e}Wisdom crieth without ;
She uttereth her voice in the streets :
21 She crieth in the chief place of concourse, in ^{ee}the openings of the gates :
In the city she uttereth her words,
saying,
22 How long, ye ^fsimple ones, will ye love simplicity ?
And the ^gscorners delight in their scorning,
And fools ^hhate knowledge ?
23 Turn you at my reproof :
Behold, ⁱI will ^jpour out my spirit unto you,
I will make known my words unto you.
24 ^kBecause I have called, and ye ^lrefused ;
I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded ;
25 But ye have ^mset at nought all my counsel,
And ⁿwould none of my reproof :
I also will ^olaugh at your calamity ;
I will ^omock when your fear cometh ;
26 When your fear cometh as ^pdesolation, And your destruction cometh as a whirlwind ;
When distress and anguish cometh upon you :

q Then shall they call upon me, but I 28

They shall r seek me early, but they shall not find me:
For that they h hated knowledge, 29
And did not s choose the fear of the LORD:
They n would none of my counsel: 30
They t despised all my reproof.
Therefore shall they eat of u the fruit 31
of their own way,
And be w filled with their own de-

And the prosperity of fools shall destroy them.
But y whoso hearkeneth unto me shall 33

And z shall be quiet from fear of a My son, if thou wilt receive my words,

a And b hidé my commandments with
thee;
So that thou bb incline thine ear unto 2
wisdom,
And apply thine heart to understanding;
Yea, if thou criest after c knowledge, 3
And t liftest up thy voice for understanding;
If thou seekest her d as silver,
And searchest for her as for e hid treasures;
k Then shalt thou understand the fear 5
of the LORD,
And find the knowledge of God.
For f the LORD giveth wisdom: 6
Out of his mouth cometh knowledge and understanding.
He b layeth up g sound wisdom for the 7
righteous:
He is a h buckler to them that i walk
uprightly.
He ii keepeth the paths of judgment, 8
And j preserveth the way of his saints.
k Then shalt thou understand l righte- 9
ousness, and judgment,
And m equity; yea, every good path.
When wisdom entereth into thine 10
heart,
And knowledge is pleasant unto thy soul;
n Discretion o shall preserve thee,
Understanding shall keep thee: 11

To deliver thee from the way of the evil man,
From the man that speaketh pfroward things;
Who leave the paths of uprightness,
To q walk in the ways of darkness;
r Who rejoice to do evil,
And s delight in the pfrowardness of the wicked;
Whose ways are t crooked,
And they u froward in their paths:
w To deliver thee from the x strange woman,
w Even from y the stranger which z flattereth with her words;
Which forsaketh a the guide of her youth,
And forgetteth the covenant of her
God.
For b her house inclineth unto death,
And her c paths unto d the dead.
None that go unto her return again,
Neither take they hold of the paths of life.
That thou mayest walk in the way of good men,
And keep the paths of the righteous.
For the upright e shall dwell in the land,
And the perfect shall remain in it.
But the wicked f shall be cut off from
the earth,
And g the transgressors shall be h rooted out of it.

^h I looked through my casement,

8 Passing through the ^l street near ^m her corner;

 9 In the ⁿ twilight, ^t in the evening,

 15 Therefore came I forth to meet thee,
^x Diligently to seek thy face, and I have found thee.

 17 I have ^a perfumed my bed

 18 Come, let us take our fill of love until the morning:

 19 For the ^d goodman ^{is} not at home,

 20 He hath taken a ^e bag of money ^t with him,
And will come home at ^l the day appointed.
 21 With her much ^f fair speech she caused him to yield,
 With ^g the flattering of her lips she forced him.
 22 He goeth after her ^t straightway,
 As an ox goeth to the slaughter,
 Or as a fool to the correction of the stocks;
 23 Till a dart strike through his liver;
^h As a bird hasteth to the snare,
 And knoweth not that it ^{is} for his life.
 24 ^{ik} Harken unto me now therefore, O ye children,

The wicked desireth ¹the ^vnet of evil ¹² men:

But the root of the righteous ^wyieldeth fruit.

¹*The wicked is snared by the trans- ¹³gression of his lips:

But ^vthe just shall come out of trouble.

²A man shall be ^asatisfied with good ¹⁴by ^athe fruit of his mouth:

And the ^brecompence of a man's hands shall be rendered unto him.

^cThe way of a fool is right in his own ¹⁵eyes:

But he that hearkeneth unto counsel is wise.

^dA fool's wrath is ^tpresently known: ¹⁶But a prudent man covereth shame.

He that ^espeaketh truth sheweth forth ¹⁷righteousness:

But ^ea false witness deceit.

^{ee}There is that ^fspeaketh ^slike the ¹⁸piercings of a sword:

But the tongue of the wise is ^bhealth.

The lip of truth shall be established ¹⁹for ever:

But ¹a lying tongue is but for a moment.

Deceit is in the heart of them that ²⁰^kimagine evil:

But to the counsellors of peace is joy.

¹There shall no evil happen to the ²¹just:

But the wicked shall be filled with mischief.

^mLying lips are ^{ma}abomination to the ²²LORD:

But they that deal truly are his delight.

^oA prudent man concealeth know- ²³ledge:

But ^othe heart of fools proclaimeth foolishness.

The hand of the ^pdiligent shall bear ²⁴rule:

But the ^plothful shall be ^runder tribute.

^sHeaviness in the heart of man maketh it stoop:

^sBut ^ta good word maketh it glad.

The righteous is more ¹excellent than ²⁶his neighbour:

But the way of the wicked seduceth them.

The ^ulothful man roasteth not that ²⁷which he took in hunting:

But the substance of a ^udiligent man is precious.

28 In the way of righteousness is life; And in the pathway thereof there is no death.

A wise son heareth his father's instruction:

But a scorner ^aheareth not rebuke.

² A ^bman shall eat good by the fruit of his mouth:

But the soul of the transgressors ^c*shall* eat violence.

³ ^dHe that keepeth his mouth keepeth his life:

But ^{dd}he that openeth wide his lips shall have destruction.

⁴ ^eThe soul of the sluggard desireth, and hath nothing:

But ^ethe soul of the diligent ^fshall be made fat.

⁵ A righteous man hateth lying: But a wicked man is loathsome, and cometh to shame.

⁶ ^gRighteousness keepeth him that is ^hupright in the way:

But wickedness ^goverthroweth ^tthe sinner.

⁷ ⁱThere is that maketh himself rich, yet hath nothing:

ⁱⁱ There is that maketh himself poor, yet hath great riches.

⁸ ^jThe ransom of a man's life are his riches:

But the poor ^kheareth not rebuke.

⁹ ¹The light of the righteous rejoiceth: But the ¹lamp ¹of the wicked shall be put out.

¹⁰ ^mOnly by pride cometh contention: But with the well advised is wisdom.

¹¹ ⁿWealth gotten by vanity shall be diminished:

But he that gathereth ^tby labour shall increase.

¹² Hope deferred maketh the heart sick: But ^o*when* the desire cometh, it is ^pa tree of life.

¹³ Whoso ^qdespiseth ^rthe word shall be destroyed:

But he that feareth the commandment ¹shall be ^srewarded.

¹⁴ The law of the wise is a ^tfountain of life,

^uTo depart from ^{uv}the snares of death.

^{wx} Good understanding giveth ^xfavour: But the way of transgressors is hard.

¹⁶ ^yEvery prudent man dealeth with knowledge:

But a fool ¹layeth open his folly.

¹⁷ A wicked messenger falleth into mischief:

the ^kbosom
To pervert the ways of judgment.
^mWisdom is ⁿbefore him that hath ²⁴ understanding;
But ⁿthe eyes of a fool are in the ends
of the earth.
gA foolish son is a grief to his fa- ²⁵
ther,
And bitterness to ⁿⁿher that bare him.
Also ^bto ^opunish the just is not ²⁶
good,
Nor to strike princes for equity.
He that hath knowledge ^{oo}spareth his ²⁷
words:
And a man of understanding is of ^lan excellent spirit.
Even a fool, ^pwhen he holdeth his ²⁸
peace, is counted wise:
And he that shutteth his lips is esteemed a man of understanding.
iThrough desire a man, having separated himself, seeketh
And ^bintermeddleth with all ^cwisdom.
A fool hath no delight in under- ²
standing,
But ^dthat his heart may discover itself.
When the wicked cometh, then com- ³
eth also contempt,
And with ignominy reproach.
eThe words of a man's mouth are as ⁴
f deep waters,
And the wellspring of wisdom as ^ga flowing brook.
It is not good to ^haccept the person ⁵
of the wicked,
To ⁱoverthrow the righteous in judg-

A fool's lips enter into contention, ⁶
And his mouth calleth for ^kstrokes.
lA fool's mouth is his destruction, ⁷
And his lips are the snare of his soul.
mThe words of a ^ltalebearer are ⁸as wounds,
nnAnd they go down into the ^linner-

He also that is slothful in his work ⁹
Is ⁿbrother to him that is a ^ogreat waster.
The name of the LORD is ^{pa}strong ¹⁰ tower:
The righteous runneth into it, and ⁱis safe.

11 qThe rich man's wealth is his strong city,
And as a high wall in his own ^rcon-

12 sBefore destruction the heart of man is haughty,
And ^tbefore honour is humility.
13 He that ^uanswereth a matter ^ubefore
he heareth it,
It is folly and shame unto him.
14 The spirit of a man will sustain his infirmity;
But ^xa wounded spirit who can bear?
15 The heart of the prudent ^ygetteth
knowledge;
And the ear of the wise seeketh knowledge.
16 zA man's gift maketh room for
him,
And bringeth him before great men.
17 He that is first in his own cause seemeth just;
But ^ahis neighbour cometh and searcheth him.
18 The lot causeth contentions to cease,
And parteth between the mighty.
19 A brother offended is harder to be won than a strong city:
And their contentions are like the bars of a ^bcastle.
20 cA man's belly shall be satisfied with c the fruit of his mouth;
And with the increase of his lips shall he be filled.
21 dDeath and life are in the power of the tongue:
And they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof.
22 eWhoso findeth a wife findeth a ^fgood
thing,
And ^gobtaineth favour ^hof the LORD.
23 The poor useth intreaties;
But ⁱthe rich answereth roughly.
24 A man that hath friends must ^jshew himself friendly:
And ^kthere is ^la friend that sticketh closer than a brother.
aBetter is the poor ^bthat walketh in his integrity,
aThan he that is perverse in his lips,
and is a fool.
2 Also, that the soul be without knowledge, it is not good;

Counsel in the heart of man is like 5
 deep water;
 But a man of understanding will draw it out.
 Most men will proclaim every one 6
 his own goodness:
 But a faithful man who can find?
 The just man walketh in his integrity: 7
 His children are blessed after him.
 A king that sitteth in the throne of 8 judgment
 Scattereth away all evil with his eyes. 9
 Who can say, I have made my heart clean,
 I am pure from my sin?
 Divers weights, and divers mea- 10
 sures,
 Both of them are alike abomination to the LORD.
 Even a child is known by his doings. 11
 Whether his work be pure, and whether it be right.
 The hearing ear, and the seeing eye, 12
 The LORD hath made even both of
 them.
 Love not sleep, lest thou come to 13
 poverty;
 Open thine eyes, and thou shalt be satisfied with bread.
 It is naught, it is naught, saith the 14
 buyer:
 But when he is gone his way, then he boasteth.
 There is gold, and a multitude of 15
 rubies:
 But the lips of knowledge are a precious jewel.
 Take his garment that is surety for a 16
 stranger:
 And take a pledge of him for a strange woman.
 Bread of deceit is sweet to a man; 17
 But afterwards his mouth shall be filled with gravel.
 Every purpose is established by 18
 counsel:
 And with good advice make war.
 He that goeth about as a talebearer 19
 revealeth secrets:
 Therefore meddle not with him that flattereth with his lips.
 Whoso curseth his father or his mo- 20
 ther,
 His lamp shall be put out in obscure darkness.

21 An inheritance may be gotten hastily at the beginning;
 But the end thereof shall not be blessed.
 Say not thou, I will recompense evil; 22
 But wait on the LORD, and he shall save thee.
 Divers weights are an abomination 23
 unto the LORD;
 And a false balance is not good.
 Man's goings are of the LORD; 24
 How can a man then understand his own way?
 It is a snare to the man who devour- 25
 eth that which is holy,
 And after vows to make inquiry.
 A wise king scattereth the wicked, 26
 And bringeth the wheel over them.
 The spirit of man is the candle of 27
 the LORD,
 Searching all the inward parts of 28
 the belly.
 Mercy and truth preserve the king:
 And his throne is upholden by mercy. 29
 The glory of young men is their strength:
 And the beauty of old men is the 30
 gray head.
 The blueness of a wound cleanseth 31
 away evil:
 So do stripes the inward parts of the belly.
 The king's heart is in the hand of the 32
 LORD, as the rivers of water:
 He turneth it whithersoever he will.
 Every way of a man is right in his 33
 own eyes:
 But the LORD pondereth the hearts. 34
 To do justice and judgment Is more acceptable to the LORD than sacrifice.
 A high look, and a proud heart, 35
 And the plowing of the wicked, is sin.
 The thoughts of the diligent tend only 36
 to plenteousness;
 But of every one that is hasty only to want.
 The getting of treasures by a lying 37
 tongue
 Is a vanity tossed to and fro of them that seek death.
 The robbery of the wicked shall de- 38
 stroy them;
 Because they refuse to do judgment.

(Heb.) only.

^s He that hath a bountiful eye shall be blessed;
For ^the giveth of his bread to the poor.
^u Cast out the scorner, and contention shall go out;
Yea, ^wstrife and reproach shall cease.
^x He that loveth pureness of heart, ^ythe king ^zshall be his friend.
The eyes of the LORD preserve knowledge,
And he ^zoverthroweth [†]the words of the transgressor.
^a The slothful man saith, There is a lion without,
I shall be slain in the streets.
The mouth of ^bstrange women is ^ca deep pit:
^d He that is abhorred of the LORD shall fall therein.
Foolishness is bound in the heart of a child;
But ^ethe rod of correction shall drive it far from him.
He that oppresseth the poor to increase his riches,
And he that giveth to the rich, shall surely come to want.
^g Bow down thine ear, and hear ⁱthe words of the wise,
And ^happly thine heart unto my knowledge.
For it is a pleasant thing if thou keep ⁱthem [†]within thee;
They shall withal be fitted in thy lips.
That thy trust may be in the LORD, I have made known to thee this day, ^jeven to thee.
Have not I written to thee ^kexcellent things
In counsels and knowledge,
That I might make thee know [†]the certainty of the words of truth;
That thou mightest answer the words of truth [†]to them that send unto thee?
^m Rob not the poor, because he is poor:
Neither ⁿoppress the afflicted ^oin the gate:
For ^pthe LORD will plead their cause,
And ^qspoil the soul of those that spoiled them.

24 Make no friendship with ^ran angry man;
And with a furious man ^rthou shalt not go:
25 Lest thou learn his ways,
And get a snare to thy soul.
26 Be not thou one of ^sthem that strike hands,
Or of ^sthem that are sureties for ^tdebts.
27 If thou hast nothing to pay,
Why should he ^utake away thy bed from under thee?
28 ^v Remove not the ^wancient [†]landmark,
Which thy fathers have set.
29 ^x Seest thou a man ^ydiligent in his business?
He shall ^zstand before kings;
He shall not stand before [†]mean men.
When thou sittest to eat with a ruler,
Consider diligently what is before thee:
2 And put a knife to thy throat,
If thou be a man ^agiven to ^bappetite.
3 ^c Be not desirous of his ^ddainties:
For they are deceitful meat.
4 ^e Labour not to be rich:
Cease from thine own ^fwisdom.
5 [†] Wilt thou set thine eyes upon that which is not?
For ^griches certainly make themselves wings;
They fly away as an eagle toward heaven.
6 ^h Eat thou not the bread of him that hath ⁱan evil eye,
^c Neither desire thou his ^ddainty meats:
7 For as he thinketh in his ^bheart, so is he:
Eat and drink, saith he to thee;
^j But his heart is not with thee.
8 The morsel which thou hast eaten shalt thou ^kvomit up,
And [†]lose thy sweet words.
9 [†] Speak not in the ears of a fool:
For he will despise the wisdom of thy words.
10 ^m Remove not the old [†]landmark;
And enter not into the fields of the fatherless:
11 For their ⁿRedeemer is mighty;
He ^oshall plead their cause with thee.

²⁷ It is better to dwell in a corner of the housetop,
 Than with a brawling woman and in a wide house.
²⁸ As cold waters ²⁹ to a thirsty soul,
 So is ³⁰ good news from a far country.
³¹ A righteous man ³² falling down before the wicked
 Is as a ³³ troubled fountain, and a corrupt spring.
³⁴ It is not good to eat much honey:
³⁵ So for men ³⁶ to search their own ³⁷ glory is not glory.
³⁸ He that hath no rule over his own spirit
 Is like ³⁹ a city that is ⁴⁰ broken down, and without walls.

⁴¹ So ver. 2 (Heb.).
⁴² So ch. 16. 32.
⁴³ ch. 3. 3, 5, & 26. 1, 8 (Heb.), &c.
⁴⁴ 2 Chr. 32. 5.
 As snow in summer, and ⁴⁵ as rain in harvest,
⁴⁶ So honour is not ⁴⁷ seemly for a fool.
⁴⁸ As the ⁴⁹ bird by wandering, as the ⁵⁰ swallow by flying,
 So ⁵¹ the curse causeless shall not come.
⁵² A whip for the horse, a bridle for the ass,
 And ⁵³ a rod for the fools' back.
⁵⁴ Answer not a fool according to his folly,
 Lest thou also be like unto him.
⁵⁵ Answer a fool according to his folly,
 Lest he be wise in ⁵⁶ his own conceit.
⁵⁷ He that sendeth a message by the hand of a fool
 Cutteth off the feet, and ⁵⁸ k drinketh ⁵⁹ damage.
⁶⁰ The legs of the lame ⁶¹ are not equal:
 So is a ⁶² parable in the mouth of fools.
⁶³ As he that bindeth a stone in a sling,
⁶⁴ So is he that giveth honour to a fool.
⁶⁵ As ⁶⁶ a thorn gearth up into the hand of a drunkard,
 So is a ⁶⁷ parable in the mouth of fools.
⁶⁸ The great God that ⁶⁹ formed all things
 Both rewardeth the fool, and rewardeth transgressors.
⁷⁰ As ⁷¹ a dog returneth to his vomit,
 So ⁷² a fool ⁷³ returneth to his folly.
⁷⁴ Seest thou a man wise in his own conceit?
⁷⁵ There is more hope of a fool than of him.

Comp. Job 31. 13.

¹ He that ²hasteth to be rich hath ³an ⁴evil eye,

And considereth not that ⁵poverty shall come upon him.

⁶ If that rebuketh a man, afterwards ⁷shall find more favour

Than he that ⁸flattereth with the tongue.

Whoso robbeth his father or his mo- ⁹ther,

And saith, It is no transgression;

The same ¹⁰is the companion of ¹¹a destroyer.

¹² He that is ¹³of a proud heart ¹⁴stirreth ¹⁵up strife:

But he that putteth his trust in the LORD ¹⁶shall be made fat.

¹⁷ He that trusteth in his own heart is ¹⁸a fool:

But whoso walketh wisely, he shall be delivered.

¹⁹ He that giveth unto the poor shall ²⁰not lack:

But he that ²¹hideth his eyes shall have many a curse.

²² When the wicked rise, men ²³hide ²⁴themselves:

But when they perish, the righteous increase.

²⁵ He, that being often reprov'd ²⁶hard- eneth his neck,

Shall suddenly be destroyed, and that ²⁷without remedy.

²⁸ When the righteous are ²⁹in authority, ³⁰the people rejoice:

But ³¹when the wicked beareth rule, the people mourn.

³² Whoso loveth wisdom rejoiceth his ³³father:

But ³⁴he that ³⁵keepeth company with harlots ³⁶spendeth his substance.

The king by judgment ³⁷stablisheth ³⁸the land:

But ³⁹he that receiveth gifts overthrow- eth it.

A man that ⁴⁰flattereth his neighbour ⁴¹spreadeth a net for his feet.

⁴² In the transgression of an evil man ⁴³there is a snare:

But ⁴⁴the righteous doth ⁴⁵sing and re- joice.

⁴⁶ The righteous considereth the cause ⁴⁷of the poor:

But ⁴⁸the wicked regardeth not to know it.

⁴⁹ He that is ⁵⁰scornful ⁵¹bring a city into a ⁵²snare:

But wise ⁵³men turn away wrath.

⁵⁴ If a wise man ⁵⁵contendeth with a foolish man,

⁵⁶ Whether he rage or laugh, there is no ⁵⁷rest.

⁵⁸ The bloodthirsty hate the upright: But the just seek his soul.

⁵⁹ A fool uttereth all his mind:

But a wise ⁶⁰man ⁶¹keepeth it in till after- wards.

⁶² If a ruler hearken to lies,

All his servants are wicked.

⁶³ The poor and ⁶⁴the deceitful man ⁶⁵meet together:

⁶⁶ The LORD lighteneth both their eyes.

⁶⁷ The king that faithfully judgeth the poor,

⁶⁸ His throne shall be established for ever.

⁶⁹ The rod and reproof give wisdom:

But a child ⁷⁰left to himself ⁷¹bringeth ⁷²his mother to shame.

⁷³ When the wicked are multiplied, trans- gression increaseth:

But ⁷⁴the righteous shall ⁷⁵see their fall.

⁷⁶ Correct thy son, and he shall give thee rest;

Yea, ⁷⁷he shall give delight unto thy soul.

⁷⁸ Where there is no vision, the people ⁷⁹perish:

But ⁸⁰he that keepeth the law, happy is he.

⁸¹ A servant will not be corrected by words:

For though he understand he will not answer.

⁸² Seest thou a man that is hasty ⁸³in his words?

⁸⁴ There is more hope of a fool than of him.

⁸⁵ He that delicately bringeth up ⁸⁶his servant from a child

Shall have him become his son at the length.

⁸⁷ An angry man stirreth up strife,

And ⁸⁸a furious man aboundeth in transgression.

⁸⁹ A ⁹⁰man's pride shall bring him low:

But honour shall uphold the ⁹¹humble in spirit.

⁹² Whoso is partner with a thief ⁹³hateth his own soul:

⁹⁴ He heareth cursing, and ⁹⁵a bewrayeth it not.

ECCLESIASTES,

OR,

THE PREACHER.

Before CHRIST about 977.

THE words of the ^aPreacher, the son of David, ^bking in Jerusalem.

^cVanity of vanities, saith the ^aPreacher, ^cvanity of vanities; ^dall is ^evanity.

^fWhat profit hath a man ^gof all his labour which he taketh under the sun?

^hOne generation passeth away, and another generation cometh: but ⁱthe earth abideth for ever. ^kThe sun also ariseth, and the sun goeth down, and ^lhasteth to his place where he arose. ^mThe wind goeth toward ⁿthe south, and turneth about unto the north; it whirleth about continually, and the wind returneth again

according to his circuits. ^oAll the rivers run into the sea; yet the sea is not full;

unto the place ^pfrom whence the rivers come, thither they ^qreturn again. All things are full of labour; man cannot utter it: ^rthe eye is not satisfied with seeing,

nor the ear filled with hearing. ^sThe thing that hath been, it is that which shall be; and that which is done is that which shall be done: and there is no new thing under the sun. Is there any thing whereof it may be said, See, this is new? it hath been ^talready of old time, which was before us. There is

^uno remembrance of former things; neither shall there be any remembrance of things that are to come with those that shall come after.

I the ^aPreacher was ^tking over Israel ^uin Jerusalem. And ^vI gave my heart to seek and search out by wisdom concerning all things that are done ^vunder heaven:

^wthis sore ^xtravail hath God given to the sons of man ^yto be exercised therewith. I have seen all the works ^zthat are done under the sun; and behold, all is ^zvanity and ^zvexation of spirit. ^z*That which is* crooked cannot be made straight: and ^zthat which is wanting cannot be numbered. I communed with mine own heart, saying, Lo, ^aI am come to great estate, and have ^agotten more wisdom than all they that have been before me in Jerusalem: yea, my heart ^bhad great experience of wisdom and knowledge. And ^bI gave my heart to know wisdom, and to know ^cmadness and ^dfolly: I perceived that this also is ^evexation of spirit. For ^fin much wisdom is much ^ggrief: and he that increaseth knowledge increaseth ^gsorrow.

^f So ch. 12. 12. Eccles. 21. 12.

I said in mine heart, Go to now, I will prove thee with mirth, therefore ^aenjoy pleasure: and behold, this also is

^avanity. ^bI said of laughter, It is ^cmad: and of mirth, What doeth it? ^dI sought in mine heart ^eto give myself unto wine, (^{dd}yet acquainting mine heart with wisdom) and to lay hold on ^efolly, till I might see what was that good for the sons of men, which they should do under the heaven ^fall the days of their life.

^gI made me great works; ^hI builded me houses; ⁱI planted me vineyards: I made me ^hgardens and ⁱorchards, and I planted trees in them of all kind of fruits: I made me pools of water, to water therewith the wood that bringeth forth trees: I ^kgot me servants and maid-ens, and had ^lservants born in my house; also I had great possessions of ^lgreat and small cattle above all that were ^min Jerusalem before me: ⁿI gathered me also silver and gold, and the

^opeculiar treasure of ^pkings and of the 9 provinces: I gat me ¹men singers and ²women singers, and the ³delights of the sons of men, as ⁴musical instruments, and that of all sorts. So ⁵I was great, and increased more than all that were before me ⁶in Jerusalem: also ⁷my wisdom remained with me. And whatsoever mine eyes desired I ⁸kept not from them, I withheld not my heart from any joy; for my heart rejoiced in all my labour: and ⁹this was my portion of all my labour. Then I looked on all the works that my hands had wrought, and on the labour that I had laboured to do: and behold, all was ¹⁰vanity and vexation of spirit, and there was no ¹¹profit under the sun.

And I turned myself to behold wisdom, and ¹²madness, and ¹³folly: for what can the man do that cometh ¹⁴after the king? ¹⁵Even that which hath been ¹⁶already done. Then I saw ¹⁷that wisdom excelleth ¹⁸folly, as far as light ¹⁹excelleth darkness. ²⁰The wise man's eyes ²¹are in his head; but the fool walketh in darkness: and I myself perceived also ²²that ²³honest event happeneth to them all. Then said I in my heart, As ²⁴it happeneth to the fool, so it ²⁵happeneth even to me; and why was I then ²⁶more wise? Then I said in my heart, that this also ²⁷is vanity. For there is ²⁸no remembrance of the wise more than of the fool for ever; seeing that which ²⁹now is, ³⁰in the days to come shall all be forgotten. And ³¹how dieth the wise man? as the fool. Therefore I hated life; because ³²the work that is wrought under the sun ³³is grievous unto me: for all ³⁴is ³⁵vanity and vexation of spirit. Yea, I hated all ³⁶my labour which I ³⁷had ³⁸taken under the sun: because ³⁹I should leave it unto the man that shall be ⁴⁰after me. And ⁴¹who knoweth whether he shall be a wise man or a fool? yet shall he have rule over all my labour ⁴²wherein I have laboured, and ⁴³wherein I have shewed myself wise under the sun. This ⁴⁴is also vanity. Therefore I ⁴⁵went about to cause my heart to despair of all the labour which I took under the sun. For there is a man ⁴⁶whose labour ⁴⁷is in wisdom, and in knowledge, and in ⁴⁸equity; yet to a man that hath not laboured therein shall he ⁴⁹leave it ⁵⁰for his portion. This also ⁵¹is vanity and a great evil. For what hath man ⁵²of all his labour, and of the ⁵³vexation of his heart, wherein he ⁵⁴hath laboured under the sun? For all ⁵⁵this days ⁵⁶are ⁵⁷sorrows, and his ⁵⁸travail ⁵⁹grief; yea, his heart taketh not rest in the night. This ⁶⁰is also vanity.

⁶¹There is nothing better for a man, ⁶²than that he should eat and drink, and ⁶³that he ⁶⁴should make his soul ⁶⁵enjoy good in his labour. This also I saw, ⁶⁶that it ⁶⁷was from the hand of God. ⁶⁸For who can eat, or who else can hasten ⁶⁹hereunto, more than I? For ⁷⁰God giveth to a man that ⁷¹is good ⁷²in his sight wisdom, and knowledge, and joy: but to the sinner he giveth ⁷³travail, ⁷⁴to gather and to heap up, ⁷⁵that ⁷⁶he may give to ⁷⁷him that ⁷⁸is good before God. This also ⁷⁹is ⁸⁰vanity and vexation of spirit.

And moreover I saw under the sun ¹⁶ the place of judgment, that ^b wickedness was there; and the place of righteousness, that iniquity was there. I said in mine heart, ^a God shall judge the righteous and the wicked: for there is ^c a time ^d there for every purpose and for every work.

I said in my heart ^e concerning the ¹⁸ estate of the sons of men, ^f that God might ^g manifest them, and that they might see ^g that they themselves are beasts. For ^h that which befalleth the sons of men befalleth beasts; even ⁱ one thing befalleth them: as the one dieth, so dieth the other; yea, they have all one breath; so that a man hath no pre-eminence above a beast: for all is vanity. All go unto one place; ^k all are of the dust, and all turn to dust again. Who ²¹ knoweth ^l the spirit ^t of man that ^l goeth upward, and the spirit of the beast that goeth downward to the earth? Where- ²² fore I perceive ^m that there is nothing better, than that a man should rejoice in his own works; for ⁿ that is his portion: for who shall bring him to see ^o what shall be after him?

IV.

So ^a I returned, and considered all the ^b oppressions that are done under the sun: and behold, the tears of such as were oppressed, and they had ^c no comforter; and on the ^t side of their oppressors there was power; but they had ^c no comforter. Wherefore ^d I praised the ² dead which are ^e already dead more than the living which are ^f yet alive. Yea, ³ better is he than both they, ^g which hath not ^f yet been, who hath not seen the evil work that is done under the sun.

Again, I considered all travail, and ⁴ ^t every right work, that ^t for this a man ⁱ is envied of his neighbour. This is also ^j vanity and vexation of spirit. The fool ⁵ ^k foldeth his hands together, and ^l eateth his own flesh. ^m Better is a handful ⁶ ⁿ quietness, than both the hands full ^{with} travail and ^j vexation of spirit.

Then ^o I returned, and I saw vanity ⁷

⁸ under the sun. There is one alone, and there is not a second; yea, he hath neither child nor brother: yet is there no end of all his labour; neither is his ⁹ ^p eye satisfied ^{with} riches; neither ^q saith he, ^r For whom do I labour, and bereave my soul of good? This is also vanity, ⁹ yea, it is a sore ^s travail. Two are better than one; because they have a good ¹⁰ reward for their labour. For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow: but ^t woe to him that is alone when he falleth; for he hath not another to help him up. ¹¹ Again, if two lie together, then they have heat: but ^u how can one be warm ¹² alone? And if one ^x prevail against him, two shall withstand him; and a ^y three-fold cord is not quickly broken.

^a Keep thy foot when thou goest to ^{aa} the house of God, and be more ready to hear, ^b than to give the sacrifice of fools: for they consider not that they do ² evil. ^c Be not rash with thy mouth, and let not thine heart be hasty to utter any ³ thing before God: for God is in heaven, and thou upon earth: therefore let thy words be ^d few. For a dream cometh through the multitude of ^e business; and a fool's voice is known ^f by multitude of ⁴ words. ^g When thou vowest a vow unto God, ^h defer not to pay it; for he hath no ⁱ pleasure in fools: pay that which ⁵ thou hast vowed. poor, and °violent perverting of judgment and justice in a pprovince, marvel not †at the matter: for †he that is higher than the highest regardeth; and there be higher than they.

Moreover †the profit of the earth is 9 for all: the king himself is served by the field. He that loveth silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he that loveth abundance with increase: this is also vanity. When goods increase, they 11 are increased that eat them: and what †good is there to †the owners thereof, saving the beholding of them with their eyes? The sleep of a labouring man is 12 sweet, whether he eat little or much: but the abundance of the rich will not suffer him to sleep.

*There is †a sore evil which I have 13 seen under the sun, namely, riches kept for †the owners thereof to their hurt. But those riches perish by evil †travail: 14 and he begetteth a son, and there is nothing in his hand. †As he came forth 15 of his mother's womb, naked shall he return to go as he came, and shall take nothing of his labour, which he may carry away in his hand. And this also 16 is †a sore evil, that in all points as he came, so shall he go: and †what profit hath he that hath †laboured for the wind? All his days also †he eateth in 17 darkness, and he hath much sorrow and wrath with his sickness.

Behold that which I have seen: †it is 18 good and comely for one to eat and to drink, and to †enjoy the good of all his labour that he taketh under the sun †all the days of his life, which God giveth him: for †it is his portion. Every man 19 also †to whom God hath given riches and †wealth, and hath given him power to eat thereof, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labour; †this is the gift of God. †For he shall not much 20 remember the days of his life; because God answereth him in the joy of his heart.

VI. †There is an evil which I have seen 21 under the sun, and it is common among men: a man †to whom †God hath given 22 †riches, †wealth, and †honour, so that he wanteth nothing for his soul of all that he desireth, yet God †giveth him not power to eat thereof, but a stranger eateth it: this is vanity, and it is an evil disease. If a man beget an hundred 23 children, and live many years, so that †the days of his years be many, and †his soul be not filled with good, and also †that he have no burial; I say, that †an untimely birth is better than 24 he. For he cometh in with vanity, and departeth in darkness, and †his name shall be covered with darkness. Moreover he hath not seen the sun, nor known any thing: this hath more †rest 25 than the other. Yea, †though he live a thousand years twice told, yet †hath he †seen no good: do not all go to one place?

†All the labour of man is for his 26 mouth, and yet the †appetite is not filled. For what hath the wise †more than the fool? what hath the poor, that knoweth to walk before the living? 27 Better is †the sight of the eyes †than the wandering of the desire: this is also 28 †vanity and vexation of spirit. That which hath been †his named †already, and it is known that it is man: †neither may he contend with him that is 29 †mightier than he. Seeing there be many things that increase vanity, what 30 is man †the better? For who knoweth what is good for man in this life, †all the days of his vain life which he spendeth as †a shadow? for †who can tell a man †what shall be after him under the sun?

bosom of fools. Say not thou, What ¹⁰ is the cause that the former days were better than these? for thou dost not inquire [†]wisely concerning this. Wis- ¹¹ dom is [‡]good with an inheritance: and by it [§]there is ^{||}profit [¶]to them that see the sun. For wisdom [‡]is a [§]defence, ^{||}and money [¶]is a [‡]defence: but the [§]excellency of knowledge ^{||}is, [¶]that wisdom [‡]giveth life to [§]them that have it. Consider the work of God: for who ¹³ can [‡]make [§]that straight, which he hath ^{||}made crooked? [¶]In the day of pro- ¹⁴ sperity be joyful, but in the day of adversity consider: God also hath [‡]set the one over against the other, [§]to the end that man should find nothing after him.

All ¹⁵ things have I seen in the days [‡]of my vanity: [§]there is a just ^{||}man that perisheth in his righteousness, and there is a wicked [¶]man that longeth [‡]his life in his wickedness. Be not right- ¹⁶ eous over much; [§]neither make thyself ^{||}over wise: why shouldst thou [¶]destroy thyself? Be not over much wicked, ¹⁷ neither be thou foolish: [‡]why shouldst thou die [§]before thy time? ^{||}It is good ¹⁸ that thou shouldst take hold of [‡]this; yea, also from [§]this ^{||}withdraw not thine hand: for he that feareth God shall come forth of them all. ¹⁹ Wisdom strengtheneth the wise more than ten [‡]mighty men which are in the city. [¶]For [‡]there is not a just man upon earth, ²⁰ that doeth good, and [‡]sinneth not. Also [‡]take no heed unto all words ²¹ that are spoken; lest thou hear [‡]thy servant curse thee: [§]for oftentimes also ²² thine own heart knoweth that thou thyself likewise hast cursed others.

All this have I proved by wisdom: ²³ [‡]I said, I will be wise; but it [‡]was far from me. That which is far off, and ²⁴ [‡]exceeding deep, [‡]who can find it out? [‡]I applied mine heart to know, and ²⁵ to search, and to seek out wisdom, and the [‡]reason of [‡]things, and to know the wickedness of folly, even of foolishness and madness: and I find more [‡]bitter ²⁶ than death the woman, whose heart [‡]is [‡]snares and nets, [‡]and her hands [‡]as bands: [‡]whoso pleaseth God shall escape from her; but [‡]the sinner shall be taken by her. Behold, this have I found, ²⁷

[‡]saith the Preacher, [‡]counting one by ²⁸ one, to find out the account: which yet my soul seeketh, but I find not: [‡]one man among a thousand have I found; but a woman [‡]among all those ²⁹ have I not found. Lo, this only have I found, [‡]that God hath made man upright; but [‡]they have sought out many [‡]inventions.

[‡] Gen. 1. 27. [‡] Gen. 3. 6, 7. [‡] 2 Chr. 26. 15 (Heb.). [‡] See ver. 25.

Who [‡]is as the wise [‡]man? and who [‡]knoweth the interpretation of a thing? [‡]a man's wisdom [‡]maketh his face to shine, and [‡]the boldness of his face [‡]shall be changed. I [‡]counsel [‡]thee to keep the king's commandment, and [‡]that [‡]in regard of [‡]the oath of God. [‡]Be not hasty [‡]to go out of his sight: [‡]stand not in an evil thing; for he doeth what- [‡]soever pleaseth him. Where the word of a king [‡]is, [‡]there is [‡]power: and [‡]who may say unto him, What doest thou? [‡]Whoso keepeth the commandment [‡]shall feel no evil thing: and a wise [‡]man's heart discerneth [‡]both time and [‡]judgment.

Because [‡]to every purpose there is time and [‡]judgment, therefore the misery [‡]of man [‡]is great upon him. For [‡]he knoweth not that which shall be: for [‡]who can tell him [‡]when it shall be? [‡]There is no man that hath [‡]power over the spirit [‡]to retain the spirit; neither [‡]hath he [‡]power in the day of death: and [‡]there is no [‡]discharge in [‡]that war; neither shall wickedness deliver [‡]those that are given to it. [‡]All this have I seen, and applied my heart unto every work that is done under the sun: [‡]there is a time wherein one man ruleth over another to his [‡]own hurt. And [‡]so I saw the wicked buried, who had come and gone from [‡]the place of the holy, and [‡]they were forgotten in the city where they had so done: this [‡]is also vanity.

Because sentence [‡]against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men [‡]is fully set in them to do evil. Though a sinner do evil an hundred times, and [‡]his [‡]days be prolonged, yet surely I know that [‡]it shall be well [‡]with them that fear God, which fear [‡]before him: but it [‡]shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he prolong his days, which are ^das a shadow; because he feareth not before God.

There is a vanity which is done ¹⁴upon the earth; that there be just men, ^eunto whom it happeneth according to the work of the wicked; again, there be wicked men, ^fto whom it happeneth according to the work of the righteous: I said that this also is vanity. Then I commended mirth, because ²⁴a man hath no better thing under the sun, than to eat, and to drink, and to be merry: for that shall ^habide with him of his labour the days of his life, which God giveth him under the sun.

When I applied mine heart to know ¹⁶wisdom, and to see the ⁱbusiness that is done upon the earth: (for also there is that neither day nor night seeth sleep with his eyes:) then I beheld all the work of God, that ^ka man cannot find out the work that is done under the sun: because though a man labour to seek it out, yet he shall not find it; yea further, though a wise man think to know it, ¹yet shall he not be able to find it.

IX. For all this ¹I considered in my heart even to ^adeclare all this, ^bthat the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of God: ^cno man knoweth either love or hatred by all that is before them. ^dAll things come alike to all: ²*there is* ^eone event to the righteous, and to the wicked; to the good and to the clean, and to the unclean; to him that sacrificeth, and to him that sacrificeth not: as is the good, so is the sinner; and ^fhe that sweareth, as he that feareth an oath. This is an evil among all ³*things* that are done under the sun, that ^g*there is* ^eone event unto all: yea, also the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and ^hmadness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead. For to him that is joined to all the living there is hope: for a living dog is better than a dead lion. For the living know that they shall die: but ^hthe dead know not any thing, neither have they any more a reward; for ⁱthe memory of them is forgotten. Also their love, and their hatred, and their envy, is ^know perished; neither have they any more a portion for ever in any thing that is done under the sun.

7 Go thy way, ¹eat thy bread with joy, and drink thy wine with a merry heart; ^mfor God ^know accepteth thy works. 8 Let ⁿthy garments be always white; and 9 ^olet thy head lack no ointment. ¹Live joyfully with the wife whom thou lovest all the days of the life of thy vanity, ^pwhich he hath given thee under the sun, all the days of thy vanity: ^qfor that is thy portion in this life, and in thy labour which thou takest under the sun. 10 Whatsoever ^rthy hand findeth to do, ^sdo it with thy might; for there is no work, nor ^tdevice, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave, whither thou goest.

11 I ^ureturned, and saw under the sun, that ^xthe race is not to the swift, nor ^ythe battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet ^zfavour to men of skill; but time and ^achance ^bhappeneth to them all. For ^cman also knoweth not his time: as the fishes that are taken in an evil ^dnet, and as ^ethe birds that are caught in the snare; so ^fare the sons of men ^fsnared in an evil time, when it falleth suddenly upon them.

13 This wisdom have I seen also under the sun, and it seemed great unto me: ¹⁴*there was* a little city, and few men within it; and there came a great king against it, and ^gbesieged it, and built ¹⁵great ^hbulwarks against it: now there was found in it a ⁱpoor wise man, and he ^kby his wisdom delivered the city; yet no man remembered that ^{same} ⁱpoor man. Then said I, ¹Wisdom is better than strength: nevertheless ^mthe ⁱpoor man's wisdom is despised, and his words ¹⁷*are* not heard. The words of wise ⁿmen are heard in ^oquiet, more than the cry of ¹⁸him that ruleth among fools. ¹Wisdom is better than weapons of war: but ^oone sinner destroyeth much good.

¹Dead flies cause the ointment of the ^aapothecary to ^bsend forth a stinking savour: so doth a little ^cfolly ^{him}that is in reputation for wisdom and honour.

2 A wise ^{man's} heart is at his right hand; but a fool's heart at his left. Yea also, when he that is a fool walketh by the way, ¹his wisdom faileth ^{him}, and ^dhe saith to every one that he is a fool.

Because the sun hath ^olooked upon me:
My mother's children were angry with me;
They made me ^pthe keeper of the vineyards;
But ^qmine own vineyard have I not kept.
Tell me, O thou ^qwhom my soul ⁷ loveth,
Where thou feedest, where thou makest ^rthy flock to rest at noon:
For why should I be ^las one that turneth aside by the flocks of ^sthy companions?
If thou know not, ^tO thou fairest ⁸ among women,
Go thy way forth by the footsteps of the flock,
And feed thy kids beside the shepherds' tents.

Which ^sfeed among the lilies.
^t Until the day ^tbreak, and ^uthe sha- ⁶
dows flee away,
I will get me to the mountain of ^wmyrrh, and to the hill of ^wfrank-incense.
^a Thou art all fair, my love; there is ⁷
^xno spot in thee.
Come with me from ^yLebanon, my ⁸
^zspouse, with me from Lebanon:
Look from the top of ^aAmana, from the top of ^bShenir and ^bHermom, From the lions' dens, from the mountains of the ^cleopards.
Thou hast ^dravished my heart, ^dmy ⁹
sister, my spouse;
Thou hast ^dravished my heart with one of thine eyes,
With ^eone chain of thy neck.
How fair is thy love, ^dmy sister, my ¹⁰
spouse!
How much ^fbetter is thy love than wine!
And ^gthe smell of thine ointments than all spices!
^h Thy lips, O my spouse, drop as the ¹¹
ⁱhoneycomb:
^h Honey and milk are under thy tongue;
And the smell of thy garments is ^jlike
the smell of Lebanon.
A garden ^tinclosed is ^dmy sister, my ¹²
spouse;
A spring ^tshut up, ^ka fountain ^lsealed.
Thy plants are an ^morchard of ⁿpome- ¹³
granates, with ^opleasant fruits; ^p Camphire, with ^pspikenard,
- ^p Spikenard and saffron;
^q Calamus and ^qcinnamon, with all trees of ^rfrankincense;
^q Myrrh and ^saloes, with all the ^qchief spices:
A fountain of gardens, a well of ^uliving waters,
And streams from Lebanon.
Awake, O north wind; and come thou south;
^x Blow upon my garden, that the spices thereof may flow out.
^y Let my beloved come into his garden,
And ^zeat his ^opleasant fruits.
^a I am come into my garden, ^bmy
sister, my spouse:
I have ^cgathered my ^dmyrrh with my spice;
^e I have eaten my ^fhoneycomb with my honey;
^g I have drunk my wine with my milk:
Eat, O ^hfriends; drink, ⁱyea, drink abundantly, O beloved.
I sleep, but my heart waketh:
It is the voice of my beloved that ⁱknocketh ^ksaying,
Open to me, ^bmy sister, ^lmy love, ^mmy dove, ⁿmy undefiled:
For my head is filled with dew,
And my ^olocks with the ^pdrops of the night.
^q I have put off my coat; ^qhow shall I put it on?
I have ^rwashed my feet; how shall
I defile them?
My beloved put in his hand by ^sthe hole of the door;
And ^tmy bowels were moved ^lfor him.
I rose up to open to my beloved;
And my hands dropped with myrrh,
And my fingers with ^tsweet smelling
myrrh,
Upon the handles of the lock.
I opened to my beloved;
But my beloved had ^uwithdrawn himself, and was gone:
My soul failed ^wwhen he spake:
^x I sought him, but I could not find
him;
^y I called him, but he gave me no answer.
^z The watchmen that went about the city found me,
They ^asmote me, they wounded me;
The keepers of the walls took away
my ^bvail from me.

^c I charge you, ^d O daughters of Jerusalem,
 If ye find my beloved, ^e that ye tell him,
 That ^f I am sick of love.

What ^g is thy beloved more than ^h another beloved, ⁱ O thou fairest among women?

What ^g is thy beloved more than ^h another beloved, that thou dost so ^e charge us?

My beloved ^g is white and ruddy, ⁱ The ^g chiefest among ten thousand.
 His head ^g is as ^h the most ⁱ fine gold,
 His ^k locks are ^l bushy, and black as a raven.

^l His eyes are as the eyes of doves by the rivers of waters, Washed with milk, and ⁱ fitly set.

ⁿ His cheeks are as a ^o bed of spices, as ^p sweet flowers:

^p His lips ^q like ^q lilies, dropping ^r sweet smelling myrrh.

His hands are as gold rings ^m set with the ^s beryl:

His belly ^g is as bright ivory overlaid with ^t sapphires.

^u His legs are as ^x pillars of marble, ^y set upon sockets of ⁱ fine gold:

His countenance ^g is as ^y Lebanon, excellent as the ^v cedars.

ⁱ His mouth ^g is ^z most sweet: yea, he ^g is altogether lovely.

This ^g is my beloved, and this ^g is my friend, ^d O daughters of Jerusalem.

^a See ch. 1. 8.

Whither is thy beloved gone, ^a O thou fairest among women?

Whither is thy beloved turned aside? that we may seek him with thee.

My beloved is gone down into ^b his garden, to the ^c beds of spices,

To feed in the gardens, and to gather ^d lilies.

^e I am my beloved's, and my beloved ^g is mine:

He feedeth among the ^d lilies.

Thou art beautiful, O ^f my love, as ^g Tirzah,

^h Comely as Jerusalem,
ⁱ Terrible as an ^k army ^k with banners.

Turn away thine eyes from me, for ^l they have overcome me:

^l Thy hair ^g is as a flock of goats that appear from Gilead.

^m Thy teeth are as a flock of sheep which go up from the washing, Whereof every one beareth twins,
 and there is not one barren among them.

ⁿ As a piece of a pomegranate are thy temples within thy locks.

There are ^o threescore queens, and fourscore concubines,
 And ^p virgins without number.

^q My dove, ^r my undefiled ^g is but one; She ^g is the ^{only} one of her mother,
 She ^g is the ^s choice one of ^t her that bare her.

^u The daughters saw her, and blessed her;

^v Ya, ^o the queens and the concubines, and they praised her.

^x Who ^g is she that looketh forth as the morning,
 Fair as ^y the moon, ^z clear as ^{aa} the sun,
 And ⁱ terrible as an ^{ab} army with banners?

I went down into the garden of nuts to see the ^a fruits of the valley,
 And ^b to see whether the vine flourished, and ^b the ^c pomegranates ^d budded.

ⁱ Or ever I was aware,
 My soul ^l made me ^{like} the ^e chariots of Ammi-nadib.

Return, return, O ^f Shulamite;
 Return, return, that we may look upon thee.

What will ye see in the Shulamite?

As it were the ^g company ^l of two armies.

How beautiful are ^a thy feet with shoes, ^b O prince's daughter!

The joints of thy thighs are like ^c jewels,

The work of the hands of ^d a cunning workman.

Thy navel ^g is like a round ^e goblet, which wanteth not ^f liquor:

Thy belly ^g is like a heap of wheat set about with ^f lilies.

^g Thy two breasts are like two young roes that are twins.

^h Thy neck ^g is as a tower of ivory;
 Thine eyes ^{like} the fishpools in ⁱ Heshbon, by the gate of Bath-rabbim:

Thy nose ^g is as ^l the tower of ^m Lebanon which looketh toward ⁿ Damascus.

Thine head upon thee is like [¶] Car- 5

And [¶] the hair of thine head like purple;
¶ The king is [†] held in the [†] galleries.
How fair and how [¶] pleasant art thou, 6
O love, for [†] delights!
This thy stature is like to a [¶] palm 7
tree,
And thy breasts to [¶] clusters of grapes.
I said, I will go up to the [¶] palm 8
tree,
I will take hold of the boughs
thereof:
Now also thy breasts shall be as [¶] clusters of the vine,
And the smell of thy nose like [¶] apples;
And [¶] the roof of thy mouth like the 9
best wine,
For my beloved, [¶] a that goeth down
[†] sweetly, Causing the lips [¶] of those that are [¶] asleep to speak.

¶ I am my beloved's, and his [¶] desire 10 is towards me.
Come, my beloved, let us go forth 11
into the field;
Let us lodge in the villages.
Let us get up early to the vine- 12 yards;
Let us [¶] see if the vine flourish, when the [†] tender grape [†] appear,
And [¶] the pomegranates bud forth:
There will I give thee my loves.
The [¶] mandrakes give a smell, 13
And at [¶] hour gates are all manner of [¶] pleasant fruits,
¶ New and old,
Which I have [¶] laid up for thee, O
my beloved.

O that thou wert as my brother, that sucked the breasts of my mother!

When I should find thee without, I would kiss thee;

Yea, [¶] I should not be despised.

I would lead thee, and [¶] bring thee 2 into my mother's house, who would instruct me:

I would cause thee to drink of [¶] spiced wine, of the [¶] juice of my [¶] pomegranate.

¶ His left hand should be under my 3
head,

¶ And his right hand should embrace
me.

¶ I charge you, [¶] O daughters of Jeru- 4
salem,
¶ That ye stir not up, nor awake my love, until he please.

¶ Who is this that cometh up from the 5 wilderness,
Leaning upon her beloved?

I [¶] raised thee up under the [¶] apple 6
tree:

There thy mother brought thee forth:
There she brought thee forth that bare
thee.

6 Set me as a seal upon thine heart,
As [¶] a seal upon thine arm:
For [¶] love is strong as death;
[¶] Jealousy is [†] cruel as the grave:
The [¶] coals thereof are coals of fire,
Which hath [¶] a most vehement [¶] flame.

7 Many waters cannot quench love,
Neither can the floods drown it:
¶ If a man would give all the substance of his house for love,
It would utterly be contemned.

8 We have a little sister, and [¶] she hath no breasts:

What shall we do for our sister in the day when she shall be spoken for?

9 If she be a wall, we will build upon her a [¶] palace of silver:
And if she be a door, we will inclose her with [¶] boards of cedar.

10 I am a wall, and my breasts like [¶] towers:
Then was I in his eyes as one that found [¶] favour.

11 Solomon had a [¶] vineyard at [¶] Baalhamon;

¶ He let out the vineyard unto [¶] keepers;

Every one for the fruit thereof was to bring [¶] a thousand pieces of silver.

12 My vineyard, which is mine, is before me:

Thou, O Solomon, must have [¶] a thousand,

And [¶] those that keep the fruit thereof [¶] a two hundred.

13 ¶ Thou that dwellest in the gardens,
¶ The companions hearken to thy voice:

THE ^avision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem ^{aa}in the days of ^bUzziah, ^cJotham, ^dAhaz, and ^eHeze-kiah, kings of Judah.

^fHear. O heavens, and ^ggive ear, O ²
earth :

For the LORD hath spoken,
I have ^gnourished and brought up children,

And they have rebelled against me.

^hThe ox knoweth his owner,

And the ass his master's ⁱcrib :

But Israel ^kdoth not know,

My people ^ldoth not consider.

Ah sinful nation, a people ^lladen ⁴
with iniquity,

^mA seed of evildoers, children that are corrupters :

They have forsaken the LORD,

They have ⁿprovoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger,

They are ^lgone away backward.

^oWhy should ye be stricken any more? ⁵

Ye will ^rrevolt more and more :

The whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint.

From the sole of the foot even unto the ⁶
head there is no ^psoundness in it ;

But ^qwounds, and ^rbruises, and ^sputrifying sores :

They have not been closed, neither bound up, neither ^tmollified with ^lointment.

^uYour country is desolate, ⁷
Your cities are burnt with fire :

Your land, strangers devour it in your presence,

And it is desolate, ^tas overthrown by strangers.

And the daughter of Zion is left ^vas ⁸
a cottage in a vineyard,

As ^va lodge ^win a garden of cucumbers,

As a besieged city.

⁹ *Except the LORD of hosts had left unto us ^{ya}a very small remnant,

We should have been as ^zSodom,
And we should have been like unto ^zGomorrhah.

¹⁰ Hear the word of the LORD, ye ^arulers of ^bSodom ;

Give ear unto the law of our God, ye people of Gomorrhah.

¹¹ To what purpose is ^cthe multitude of your sacrifices unto me? saith the LORD :

I am full of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts ;

And I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of ^the goats.

¹² When ye come ^dto appear before me, ^eWho hath required this at your hand,
to tread ^fmy courts?

 Though your sins be as scarlet, ^x they

 Though they be red like crimson, they

 If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall ^y

 But if ye refuse and rebel, ^z
 Ye shall be devoured with the sword :

our own apparel:
Only ^llet us be called by thy name,

Now will I sing to ^a my wellbeloved
^b a song of my beloved touching ^c his vineyard.

^a My wellbeloved hath a vineyard in ⁱ a very fruitful hill:

And ^d he ⁱ fenced it, and ^e gathered ^z
 out the stones thereof,

And ^d planted it with ⁱ the choicest vine,

And ^d built a tower in the midst of it,
 And ^d also ⁱ made ^g a winepress therein:

And ^h he looked that it should bring forth grapes,

And it brought forth wild grapes.

And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem, ³
 and men of Judah,

Judge, I pray you, betwixt me and my vineyard.

What could have been done more to ⁴
 my vineyard,

That I have not done in it?

Wherefore, ^h when I looked that it should bring forth grapes,

Brought it forth wild grapes?

And now go to, I will tell you what ⁵
 I will do to my vineyard:

I will take away ⁱ the hedge thereof,
 and ^j it shall be eaten up;

And ^k break down the wall thereof,
 and it shall be ⁱ trodden down:

And I will lay it waste:

It shall not be pruned, nor digged; ⁶
 But there shall come up ⁱ briers and
 thorns:

I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it.

For ^m the vineyard of the LORD of ⁷ hosts is the house of Israel,

And the men of Judah ⁱ his pleasant plant:

And he looked for judgment, but behold ⁱ oppression;

For righteousness, but behold a cry.

Woe unto them that join ^o house to ⁸ house,

That lay ^o field to field, till there be no
 place,

That ⁱ they may be placed alone in the midst of the earth!

ⁱ In mine ears said the LORD of hosts, ⁹ ⁱ Of a truth many houses shall be desolate,

Even great and fair, without inhabitant.

Yea, ten acres of vineyard shall yield ¹⁰
 one ^p bath,

And ^q the seed of ^p a homer shall yield ^p an ephah.

¹¹ ^r Woe unto them that rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink;

^s That continue until night, till wine
ⁱ inflame them!

¹² And ^u the harp, and ^{uw} the viol, the ^{uvxy} tabret, and ^{vy} pipe,

And wine, are in their feasts:

But ^z they regard not ^a the work of
 the LORD,

^z Neither ^a consider ^b the operation of his hands.

¹³ Therefore my people are gone into captivity, ^c because they have no knowledge:

And ⁱ their honourable men are famished,

And their multitude dried up with thirst.

¹⁴ Therefore ^d hell hath enlarged herself,
 And ^e opened ^f her mouth without measure:

And their glory, and ^{ff} their multitude,
 and their ^g pomp,

And ^h he that rejoiceth, shall descend into it.

¹⁵ And ^h the mean man shall be brought down,

And the mighty man shall be humbled,
 And the eyes of the lofty shall be humbled:

¹⁶ But ⁱ the LORD of hosts shall be exalted in judgment,

And ⁱ God that is holy shall be sanctified in righteousness.

¹⁷ Then shall the lambs feed after ^j their manner,

And the waste places of ^k the fat ones shall ⁱ strangers eat.

¹⁸ Woe unto them that draw iniquity with cords of vanity,

And ^m sin as it were with a cart rope:

¹⁹ ⁿ That say, Let him make speed, and hasten his work,

That we may see it:

And let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel draw nigh and come,

That we may know it.

²⁰ Woe unto them ⁱ that call evil good,
 and good evil;

^o That put darkness for light, and light for darkness;

That put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!

²¹ Woe unto them that are ^p wise in their own eyes,

And prudent ⁱ in their own sight

ness,

Because they have cast away the law of the LORD of hosts,
And ^f despised the word of ^{ff} the Holy
One of Israel.

^g Therefore is the anger of the LORD ²⁵
kindled against his people,
And he hath stretched forth his hand against them, and hath smitten them :
And ^h the hills did tremble, and their carcases were ⁱ torn in the midst of the streets.

ⁱ For all this his anger is not turned away,
But his hand is stretched out still.

^k And he will lift up an ensign to the ²⁶

^u their bows bent,

They shall roar like ^x young lions :
Yea, they shall roar, and lay hold of the prey,

And shall carry it away safe, and none shall deliver it.

And ^y in that day they shall roar ³⁰ against them like the roaring of
the sea :

And ^z if one look unto the land, ^z behold darkness and ¹ sorrow,

¹ And the light is darkened in the heavens thereof.

^a In the year that king ^b Uzziah died
^c I saw also the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and ¹ his ² train filled the temple. Above it stood the seraphims : each one had ^d six wings ; ^e with twain he covered his face, and ^f with twain he covered his feet, and ³ with twain he did fly. And ^t one cried unto another, and said,

^g Holy, holy, holy, is the LORD of hosts :
^h ⁱ The whole earth is full of his glory.

⁴ And the posts of the ^t door moved at the voice of him that cried, and ^k the ⁵ house was filled with smoke. ¹ Then said I, Woe is me ! for I am ¹ undone ;
because I am a man of unclean lips,
and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips : for mine eyes have seen ^m the King, the LORD of hosts.

⁶ Then flew one of the seraphims unto me, ^t having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from ⁷ off ⁿ the altar : and he ¹⁰ laid it upon my mouth, and said, Lo, this hath touched thy lips ; and thine iniquity is ⁸ taken away, and ^p thy sin purged. Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for ^{us} ? ^r Then I said, ^{ts} Here am I ;

⁹ send me. And he said, Go, and tell this people, ^{tt} Hear ye ¹ indeed, but understand not ;
And see ye ¹ indeed, but perceive
not.

¹⁰ ^u Make the heart of this people
fat,
And make their ears heavy, and ^v shut their eyes ;
^w Lest they see with their eyes,
and hear with their ears,
And understand with their heart,
and convert, and be healed.

¹¹ Then said I, ^x Lord, how long ? And he answered,
Until the cities be wasted without inhabitant,
And the houses without man,
And the land be ¹ utterly desolate,
And ^y the LORD have removed men
far away,
And there be a great forsaking in the wards Jerusalem to war against it, but could not prevail against it. And it ² was told the house of David, saying,

Syria [†] is confederate with Ephraim.
And his heart was moved, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the wood are moved with the wind. Then said ³ the LORD unto Isaiah, Go forth now to meet Ahaz, thou, and [†] Shear-jashub thy son, at the end of ^d the conduit of ^e the upper pool in the [†] highway of the fuller's field; and say unto him, ⁴
Take heed, and be quiet;
Fear not, [†] neither be fainthearted
For the two tails of these smoking [‡] firebrands,
For the fierce anger of Rezin with Syria, and of ^h the son of Remaliah.
Because Syria, Ephraim, and ^h the ⁵ son of Remaliah,
Have taken evil counsel against thee,
saying,
Let us go up against Judah, and [†] vex it, ⁶
And let us make a breach therein for us,
And set a king in the midst of it, even the son of Tabeal:
Thus saith the Lord God,
[†] It shall not stand, neither shall it come to pass.
For ^k the head of Syria is [†] Damascus, ⁸
And [†] the head of Damascus is Rezin;
And ^m within threescore and five years shall Ephraim be broken, [†] that it be not a people.
And the head of Ephraim is [†] Samaria, ⁹
And the head of Samaria is ^h Remaliah's son.
[†] ^o If ye will not believe, surely ye shall not be established.

[†] Moreover the LORD spake again unto Ahaz, saying,
[†] Ask thee [†] a sign of the LORD thy God;
[†] Ask it either [†] in the depth, or [†] in the height above.
But Ahaz said, [†] I will not ask, neither will I tempt the LORD. And he said,
Hear ye now, [†] O house of David;
[†] Is it a small thing for you to weary men, but will ye [†] weary my God also?
Therefore the Lord himself shall give you [†] a sign;
[†] Behold, [†] a Virgin shall conceive, and bear [†] a Son,
And [†] shall call his name [†] Immanuel.
[†] Butter and [†] honey shall he eat,
[†] That he may know to refuse the evil,
and choose the good.
[†] For before the child shall know to refuse the evil, and choose the good,
[†] The land that thou abhorrest shall be forsaken of [†] both her kings.
The LORD shall bring [†] upon thee,
And [†] upon thy people, and upon thy father's house,
Days that have not come,
From the day that ^h Ephraim departed from Judah;
[†] Even the king of Assyria.
And it shall come to pass [†] in that
day,
That the LORD ^k shall hiss [†] for the fly that is in the uttermost part of the rivers of Egypt,
And ^k for the bee that is in the land of Assyria.
And they shall come, and shall rest
all of them
In the desolate valleys, and in ^m the holes of the rocks,
And upon all ⁿ thorns, and upon all [†] bushes.
[†] In the same day shall the Lord shave with ^o a razor that is hired, Namely, [†] by them beyond [†] the river,
by the king of Assyria,
The head, and the hair of the feet:
And it shall also consume the beard.
And it shall come to pass [†] in that
day,
That a man shall nourish a young cow, and two sheep;

saying,

liah's son ;

Now therefore behold, the Lord ⁷
bringeth up upon them

¹² Say ye not, ^a A confederacy,

* To the law and to the testimony: 20
 † If they speak not according to this word,

 † Thou hast multiplied the nation, and 3
 † not increased the joy:

 † For thou hast broken † the yoke of his 4

7 Of the increase of his govern-

 no end,
 † Upon the throne of David, and upon

 † The zeal of the LORD of hosts will

 8 The Lord sent a word into Jacob,
 And it hath lighted upon Israel.
 9 And all the people shall † know,

 That say in the pride and stoutness of
 heart,
 10 The bricks are fallen down, but we

 11 Therefore the LORD shall † set up the

 And † join his enemies together;
 12 † The Syrians before, and † the Philistines behind;
 And they shall devour Israel † with open mouth.
 † For all this his anger is not turned

 But his hand is stretched out still.
 13 For † the people turneth not unto him

 Neither do they seek the LORD of 14 Therefore the LORD will cut off from † Branch and † rush, † in one day.

 And † the prophet that teacheth lies,

 17 Therefore † the Lord shall have no joy

And the people shall be as the [†]fuel of the fire :

[†]No man shall spare his brother.

And he shall [†]snatch on the right ²⁰
hand, and be hungry ;

And ^khe shall eat on the left hand,
and ^kthey shall not be satisfied :

[†]They shall eat every man the flesh of his own arm :

^mManasseh, Ephraim ; and Ephraim, ²¹
Manasseh :

And ^athey together shall be against Judah.

^dFor all this his anger is not turned away,

But his hand is stretched out still.

Woe unto ^athem that decree unrighteous decrees,

And [†]that write ^{aa}grievousness which they have prescribed ;

To turn aside the needy from judg- ²
ment,

And to take away the right from ^bthe
poor of my people,

^{bb}That widows may be their prey,
And that ^bthey may rob the fatherless.

And ^cwhat will ye do in ^dthe day of ³ ^cvisitation,

And in ^ethe desolation which shall come ^ffrom far ?

To whom will ye flee for help ?

And where will ye leave your glory ?

^gWithout me they shall bow down ⁴
under the prisoners,

And they shall fall under the slain.

^hFor all this his anger is not turned away,

But his hand is stretched out still.

[†]O [†]Assyrian, ⁱthe rod of mine anger, ⁵
[†]And ⁱthe staff in their hand is mine indignation.

I will send him against ^ka hypocriti- ⁶
cal nation,

And against the people of my wrath
[†]will I give him a charge,

^mTo take the spoil, and to take the prey,

And [†]to tread them down like the mire of the streets.

7 Howbeit ⁿhe meaneth not so,
Neither doth his heart think so ;
But it is in his heart to destroy
And cut off nations not a few.

8 ^oFor he saith, Are not my princes altogether kings ?

9 Is not ^pCalno as ^qCarchemish ?

^r*Is* not ^sHamath as ^tArpad ?

Is not ^uSamaria ^vas Damascus ?

10 ^wAs my hand hath found the kingdoms of ^xthe idols,

And whose graven images did excel
them of Jerusalem and of ^uSamaria ;

11 Shall I not, as I have done unto ^uSa-maria and her ^xidols,

So do to Jerusalem and her ^yidols ?

12 Wherefore it shall come to pass, that ^zwhen the Lord hath performed his whole work

^aUpon mount Zion and on Jerusalem, ^bI will [†]punish the fruit [†]of the stout heart of ^cthe king of Assyria,

And the glory of his high looks.

13 ^dFor he saith, By the strength of my hand I have done it,

And ^eby my wisdom ; for I am prudent :

And I have removed the bounds of the people,

And have robbed their treasures,
And I have put down the inhabitants

[†]like [†]a valiant man :

14 And ^gmy hand hath found as a nest
the riches of the people :

And as one gathereth eggs that are left,
Have I gathered all the earth ;

And there was none that moved the wing,

Or opened the mouth, or ^hpeeped.

15 Shall the axe ⁱboast itself against him that heweth therewith ?

Or shall the saw magnify itself against him that shaketh it ?

[†]As if the rod should shake itself against them that lift it up,

Or as if the staff should lift up [†]itself,
as if it were no wood.

16 Therefore shall ^kthe Lord, the Lord of hosts,

Send among his [†]fat ones ^mleanness ;
And under his glory he shall kindle a burning

Like the burning of a fire.

17 And the light of Israel shall be for a fire,

And his Holy One for a flame :

And ⁿit shall burn and devour ^ohis thorns and his briers ^pin one day ;

I have commanded ^hmy sanctified ³ ones,
I have also called ⁱmy mighty ones for mine anger,
Even them ^kthat ^lrejoice in my highness.
The noise of ^la multitude in the mountains, ⁴like as of a great people;
^lA tumultuous noise of the kingdoms of nations gathered together:
The LORD of hosts mustereth the host of the battle.
^mThey come from a far country, from ⁵the end of the heaven,
Even the LORD, and the weapons of his indignation, ⁿTo destroy the whole land.
^oHowl ye; ^pfor the day of the LORD ⁶is at hand;
^qIt shall come ^ras a destruction from the Almighty.
Therefore shall all hands ^sbe faint, ⁷And every man's ^theart shall melt:
And they shall be afraid: ^upangs and ⁸sorrows shall take hold of them;
^vThey shall be in pain as a woman that travaileth:
They shall ^wbe amazed ^xone at another; Their faces shall be as ^yflames.
Behold, ^zthe day of the LORD cometh, ⁹Cruel both with ^{aa}wrath and fierce anger,
To lay the land desolate:
And ^{ab}he shall destroy the sinners thereof out of it.
For the stars of heaven and ^{ac}the constellations thereof shall not ^{ad}give their light:
^{ae}The sun shall be darkened in his going forth,
And ^{af}the moon shall not cause her light to shine.
And I will ^{ag}punish the world for ^{ah}their evil,
And the wicked for their iniquity;
And I will ^{ai}cause the arrogance of the proud to cease,
And will ^{aj}lay low the haughtiness of the terrible.
^{ak}I will make a man ^{al}more precious ¹²than ^{am}fine gold;
Even a man than ^{an}the golden wedge of Ophir.
Therefore ^{ao}I will shake the heavens, ¹³And ^{ap}the earth shall remove out of her place,
In ^{aq}the wrath of the LORD of hosts, And ^{ar}in the day of his ^{as}fierce anger.

14 And it shall be as the chased roe,
And as a sheep that no man taketh up:
¹They shall every man turn to his own people,
And flee every one into his own land.
¹⁵Every one that is found ^mshall be thrust through;
And every one that is joined unto them shall fall by the sword.
¹⁶ⁿTheir children also shall be dashed to pieces before their eyes;
^oTheir houses shall be spoiled, and ^ptheir wives ravished.
¹⁷Behold, ^qI will stir up ^rthe Medes against them, ^sWhich shall not regard silver;
And as for gold, they shall not delight in it.
¹⁸^tTheir bows also shall dash the young men to pieces;
And they shall have no pity on the fruit of the womb;
^uTheir eye shall not spare children.
¹⁹And Babylon, ^vthe glory of kingdoms, ^wThe beauty of ^xthe Chaldees' ^yexcellency, ^zShall be ^{aa}as ^{ab}when God overthrew ^{ac}Sodom and Gomorrah.
²⁰^{ad}It shall never be inhabited,
Neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation:
Neither shall ^{ae}the Arabian pitch tent there;
Neither shall the shepherds ^{af}make their fold there.
²¹^{ag}But ^{ah}wild beasts of the desert shall lie there;
And their houses shall be full of ^{ai}doleful creatures;
And ^{aj}owls shall dwell there,
And ^{ak}satyrs shall dance there.
²²And ^{al}the wild beasts of the islands shall cry in their ^{am}desolate houses,
And ^{an}dragons in ^{ao}their ^{ap}pleasant ^{aq}palaces:
And ^{ar}her time is near to come,
And her days shall not be prolonged.

And the house of Israel shall possess

^fFor servants and handmaids :
And they shall take them captives, [†]whose captives they were ;
And ^gthey shall rule over their op-

And it shall come to pass in the day ³ that the LORD shall give thee rest from thy sorrow, and from thy fear, and from the hard bondage wherein thou wast made to serve, that thou shalt ^htake up this ⁱproverb against the king of Babylon, and say,

How hath the oppressor ceased ! the ^jgolden city ceased !
The LORD hath broken ^kthe staff ⁵of the wicked, and ^lthe sceptre of the rulers.

He who smote the people in wrath ⁶
with [†]a continual stroke,
He that ruled the nations in anger, is quiet : ^mthey break forth into sing-ⁿYea, ^othe fir trees rejoice at thee, ⁸

Since thou art laid down, no feller is come up against us.

^qHell from beneath is moved for ⁹ thee to meet thee at thy coming :

It stirreth up ^rthe dead for thee, even all the [†]chief ones of the
earth ;

It hath raised up from their thrones
all the kings of the nations.

All they shall ^sspeak and say unto ¹⁰
thee,

Art thou also become weak as we?
art thou become like unto us?

Thy pomp is brought down to the ¹¹ grave, and the noise of thy [†]viols :

^uThe worm ^vis spread under thee,
and the worms cover thee.

^wHow art thou fallen from heaven, ¹²
[†]O Lucifer, ^xson of the morning !

How art thou ^ycut down to the ^bI will exalt my throne above the stars of God :

I will sit also upon ^cthe mount of the congregation, in ^dthe sides of the north :

¹⁴ ^bI will ascend above the heights of High.

¹⁵ Yet ^fthou shalt be brought down to

¹⁶ They that see thee shall ^hnarrowly

saying,

Is this the man that ⁱmade the earth

doms ;

¹⁷ That made the world as a wilder-

thereof ;

That [†]opened not the house of his

¹⁸ All the kings of the nations, even all of them,

¹⁹ But thou art cast out of thy grave

²⁰ ¹Thou shalt not be joined with them

The LORD of hosts hath sworn, ²⁴ saying,
Surely as I have thought, so shall it

And as I have purposed, so shall it stand:

^aThat I will break the Assyrian in ²⁵
my land,
And upon my mountains tread him
under foot:
Then shall his ^vyoke depart from off
them,
And ^vhis ^vburden depart from off

This is the purpose that is purposed ²⁶ upon the whole earth:
And this is ^xthe hand that is stretched out upon all the nations.

For ^vthe LORD of hosts hath pur- ²⁷ posed, and ^zwho shall disannul it?
And ^xhis hand is stretched out, and ^awho shall turn it back?

And he shall slay thy remnant.

Thou, whole ^dPalestina, art ^kdis-

For there shall come from the north

^uMy heart shall cry out for Moab;

 For the foundations of ^q Kir-hareseseth shall ye ^r mourn; surely they are stricken.
 For ^s the fields of Heshbon ^t languish, ^u and ^v the vine of ^w Sibmah:
 The lords of the heathen have broken down the principal plants thereof, ^w They are come even unto ^x Jazer, ^y they wandered through the wilderness:
 Her branches are ^y stretched out, they are gone over ^z the sea.
 Therefore I ^u will bewail with the weeping of ^x Jazer the vine of ^v Sibmah:
 I will water thee with my tears, ^s O Heshbon, and ^s Elealeh:
 For ^z the shouting for ^u thy summer fruits and for ^u thy harvest is fallen.
^a And gladness is taken away, and joy ^o out of ^b the plentiful field;
 And ^c in the vineyards there shall be no singing, neither shall there be shouting:
 The treaders shall tread out no ^a wine in their ^d presses;
 I have ^e made ^f their vintage ^z shouting to cease.

Wherefore ^f my bowels shall sound like a harp for Moab,
 And mine inward parts for ^q Kir-haresh.
 And it shall come to pass, when it is seen that Moab is weary on ^g the high place,
 That he shall come to his sanctuary to pray; but he shall not prevail.
 This is the word that the LORD hath spoken concerning Moab ^h since that time.
 But now the LORD hath spoken, saying, Within three years, ⁱ as the years of a hiring,
 And the glory of Moab shall be condemned, with all that great multitude;
 And the remnant shall be ^k very small and ^l feeble.

The ^a burden of ^b Damascus.

Behold, Damascus is taken away ^c from being a city,
 And it shall be a ruinous heap.

^d The cities of Aroer are forsaken:
 They shall be for flocks,
 Which ^e shall lie down, and ^f none shall make them afraid.

^g The fortress also shall ^h cease from Ephraim,
 And ^s the kingdom from ^b Damascus, and the remnant of Syria:

They shall be as the glory of the children of Israel, saith the LORD of hosts.

^h And in that day it shall come to pass, That ^s the glory of Jacob shall be made thin,
 And ^t the fatness of his flesh shall wax lean.

^u And it shall be ^j as when the harvestman gathereth the corn,
 And reapeth the ears with his arm;
 And it shall be as he that gathereth ears in ^k the valley of Rephaim.

^l Yet ^m gleanings shall be left in it, ⁿ as the shaking of an olive tree,
^o Two or three berries in the top of ^p the uppermost bough,
^q Four or five in ^r the outmost fruitful branches thereof,
 Saith the LORD God of Israel.

^z At that day shall a man look to ^s his Maker,
 And his eyes shall have respect to the Holy One of Israel.

3 Therefore ^lare my loins filled with pain:

^m Pangs have taken hold upon me, as the pangs of a woman that travaileth:
I was ⁿbowed down at the hearing of it;
I was dismayed at the seeing of it.

4 ^lMy heart panted, ^ofearfulness affright-
ed me:

^p The night of my ^qpleasure hath he ^tturned into fear unto me.

5 ^r Prepare the table, watch in the watchtower, eat, drink:

Arise, ye princes, and ^sanoint the shield.

6 For thus hath the Lord said unto me,
Go, set a watchman,
Let him declare what he seeth.

7 And he saw ^ta chariot with ^ua couple of horsemen.

A chariot of asses, and a chariot of camels;

And he hearkened ^vdiligently with much ^vheed:

8 And ^lhe cried, A lion:
My lord, ^wI stand continually upon the watchtower in the daytime,

And ^wI am set in my ward ^lwhole nights:

9 And behold, here cometh ^ta chariot of men, with ^ua couple of horsemen.

And he answered and said,

^x Babylon is fallen, is fallen;
And ^yall the graven images of her gods
he hath broken unto the ground.

10 O my ^zthreshing, and the ^tcorn of ^amy floor:

That which I have heard of the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel,

Have I declared unto you.

11 The ^bburden of ^cDumah.
He calleth to me out of ^dSeir,

Watchman, what of the night?
Watchman, what of the night?

12 The watchman said,
The morning cometh, and also the
night:

If ye will inquire, inquire ye:

 When ² a multitude of shepherds is called forth against him,
 He will not ² be afraid of their voice, Nor abase himself for the ¹ noise of
 them:

² So shall the LORD of hosts come down
 To fight for mount Zion, and for the hill thereof.

¹ As birds flying, so will the LORD of ⁵
 hosts defend Jerusalem;
¹ Defending also he will deliver it;
 And ¹ passing over he will preserve
 it.

Turn ye unto him from whom the ⁶ children of Israel ⁸ have deeply revolted.

For in that day ¹ every man shall ⁷ cast away

His ¹ idols of silver, and ¹ his idols of gold,

Which your own hands have made unto you ¹ for a sin.

Then shall ² the Assyrian fall with ⁸
 the sword, not of ² a mighty man;
 And the sword, not of ² a mean man,
 shall devour him:

But ¹ he shall flee ¹ from the sword,
 And his young men shall be ¹ discomfited.

And ¹ he shall pass over to ¹ his ⁹ strong hold for fear,

And his princes shall be afraid of ¹ the ensign,

Saith the LORD, ² whose fire is in Zion,
 And his ¹ furnace in Jerusalem.

Behold, ² a king shall reign in righteousness,
 And princes shall rule in judgment.
 And a man shall be as a hiding place ²
 from the wind,

And ¹ a covert from the tempest;
 As rivers of water ² in a dry place,
 As ¹ the shadow of a ¹ great rock ¹ in a weary land.

 called liberal, elegantly.

Nor the churl said to be bountiful.

⁶ For the vile person will speak villany,
 And his heart will work iniquity,
 To practise hypocrisy, and to utter error against the LORD,
 To make empty the soul of the hungry,
 And he will cause the drink of the thirsty to fail.

⁷ The instruments also of the churl are evil:

He deviseth wicked devices

⁸ To destroy the poor with lying words,
 Even ¹ when the needy speaketh right.

⁸ But ¹ the liberal deviseth liberal things;
 And by liberal things shall he ¹ stand.

⁹ Rise up, ye women ¹ that are at ease,
 hear my voice;

Ye careless daughters, give ear unto my speech.

¹⁰ ¹ Many days and years shall ye be troubled, ye careless women:

For the vintage shall fail, the gathering shall not come.

Then judgment shall dwell in the wilderness,
And righteousness remain ^vin the fruitful field.

And ^wthe work of righteousness shall ¹⁷ be ^xpeace;

And the effect of ^qrighteousness quietness and assurance for ever.

And my people shall dwell in ^a ¹⁸ peaceable habitation,

And in sure dwellings,
And in ⁱquiet resting places;

When ^yit shall hail, ^zcoming down ^{on} ^athe forest;

¹And the city shall be low in a low place.

Blessed ^{are} ^bye that sow beside all ²⁰ waters,

That ^csend forth thither the feet of ^dthe ox and the ass.

Woe to thee ^athat spoilest, and thou wast not spoiled;

And ^bdealest treacherously, and they dealt not treacherously with thee!

^cWhen thou shalt cease to spoil, thou shalt be spoiled;

And when thou shalt make an end to deal treacherously, they shall deal treacherously with thee.

O LORD, be gracious unto us; ^dwe ² have waited for thee:

^eBe thou their arm ^fevery morning,
Our salvation also in the time of trouble.

At the noise of the tumult the people ³ fled;

^gAt the lifting up of thyself the nations were scattered.

And ^ayour spoil shall be ^bgathered ⁴ like the gathering of ⁱthe caterpillar:

As the running to and fro of locusts shall he ^krun upon them.

¹The LORD is exalted; for he dwell- ⁵ eth on high:

He hath filled Zion with judgment and righteousness.

And wisdom and knowledge shall be ⁶

^mThe stability of thy times, and ⁿstrength of ⁱsalvation:

The fear of the LORD is his treasure.

Behold, their ¹valiant ones shall cry ⁷ without:

^oThe ambassadors of peace shall weep bitterly.

^pThe highways lie waste, the way- ⁸ faring man ceaseth:

He ^qhath broken the covenant,
^rHe hath despised the cities, he re- gardeth no man.

⁹ ^sThe earth mourneth and ^tlanguisheth:
^uLebanon is ashamed and ^vhewn down:

^uSharon is like a wilderness;

And ^vBashan and ^wCarmel ^wshake off their fruits.

Now will I be exalted;
Now will I lift up myself.

¹¹ ^yYe shall conceive ^zchaff, ^yye shall bring forth ^zstubble:

Your breath, as fire, shall devour you.

¹² And the people shall be as the burn- ings of lime:

^aAs thorns ^bcut up shall they be burnt in the fire.

¹³ Hear, ^cye that are far off, what I have done;

And ^cye that are near, acknowledge my might.

¹⁴ The sinners in Zion are afraid;
^dFearfulness hath surprised ^ethe hy- pocrites.

^fWho among us shall dwell with the devouring fire?

Who amongst us shall dwell with everlasting burnings?

¹⁵ ^gHe that walketh ⁱrighteously, and speaketh ⁱuprightly;

He that despiseth the gain of ^hop- pressions,

That shaketh his hands from holding of ⁱbribes,

That stoppeth his ears from hearing of ⁱblood,

And ^jshutteth his eyes from seeing evil;

¹⁶ ^kHe shall dwell on ⁱhigh:

His place of defence shall be the munitions of rocks:

Bread shall be given him; ⁱhis waters shall be sure.

¹⁷ Thine eyes shall see ^mthe king in his beauty:

They shall behold ⁱthe land that is very far off.

¹⁸ Thine heart shall meditate terror.

ⁿWhere is the scribe? where is the ⁱreceiver?

Where is he that counted the towers?

give ¹pledges, I pray thee, to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them. How⁹ then wilt thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and ^eput thy trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen? And am I¹⁰ now come up without the LORD against this land to destroy it? the LORD said unto me, Go up against this land, and destroy it.

Then said Eliakim and Shebna and¹¹ Joah unto Rabshakeh, Speak, I pray thee, unto thy servants in the Syrian language; for we understand it: and speak not to us in the Jews' language, in the ears of the people that are on the wall. But Rabshakeh said, Hath my¹² master sent me to thy master and to thee to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the men that sit upon the wall, that they may eat their own dung, and drink their own piss with you? Then Rabshakeh stood, and cried with¹³ a loud voice in the Jews' language, and said, Hear ye the words of ^dthe great king, the king of Assyria. Hath any of the gods of the nations delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria? Where¹⁹ are the gods of Hamath and Arphad? where are the gods of Sepharvaim? and have they delivered ¹Samaria out of my hand? Who are they amongst all the²⁰ gods of these lands, that have delivered their land out of my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand? But they held their peace,²¹ and answered him not a word: for the king's commandment was, saying, Answer him not. Then came Eliakim, the²²
